Whiggings.

Who's elected.

Snow in prospect.

Oh, Won't it be joyful?

I'm elected; Bill, let's smile over it.

Winter is at hand; remember the poor, including St. George's Cathedral.

Seven of the free and independent attended the William street polling place.

The Elocutionary Association is immortalized, and already excites interest.

A benighted Jury—The one that was lately locked up at the Sessions.

The Suez Quadrille is the latest sensation of the music of the day in London.

What has the people of Canada ever done that George F. Train's insane lectures should be inflicted upon them?

A young wife of seventeen in Chicago has got a divorce. She married a fellow who said he had $200,000, when he hadn't a cent. Besides that, he pinched her.

Good authority—Tom Ferguson on the Tavern License Question.

A Yankee dealer bought up all the geese, turkeys, and other poultry, on the market on Saturday, for New York. It is the foul-est proceeding we know of.

The policy of the present City Government is reduction of taxation, but the wholesale levy made on the Grove yesterday is not part of that policy, though a valuable assistance to it.

Blake introduced a Bill to make better provision for realizing the debts of deceased persons. Does it include dead beats?

Now that Christmas is at hand, parties having ornamental spruce trees in their gardens had better keep an eye on them.

One of the combination concerts is to be given partly for the benefit of St. George's Cathedral. Funds must be low indeed in that rich quarter. What next?

Election matters to run in people's heads just now, that a friend's salute to drink is simply "nominate your choice."

The present rush of prosperity in city funds received quite an impetus yesterday.

Skating in Navy Bay—patronized by the military.

Advice—The fact that nobody ever takes it, don't deter some people from giving advice; it is a piece of generosity of which they never tire.

The climax of caution has been reached: Fields, the Pennsylvania murderer, took a dose of vinegar and molasses to cure a sore throat half an hour before he was hung.

"Y's" letter is respectfully declined. Its title is the y'at thing in it.

The best way to avoid creditors is to walk on the shady side of the street in winter and on the sunny side in summer. An Ottawa editor has got a patent on it.

The taxes are not yet being paid in freely, and it is refreshing to the Chamberlain, no doubt, to receive the unexpected haul of yesterday morning.

The demand for yesterday's Whig has exhausted the supply. Therefore no students need apply.

If we hadn't known anything about it before, we could not long remain in ignorance of the fact that "Christmas is coming," with several hundred exchanges telling us of it every day. What would people do without the papers?

Some short-sighted individuals complain of the public press for what it says of them; they evidently do not realize how profound ought to be their obligations for what it doesn't say. This sage remark is capable of wide application.

George Francis Train.—It is a thousand pities that the great Fenian Orator does not intend to honor Kingston with a visit. Eggs are not very dear here, and we should like to invest a dollar in their purchase for his special benefit. Perhaps they are not very dear in the other cities that the impudent fellow may visit.

Dear Whig,—Can you inform me what races have been won by the schooner yacht "Merlin," advertized for sale in your paper.

Yours, &c.,

Inquirer.

Morals and Pies in New England.—At a recent meeting of the New England Society in New York, one of the objects was to make arrangements for the erection of a New England Hall (or Hell) in that city. The World sets forth the following as the disadvantages of the scheme, in consequence of the evil influence it would have upon the social elements of the Christian and religious city of New York. Sumptuary enactments take the first rank. Morals come next; including foticide, which the World says has been reduced to an art in Massachusetts and elsewhere in New England. Then there is hash (measely mutton, we suppose) fed upon which communities deteriorate morally and physically, while their home made pies (pumpkin et hoc genus) denaturalize whole districts, and their green pickles demoralize with the dyspepsia, whole States. If this picture is a true one, Lord protect us from a New England Society in Kingston.

Signs of a Mild Winter.—Not long since weather prophets assured us that the indications given by the habits of the wild animals gave evidence of a very severe winter. Now we read that an experienced trapper writes that the beavers have laid in very few winter stores, and that the signs to be drawn from the other wild animals, are such as to give assurance of a very mild winter. This is certainly very gratifying news, but would it not be well if the wild animals were more decisive in their habits, or the trappers more unanimous in their opinions.

Hints to Young Men.—The other day we published some original hints to young people who appear as public singers. The same courtesy is to be extended to public readers, but meanwhile we publish some hints in another column which may be of service to young gentlemen. We shall continue to exercise an interest in their success and good behaviour.

Passed Candidates.—The following cadets of the Kingston School of Military Instruction have been gazetted as having obtained certificates:—

FIRST CLASS.

City of Kingston—Thomas Rawson.
do do —Patrick Carroll.

SECOND CLASS.

City of Kingston—Henry G. Goodfellow. do do —Peter Lenes.
do do —Wm. H. V. Woods.

Audit of Public Accounts.—Thursday next is the day appointed for the Auditing of the Public Accounts of the County of Frontenac. We scarcely see the utility of auditing those accounts, for the Ontario Government won't pay them; at least the Treasurer, Mr. Wood, neglects to do so; for the money for the last accounts audited, has not yet come down to pay them!

Police Court, Monday.—The Court presented a lively appearance this morning, caused by the arrest of the keeper, inmates and frequenters of a house of ill-fame, situated in that classic locality known as the Grove. The police made a raid on Saturday night on the house of one Nancy Spence, better known as "Nancy Dunkin," and arrested Nancy and the following inmates and frequenters, viz., Mary Daly, Matilda Pratt, Elizabeth Bumharger and Thomas Moore, Lewis Brooks, John Rice, Isaac Oliver, James Dougherty, Michael McGinnis, Patrick McVey, Thomas Nicholson, John Sullivan, and Martin Kelly. Nancy was fined $10, and the others, with the exception of Matilda Pratt, who got into the scrape it appears innocently, were fined $5 each. All the parties forked over the thirty, and were liberated. James Hibbard was charged with using abusive language towards Alf. Tomkins in the public streets. The complaint was dismissed. Eliza Irwin, drag. was reprimanded and discharged.

Catarrh, a disease which distresses us and disgusts our friends, can be instantly relieved and quickly cured by using Dr. J. Briggs' Allevantor, an invaluable Remedy for all pain and inflammation. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Red River Relief.—It turns out that the Attorney-General of Ontario never sent the money voted by the Legislature for the relief of the Red River sufferers; and this is his reason, as stated by himself in the House the other day:—"When he was down in Nova Scotia, he met a Frenchman and spoke to him about the grant of $5,000 made by Ontario. The poor man, however, told him that he had never heard anything about it, and was just going to pay off a note which he had been forced to give for the food he had then bought. Warned by this experience, he had refrained from sending anything to Red River until he heard an account of what had been done with the sum only previously subscribed. He was afterwards glad that he not not sent the money, because he believed now that the sufferings there had been much exaggerated."

Consumptives, try Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. It will relieve and cure you. For all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, nothing can surpass its beneficial effects. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

A New English Morning Journal.—A London Correspondent announces a forthcoming and interesting event in the history of English journalism. The Pall Mall Gazette, an evening paper of generally Liberal politics, but conducted with the most complete independence of party, and distinguished literary ability, is about to publish a morning addition, at two-pence; one penny less than the present price of the Times; which it is to equal in point of size. Hitherto there has been no London morning newspaper occupying an intermediate position between what is now thought a high price or the penny papers. The probability of a twopenny one according, has long been a subject of discussion among English journalists.

Dr. Briggs took of every substance known
That ever healed, or stilled a groan,
And soon composed by skill alone,
His own unrivalled Curative.

The people said, at last was found
A cure for every sore or wound;
They have used it, and were whole and sound
And all their pain has left them.

Afflicted with corns, bunions, or bruise,
Thousands of sufferers heard the news,
The thing was found that met their views
They bought and used the Curative.

No sooner was the sore part dressed,
The pain was eased that spoiled their rest!
With tears of gratitude they blest
The man who made the Curative.

All signs of soreness soon went by,
Whether in hand, or foot, or eye,
Let every sufferer likewise try
Dr. Briggs' Modern Curative.

Briggs' Curative the only reliable and most effectious Remedy for the cure of Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, &c. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants generally. Dr J. Briggs & Co., Proprietors. Offices 208 Broadway, New York, and No. 6 King St. West, Toronto Canada.

REPLY.

To the Independent Electors of Victoria Ward:

GENTLEMEN,—I have received your Requisition, respectfully signed by a goodly number of Electors of Victoria Ward, desiring that I should offer myself as a Candidate at the coming Election to fill the place of A. M. Brown, Esquire, who retires by term of service.

In acceding to your request, I must thank the Electors for such a hearty expression of confidence. It is more to be valued than the honor attached to the office, which I do not undervalue. In the event of being elected, I promise to do my duty by constant attendance at the meetings of the Council, and by always using my best judgment in such matters as may come before me.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours truly,
A. McCORMACK.

A REPOSITORY OF FASHION, PLEASURE AND INSTRUCTION.

Harper's Bazar.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight, and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate.

Harper's Bazar contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is the largest weekly

Critical Notices of the Press.

Harper's Bazar contains, besides pictorial patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young lady who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can but profit by its good sense and taste, which we have no doubt, are to-day making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation.

It has the merit of being sensible, of conveying instruction, of giving excellent patterns in every department, and of being well stocked with good reading matter.—Watchman and Reflector.

SUBSCRIPTIONS.—1870.

TERMS:

Harper's Bazar, one year..... $4 00

An Extra Copy of either the Magazine, Weekly, or Bazar will be supplied gratis for every Club of Five Subscribers at $4 00 each, in one remittance, or, Six Copies for $20 00, without extra copy.

Subscriptions to Harper's Magazine, Weekly and Bazar, to one address for one year, $10 00 or, two of Harper's Periodicals, to one address for one year, $7 00.

Back numbers can be supplied at any time.

Volumes I. and II. of Harper's Bazar, for the years 1868-9, elegantly bound in green morocco cloth, will be sent by express, freight prepaid, for $7 00 each.

The postage on Harper's Bazar is 20 cents a year, which must be paid at the subscriber's post-office.

"Unquestionable the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

Harper's Magazine, apart from the illustrations, contains from fifty to one hundred per cent. more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.

Critical Notices of the Press.

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of Harper's Magazine—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading-matter, appropriately illustrated with good woodcuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—Tuckerman's Guide to American Literature, London.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of Harper's. * * * All the periodicals which the Harpers publish are almost ideally well edited.—The Nation, N. Y.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!

THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.

It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.

If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
If you are afflicted with RHEUMATISM, use A. A. A.
If you are attacked by DIPTHERIA, use A. A. A.
If you have been BURNT, or SCALDED, or STUNG, or FROST BITTEN BRUISED, use A. A. A.
If you have CHILBLAINS on your feet or hands, use A. A. A.
If you are troubled with DIARRHŒA, or COLIC, or CRAMPS IN THE STOMACH, use A. A. A.
If you suffer from any painful affection in any part of the body, internal or external, use ARNOT'S ARNICA ANODYNE, and you will not be disappointed.
