Whiggings.

Dull.

Dismal.

Unpeitable.

The weather we mean.

Who's who in Victoria Ward?

Electors of Victoria Ward canvassed to death.

Yesterday was the shortest day of all the round year.

What's in a name?—ask the Kingston Musical Union.

The R. C. R's were out again yesterday. Healthful.

There is lack in odd numbers. Words Nos 1 and 7 revel in excitement just now, while the others are quiet.

The Ottawa Times, with commendable courtesy, calls the insurgent leader, "Mr. Rell." That is real politeness.

The export of sheep still goes on to Cape Vincent.

All the capital a young man requires to open a jewellery shop is a crowbar.

A two-cent clay pipe formed the subject of a Buffalo law suit the other day. The case ended in smoke.

The rotten egg brigade should hold themselves in readiness to act as railway officials as they will probably be required as brakesmen on the coming Train.

Did anybody ever know one woman to pass another on the street without looking back to see how her dress hung?

The turkey trade is becoming more active as Christmas draws near. Many a fat gobbler will come to a sudden end this week.

The owner of the dilapidated stone building on Princess Street after calmly watching and minutely calculating the effect of age on the property, has concluded to anticipate the final collapse by removing the building himself. Pedestrians breath freely again.

A swell says that lots of good looking girls go to market now-a-days, the better quality for wives. In that case they won't be on the market long.

The "Prince Arthur mixture" is a new and popular kind of tobacco, which makes Arthur ever so proud.

George Francis Train made his 2721 lecture in his course of 600, at the Cooper Institute, New York, on Sunday evening. Subject: "The Old Fogies of the Bible." The moral lecturer expects Canadians to lionize him after that.

The Radicals dub New York city, New Cork, because it is ruled by the Irish.

The lady who sent a druggist a written order for "O Dick alone," did not secure Richard, but a well known perfumery.

The Rev. Wm. Stephenson and Rev. W. M. Pandeon have become Oddfellows. Indeed they were old fellows before, as it would be difficult to match them.

Garden Island was in a fashionable flutter on Monday. Mr. G. W. H. Comor carried off one of its fair belles, amid the good wishes and congratulations of the community. The Island Band serenaded the happy party, and the steamboat and other bells of the Island rang out a merry peal immediately after the ceremony. We may be permitted to express thanks, after the manner of American locals, for the favor of a piece of the wedding cake.

City Council.—That "Kilkenny ill and ta-ta blows nobody good" need not be still further illustrated, only to prevent one striking example. On Monday Aldermen de facto were out assisting the new aspirants for municipal honors in Cataraqui and Victoria Wards, and perhaps, at the same time, invoking health and success on the five aldermen whose constituents did en bloc transfer by making each of them a unanimous choice. Consequently the City Council was forsaken; only seven of the faithful appeared at eight o'clock, and after the Clerk called the roll and adjourned the meeting for want of a quorum. The public, the press, and the members themselves, were thus by a very trifling wind spared an infliction!

Wild Cherry Balsam.—The memory of Dr. Wistar is embalmed in the hearts of thousands whom his Balsam of Wild Cherry has cured of coughs, colds, consumption, or some other form of Pulmonary disease. It is now over forty years since this preparation was brought before the public, and yet the demand for it is constantly increasing.

Glad to Hear It.—Recent advices from England state that the Lieutenant-General commanding the troops in the Dominion, has strongly protested against the disbandment of the Royal Canadian Rifles.

Further, not so pleasant though, the war office authorities have finally decided to abolish the ranks of sergeant and corporal, and that the change will go into effect next year.

Police Court, Tuesday.—Before John Creighton, Esq., P. M.—After a relief there is always a storm, as the old adage runs. This morning there was rather a slim docket. John Lewis charged William Graham his stepson, and Mary Jane Lewis, his (Lewis') wife, with an assault. The charge against Mrs. Lewis was not pressed and she was discharged. The magistrate, however, inflicted a fine of $1 or 30 days on Graham. Not having the required amount of the needful conveniently at hand he was consigned to spend the Christmas holidays with Governor Corbett, who, no doubt, will administer to his wants. Eliza Irwin, one of the unfortunates, was charged with drunkenness and vagrancy. Yesterday the magistrate allowed her to depart with a reprimand, but it seems it had little effect upon her, as she turned upgain this morning. There was no alternative but to commit her for 30 days. Byron Brown (a poetic name) a sailor, was charged with being drunk. He acknowledged the soft soap and was fined $2.

Catarrh, a disease which disfigures us and disgusts our friends, can be speedily relieved and quickly cured by using Dr. J. Briggs' Alleviator, an invaluable Remedy for all pain and inflammation. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Consumptives, try Dr. J. Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer. It will relieve and cure you. For all diseases of the Throat, Chest, and Lungs, nothing can surpass its beneficial effects. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Fusio Hit Match.—In a court of quarter sessions, a petty case was being tried. A well-known criminal lawyer, who prides himself upon his skill in cross-examining a witness, had an odd-looking prisoner upon whom to operate. The witness was a master shoemaker. "You say, sir, that the prisoner is a thief?" "Yes, sir, I can tell why, she confessed to me." "And you also swear that she bound herself to you subsequent to the confession?" "I do, sir." "Then (giving a suggestive look to the court) we are to understand that you employ dishonest people to work for you, even after their transgressions are known?" "Of course, how else could I get assistance from a lawyer?"—There were roars of laughter, as the witness slipped off the stand with all the gravity of a fashionable undertaker.

Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, &c., are positively cured by the use of Dr. J. Briggs' Medicated Cerate. This remedy has been compounded with great care, and, unlike nostrums, never fails. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

GENTLEMEN,—I have received your Requisition, respectfully signed by a goodly number of Electors of Victoria Ward, desiring that I should offer myself as a Candidate at the coming Election to fill the place of A. M. Brown, Esquire, who retires by term of service.

In acceding to your request, I must thank the Electors for such a hearty expression of confidence. It is more to be valued than the honor attached to the office, which I do not undervalue. In the event of being elected, I promise to do my duty by constant attendance at the meetings of the Council, and by always using my best judgment in such matters as may come before me.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours truly,

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!

THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for

NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in the immediate vicinity, as well as everywhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and the remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely subdued after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that it does not give no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.
