SATURDAY MORNING, DEC. 25, 1869.

Whiggings.

Merry Christmas to all!

All the compliments of the season, what ever they are.

Seasonable dough-nation—giving a barrel of flour to the pastor.

One of the ills that flesh isn't heir to—Baldness.

A little shaver—is a barber's boy.

A vegetable trick—throw up a pumpkin and it will come down a squash.

Wanted a lid for a Christmas box.

The rink fever has subsided considerably—even since last season—skating is an old story and not so popular as in winters agone.

What medicine does a man take when he has a cross wife?—Elexir.

Boys will be boys—this is nonsense. Boys will be men—if they live long enough.

About one o'clock this morning, several benzine caskswent home singing, "We won't go home till morning." No more they didn't.

Designs wanted for—a set of artificial teeth for the mouth of the Catanaqui.

A saddle for a night-mare.

A steam-saw to cut sun-beams.

An immense pen to rule railway lines.

A kid glove for a hand at whist.

A bridle for a clother-horse.

A cork for a bottle-jack.

A new mattress for the bed of the St. Lawrence.

They say that women caused man to commit his first sin. But if she hadn't induced him to sit in eating, no doubt he would very soon have sinned of his own accord in drinking.

A physician says that roast beef, serenity of mind, cold-water baths, and an animated and pretty wife, would make almost any man healthy, wealthy and wise. The doctor understands his profession.

When the city Benevolent Societies raised the Christmas cheer for the poor yesterday was there much of a noise.

The "champion" lazy man does all his reading in autumn, because the season turns the leaves.

Query—May the new life-preservers invented by a New York man be safely adopted in the case of the city sinking fund, for instance?

The new fashioned Alpine hats worn by our fashionable belles, are just about the most jaunty, stylish, and becoming little affaire introduced for a long time.

If a man purchase the Pickwick pens, does he have the Dickens to pay? And if he buys the Waverly, does he get them Soot free?

The Esquimaux say: "A man who has three wives in this world is sure of heaven in the next." He ought to find peace somewhere.

A Hottentot got up a painting of heaven. It was inclosed within a fence made of sausages, while the counter was occupied with a fountain playing pot-pie.

The style of dressing the hair now in vogue among the ladies is not liked by a bachelor, who says 'it interferes with the pre-empted rights of a fellow's arm."

The club lectures and arguments of the Royal Elocutionary Association are as grave as the decisions of a monkey on metaphysics.

So many people in the streets, and so much shopping; everybody so busy.

Country newspapers are in for a holiday, and there will be no publications next week, for which the subscribers, no doubt, are truly thankful.

What shall I buy? was the general remark yesterday. People were as much puzzled as if John Sandfield and George Brown had embraced each other.

Plenty of Christmas stuff in the market yesterday—turkeys and fat poultry generally in good abundance. While in the afternoon any number of "clocks," with plenty of "choosing," could be seen on the popular side of Princess Street.

A Christmas Dinner.—Preparations have been made by Dr. Dickson, the Medical Superintendent, to give the usual Christmas dinner to the inmates of Rockwood Lunatic Asylum. Liberal supplies of turkeys, geese and poultry have been purchased to constitute the fare whereunto the afflicted patients will be regaled.

Another Old Inhabitant Gone.—As Mr. Wm. Macado, Sen., of the township of Pittsburgh, was coming to town in a buggy on Friday morning last, in company with his neighbor, Mr. Alex. Vanhorn, about three miles from his home, although previously in excellent health and spirits for his great age, he was taken suddenly unwell and could not speak. Mr. Alex. Vanhorn immediately drove back, and just as he got home, the old man died. He was of the full age of eighty-seven, and had for thirty years been a respected inhabitant of the Township.

Christmas Market.—On yesterday morning there was another exhibition of what Kingston can produce in the way of a Christmas market. The display of beef, mutton, and pork as well as poultry, on the market was highly creditable to the farmers of the country, and the collection in the butchers' stalls a fair exhibition of the enterprise of that class. The display of the two last days, to which we have before alluded, we can safely challenge any place in the province to excel, in quantity or quality.

Police Court, Friday.

William Leferre, a young Frenchman, and a discharged convict from the Penitentiary, was charged with stealing a number of uppers, the property of Geo. Offord & Co., boot and shoe contractors in the Penitentiary. It appears that Detective Macaulay received information a few days ago from a discharged convict, that the prisoner would be released in a few days, and that he intended to take with him a number of uppers, the property of Offord & Co. The detective acted on this information and when the fellow was discharged he kept a close eye on him. He found out his quarters, and went at once and examined his trunk, where the property above mentioned was found. The prisoner was then taken into custody, and appeared this morning before Mr. Creighton. Mr. Offord was present at the suggestion of the Magistrate, and the prisoner was remanded for eight days in order to give the authorities an opportunity of finding out more about the matter. There is no doubt but that a systematic plan exists amongst the convicts for the purpose of robbing the contractors in the Penitentiary, and it is time that a stop was put to it. A thorough investigation will be made into this case on the return of Mr. Ferres, the Warden.

A cabman named Jason Park was charged with over-charging a stranger whom he brought up from the railway depot on Thursday evening. He also disappointed the gentleman in not calling for him this morning in time for the Cape Vincent steamer. The Magistrate ordered poor "cabby" to refund the money paid him as some compensation to the gentleman for the disappointment. This cabman, it appears, has not taken out his license, and the Magistrate ordered him to do so at once. There were no 'drunks' or 'vags' for a wonder.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne! THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for

NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.

It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.

If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
If you are afflicted with RHEUMATISM, use A. A. A.
If you are attacked by DIPTHERIA, use A. A. A.
