

Public school board honours excellent students

• Stephen Pozios, Falgarwood: Stephen exemplifies commitment and leadership at Falgarwood. His friendly disposition and academic achievements have earned him the honour of being named the school's student of excellence. Stephen is actively engaged in a variety of clubs that promote inclusivity and dedication to making the world a better place. His athletic perseverance enhances the school's basketball, cross-country and volleyball teams. Stephen is also interested in the arts and has been part of several school bands and performances at Creating a Scene. Stephen is a great student role model at Falgarwood.

• Jasmine Brioux, Forest Trail: Jasmine is a Grade 8 student who demonstrates outstanding qualities in the following areas: academic achievement, self-improvement, community work, citizenship and student leadership. Jasmine's involvement in such activities as dance team, flute choir, band, athletic council, French helpers and writer's club has allowed her to develop these qualities and share her enthusiasm and positive attitude with others.

• Brandon Erickson, Gladys Speers: Brandon is a hard-working student who excels academically; he is also an honest, helpful, and caring student with excellent citizenship values. Outside the classroom,

Brandon has shown his enthusiasm and leadership skills in a wide array of activities; from being a member of the junior volleyball team, to recently being a Think Bowl participant and a member of P.R.O.P.S., a group of junior student-leaders who run games for younger students at recess to keep them engaged in positive play.

• Alexandra Cox, Heritage Glen: A leader in all areas of school life, Allie consistently goes above and beyond what is expected and has a kind and generous spirit and heart. Her academic achievements and contributions to the Heritage Glen Student Council have been outstanding. Allie sets high goals for herself and is always respectful to teachers, friends and other students.

• Kanika Bhasin, James W. Hill: Kanika is an enthusiastic and well-rounded student. She strives each day to work towards achieving her learning goals, as well as, participating in many extracurricular events. In addition to maintaining honour roll status, she holds the Executive Student Parliament position of Minister of Finance. Kanika is active in all areas of school life participating in the Me to We Club, jazz and concert bands, flute and clarinet ensemble, Spring Dance Troupe, and popcorn sales. She demonstrates strong leadership in her role as a TRIBES leader and a Grade 6/7 Band Helper.

• Ella Rasmussen, Joshua Creek: Ella is a conscientious, highly creative student who strives for excellence in academics as well as extracurricular activities. She pursues her passion for music as a key member of concert band, jazz band, and the school musical. In the community, she is an integral member of a local band. As a member of the Halton Skills gold medal team and provincial competitor in the annual FLL robotics challenge, Ella is highly interested in the real-life application of science and mathematics.
