Whiggings.

Christmas is over, and who can say that it has not been an enjoyable time.

Multum in parvo must be the motto in news departments to-day.

Merry Christmas was very heartily observed on Saturday; certain it is that it has lost none of its traditional and time-honored distinction.

The morals of the city are like some municipal candidates virtue just now, at a high flood.

The weather on Christmas was charmingly mild and pleasant, and seemed to impress the Christian idea of Christmas, "Peace on earth, and good will to men," —the sentiment which prevails universally at this season.

The sale of gate No. 3 on the Kingston and Phillipsville road will come off on Friday next.

White washing is conducive to cleanliness, and consequently to health. Therefore can it be said that a celebrated artist in town is a Fountain of health?

A second annual Printers' Festival is talked of; last year's was such a success as to give good encouragement for another.

The festivities of the season have set in with vigor. At an hotel up town, being fond of amusement, they give fish balls regularly.

Cool, even for the season—asking a friend for the loan of his skates, to be returned in the Spring.

Gold is said to have been discovered in Lapland. Any one that wants to buy a claim should not delay a moment, as the report may be denied in a week.

Why does the conductor of Musical Union Rehearsals resemble the electric cable telegraph? Because he beats time.

A woman in Chicago recently seized a man, and, before he could secure assistance, brutally married him.

The St. George's Society of Belleville did a noble work on Friday in the distribution of Christmas cheer among the poor. Twenty-four families were supplied with quantities of meat, flour and necessaries of groceries and clothing. The Intelligencer office came in for a share.

Geo. Francis Train is expected to lecture in the St. Patrick's Hall, Montreal, sometime between the 7th and 12th January. It is hinted that tar-dy justice will be administered with feathers ere he leaves Canada.

CHRISTMAS SERVICES.—The Christmas Services at St. Mary's Cathedral and St. George's and the other Anglican places of worship, were large'y attended on Saturday morning. The various ministers and choirs put forth their best efforts to do honor to the greatest of Festivals. The churches were adorned with evergreens, and in every manner was outwardly expressed the peace, joy and good will which should, and we would fain say did, sustain every voice and action. The offertories, we are pleased to learn, were very large, and showed a most gratifying evidence of the appreciation of the labors of the pastors, as well as their result in the spreading of christian charity and benevolence. Sunday also was the occasion of much ceremony, which identifies this festive season with the church.

The Lord Bishop of Ontario preached in St. Paul's Church on Sunday evening. The edifice was crowded beyond anything ever witnessed at the usually well attended and popular services of St. Paul's. The interior was profusely and tastefully decorated with evergreens for Christmas, which lent a picturesque aspect to the neat little church. His Lordship's eloquent, effective and appropriate discourse was listened to with the attention and avidity which always mark his Lordship's preaching.

PETTY THEFT.—"A subscriber" writes from Loughboro', to put farmers on their guard against carelessly exposing their goods and purchases in their sleighs as they are returning home. "Subscriber," it appears, was in the city on Thursday, making his Christmas purchases, including the materials for Saturday's dinner, and before leaving town tied two expensive parcels (perhaps the materials aforesaid) in a bag, and threw the latter at the bottom of the sleigh behind him. As he drove out towards Ward's tavern, two or three persons jumped on the sleigh, but he neither felt interested in their movements, nor noticed their jumping off. But this he did discover as soon as he got home, that his parcels were gone along with the rascally fellows. He did not leave the sleigh himself, and no one else got on; so that his suspicions are clearly established.

ANOTHER SUDDEN DEATH.—Death has been making sad havoc amongst the old residents of Kingston. We are called upon to-day to announce the sudden death of Mr. Robert Hanley, a very old and well-known resident of this city, after only a few days illness. The deceased was a native of the County Wexford, Ireland, and was aged about seventy five years.

HEAVY CLAIM.—Mr. Connolly, who won the great law suit in the Court in Montreal a short time ago, is in town, and staying at the British American Hotel. We understand that he is about laying claim to a lot of valuable property in Kingston, together with some 2,500 acres in the County—a good prospect for the lawyers. We understand that Mr. James O'Reilly, Q.C., and Mr. Kirkpatrick have been retained by Mr. Connolly to prosecute his claims.

DEFINITE.—Mr. Ald. Tunkins has positively declined to be a candidate for the Mayoralty for the ensuing year. This will relieve the minds of a great many anxious friends.

ANOTHER HORSE STOLEN.—The following telegram was received by the police authorities from Belleville yesterday morning:

"Belleville, Dec. 27.

"Twenty dollars reward—Stop horse stolen from Thurlow this morning. Dark bay mare, six years old—between 16 and 17 hands high, crack in left hind foot, between hair and hoof—carries head high.

"A DIAMOND."

THE LATE MR. MACADON.—The remains of the late Mr. William Macadon were consigned to their last resting place, Cataraqui Cemetery, yesterday, followed by a long line of sleighs and carriages, there being over a hundred in the procession. This shewed how highly the deceased was esteemed.

FIRE.—About 7 o'clock on Saturday evening the chimney of Mrs. Noble, living in the basement of the city buildings, was discovered to be on fire. As it did not seem to subside after an hour's fury spent, the police, in company with Mr. Lanigan, caretaker of the building, made a survey in the main passage of the Ontario Hall and Orange Lodge Room. On proceeding from the former up stairs to the lodge room they were somewhat astonished to see the flames ushering from the pipe hole to the ceiling. As the building was in great danger of being fired a prompt application of water was immediately made, which, with a little exertion on the part of the men proved a sufficient barrier to what would, had it not been effected at the time it was, have proved a disastrous conflagration.

POLICE COURT, Monday.—There was a blank docket this morning, a fact worthy of remark at this particular time. It speaks well for the morals of the city, and reflects credit on our excellent police force. Kingston is certainly a model city, and we hope it may continue to deserve its fair fame.

AFTERNOON SESSION.—Jas. Loughran, M. Garvin, T. Enright and J. Quigley, were charged with being disorderly on Princess Street on Saturday night. The prisoners begged to be let off considering it was Christmas time. But the Magistrate could not see it in that light, and inflicted a fine of $2 on each, in order to teach the parties that it was not lawful for them to make blackguards of themselves. An unfortunate young woman with two fine children was charged with vagrancy. The Magistrate took pity on the poor unfortunate creature, and allowed her to go her way, contributing to her expenses out of his own private purse. Richard Derry was charged with being drunk. He was allowed to depart with a reprimand. He presented rather a "battered" appearance.

TURKEY AND EGYPT.—The "Eastern Question" seems to be ever and anon looming in the distance, and the present difficulty between the Sultan of Turkey and his quasi-vassal, the Khedive of Egypt, may again bring it prominently forward. The Khedive came to have exclusive control over the Egyptian finances—a position which his master does not seem disposed to allow. Egypt has been purchasing arms and vessels of war, and if it were not that the general policy of Europe is just now a peaceful one, it would seem not unlikely that the spark of war might be lighted, and its fires spread—the more so as it would probably not fail to be fanned by Russia.

Tkthology—By Josh Billings.

THE CODFISH.

The codfish iz a child ov the ocean. This akounts for their being so salt.

They are caught with a hook and line, and bite like a steel trap, and hang on like a poor relation.

They are good eating for a wet day; they are better than an umbrelly to keep a man dry.

Dried codfish iz one of the luxeries ov life; but codfish three times a day would weaken my confidence in them.

Codfish never venture into fresh water; they would spile it if they did.

I have never been codfishing myself, but think I should like it better than fishing for frogs.

I think I should ketch frogs well enough, but should insist upon their taking themselves off the hook.

I had rather take a boss bumble bee in hand than a live frog, not because I am afraid the frog would bite, but I am afraid ov their kicking.

Sum people aint afraid to take anything with their hands that they can reach, not even an eel, but if I should git caught by an eel, if I couldn't settle with him right off by giving him the hook and line, I would throw the pole into the burgain and put for home.

The codfish iz said to be a aristokrat, and to keep aloof from other fish ov his size in the sea, and claims to be a relation ov the wales; but this looks to be rather fishy.

I have noticed that the codfish sleighs has a stiff upper lip; but I think this iz more owing to the tone that it iz in him than it iz to the blood.

THE MACKREL.

The mackrel iz a game fish. They ought to be well educated, for they are always in skools.

They are very easy to bite, and are caught with a piece of flannel petticoat tied onto a hook.

They are not the only kind ov fish that are caught by the same hair.

Mackrel inhabits the sea, but those that inhabit the groceries always taste to me az though they had been born and fatted on salt.

They want a good deal of freshing before they are eaten, and want a good deal ov freshing after wurd.

If I kan have plenty ov mackrel for breakfast, I kan generally make my other two meals out ov cold water.

Mackrel are konsidered by many people the best fish that swims, and the called "the salt ov the earth."

Ah me! I heed not as the passers by
Mark my pale cheek and sunken eye;
I feel no joy, as the golden ray
Of the glorious sun lights up the day!

My dear sick friend, to restore to your cheek
It's healthy rose color, Briggs' Lung Healer seek;
Use as directed, and soon you will see
From Consumption, Bronchitis, you are entirely free.

Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants Dr. J. Briggs & Co., Proprietors, 208 Broadway, N. Y., and No. 4 King St. West, Toronto.

For twenty-four years has Dr. Briggs' skill Relieved much pain; and thousands suffer still. His skilful hands have eased the twinging pain, Restored the foot to shape and health again. His Curative ten thousand have applied. Who now pronounce the name of Briggs' with pride. He sees, with deep delight, in my face, That he has proved a blessing to his race! All he asks, is but to follow out The course assigned by Providential will; "The laborer is worthy of his hire;" A living price is all he would desire; And all who choose to profit by this art, Will find him master over every part.

Dr. J. Briggs' Pile Remedy is acknowledged by all who have tried it (and their name is Legion) to be the best, most successful and efficacious Remedy ever used for that disease. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Catarrh, a disease which distresses us and disgusts our friends, can be instantly relieved and quickly cured by using Dr. J. Briggs' Allevantor, an invaluable Remedy for all pain and inflammation. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

It has been common of late to insist that the vice of drunkenness has been on the increase in Great Britain. A parliamentary return of the exact quantity of spirits consumed in the year 1868 proves to the contrary. In 1866 the total consumption was 30,014,860 gallons; in 1868 only 29,467,460 gallons. So that, notwithstanding the increase of population in these two years there were 607,080 gallons less drunk in 1868 than in 1866, and consequently there must have been proportionately less drunkenness.

Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, &c., are positively cured by the use of Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative. This remedy has been compounded with great care, and, used as directed, never fails. Sold by E. H. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!
THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.

It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.
