WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 22, 1869.

Whiggings.

Napoleon is averse to poetry.

The people in Hayti are fighting like sixty.

Providence revived Vinegarine to develop its salves.

Next year will have fifty-three Sundays. It needs to be laid good out of Sunday.

Pickwick's fat boy has a descendant in London who weighs 710 pounds.

At the pastry cook's ball in New York last week, a good many of the upper crust attended.

Napoleon is spending a great deal of money this winter on fêtes and balls. Entertaining a keen perception of the future Nap. is evidently going it while he was.

When the city was enveloped in a fog on Monday, what was its address?

It is suggested that the barbers could dispense with the use of gas in the shambles by keeping a larger supply of lights on hand.

A convent is compared to an empty house, simply because it is a non-inhabited place.

There was an attempt at a runaway yesterday. For full particulars see the Evening News.

We see it announced on what seems to be good authority, that when a very wicked man dies in New York, his soul goes to Chicago.

The bona fide advertisement of a dog fancier in a New Orleans paper contains this suggestive announcement: "Puppies furnished for sausage, blood-pudding, &c., &c.

An absconding wife is thus pathetically appealed to in a New York personal column: "Jane, your absence will rate all. Think of your children, your parents, your husband. Return, return; all may be well. At any rate, enclose the key of the cupboard where the gin is."

This peculiar season is making a spring in some direction. We are either now receiving an unpaid dividend on last spring's stock book, or we are obtaining an instalment in advance of next year's. Which is it?

Ald. Tomphinsetten. The Robinson may now again settle down in the Mare (Mayor's) nest.

Ald. T. must still remain a clocking hen.

Jack Frost is giving us a benefit for the Christmas holidays.

An artist who, for a long time, has been on the look out for the model of a monumental picture of patience, has at length found it in an ex-Mayor's horse.

While we in Canada are sweltering the continued rain the people of Spain are calling out for reign at any sacrifice "Rain, Rain, go to Spain," vide nursery rhyme.

A constant attendant at the public readings in William Street Hall says very maliciously that there are more cents parted with when the plate goes around, than there is on the platform.

We stated the other day the meanest man extant lived in Belleville, and that he stole crape from door knobs. We have since learned that he is an old attache of the Intelligencer office, but was bowelled out for inefficient meanness. As in this line he could not pretend to keep up with the other hands, he became resigned to his fate, and accepted the next meanest employment in the town, crape snatching.

CRITICAL STRIKING FISH.—Our Contemporary, the Daily News, has reduced its price from $6 a year to $5. Considering that in Montreal the Daily Newspapers are published at $8 a year, this paling down of prices in Kingston does not look well. Nevertheless, every newspaper is the best judge of its own value.

THE LADIES BENEVOLENT SOCIETY'S SOIREE.—The very mention of this charitable Soiree is sufficient to call forth interested enquiries as to time and place, and to set young hearts in a flutter. Of all entertainments, this well managed one is yearly the very last to be neglected and overlooked. On next Tuesday evening therefore we look for a large and brilliant assemblage in Ontario Hall, to do honor to the ladies of the Society their praiseworthy object, and to mingle in the enjoyment of the most pleasant gathering of the season.

Thousands have been changed by the use of the Peruvian Syrup (a protoxide of Iron) from weak, sickly, suffering creatures to strong, healthy and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial. For Dyspepsia and Debility it is a specific.

LINDSAY CATHOLIC SCHOOL HOUSE.—The ladies of Lindsay are organizing a Bazaar to assist in paying off the outstanding debt on the new Catholic School House of that district. The sum of $3,500 has already been paid thereon, $1,500 is still owing, and the Bazaar, aided by a Prize Drawing which the Trustees are getting up will, it is hoped, raise funds sufficient to meet the debt which falls due in March next. The objects for the Prize Drawing are estimated at $500, of which $100 are a gift from Protestants, who have in that matter generously co-operated with their Catholic fellow-citizens. The Bazaar will be held on the 8th, 9th and 10th March. The Premier, Sir John A. Macdonald, has kindly given the ladies a handsome donation.

THOS. DONNELLY, Esq.—Picton has scarcely recovered from the regret which followed the deaths of the well-known and lamented public men, Sheriff Thorp and Dr. Moore, than she is again called on to mourn the death of an estimable citizen, Thos. Donnelly. Mr. Donnelly died in his 55th year, on Thursday last, from the effects of a severe cold contracted a few days previously. He was a prominent man in the community, his able and ready speech giving him prominence on all public occasions. The brethren of the Press will mourn the loss of a brother chip, for Mr. Donnelly's literary success on the Picton Gazette cannot readily be forgotten.

FUN AND DRAMATICS.—Last evening Mr. Stone's Burlesque Troupe of Farce, Comedy and Burlesque Pantomime artists, made their debut in Kingston, at the Opera Hall, and entertained their audience amazingly well. The troupe came from Montreal, well manipulated. This evening they give their last performance here, and all lovers of mirth and enjoyment should not neglect this opportunity at such a festive season.

POLICE COURT, Tuesday.—Before John Creighton, Esq., P. M. Jane Miller, a colored woman, was charged with being disorderly and keeping a disorderly house. This woman is the mother of seven children, their ages varying from three to seventeen years. The magistrate discharged her on condition that she would leave town to-morrow for the flourishing town of Prescott. The police were ordered to see her off to-morrow. We congratulate the citizens of old Prescott on this acquisition to their population. There is now for plenty more of such cattle. Ellen Green, "esq." was fined $5 or 60 days. She went to being insolvent. George Power, charged with drunkenness. He was discharged. Mary J. Smith charged with drunkenness and vagrancy. The magistrate sent her up to the stone house for 60 days.

China.

DESTRUCTION OF MISSIONARY HOUSES.

The Protestant and Catholic Mission Houses at Nanking had been totally destroyed by a mob. The inmates had escaped with their lives.

It was rumored that China had made large concessions of territory on the northwest, to Russia.

The reception of the Duke of Edinburgh and the fashionable banquet of Admiral Keppel, were the principal events at Hong Kong. The Prince was received with great honor at Macao, and afterwards sailed for Calcutta.

The Poet, Priest, Philosopher and sage, All turn with rapture to the Golden Age. For, in that happy period they find Instruction and delight for all mankind. The human race were happier in its season They lived according to Dixon Barnes's law. Their wants were few and easily supplied, Their food and drink were found on every side; Their clothing did not know the tailor's art, It did not bind the lungs or crowd the heart. Their walk was graceful, free and unconstrained, For not a foot, I all that race was pained With Gem or Boston (dreadful modern ills), With sandals shod, they scaled the steepest hills, Or roamed the plains, by happiness possessed, No aches or pain destroyed their peaceful rest.

"Unquestionable the best sustained Work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S MAGAZINE.

HARPER'S MAGAZINE, apart from the illustrations, contains from fifty to one hundred per cent. more matter than any similar periodical issued in the English language.

CRITICAL NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The most popular Monthly in the world.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellences of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 120,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the culture of the American people; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each Number contains fully 144 pages of reading-matter, appropriately illustrated with good woodcuts; and it combines in itself the racy monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily journal. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—THURBER'S Guide to American Literature, London.

It is one of the wonders of journalism—the editorial management of HARPER'S. * * * All the periodicals which the Harpers publish are almost ideally well edited.—The Nation, N. Y.

We can account for its success only by the simple fact that it meets precisely the popular taste, furnishing a variety of pleasing and instructive reading for all.—Zion's Herald, Boston.

The Model Newspaper of our country. Complete in all the departments of an American Family Paper, Harper's Weekly has earned for itself a right to its title, "A Journal of Civilization."—New York Evening Post.

Harper's Weekly may be unreservedly declared the best newspaper in America.—N. Y. Independent.

The articles upon public questions which appear in Harper's Weekly from week to week form a remarkable series of brief political essays. They are distinguished by clear and pointed statement, by good commonsense, by independence and breadth of view. They are the expression of mature conviction, high principle, and a strong feeling and take their place among the best newspaper writing of the time.—North American Review, Boston, Mass.

Harper's Bazar.

A supplement containing numerous full-sized patterns of useful articles accompanies the paper every fortnight, and occasionally an elegant Colored Fashion Plate.

HARPER'S BAZAR contains 16 folio pages of the size of Harper's Weekly, printed on superfine calendered paper, and is the largest weekly

Critical Notices of the Press.

HARPER'S BAZAR contains, besides pictures, patterns, etc., a variety of matter of especial use and interest to the family; articles on health, dress, and housekeeping in all its branches; its editorial matter is specially adapted to the circle it is intended to interest and instruct; and it has, besides, good stories and literary matter of merit. It is not surprising that the journal, with such features, has achieved in a short time an immense success; for something of its kind was desired in thousands of families, and its publishers have filled the demand. The young boy who buys a single number of Harper's Bazar is made a subscriber for life.—New York Evening Post.

The Bazar is excellent. Like all the periodicals which the Harpers publish, it is almost ideally well edited, and the class of readers for whom it is intended—the mothers and daughters in average families—can but profit by its good sense and taste, which we have no doubt, are today making very many homes happier than they may have been before the women began taking lessons in personal and household and social management from this good-natured mentor.—The Nation.

It has the merit of being sensible, of conveying instruction, of giving the best patterns in every department, and of being well stocked with good reading matter.—Watchman and Reflector.

Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!

THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.

It is not a weak or watered Medicine, vainly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in the immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere throughout Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. DR. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely removed after a few applications. Its taste and colour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerve more than the best Eau de Cologne.

If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
If you are afflicted with RHEUMATISM, use A. A. A.
If you are attacked by DIPTHERIA, use A. A. A.
