

Sharing the Spirit Student Awards of Excellence

Continued from page 15

• Rachel Kotur, St. Dominic School: Rachel is an enthusiastic, compassionate, committed young woman who consistently shares her many beautiful gifts, including as a collaborative contributor in classes and in extracurricular activities, and especially in her dedication to school liturgies. Her involvement with school teams and particularly her leadership in the Peace and Justice Club demonstrates her commitment to improving her local and global communities. Rachel is a role model to staff and students bringing the gospel values to life through involvement, inclusion and social responsibility.

Rachel Kotur
St. Dominic

Paul Dalle Ave
St. John School

• Juliana Zografou, St. James School: Juliana is a student who always acts responsibly, independently and demonstrates strong leadership skills throughout the school.

Juliana Zografou
St. James

Julia Cabral
St. Joseph School

• Laura Cabral, St. Joan of Arc School: Laura demonstrates inherent Catholic Leadership qualities by always considering the needs of others first. Her continuous enthusiastic commitment to her parish and school community is of benefit to those around her.

• Paul Dalle Ave, St. John School: Paul participates in all facets of the school community with commitment and enthusiasm while maintaining academic excellence. Paul

Laura Cabral
St. Joan of Arc

Madelaine Shiels
St. Luke School

exemplifies Catholic leadership qualities within the school, church and Oakville communities.

• Julia Cabral, St. Joseph School: Julia exemplifies the spirit of Christ in all that she does. She is always willing to share her spirit at school and in the community. She is com-

Patrick Gamble
St. Marguerite d'Youville

Isabel Armenta
St. Matthew School

mitted to her faith journey and fully demonstrates Catholic leadership skills.

• Madelaine Shiels, St. Luke School: Madelaine's quiet and gentle leadership qualities exemplify the expectations of a Catholic school graduate. She is always willing to share her many talents and is a role model among her peers.

• Patrick Gamble, St. Marguerite d'Youville School: Patrick lives his faith unpretentiously, and openly shares his extensive religious knowledge in a secure and confident manner. He is a Catholic leader who strongly upholds the values of his faith, his family, his school, and his community through humility, strength and practice.

• Isabel Armenta, St. Matthew School: Isabel brings a great spirit to St. Matthew School. She is always eager to participate in all activities and displays tremendous school spirit. She exemplifies Christian values within her home, school and church communities and is an inspiration for all students.

— Additional Sharing the Spirit photos will appear in future editions of The Oakville Beaver.

local business
information in

Spring Home Services

Roofing

Decks & Patios

Eavestroughs, Siding
Soffit & Fascia

Fences

goldbook.ca

SALES | SPECIALS | REVIEWS | PRODUCTS | SERVICES