Breakfast Gossip.

An Englishwoman has willed $10,000 to Jefferson Davis.

It is well authenticated that the King of Prussia can drink a gallon of beer in one sitting.

A young man, the son of a very respectable citizen of Ottawa, has suddenly absconded. Forgery is said to have been the cause.

It is reported that Elias Hicks, owner of the Grand Hotel, New York, which cost $800,000, has presented it as a wedding gift to his daughter.

A half-pack of onions, containing two individual onions, has been sent from Texas to the New York Herald. Each measures 30 feet in circumference.

We have received the important intelligence of the conversion of a young man in Chicago. The news will be transmitted to Europe by cable.

"Elementary Remarks on Lying" is the title of a long article in the Richmond Examiner. Republican editors all think it has reference to them.

The Rev. Miss Augusta J. Chapin preached at Iowa city, lately, from 1 Cor., xiv. chap. 35 v.: "For it is a shame for women to speak in church."

The belle of a South Jersey ball proved to be a boy of sweet sixteen.

It is stated that the Princess de Metternich has restored about fifty fallen women to their families.

Miss Kate Putnam, a daughter to the well-known publisher, has graduated in medicine at Paris.

A Boston husband, for spite, cut off the beautiful blonde hair of his wife as she slept, and can't see her now without ringing his mother-in-law's door bell.

Beecher says the London editor who said the Astor-House marriage was "Asiatic, grotesque, unnatural, and blasphemous," is a "habitual liar." The London gentleman has the floor.

It has been decided that the armies of the three Indian Presidencies, Bengal, Madras, and Bombay, are to be forthwith amalgamated into one army through all its ranks.

Choir boy's dressed in white surplices have appeared in the English Cathedral at Quebec. The same custom existed 20 years ago. Several of the congregation have protested against it as an innovation.

A lousy father in Illinois tried to cut his son's heart out, but the dutiful child went him one better and blowed the top of his paternal relative's head off with a pistol bullet. There has been a coldness in the family since.

An Iowa editor acknowledges the receipt of Congressional documents in advance of the mail. The way it occurred was this: A wolf chased the mail carrier about four miles. They want the Government to put on that route a number of able-bodied wolves to facilitate matters.

Gossip has revived the rumour that Mr. Parker, the member for Perthshire, is about to ally himself with the Premier's family by marrying the eldest Miss Gladstone, and that the marriage will take place at the same time as Sir James Lawrence's with the second daughter.

Since the election of O'Donovan Rossa to Parliament, a number of letters have been addressed to him at the Chatham Convict Prison, with the letters M. P. after his name. The principal work this convict M. P. performs is that of darning the convicts' stockings, at which he is said to be an expert hand.

An exchange recounts an effectual remedy for small-pox, invented by a surgeon of the British army in China, which consists of rubbing the patient's chest with croton oil and tartar emetic at the height of the fever preceding the eruption. If he survive this treatment it is considered certain that small-pox won't kill him.

A girl in Ironton, Ohio, recently shot her sweetheart dead, because he refused to go "right away" and marry her. Her brother was with her when the murder was killed. The dying man averred it was the brother who shot him, but the girl assumes the crime, and a mostly begs to be the only sufferer. This is another evidence that the laws for punishing adultery, seduction, and all that class of offences, are (in all parts of the States) totally inadequate. They should be reformed.

It may interest our lady readers to know that on the evening of her recent confinement the Princess of Wales dined in company with the Prince at half-past eight o'clock, and wrote a letter as late as half-past eleven, and that by half-past twelve the infant was born, and "mother and child were doing as well as could be expected." Since then the Princess of Wales has been progressing towards convalescence in the most satisfactory manner. The Queen remained with her Royal Highness for about two hours the other afternoon.

A young gentleman, aged 8, whose head hardly reached to the top of the dock, was sentenced by an English magistrate to be handed over to his parents and soundly flogged. That was "capital" punishment, but what was his offence? He had placed some "chairs" and stones on the line of railway. Yet further we are told:—Even in the act of doing the thing, he was remonstrated with by a playmate, when he responded that he would break his head if he interfered. Whep in prison he amused himself by turning off the gas in the chapel, pulling down bell handles, tearing up his blankets, &c.

Lt.-Col. Jarvis arrived by the afternoon train yesterday. We cannot say that we rejoice at his return, but we can say that we regret the departure very much of that able and popular officer, Lt.-Col. McPherson.

School Trustee for Cataraqui Ward.—We understand that Dr. Fenwick is bound to oppose Mr. W. P. Phillips who seeks re-election in this Ward. We must confess that we cannot see the object to be gained by displacing Mr. Phillips who has made a most able and efficient member of the board, and we hope he will be returned, as we have no do doubt he will be.

Kingston Assemblies.—The next assembly will be held on Wednesday, the 5th January, in Ostario Hall.

A Newsboy Killed on the Grand Trunk.—A newsboy on the up express train on Wednesday fell between the cars about half-way between Iroquois and Morrisburgh. He was taken to Iroquois, and died about two hours afterwards.

The remains of the lad were taken to Montreal. His name was Robert Martin, aged 16, son of a British officer in India, and grandson of Dr. Douglass, of Quebec. Deceased was deaf and found it difficulty to obtain employment.

Lt.-Col. McPherson, D. A. G.—The Volunteer Officers of Kingston and vicinity, are about to entertain this gallant officer at a banquet in the British American Hotel on or about Tuesday next. This is a well deserved compliment, and we have no doubt the banquet will be a success. Col. McPherson has discharged the important duties of his office faithfully and ably, and we regret very much his departure from amongst us.

Large Sale of Cows.—There was a large sale of cows at the auction rooms of Mr. William Murray yesterday. Some twenty-six animals were put up, and averaged about $25 a piece—not such a bad price.

The weather is very unpleasant and changeable. Snow is very much needed, and we trust we will yet have a heavy fall.

Police Court, Thursday.

Before John Creighton, Esq., P. M.

John McIntyre, (not Mr. John McIntyre, barrister), a tall and rather fine looking young man, was charged with being drunk and disorderly on Princess street last evening, and removing the boxes in front of F. X. Cousineau's store. The prisoner admitted the charge, and was fined $2 or ten days in gaol.

Hugh McCarthy, a pensioner, was charged with being drunk last night and unable to take care of himself. The Magistrate imposed the usual $2 for a night's lodgings in the station house. Not having the required amount on hand, the Magistrate very kindly allowed him till next pension day, 12th January, to pay the fine, and he was allowed to go his way.

James Redmand, drunk, also contributed his quota this morning to the City Treasury. Chas. McAvay, another drunk, was fined $2 or ten days.

This finished up the business of the Court for the morning, and court omnes.

The Poet, Priest, Philosopher and Sage.
All turn with rapture to the Golden Age,
For, in that happy period they find
Instruction and delight for all mankind.
The human race were happiest then, because
They lived according to Dame Nature's laws.
Their wants were few and easily supplied;
Their food and drink were found on every side.
Their clothing did not know the tailor's art;
It did not bind the lungs or crowd the heart;
Their walk was graceful, free and unconstrained.
For not a foot of all that race was pained
With Corn or Bunion (dreadful modern ills),
With sandals shod, they scaled the steepest hills,
Or roamed the plains, by happiness possessed,
No aches or pain destroyed their perfect rest.
Briggs' Modern Curative the only reliable and most efficacious Remedy in the world for the speedy cure of Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, &c. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants generally. Dr. J. Briggs & Co., Proprietors Offices 208 Broadway, New York, and No. 6 King St. West, Toronto, Canada.

Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Corns, Bunions, Bad Nails, &c., are positively cured by the use of Dr. J. Briggs' Modern Curative. This remedy has been compounded with great care, and, used as directed, never fails. Sold by E. R. Parker and R. White, Kingston; and all Druggists.

In the event of being elected, I promise to do my duty by constant attendance at the meetings of the Council, and by always using my best judgment in such matters as may come before me.

I am, Gentlemen,
Yours truly,

A. A. A.
Arnot's Arnica Anodyne!
THE NEW PAIN RELIEVER,

IS THE MOST RELIABLE REMEDY for all Pain, of whatever kind, whether internal or external. It is a certain cure for NEURALGIA, TOOTHACHE, RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS, INFLAMMATORY SORE THROAT, DIARRHŒA, COLIC, DYSENTERY, CRAMPS, COLDS, DYSPEPSIA, FLATULENCE,

And all Complaints of the Stomach and Bowels.

It is not a weak or untried Medicine, rashly or carelessly intruded on the public attention, but has been used by thousands in this immediate vicinity, as well as elsewhere through Canada, and in every case, as far as known, with the best results. Dr. ARNOT, the eminent Physician whose name it bears, was well known as one of the most distinguished Medical Practitioners in the Empire, and this remedy has been pronounced by all who have experienced its wonderful curative powers as well worthy of its author's reputation.

No one need continue a sufferer from pain when by the timely and proper use of A. A. A. the suffering is sure to be alleviated immediately, and entirely banished after a few applications. Its taste and odour are both agreeable, so that when taken it gives no offence to the most delicate palate, and when inhaled through the nostrils refreshes and stimulates the olfactory nerves more than the best Eau de Cologne.

If you suffer from NEURALGIA, use A. A. A.
If you are a martyr to TOOTHACHE, use A. A. A.
If you are afflicted with RHEUMATISM, use A. A. A.
If you are attacked by DIPTHERIA, use A. A. A.
If you have been BURNT, or SCALDED, or STUNG, or FROST BITTEN BRUISED, use A. A. A.
