He has for many years carried on business in Kingston and the many marks of sympathy and encouragement which he has received under unforeseen misfortune, lead him to think that he has given satisfaction, and entitle him to hope for a continuance of the patronage hitherto accorded to him, for which he takes this opportunity to return his grateful and sincere thanks.

At the Store, which is neatly fitted up, will always be found a complete assortment of Confectionary, Cakes, Candies, Seasonable Fruits, and other delicacies. Also, Ginger Beer, and other summer drinks of his own manufacture.
