AMERICA

Canadian fine artist Brian Lorimer has seen the world and will be displaying its forgotten areas at Artspace Oakville.

Lorimer recently returned from Ethiopia where he visited one of the most remote places on the earth, the Omo Valley. The artist describes it as hot, barren and inhospitable, yet there are people living in it as they had done for centuries before.

In his blog, Lorimer also wrote, “Usually when composing a new body of work things are fresh and exciting in the beginning but then as time goes by it's a struggle to maintain momentum. It's been a

The oil paintings exhibit goes on until Aug. 29. The opening reception is on Aug. 5 from 7 to 9 p.m.
