We have frequently heard the celebrated German Bitters, sold by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 120 Arch Street, Philadelphia, spoken of in terms of the highest commendation, and we honestly believe that it is one of the best medicines advertised for the complaints for which it is recommended. They are pleasant to the taste, and can be taken under any circumstances by the most delicate stomach. The press far and wide have united in commending this invaluable remedy for dyspepsia, debility, &c; and such are the lasting effects of this panacea, that we hope it may be introduced to every family where dyspepsia has or is likely to have a victim. See advertisement. 193

Holloway's Ointment and Pills will cure any disease of the Skin of the longest standing.—William Frederick Anderson, of Parry Islands, suffered for a long time from eruptions on the skin, his face, arms, and legs, were covered with little pustules and sores of a scorbutic nature,—for the cure of this unsightly and painful disfigurement, he tried a variety of remedies, which failed to benefit him. At last he tried Holloway's Ointment and Pills, which very soon produced a favorable change, and by a few weeks' perseverance with these remedies, he was completely cured. This famous Ointment will cure ulcers and old wounds of twenty years standing. 193

When Machaon, the Greek Physician was slain, Homer said of him, 'a good Physician is worth as much as a whole army.' Then a good medicine like Ayer's Cathartic Pills, is worth a great deal more, because it cures as well, works wider, and lasts longer. The circle of the best Physician's labor must be narrow, while such a remedy is available to all—can be had by every body, and is worth having. 193

Dyspepsia.—We call the attention of our readers to the following notice from the Buffalo Christian Advocate, of a late date: "Whoever has suffered from Headache, Giddiness, Nervousness, Low Spirits, Dimness of Vision with Motes, Specks or Webs before the Eyes, Itching of the Nostrils, Dullness of Hearing and Ringing or Drumming in the Ears, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Tightness or Weight about the Chest, Difficulty of Breathing, Sense of Suffocation in lying down or in ascending stairs, Palpitation or uneasy feeling about the Heart, irregular or deficient Appetite, Sense of Sinking at the Heart, Sinking at the Stomach, Acidity, Heartburn, pain or fullness in the Abdomen, or Costiveness, has experienced some of the symptoms of that dreadful disease so common in this country—Dyspepsia! We would call attention to the fact that Dr. McLintock's Dyspeptic Elixir is the only really scientific remedy ever introduced to the public for the certain and rapid cure of all the above symptoms and the entire eradication of Dyspepsia from the system. One bottle has to our knowledge cured a case of ten years standing, and it never fails to give relief."

ARRIVAL OF THE CANADA.

Halifax, Aug. 29th.

The Steamship Canada arrived at Halifax this morning, with Liverpool dates to Saturday 18th. The news is highly important. The threatened bombardment of Sweaborg was opened on the 4th, and continued uninterrupted until the 11th. The losses of the Allies were trifling, but on the Russian side the destruction of property was immense.

On the 10th instant the Russians, under Gen. Liprandi, attacked the lines of the Allies, a desperate engagement of 3 hours duration ensued, when the Russians were repulsed with immense slaughter.

Gen. Simpson has telegraphed to the British Government that the bombardment of Sebastopol would be recommenced on the 17th inst.

Queen Victoria was in France paying her long contemplated visit.

Breadstuffs slightly declined.

The Descent upon Sitka---The Works not Abandoned.

[From the San Francisco Transcript, July 24th.

The report of the operations of the allied fleet before Sitka, and of the abandonment of that post by the Russian authorities, which we published yesterday, having been hastily obtained, was necessarily vague, and unsatisfactory. Since the publication referred to, we have been enabled to procure a more authentic and entirely reliable account of those operations. Our citizens will be pleased to learn that the port of Archangel has not been deserted by the Russians, and that no hostile proceedings against the garrison were contemplated or attempted during the late visit of the allies to the coast of Sitka. The compact to which we referred yesterday, between the Russian and British Governments, whereby the Russian American Company and the Hudson Bay Company were mutually to be exempt from an assault on land from either of the two belligerent powers, was completely respected by the allies. The object of their visit seems merely to have been to ascertain whether any naval force belonging to the Czar was to be found in the quarter; and, satisfied upon this point, the Admirals did not think proper to exercise a right reserved in the compact—that of blockade.

On arriving off the harbor, the allied ships did not enter, but the English and French Admirals, with their suites, embarked on board the English steamer Brisk, and entered the port. They were waited upon by a boat from shore, containing the Governor's Secretary, who communicated the information that, in accordance with the treaty between England and their government, no preparations for defence had been deemed necessary, and that none had been made. If the French Admiral should think proper to assail the town no resistance would be offered, and they could only ask that they be taken on board the men-of-war as prisoners, for if their defences against the hostile Indians were destroyed, and the town burnt, the whole population, men, women and children, would be at the mercy of the savages, who surrounded the place in such numbers that their destruction would be inevitable.

We believe an understanding of the best nature has always existed between the Russian and English trading companies, and that in case of emergency, arising from any difficulty with the Indians, either on the main land or the islands, the one company holds itself in readiness to aid the other. Hence the pacific treaty which we have already referred to.

The Provincial Militia.

The following is an extract from the Militia General Order, issued on the 16th inst.:

His Excellency the Governor General and Commander-in-Chief, is pleased to direct what the following conditions of service under which Active or Volunteer Militia Companies will be formed in the Province be herewith promulgated for general information.

Every Volunteer in those Troops or Companies shall be required to sign a Service Roll, agreeably to a Form which will be furnished to the Captain by the Adjutant-General, the period of such engagement to be not less than five years as settled by law, subject, however, to the limitations contained in the 51st clause of the Militia Law of the Province, and in 65th clause of the same Law.

His Excellency is pleased to authorize the Volunteers of these Militia Companies to enter into such Articles of Agreement amongst themselves as are specified in the Clause, which Articles of Agreement when drawn up and signed by the Volunteers of each Troop or Company, are to be transmitted through the Inspecting Field Officer of the Section of the Province to which they belong, to the Adjutant-General of Militia for the approval of His Excellency the Governor General and Commander-in Chief, nor shall such Articles of Agreement, when once approved, be afterwards altered without His Excellency's permission.

As uniformity of color in the clothing of the Volunteer Militia Force is a matter of considerable consequence in a Military point of view, His Excellency is pleased to direct that the color of the coats of the Cavalry Troops be Blue.

That the Field Batteries and Companies of Artillery be blue.

That the Rifle Companies be Green.

That the Coats be of the Tunic shape, such as is now prescribed for Her Majesty's Forces.

His excellency is content to leave the choice of the color of the Facings, Trousers, Head Dress, &c., to be decided by the several companies in the manner most agreeable to themselves. Lace, if any be worn, shall be Silver for all, except Artillery Companies, Field Batteries and Rifles. The choice of the Facings, Trousers, Head Dress, Lace, &c., shall be reported, with patterns, as soon as made, to the Adjutant General; and when approved by the Commander-in-Chief, must not be altered without due authority.

The provisions of this General Order shall not affect the uniform of any Company of Volunteer Militia already embodied and uniformed at their own expense, without a special order of the Commander in-Chief to that effect.

Arms and Accoutrements for the service of the Volunteer Force will be delivered to the Captains of the several Companies as soon as practicable; on the receipt of which the Captain will give an acknowledgment for the safe custody of all Army Accoutrements or Ammunition which may be delivered into his charge, and which receipt will be embodied in the Service Roll furnished by the Adjutant-General to the Captains already alluded to.

Arrangements relative to the mode in which Blank and Ball Ammunition for practice will be issued, will be hereafter notified. Thirty rounds of Copper Caps will be delivered to every Volunteer in the Rifle Companies, to be retained in charge of the men whenever it shall be so ordered; and for the safe custody of which they will then be held responsible.

Secretary's Office,
Quebec, 25th August, 1855.

His Excellency the Governor General has been pleased to make the following appointments, viz:

Malahy O'Donohoe, Esquire, to be a Collector, in Her Majesty's Customs.

HEADQUARTERS,
Quebec, 25th August, 1855.

Militia General Orders.

His Excellency the Governor General and Commander in Chief is pleased to appoint the following Officers to command the Militia in the respective Districts to which they are named, as below stated, with the rank of Colonels of Militia, viz:

Lieutenant-Colonel W. C. Hanson, Fourth Battalion Nicolet, to be Colonel, and to command the Militia in Number Four Military District in Lower Canada.

Lieutenant-Colonel Angus Cameron, Fifth Battalion Frontenac, to be Colonel, and to command the Militia in Number Three Military District in Upper Canada.

DOMESTIC.

Wonderful Feat.—It is seldom in the power of man to record an instance of equal agility as had been our lot to witness this day performed by Michael Arno, one of the hired hands of J. D. Stephens, Esquire, Tallyho, on the farm of Mr. Archibald Ferguson, Nottawasaga; who, on a bet of ten dollars being offered, undertook the herculean task of cradling seven acres of heavy wheat. He commenced in the morning about four o'clock; and, although the wind was very high, and rain fell repeatedly, notwithstanding all these difficulties, he completed cutting the seven acres at 15 minutes past 6 P. M.

Potato Rot.—This disease is reported to have made its appearance in several localities in this neighborhood. It has as yet only attacked those potatoes which were set early, and even these have not so far sustained any very serious injury. An English gardener who has given this subject his special attention, suggests as the only certain means of checking the disease, to pull up the tops wherever it has made any considerable spread. This should be done by drawing them up perpendicularly, and not sideways, as by the latter mode the potatoes in the hills or drills are more apt to be brought out of the ground along with them. The potatoes attacked by them are now sufficiently advanced to give them an opportunity of ripening, by being left some time longer in the ground. When the disease has injured the stalks the further growth of the potato is stopped. Even were it otherwise, what would be lost in bulk is made up in the quality by this means saved from destruction. The suggestion is worthy of a trial.—[Elytown Gazette.

Freemasonry.—On the 11th instant a new Lodge of this ancient and honorable Order was instituted in this City under the appropriate title of Corinthian Lodge of Ottawa, and the officers duly installed. The ceremony of installation was performed by Very Worshipful Brother Ford, assisted by V. W. Br. James Fitzgibbon, and V. W. Br. W. Tracy. The principal officers of the Lodge installed on this occasion were—The Very Worshipful the Senior Grand Warden of the Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada West, Brother Captain William J. B. McLeod Moore, W. Master; Brother P. Pearson Harris, Esquire, Sen. Warden, and Brother A. C. Kelly, Esquire, Jun. Warden. The seal of this new Lodge is very chaste, purely Masonic, and designed by Br. Captain Moore, inscribed with the motto—

"AUCTO SPLENDORE RESURGO."

There are now three Masonic Lodges in this juvenile city, the Dalhousie, the Doric, and the Corinthian which fact not only proves the rapid increase of the fraternity, but also indicates the growing prosperity of this community generally.—[Gazette.

We are happy to observe that a magnificent Flag-staff, seen for many miles around has been erected on the Barrack Hill by Captain Moore, the resident Staff Officer of the Pension District, and the proud Flag of Old England now floats over our young and rising City. We understand that the valuable Spar of White Pine, 60 feet long, for the Flag-staff, was presented by our spirited townsman, James Skead, Esquire, selected by him from a raft of ships' masts he was forwarding to the English market. The handsome large Union Jock was the gift of of Lieutenant Colonel Chayter, Commanding Royal Engineer.—[Gazette.

Effects of Lightning.—A correspondent writing from Leeds, Megantic, informs the Gazette that on the 16th instant, while a young man of the name of Mairs was sitting reading in the house of Mr. Robert Thornton, the lightning entered and killed Mr. Thornton's son, a fine young man of about twenty-six years of years age. Mr. Mairs was sitting about three feet from him at the time, and so powerful was the shock that he was knocked about three yards from his chair. Mrs. Thornton received a slight shock in one of her feet. The explosion was dreadful, the room being filled with smoke and strong fumes of sulphur. A few days previously as Mr. McVeity, of the same township, was driving his oxen during a heavy thunder storm, the lightning descended and struck one of the oxen killing him instantly. Mr. McVeity was knocked down and remained insensible for some time, but he is now quite recovered.

The £10,000 Case.—The hearing of Counsel on the appeal case, City of Toronto vs Bowes, was concluded on Saturday. The final judgment, it is stated, will not be given till the December term.

By intelligence from Halifax to the 10th August, we learn that Rear Admiral Fanshawe will leave that place for Quebec, immediately after the regatta, which was to take place in Halifax harbour on the 4th.

On the 18th inst. a Roman Catholic Church in Selby County, Ohio was blown up by gunpowder.

The Northern Route.—We understand that the prospects of the Fall freight business on the Nortern Railroad are far more favorable than could possibly have been anticipated. Three hundred tons of light goods from Boston, via Ogdensburgh, arrived last week, and the Company's agent in Boston refusing from 5 to 90 tons per day, on account of the difficulty of finding propellers at Ogdensburgh. The propeller Cincinnati discharged 160 tons from Ogdensburgh on Saturday, and the steamer Boston 80 tons, all at the Company's wharf. Arrangements have been made to send a portion of the Boston freight via the Western and New York Central Railroads to Albany, and Oswego Contracts have been made in Chicago for large quantities of freight for the east, which will commence moving early in September.—[Globe.

Lord Bury.—This noble scion has managed to obtain greater notoriety by the commission of one single, "peccadillo" than many patient plodders acquire in a whole lifetime. The press of Canada, with few exceptions, has hastened to pay him some well deserved compliments, and we are glad to learn that His Lordship has made up his mind to leave a community in which he is exposed to so close an espionage as to make it quite inconvenient for him to harbor with a Cyprian in one of the chief hotels in Toronto, or to chaperon her at a watering place on the Lower St. Lawrence! We had hardly expected that any journal would have attempted to stem the just rebuke with which Lord Bury's "indiscretion" has been visited, but we actually find Le Journal de Quebec and La Patrie of Montreal doing battle for him. One says, "he that is without sin, let him cast the first stone." Well, we presume none of the reprovers ever offered such an insult to public morality as that laid to this distinguished personage's charge. The other of our contemporaries calls him a "vrai gentilhomme" and professes to disbelieve the story of his shame! This may be, but at any rate his virtues will have to shine elsewhere, for, we understand, he departs from the Province immediately. Perhaps he will profit by the lesson he has been taught in Canada; we hope so.—[Quebec Chronicle.

A Letter from Picton.

For the British Whig.

Mr. Editor:—Here I am, taking "mine ease in mine inn," on a day that would be as silent as the far whispers of the spheres, but for the montonous see-saw of the grasshopper without, and the hum of flies within. The weather is a mixture of haze and sunshine, with hardly a cool zephyr astir with a kiss for a hot cheek—indeed, "It's very pleasant, but very hot." Astronomers tell us that this nether globe is every year increasing the proximity of its poles to the sun, while extending their distance from the North Star; and, as a consequence, Siberia will have elephants not inferior to those of which it once could boast possession.—Thank Heaven, there is a prophecy which your readers may masticate, th' not much comfort will it convey to some, since centuries may elapse ere its fulfilment, but if any there be among them who believe in the transmigration of souls, boundless will be the happiness which it will bring to them; fancy for a moment, a Canadian, some hundred years hence, his soul safely encased within the "mortal coil" of a successor, moving in the cooling shade of bananas and orange trees, where formerly the sight and taste of a few cherries, or apples, sufficed his desires; and then among spice trees, repeating the improvisation which he had learnt when in a different form, once upon a time, and in another clime:

"Blow, blow, ye gentle breezes,
All among the cinnamin trees-es."

Think you, sir, such a consummation is devoutly to be desired?

Anent my trip up I have a word for you. 'Twas late before I left Kingston, but it gave me an opportunity of seeing one of those all-glorious sunsets which are now and then to be seen on the Bay. He—that is, His Majesty Illuminator the Great, was just taking himself bed-ward behind the trees, unaccompanied by a single gold-headed valet-de-chambre, but fanning out in illustrious majesty,

"Such as the unlashed eye of God aglare," while, a body-guard of dusky clouds, rimmed with silver lacings, were keeping watch a little westward of mid-heaven. The water was calm as the face of a sleeping infant, save where in little bays, and under the covering of trees overhanging the shore, the water-nymphs danced and left the impress of their feet behind, scarcely perceptible but for the gentle dimples on the aqueous dancing-ground. The landscape lay in serene repose, quietly beautiful, and with the sunset, and placid appearance of the Bay, the whole formed a scene which an artist's coloring and clearness of outline would hardly convey to you an idea of.

As for the little town in which I am stopping, I have not much relative to its topographical features to tell you of. While as a whole it presents a pretty appearance; one is struck with the neglect which many a pretty spot receives, that might otherwise be made a Garden of Eden in miniature.

Here's a wish for you; who will satisfy it? I know a picturesquely wild nook here, which I wish I had secured to me and mine; I know the amount of money that would be requisite in order to keep me idle, which I wish I had; and to any one who will grant me my aforesaid desires, I bind myself to send him letters from (the wished for) "Idlewild," thro' the columns of the "Whig," which will beat all hollow N. P. Willis' charming letters from a place bearing the same name.

Foundries and carriage shops drive out a good deal of work, and business generally is pretty brisk, not to mention the gratuitous custom bestowed on a certain sulphur spring by fair maidens and happy swains at morn and eve, and Sabbath days; and the tear and wear which a tree-fenced road, yclept "the Lovers' Walk," receives on holidays.

In conclusion let me commend the flavor of the Whiskey manufactured here to the imbibers of that divine beverage; and also to the migratory ones of creation, the worthy "Mansion House," kept by that worthy host, Mr. R. Leatch.

I will hail you again from some village of Prince Edward—till then and ever, vale.

NEMO.

Picton, August 28th, 1855.

Orangemen not so Bad.

Mr. D'Arcy McGee, who lately delivered a lecture in this town, has published an account of his tour through this Province in his paper, the American Celt. He appears to be favorably impressed with the situation of this country, and especially with the condition he found his Roman Catholic fellow countrymen in—having found many of them in prosperous circumstances, and holding offices of trust; and caps the climax by saying:—

"In Perth, again, I found John Doran, who, before he has reached the age of 30 has been Warden of his County and Reeve of his town!"

But our chief object in noticing this just now, is that Mr. McGee has found out, in his tour, that Orangemen are not so bad as they are said to be. He says:—

"Speaking of Orangemen, I am now at their head-quarters, and have been the past three weeks inquiring into their principles and actions. I feel bound to say, that I believe we make two cardinal mistakes in the United States, in regard to the Orangemen in Canada. 1st. We are totally mistaken in supposing that all Irish Protestants or Presbyterians are Orangemen. The fact is, the Orangeman here is an exception among Irish Protestants, and all the lodges taken together would not muster one-fifth of the whole number of Irish Protestants in the Province. 2nd. We mistake in believing that the Oaths of the Order are the same here as in the North of Ireland. The Canadian Order is largely modified; is far more political than religious, and (except on the 12th, when they go made of course,) I am assured by the most respectable Catholics in Canada West, that they have no better neighbours all the rest of the year than these same Orangemen."

Orangemen should be obliged to Mr. McGee for thus expressing his good opinion of them—notwithstanding the "going mad" on the 12th of July. We think, though, it will be found that Orangemen are the same "good neighbours" the world over; and if the rights of conscience are not interfered with, no one has anything to fear from them.—Perth Standard.

COMMERCIAL.

MONTREAL MARKETS.

[From the Gazette of 27th August.]

Flour.—there has been throughout the week a fair demand for Superfine. American has been chiefly taken at 42 6d to 43s, while choice lots have fetched outside quotations. Canada being scarce, is readily saleable at 38s 3d for good brands. Owing to the limited quantity of choice Extra, it has fetched 51s 6d for small lots. For future delivery No. 1 Superfine (Canada) is offered at 40s per barrel for September and 37s 6d for October, without finding purchasers. The deficiency, compared with last year, is 47,300 barrels.

Wheat.—There have been no transactions, nor is there any offering at present. Compared with last year's receipts, shows a deficiency of 45,000 bushels.

Ashes.—The demand has continued brisk and prices have steadily advanced, good shipping parcels of Pots being readily saleable at 35s 6d per cwt. Pearls are without much activity. Increase in receipts in favor of this year 2,200 barrels.

Corn.—There have been no speculative sales, but a steady consumptive demand throughout the week at 5s 4½d to 4s 5d per 56lbs, at which holders are firm, the supply being in few hands. Decrease on the year's receipts, 10,000 bushels.

Provisions.—Nothing doing in Beef. Pork is unsettled, owing to the advance in New York. Sales within a few days at $22 for Mess. Holders having advanced their pretensions considerably, it is difficult to affix a price. Increase on the years receipt's 2,000 bar cls.

Since the publication of the last Prices Current there have been several arrivals of the Fall Ships, and stocks of General Groceries are now being received for the Fall business. Transactions, although at present limited, show a little more activity.

Rice.—Sales of Fine Patna have been numerous, both at private and auction sales, 28s 6d being readily obtained at the latter.

Spirits—Brandy is dull of sale, but holders are firm at the quotations. DeKuyper's Gin, in wood, is in small stock, and sells easily.

Teas.—Are very dull, no transactions taking place worth quoting. Green Coffee sold freely at auction at 8d.

Sugars.—Are in demand, and a future rise in value is anticipated. At auction, on Thursday, about 80 hhds Dark to Ordinary Bright sold at from 41s to 41s6. Large sales have been made of Redpath's Montreal White and Yelloy Bastards. There have been no arrivals of Sugar cargoes during the last three weeks.

Molasses are in request. 150 hhds. sweet clayed Bahia changed hands at 1s. 3d.

Oils.—Linseed Boiled Oil is in demand, there being no large stock here at present; no Raw in town for sale. Fish Oils are dull, prices being high.

Salt.—Large sales at auction on the Wharf are being made at the quotation, 5s 1d.

Chemicals.—A few large lots of Soda Crystals and Carbonate of Soda, to arrive, are being offered.

Fruits.—Raisins are in considerable demand.

Fish.—At the first sale of the season, No. 3 Mackerel brought 26s 3d; half barrels, 15 to 16s. No. 1 Split Herrings, 21s 3d to 22s 9d; half barrels, 10s to 13s 9d. Loose Dry Cod, 15s 6d to 18s.

The Globe---The Great Globe.

We hail the appearance of the Daily Globe, with its Forty Columns and its Table Cloth sheet. The Globe stands at the head of the Press of Canada, Upper and Lower!

Mr. Hogan, editor of the Toronto Patriot who received the Governor General's prize for the best Essay on Canada, it has been declared, is a plagiarist, having borrowed largely from other writers without giving due credit. The Three Rivers Enquirer thus comments thereupon:—

"A court of equity would direct that Mr. Hogan should pay over to Montgomery Martin, or if dead, to his heirs, a portion of the money he has received for his Treatise, deducting the cost of transcribing; another portion should go to the office of statistics, to remunerate the subordinates who supplied the figures. If there be a balance afterwards, Mr. Hogan will be entitled to it for his fanciful sketch of a habitant."

SMITH, LYMING, MORGAN, SAWYER, RODGERS, HOPKINS, &c., &c.

The Performances will commence with the grand Entree entitled the

CAVALRY OF BALACLAVA.

W. F. Wallett, M. A.—It is conceded by all connoisseurs in the profession is decidedly the greatest Clown in the World. He has distinguished himself both in this Country and in Europe, by his chaste and amusing performances. During his last visit to England he appeared before her Majesty, the Queen and the Royal Family, from whom he received substantial proofs of their appreciation of his brilliant Wit and refined Sentiment. True wit is never vulgar.

Madame Louise Tourniaire.—Among her Performances she will ride Six Horses, a feat never before attempted by any lady in this Country. Also her Manage Act—those Ladies who are fond of Horseback Riding can receive valuable lessons from her performance of this brilliant and graceful exploit. She will also ride her wild steed Hercules, without saddle or bridle. Were it not for the ease and grace with which she rides this act, and thereby inspiring her audience with confidence, it would be startling to witness, but her sang froid destroys in them all fear of danger to her. This great Feat illustrates what energy and perseverance will accomplish, even with a Lady. These and other performances give her the Honor of being the greatest Female Equestrian in the World.

Mlle Josephine.—The applause she invariably receives from her audience for the beauty and finish of her principal and other acts, have stamped her as the Model Rider.

Mons. Benoit.—This great Equestrian Juggler and Gymnastic Performer, will perform on Horseback his light balancing, Cups, Balls, Bottles, Plate Spinning, Stick Dancing, &c., &c. In his line Mons. Benoit has no equal. His be
