"Optimus per Orbem Decor."

WEDNESDAY MORNING, DEC. 12, 1855.

Russia.

A correspondent of Le Nord, writing from Odessa, complains that the account in the official journal gives a very imperfect idea of the enthusiasm created among the inhabitants of the city by the visit of the Emperor Alexander. It adds that a Russian merchant having observed to his imperial majesty that the restoration of an honorable peace—but only an "honorable" peace—was desired to complete the prosperity of the city the Czar replied, "Who is there that does not desire such peace? I more than any one else."

The following are the remarks addressed to the Czar by the Archbishop in the cathedral at Odessa, referred to in our London correspondent's letter by the St Louis, which appeared in the Commercial yesterday:—

"Pious Sovereign, thou hast scarcely put on the crown of thy ancestors when it has pleased Providence to surround it with thorns. Our bodily eyes are not accustomed to see such an ornament sparkle on the head of kings, but the eyes of faith see in it, with piety and respect, a souvenir of the crown of Christ. Has it not been, in fact, such crowns that the most pious kings and princes have worn since David, Jehosaphat, Constantine, Vladimir the Great, until Dimitril, our hero of the Don, and finally thy patron, Alexander Newsky? Have courage, and let not thy soul become weak at the sight of these smoking brands, said the Prophet to the warrior king Akaka, when two kingdoms of Israel and Assyria united against him in an unjust war. How closely do these words of the prophet apply to us and our enemies! This unhappy France? Is she not in truth, the brand which for half a century has carried fire throughout the entire world? And the proud, but to-day abused and jeopardized Britain!

What is she, if not the other brand, which, after being extinguished for two centuries, recommences to smoke in the midst of a yawning gulf? And we also will say with the Prophet, 'Let not thy soul grow weak at the sight of these two smoking brands before us.' As a sign from the Most High the winds abate and the rain falls to fertilize our fields. These brands depart, and Russia, protected by God, recovers itself for the joy of her chief and for the well-being even of her own enemies. Enter, then, O pious Sovereign, the temple where thy august father lately came in the depth of the night to raise toward Heaven his thanks for having escaped the tempest and shipwreck. Enter, and in thy turn raise with us thy prayers to the King of Kings for the cessation of the tempest which now rages both upon sea and land.—May Heaven grant that this temple may again see thee kneeling before God, but then only to render acknowledgement and to give thanks. Amen."

We find it announced that "the Czar has dismissed Prince Menschikoff from his offices as Chief of the Staff and of the Imperial Convoys, and has named General Count Adlerberg II. as his successor." The personage referred to as dismissed is the son of the prince of that name known in connexion with the present war. He is removed from an administrative post, but retained near the person of the Emperor.

One of our German correspondents informs us by telegraph, on the author of the Czar published at Cracow, that the Russian government is supplying the place of the regular regiments removed from Poland by the new "militia of the empire." Six thousand of these troops have already entered Poland, and will have their Winter quarters at Warsaw.—London News, Nov. 21.

An order of the Czar, received by the Minister of the Interior, prescribes the raising of the state of siege in St. Petersburg, which had been decreed when the Allied fleets entered the Gulf Finland. On the 9th, the necessary arrangements were made, and the state of seige will be removed later. The personages travelling in the suite of the Czar are gradually returning to St. Petersburg.

The following extract from a letter dated at Brussels, November the 2nd, will show to what a length the pro-Russian attachment and influence extends:—

"Brussels is at this moment a sort of Russian advanced post. Its higher classes express the most unqualified admiration of Russian policy; its government trembles for Russia as much as do the ministers of petty German courts; and its envoys at Vienna, Berlin and Constantinople, exhibit, as far as they can do with security, similar tendencies. Russian emissaries and agents have free hand. The press, with few exceptions, is under Russian influence; and Russian subjects of divers classes throng here on their way to Paris with passports obtained at this place, or vised by neutral envoys. A curious instance of Russian influence is stated to have occurred the other day at Ostend, much frequented this year by Russian and refugee Poles. Some of the latter, it appears, were desirous to get up a charity ball for their poor countrymen, and so far succeeded that about 3,000 francs were subscribed, of which a sixth was destined to the poor of Ostend. Upon hearing of this, the Russian legation, so it is affirmed remonstrated with the minister for foreign affairs, and represented that if the authorities of Ostend were to permit this refugee ball, it would be a palpable affront to Russia, and quasi breach of neutrality. They urged that measures ought to be taken to impede the consumption. Whilst this diplomatic interference was in process, Russian agents at Ostend were instructed to ascertain if any Russian Poles were subscribers, and to report accordingly. The result was, that with the exception of three or four Polish refugee gentlemen, not a soul attended the ball, although the committee had persisted in making preparations."

The Resolute Discovery Ship.

The Aberdeen Journal gives the following account of the falling in with the Arctic discovery ship Resolute by the whale ship George Henry of New London, drifting in Baffin's Bay, at a distance of 25 to 30 degrees from Melville Island, where she was abandoned by Capt. Kellett in 1853:—

On Saturday last the barque Alibi, of this port, Captain Stewart, belonging to the Aberdeen Arctic Company, returned here from Davis' Straits. She sailed from this on the 10th August, and arrived out in lat. 63 52, lon. 64 49, on the 1st October. The weather was then very adverse, boisterous gales prevailing from the northward, accompanied by frost and snow showers, and from the close packed state of the ice the vessel was prevented reaching her destination, viz, the fishing ground in Cumberland Sound, whither she had been preceded by Captain Penny with the Lady Franklin and Sophia. Matters continued in this state for 19 days without appearance of change, when she again set sail for this country, having seen no British whale ships. On the 17th ult, two days previous to leaving the country, midway between Cape Mercy and Cape Elizabeth, spoke the discovery ship Resolute, which vessel was abandoned at Melville Island in 1853, by Captains Sir E. Belcher and Kellett, and was now in possession of Captain Buddington, of the American whaler George Henry, of New London (U.S.). The Resolute was boarded by Captain Buddington and 10 of his crew, on the 17th September last, off Cape Mercy, distant 35 or 40 miles, and was found in good condition, with about four feet water in her hold. Capt. Buddington's intentions, when Captain Stewart left, were to winter with his prize at Whale Fish Island. The Resolute must have drifted in the pack from Melville Island, through Barrow's Straits, Lancaster Sound, and down Baffin's Bay, to where she was picked up, a distance of about 25 or 30 degrees. Captain Stewart received from Captain Buddington Captain Kellett's epaulettes, left on board the Resolute, to forward on his return home.

Report of the Directors of the Kingston, Pittsburgh and Gananoque Joint Stock Road Company.

The Directors beg leave to report to the Stockholders of the said Company—

That since the election to office last year, the works have been steadily progressing towards completion.

During the winter months the Directors availed themselves of the comparative reasonableness of labour, and parties were employed in breaking and preparing metal to be ready for use in spring, and also in cutting down Mr. Nellis' Hill, which, in the opinion of the Directors, materially promoted the obtained progress of the said work.

Upon the opening of the season, and during the summer, the Directors contracted with various parties for the making of a considerable portion of the said Road in sections, both on the Front, and Cataraqui, and Middle or Pecord Lines; also, the cutting down of the Barriefield Hill, a work of considerable magnitude and great difficulty, as was also the cutting of the hill this side of Cunningham's in Mr. Innes' contract.

The first line from the easterly end of Section No. 3 to Barriefield, is macadamized, and a Toll Gate placed thereon; so also is the middle or Pecord Line from Franklin's, Lot No. 8, 3rd Concession, to Burns' Corners, where it unites with the Cataraqui Line, a Toll Gate being also placed thereon; and also the Cataraqui Line from Cunningham's Tavern at the terminus of the Phillipsville Road to the neighborhood of Barriefield, and which with the portion from Barriefield to the end of the bridge will soon be entirely completed, a strong force of men being at present employed thereon. There are nearly twelve miles of Road macadamized, the cost being an average of something under £400 per mile.

During the preceding year, and last year, the Stock has been called in to the extent of one-half.

The amount received on the Capital Stock of the Company is £13,004 2 0

Composed as follows:—

City Debentures,	£5,000 0 0
Township of Pittsburgh Debentures which the Council are endeavouring to repudiate	£5,000 0 0
On Private Stock,	£2,904 2 0	£12,904 2 0
Brought down as above		£12,905 2 0
Receipts from various sources,		465 4 11
		£13,369 6 11
The amount expended up to the present time, is as follows:—
For the acquirement for Stockholders of Stock in Cataraqui Bridge,	£9,733 6 8
Dividend on Works of Roads, Engineering, salaries of Officers, Fencing, Contingencies,	£3503 14 6	£13,237 1 2
		£132 5 9

The amount of Stock still available for the prosecution of the work is over £5000 independently of the Township of Pittsburgh Stock, which the Council of that Municipality are endeavouring to repudiate as aforesaid.

The Directors also have recently put under contract that portion of the Front Line from the easterly end of Section No. 3, on Lot No. 5, 1st Concession, Pittsburgh, to Granger's Tavern, including the marsh, a distance of 5¼ miles, which part, when made, will be a very desirable and level line, and which is to be completed by the first day of October next, for the sum of £2,450.

The Directors before closing their report beg leave to bear testimony to the handsome manner in which nearly all the proprietors of land, over which the Road, as far as made, runs, have granted the Company the right of way for the Road in some instances at considerable sacrifice, by which the expense, trouble and delay of arbitration have been hitherto avoided, and would beg to mention Messrs. Ramsay, Patterson, McGuire, Dr. Yates and others, on the Front Line, and also the respective officers of Her Majesty's Ordnance, as having in this manner promoted the work in hand.

The Directors have no doubt, but that in the further prosecution of the work, the Company will meet with similar encouragement. Those inhabitants of the Township having the greatest stake in it, being all impressed with the greatest advantages which good roads bring to their doors.

From the economy exercised by the Company, and from the forwardness of the works, the Directors are satisfied that by the early completion thereof, they will be able to declare a handsome dividend on the Stock of the Company.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. B MARKS.
President.

Office of the Kingston, Pittsburgh, and Gananoque J. S R. Company, December 10th, 1855.

ITEMS OF NEWS.

An estimate of the receipts and expenses of the City Government of New York for the year 1856 has been published, from which it appears that the amount to be raised by tax for expenses of the coming year is $6,475,855, which is an increase of $632,032 over those of the present year. Of this sum $828,500 will be required for the Police Department; $1,023,354 for the support of the Public Schools; $890,891 for the Department of Streets and Lamps; $988,490 87 for the Department of Repairs and Supplies; and about $1,560,000 for the Street Commissioner's Department.

Alexander McLeod, of Canadian rebellion notoriety, imprisoned and tried for the cutting out and destruction of the steamer Caroline, and the death of Curfee, one of the crew, at Schlosser, has preferred a claim against the United States Government for compensation to the extent of $5,000, for suffering and losses during his imprisonment. Mr. McLeod was himself present at the meeting of the mixed commission, at London, urging his claim. The claim was resisted General by Thomas, on the part of the United States Government, on the ground that the controversy having been once settled, could not now be re-opened.

Abolition of Slavery in Egypt.—A letter from Alexandria, of the 8th, states that the Egyptian government has recently put into execution the decision come to, by the divan, relative to the abolition of slavery. Not only is it not allowed any longer to buy or sell slaves in Egypt, but all those in the possession of private individuals were informed that they are free. All of them immediately left, and the first result has been that paid servants are becoming very exacting as regards wages. The precipitation with which this measure has been carried into effect will, it is feared, cause much suffering to those whom it is professed to benefit, as from being thrown entirely on their own resources, they will have to suffer severe privations before they find the means of maintaining themselves.—[Galignani's Messenger.

Lola Montes again in Trouble.—The San Francisco Chronicle learns from a passenger on the What Cheer, from Australia, that Lola Montes had a stormy passage from that port to Sidney.—The lap-dog of Lola was at fault in some matter of étiquette, when the mate gave him a kick; Lola seeing this rudeness, drew her dagger and attempted to stab the officer. Her design was frustrated and she took such a disgust that she refused to live in the cabin, and took up her quarters in the steerage. At her first appearance on the stage in Sidney there were only three or four ladies present; but when she was called out, at the falling of the curtain, she made a speech, and rendered particular thanks to the ladies for their patronage.

Doing a Tollman.—Two young ladies, of Indianapolis, Indiana, who, by the by, belong to the bon ton, were riding in a buggy by themselves, and, after driving through the most fashionable avenues, they concluded to take the plank road. Well, to the plank road the went, and while trotting briskly along they were suddenly arrested by the toll-gate keeper, who demanded his toll.

"How much is it?" asked the girls.

"For a man and a horse it is fifty cents, he replied."

"Well, then, get out of the way, for we are girls and a mare, Get up Jenny!" and away they went, leaving the man in mute astonishment.

Mr. Ericsson is reported to be still engaged in his caloric enterprise. His new caloric engine is 40 horse power, and compared with its predecessors, has been greatly simplified, and its cumbrous parts dispensed with—not only avoiding friction and diminishing expense; but effecting a great saving in space. Formerly there were four cylinders, with duplicates placed above them on pumps. The latter are done away with under the new arrangement.

Little London.

The Council of this growing city are the boys that don't stand on trifles, or care about a few pounds. At a late ordinary meeting they passed the following small items of expenditure:

COST OF A GOVERNOR-GENERAL'S VISIT.

Mr. Barker presented a report from the committee which was appointed to make suitable arrangements for the reception of his Excellency the Governor General on the occasion of his recent visit to London. The report recommended payment of £181 18s. 6d.

MR. WHITEFIELD'S VIEW OF LONDON.

Mr. Whitefield submitted to the inspection of the Council several copies of his admirable view of London, taken from a point near Mr. Wilson's dwelling. The work was very much admired, and a check for £50 was ordered to be issued to secure 25 of the colored copies. It is intended that twenty of the number will be presented to different cities in Upper and Lower Canada and the Northern States of the Union.

Mr. Moffat followed up his notice of motion for a loan of £300 to the Fire Brigade for three years, to enable that body to extend an invitation to their Detroit brethren and the Corporation of that city. Forty-nine speeches were made before the Council came to a decision, and at one time there were no less than four amendments and a resolution before the meeting. As some of the remarks which fell from certain members might be calculated to mar the effect of the visit we prefer suppressing them. It was decided that the Council should present to the Fire Brigade the sum of £300 as a token of its appreciation of their valuable services.

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

CITY COUNCIL.

There was a Special Meeting of the Council held last night to take into consideration the policy of accepting an Invitation from the Toronto City Council, to be present at the Railroad Celebration at Toronto, on the 20th instant. There were much fun at this meeting, and some half hundred resolutions were put and lost, to accept the Invitation, but all with the proviso that each man pay his own expenses. After an hour's debate, amid roars of laughter, the following Resolution was carried. It was the funniest meeting of the year. The speeches were all bunkum, and there were lots of them. The simple fact is, the people of Kingston bear no love to the City of Toronto, and so they turned the whole thing into a burlesque, though at last a respectable Reply was moved and carried as follows:—

That this Council accept the Invitation of the City Council of Toronto, and that the Mayor attend at Toronto to represent the City, together with such other members as may wish to accompany him, but each member so doing shall defray his own expenses.

After this matter was ended, something more serious came on, viz., to assess the City Property in payment of the School Tax of £1600. A resolution to do which having passed the Council on the preceding night. Here again speeches were plentiful as black berries, and sundry rates of from 5d. to 8d. in the pound were moved for but regularly burked. After waiting another tedious hour our reporter left the Council in session without having fixed the rate, though they appointed Mr. J. H. Stephens, Special Collector for the School Tax.

The schooner Hellwell went ashore on Sunday in Long Point Cut, Canada West. The captain, mate and crew of the schooner Lowland Lass went to the rescue of those on board the Hellwell, and while doing so two of their number were drowned. The crew of the Hellwell were rescued on Tuesday.

Lord Ruay.—The Earl of Albemarle, whose heir married the daughter of Sir Allan MacNab, the other day, was one of the most influential of the twelve Lords of the privy council of England, who tried Mr. Henry John Boulton, as Chief Justice of Newfoundland, and advised his dismissal at the request of the islanders, the celebrated Daniel O'Connell being their counsel before that appeal.—McKenzie's Message.

 Mr. McKenzie makes a mistake.—The present Earl of Albemarle is George Thomas Keppel, a Lieutenant Colonel, who served at Waterloo, and who succeeded his brother Augustus Frederick Keppel, 5th Earl of Albemarle, who was declared to be of unsound mind, Dec. 1849, immediately after his elevation to the peerage. The Earl whom Mr. McK. speaks of must have been the father of these two noblemen, for he died in 1849. See Dod's Peerage.

We are happy to see Mr. McKenzie's "Message" once more sent to the people. Mr McK. is as impracticable man, so far as politics are concerned, but he is that rare being, an honest polititian, and one who always goes to his work in a straight forward manner. His paper is a useful paper, and one that is needed.

New York, Dec. 10th.

Reported Dismissal of the British Minister.—It was reported here yesterday afternoon, that in consequence of the British Government having refused to make the required explanations in regard to the alleged violation of our neutrality laws, the British Minister at Washington, Mr. Crampton, had been dismissed by the President. It is much to be regretted that any misunderstanding should have occurred with the British Government, and still more that it could not have been disposed of without resorting to diplomatic reprisals. The account is now on our side supposed to be balanced, and it only remains to be seen whether the British Government are willing to view it in the same light. Nothing serious can grow out of the affair, unless one nation or the other wants to get up a war; and we cannot believe that such infatuation prevails on either side.

New York, Dec. 10.

The Government has contracted with the Pacific Steamship Company to convey 800 troops to Oregon, via San Francisco. LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA.

Thomas Latchford says:—

Covington, Ohio, Dec. 27th, 1853.

"My wife has been affected with the Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years during which time I have spent a great deal for doctoring, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and finally the doctors said she could not be cured. Last year she concluded to try Hoofland's German Bitters; she took two bottles, and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business. I have sold quite a number of bottles through her recommendation, and as far as I can learn, it has given satisfaction to all."

Three Boxes have cured the worse cases of Scrofula.
Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.
One Box always cures the Jaundice.

Two Boxes cure the worst of Ulcers on the leg.
Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.
One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.
Strong doses often repeated expell every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.

One Box cures derangement of the Liver.
Half a Box cures a Cold.
They purify the blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.
As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.
They are purely vegetable, and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Holloway's Pills, an unfailing Remedy for all disorders of the Chest and Lungs. Oliver Thompson, of Kingston, C. W., was certainly in a most deplorable state of health ten weeks ago; his lungs, so the doctors told him, were completely gone, his chest, and in fact his body generally, had scarcely an atom of flesh on it, so thin had he become. In addition to this, he had a cough which completely shook him to pieces (these are his own words); he has just informed Professor Holloway, that all these complaints have been removed by Holloway's Pills, after he had used them for seven weeks and two days, and he now feels better than ever he did in his life. These Pills will readily remove all diseases of the stomach and bowels. 287
