Burning of Bibles in Ireland.

An incident has occurred in the neighborhood of Dublin, the statement of which will probably be received by many of our readers with the incredulity with which we confess we at first received it. Unhappily, however, it appears to rest upon evidence too strong to permit us to doubt its truth.—In the large and populous town of Kingston, the port of the city of Dublin, on Monday, November 5, an act was committed by a gang of furious and bigoted monks, which would have disgraced the most priest ridden country of Europe. The British public will learn with horror and indignation that there was held in the open day—we believe in the public street, at all events in the public view—the blasphemous ceremonial of committing to the flames a number of copies of the Bible!

It would appear that Kingston had enjoyed the blessing of a visit from one of those itinerant companies of friars who have latterly been sent through Ireland upon missions, of which the character may be judged from the fact we are about to narrate. The company who performed at Kingston chose to designate themselves by the fanastic name of the Redemptorist Fathers. On Monday last, animated probably by the spirit of the holy fathers who, just two hundred and fifty years before, had placed Guy Fawkes under the Parliament house—these furious friars, who dare to profane the sacred name of man's redemption, assembled in a public ceremonial in front of the Roman Catholic chapel of Kingston, and in view of the passengers along the public highway, kindled in an open place a large fire, and publicly flung upon the flames a number of Bibles, which were consumed amid every mark of indignity which brutal bigotry could suggest.

An outrage more monstrous or more scandalous it is scarcely possible to conceive.—Viewed in the very lowest light, as an insult to the religion of a large class of the population, it is even in this aspect, a highly scandalous offence. What would be said if an Orange lodge had marched in public procession, and in a public place committed a Popish missal to the flames? Even this is not a parallel case. What would be said if Popish missal were burned in front of a Protestant cathedral by the clergy? The book which these gowned and hooded miscreants thus burned with insult is sacred in the eyes of millions of Protestants—nay, even the very men who burned it acknowledge that it contains the word of God, whom they pretend to worship. They have, to be sure, the miserable excuse, that it is the authorised version of the Scriptures. But even they do not pretend that it is not substantially the book that contains the word of God.

To the Editor of Saunder's News-Letter:—

SIR,—As several attempts have been made to deny the recent events which have taken place in the chapel yard of Kingstown, will you allow the following narrative of the facts a place in your paper:—

A company of Italian friars, generally known as Redemptorist Fathers, who are the followers of St. Alphonso Liguori, selected our town as the most fitting place for the exhibition of their religious zeal, by causing a bonfire to be lighted in the chapel-yard on Monday last, the 5th of November, about eight o'clock in the morning, where, according to the united testimony of many eye witnesses, two or three bales were brought full of books of various kinds, and among them copies of the authorised version of the Scriptures and Prayer-books. One most trustworthy witness told me he took no in his hands one of the barrows as they passed him a New Testament and Prayer-book, and off the other an old Bible. The barrows were upset near the fire, when one of those Redemptorist Fathers, whose name is well known, came and stood over the pile of books, and for nearly an hour was seen to take them up one by one, tear their pages asunder, and hand them to boys, who threw them into the flames.

Three of the town police were in attendance at the chapel yard—one especially was seen pacing before the fire, keeping order, and over again heard to call out to the crowd to "keep silence!" and when told by one of the bystanders that burning the authorised version of the Scriptures was an unlawful act, made some evasive reply, but took no notice of the remark.

These facts must speak for themselves, and, if necessary, they can be proved and sworn to be unimpeachable witnesses.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

ALEX. H. SYNOT,
Assistant Chaplain to the Mariner's Church.

Kingstown, Nov. Fifth.

By the papers received by the America, we learn that the Attorney General for Ireland has directed the commencement of prosecution of all persons, whether lay or clerical, who, there may be fair grounds for thinking, were engaged in the late case of the Bible burning at Kingstown.

REDEMPTION OF IRELAND.

A meeting of delegates from the different Irish organizations in the United States and Canada, is now in session at the Astor House, New York. About 100 delegates are in attendance and more are expected. The object of the meeting is supposed to have reference to the movements on foot for securing the redemption of Ireland by means of an invasion from this country.—Parties are not admitted and the proceedings are kept private.

It has been suggested that the movement has for its real object the organization of the Irish citizens throughout the Union, to oppose the Know Nothings. It is quite likely themselves courted by both whigs and democrats at elections, are a good deal disgusted at the cold shoulder they now get from both parties. But it would be a great mistake for them to form themselves into a separate party—to band themselves together as a race—in order to coerce the native of this country to pursue the policy they like best. In the first place, they could never win to even one-half their own fellow-countrymen for such a purpose, for reflecting Irishmen will take good care to keep aloof from any movement which could not but tend to isolate them from the other citizens of this country. And secondly it is perfectly certain that the most effective and surest way to get themselves proscribed—to cut themselves off from American sympathy, and to render their position in this country, to the highest degree uncomfortable—would be to organize themselves into an exclusive Irish party, under Irish leaders and with Irish aims, as opposed to the native born population of the country. It is because there has been so much said about the Irish vote in times past that quiet men vote the Know Nothing ticket; to erect that vote into a permanent party would give the Know Nothings the control of this country perhaps for a whole generation.

If the Irish are wise they will neither try to revolutionize Ireland, nor undertake the administration of United States affairs. In the one they would get their heads broken, in the other their race disenfranchised. Coolness, patience, and philosophy, are evidently their best policy; for the rest they had better trust to time and the ever watchful Saint Patrick.

OUR TABLE.

Those kind friends to the Editor, the Booksellers having again loaded our Table, but not overloaded it, so that at one sitting we can clear off the indebtedness.

"LILY HUSON" and other Tales, by Alice Grey. H. Long & Brother, New York; J. Duff, Kingston. 8vo., pp. 381. Muslin.

"Lily Huson" is a new American Tale said to be the veritable History of the early life of Alice Grey, whose charming Magazine Tales have so often added to the enjoyments of the domestic fireside, and alternately provoked the merry laugh, or brought the tear of sympathy to the eye. In this tale we have the authentic auto-biography of a young lady, a resident of New York State—as slightly concealed beneath the gauze of fiction, as to conceal the actual personages from the curiosity of the general public—not so sufficiently concealed as to hide them from those who are acquainted with the authoress, or are cognizant of the scenes amidst which she has been an actress. "Lily Huson" is a simple, interesting story of actual life, showing how much real romance exists amidst the common-place of every-day affairs. It is a beautifully written book, and will doubtless be greatly sought after by those who admire books of tenderness and feeling, which appeal directly to the gentler emotions of the heart.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY FOR OCTOBER.—L. Scott & Co., New York; E. W. Palmer, Kingston. $3 a year.

The Contents of this sterling Conservative Journal are the following:—No. 1. Life and Opinions of Peter Daniel Huet; No. 2. School Sermons; No. 3. The Newcomes; No. 4. The Caldwell Papers; No. 5. The Charities of London; No. 6. Latin Dictionaries; No. 8. Pitt & Fox.

The only Articles we have had leisure to look into, are Nos. 3 and 8. That on "The Newcomes" is not a mere transcript of the novel, but is an essay on the writings of Thackery. It certainly does eulogize the London Snob in no striking degree, but not more so than many of his admirers do. We confess to have an inward dislike to Thackery and his writings, of the same nature that we have to Macready and his acting. Both are great men in their way, but there is a manner about them both that is unaccountably disagreeable. Compare Edmund Kean and C. Dickens with Macready and Thackery, and the reader will know what we desire to express. The Article on "Pitt and Fox" is an able but bitter satire on the incapacity of Lord Palmerston and his Whig-Radical colleagues

ENGLAND'S BATTLES BY LAND AND SEA.—J. H. Stephens. Part 12. Half a Dollar.

This is a continuation of that highly interesting work, issued monthly by the London Printing & Publishing Company, (late Virtue & Co.) of which Mr. Stephens is the Kingston Agent. Independently of the narratives of all the Battles that England has ever been engaged in, the work contains an able account of all the incidents of the present War from its very commencement to the taking of Sewastopol. The monthly parts cost half a dollar each, and are adorned with elegant Maps and Engravings.

THE HORTICULTURIST FOR DECEMBER.—R. P. Smith, Philadelphia. $2 a year.

This useful monthly, instead of losing interest, as many feared it would in consequence of the death of its lamented proprietor and editor, Mr. Downing, continues fully to maintain its reputation. In fact, the present editor and publisher appear to be using their best endeavors to raise it higher in public estimation than before. It is an eminently practical work, and therefore well fulfils its promises. No one who has anything to do with gardens, trees, shrubs, plants, or flowers, should fail to be among its readers. This No completes the volume; for the ensuing volume, the publisher himself says:—

"The Publisher commenced with the declaration that he was determined to make each number better than its predecessor, and never to rest satisfied until the "Horticulturist and Journal of Rural Art and Rural Taste," is acknowledged to be the best Horticultural Journal in the world. Interest requires this; the honor and horticulture of the country alike demand it." If the cultivators of fruits and flowers, if the lovers of rural life, will but aid us in this work by endeavouring to increase our circulation, we will endeavour to make good every word."

THE PANORAMA OF LIFE AND LITERATURE FOR DECEMBER. Littell, Son & Co., Boston. $3 a year.

What we have so repeatedly said of Littell's Living Age, the very best periodical of this continent, we can say in a minor degree of "the Panorama," for it is simply a reprint of the more popular Articles of "the Age." The one is issued weekly at $6 a year; the other is published monthly at half that price. But "the Panorama" contains vastly more than half of the parent publication; for it makes two very thick volumes in the course of the year, while "the Age" only makes three.

PETERSON'S LADY'S MAGAZINE FOR JANUARY. C. J. Peterson, Philadelphia. $2 a year.

Again we have "Peterson's" in advance of the other Monthlies, lively, gay, smart, witty and piquant. Charming food for the women, and for men too. Witness, a most exceeding clever little essay, from the pen of the publisher, on "Scottish Songs and Ballads," that we shall take an early opportunity to transfer to our columns. "Peterson's" is the cheapest, if not the most elegant, and it has great pretensions to elegance, lady's Magazine published in the world.

PLAIN TALK FOR LADIES.—The Western editors are certainly very plain spoken, and their rhetoric, like the Bowie knives of some of them, is sharpened to the point. One of them speaking of low-necked dresses and short sleeves, says:

"The prevailing fashion among the ladies, which transposes an angel to a model artist, is universally detested by every gentleman whose good opinion a lady should desire. It blunts the finer feelings of both sexes, and is a disadvantage to the one, by destroying all room for imagination in the other. A round, plump, white arm is beautiful, and may be admired with all propriety; but an arm shaped like a three cornered file with red elbows is not beautiful and, in competition with the Spanish garrote, would stand no chance of being elected to one's neck. A white, round neck, with an alabaster base half concealed by a coquettish collar, is the most bewitching sight in the world; but a large expanse of boney shoulders, painted with a patent bam, with its contiguous unprotected territory, has about as many attractions as a newly painted Windsor chair."

Items of News.

THE LAW OF MARRIAGE IN IRELAND.—The Irish Court of Queen's Bench has decided that a clergyman may marry himself. The question arose as to the legitimacy of the children of a marriage thus performed:—The Rev. S. S. Beamish was duly ordained a clergyman of the United Churches of England and Ireland, and it appeared that on the 27th of Nov., 1831, being then in holy orders, he went to the house of Anne Lyons, in the city of Cork, and there performed a ceremony of marriage between himself and Isabella Fraser. The special verdict described the manner in which the ceremony took place, and the general form of solemnisation was that set out in the Book of Common Prayer of the United Churches of England and Ireland. Mr. Beamish then declaring that he took the said Isabella Fraser to be his wedded wife, she taking him to be her wedded husband. The wedding ring was then placed upon her finger, and the blessing was pronounced: Judge Crampton delivered judgment in favor of the validity of the marriage.

ANOTHER "CONFIDENCE MAN"—The Burlington, Vt., Free Press gives a long account of the doings in that town of a swindler calling himself the "Baron de Percy," and professing to be the son of "Hon. Capt. Murray, of Queen Victoria's Household Guards. He professed to be a convert to Methodism, and asserted that he had recently come into possession of a fortune of forty-five thousand pounds sterling per annum. He went so far as to preach in the Methodist church, to a large audience, many of them doubtless attracted by the novelty of an English Baron in a Vermont pulpit. He was called upon by the first citizens, whom he invited to shoot game with him next year on the preserves of his cousin, the Earl of Dalkeith, in Scotland, &c., &c., with other similar humbugs. The upshot of the matter was that he borrowed money, run in debt, and then ran away, and people found that they had been egregiously duped.

The largest ship in England is the new one in Chatham dockyard. Its dimensions are—300 feet long, 115 feet wide, and 90 feet high. It was commenced in 1851.

THE STRIKE IN MANCHESTER.—There has been an increase in the number of unemployed factory hands at Manchester, which now amount to about 2400. A procession of about 300 or 400 of the turn outs passed through some of the principal streets on Monday forenoon; and an appeal has been issued to the public for sympathy and support, and to the masters to adopt short time, rather than force the hands to remain out of work at the present season. If the strike in the Manchester district become general, as expected, the consumption of cotton will be reduced, it is estimated, by about 1000 bags per week during its continuance.—[Liverpool Times, Nov. 24.

Informations were sworn at Dublin on the 21st, at the suit of the Crown, against the Redemptorist priest Petchinini, for having taken part in and been present at a public Bible burning at Kingstown. A police-constable has sworn to the identity of the individual.

The Hon. James M. Mason has been elected United States Senator for Virginia, over George W. Summers, (Know-Nothing) by 58 majority of joint vote.

The Rochester Union says that agents of the French Emperor have been largely engaged this Fall in purchasing wheat in the west on his account. They have purchased 800,000 bushels, of which 450,000 came to Buffalo, and 236,000 went to Oswego—all but 90,000 went down the Erie Canal. The same Agents are still buying in Illinois and further West for States, to go down the Mississippi and out by New Orleans.

STEAM GRIST MILL IN KINGSTON.—Mr. A Mann of the Agricultural Store, Princess street, in connection with some gentlemen in Rochester, is fitting up the large stone Warehouse on the premises of the Marine Railway, foot of Gore street, as a Grist Mill to be worked by steam. There will be three run of stones, and improved machinery for the manufacture of good merchantable flour. This is a project which we trust will amply remunerate the enterprising proprietors, as we think it will prove a palpable benefit to the citizens of Kingston, and the farming community in his neighborhood, who will find here a ready market for their wheat instead of disposing of it to speculators on the other side.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

We learn from the Chicago papers of the 4th, that the schooner Windham, of Grand Rapids, went ashore on Tuesday, on Death's Door Reef, entrance to Green Bay. She was loaded with lumber for Chicago, and at last accounts the sea was breaking over her. She went ashore in consequence of her anchor breaking. She is uninsured.

LOSS OF A VESSEL.—The Mermaid of Cleveland—a schooner rigged scow—Captain P. O. Peterson, loaded with lumber from Muskegon, and bound for Chicago, was driven ashore 9 miles south of the Grand River, in a gale of wind, on the night of the 17th and 18th. The vessel was totally wrecked, but the crew were saved, after being 18 hours exposed to the wind, with the weather so cold that they were completely covered with ice. They were 8 hours in the rigging, and finally taken off by Indians.—[Chichago Journal, Dec. 1.

The Chicago Press says "the yawl of the small schooner Josephine Dresden has been picked up a few miles north of St. Joseph, and fears are entertained that the vessel is lost with all on board. A vessel is ashore eight miles south of St. Joseph, name unknown."

Amenities of War in the Crimea.

A correspondent of the Journal de Constantinople, writing from Sebastopol, October 4th, says:

"The French troops are opposite Russians along the whole line of the Tchernaya. A few days since the French soldiers became always ingenious in finding means of passing away the time, put themselves, along the line of advanced posts, in direct communication with the Russian soldiers placed opposite to them. The plan which they adopted was this: they hoisted bayonets some small white handkerchiefs; the Russian soldiers, not to be wanting in politeness, did the same, thus showing that they were disposed for a conference.

The French soldiers then showed their bread and coffee, and the Russians their grounds of brandy and then with common accord they advanced toward each other without arms, and took their coffee and brandy together. It appears that this kind of recreation went on for some days without the knowledge of the French or Russian officers. The Gingarlet Battery at times sent some shot among these jovial gentlemen, but that did not prevent the meetings from taking place. A few days since the General was informed of the fact, and the most rigorous orders were issued to put a stop to such proceedings. The captain, who at first ought to have prevented them, has been punished. The weather is beautiful; not a drop of rain has fallen for the last six weeks."

NEWS OF THE MORNING.

PITTSBURGH AND GANANOQUE ROAD.

A bitter article against the Mayor appears in the News, and Dr. Barker comes in for his share of the abuse. So far as he is personally concerned, the following five gentlemen had the plurality of votes at the Meeting of the Stockholders, independent of the thousand votes put in by the Mayor on the part of the City:—

☞ Brilliant Discoveries—Dr James McClintock's Whooping Cough Remedy and Diarrhea Cordial can be very truly termed Family guardians. Whooping Cough, Croup, and also Diarrhea, Cholera Morbus, Dysentery, and Summer Complaints at once yield to the powerful neutralizing properties of these great antidotes. They are tried prescriptions, culled from an immense and successful practice by the Founder of Philadelphia College of Medicine.—Sold by E. W. Palmer, and E. H Parker, Kingston. 287

☞ The Brightest Gems of Life are Good Health and Buoyant Spirits; but, in case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, and their train of ills, Dr. James McClintock's Dyspeptic Elixir gives immediate relief, creates an appetite, and assists digestion. His Alterative Syrup is the Great Constitutional Remedy for Purifying the Blood, Eradicating Pimples, Blotches, Scurvy and all kinds of Taint from the System, and producing healthy and blooming appearance.—Sold by E. W. Palmer, and E. H. Parker, Kingston. 287

☞ The Sudden and Tremendous Variations of temperature in this climate, are the fruitful source of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Bronchitis, Consumption, and every variety of pulmonary disease. For all ordinary affections of the Throat or Lungs, Dr. James McClintock's Cold and Cough Mixture will be found an absolute specific; and if, through neglect of these precautions of more fatal companions, the seeds of Consumption or Bronchitis should have been sown in the system, recourse may be had to Dr. James McClintock's Pectoral Syrup, with the fullest confidence in a speedy cure. Sold by E. W. Palmer, and E. H. Parker, Kingston. 287

☞ A Vast Increase of Fever and Ague Cases is reported from all quarters; but, fortunately, we have the strongest testimony that Dr. James McClintock's Fever and Ague Specific and its Anti-Bilious Pills as an auxiliary, have been found to arrest the worst cases of the disease. All medicine should be taken with a dose of the Anti-Bilious Pills, where there is costiveness, as the Fever and Ague Specific will not act upon a clogged system. Sold by E. W. Palmer, and E. H. Parker, Kingston. 287

The above Medicines prepared under the direction of Professor James McClintock, late President of the Philadelphia (United States) College of Medicine, from the purest and freshest materials, are strongly recommended to the afflicted. They may be procured in Kingston, of E. W. Palmer, agent of E. H. Parker & Co., who are the duly authorised agents for the City of Kingston.

LIVER COMPLAINT AND DYSPEPSIA.

THOMAS LATCHFORD says:—

Covington, Ohio, Dec. 27th, 1852.

"My wife has been afflicted with the Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years during which time I have spent a great deal for doctoring, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and finally the doctors said she could not be cured. Last year she concluded to try Hoofland's German Bitters; she took two bottles, and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business. I have sold quite a number of bottles through her recommendation, and as far as I can learn, it has given satisfaction to all."

The Greatest Medical Discovery of the Age is Ayer's Cathartic Pills.

They don't help complaints, but they cure them.

One Box has cured the Dyspepsia.

Three Boxes have cured the worse cases of Scrofula.

Two Boxes have cured Erysipelas.

One Box always cures the Jaundice.

Three Boxes are sure to cleanse the system from Boils—often less than one does it.

Two Boxes cure the worst of Ulcers on the leg.

Small doses seldom fail to cure the Piles.

One dose cures the headache arising from a foul stomach.

Strong doses often repeated expell every worm from the body. They should be given to children, who are always more or less afflicted with this scourge.

As a gentle Physician they have no equal.

One Box cures derangement of the Liver.

Half a Box cures a Cold.

They purify the blood, and thus strike at the foundation of every disease.

As a Dinner Pill there is not their equal in the world.

They are purely vegetable; and can do no harm, but do accomplish an unaccountable amount of good.

Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Ms. and sold by every respectable Druggist in Canada and the United States.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS, an unfailing Remedy for all disorders of the Chest and Lungs. Oliver Thompson, of Kingston, C. W., was certainly in a most deplorable state of health ten weeks ago; his lungs, so the doctors told him, were completely gone, his chest, and in fact his body generally, had scarcely an atom of flesh on it, so thin had he become. In addition to this, he had a cough which completely shook him to pieces (these are his own words); he has just informed Professor Holloway, that all these complaints have been removed by Holloway's Pills, after he had used them for seven weeks and two days, and he now feels better than ever he did in his life. These Pills will readily remove all diseases of the stomach and bowels. 287
