CITY AND VICINITY.

How is your supply of snow holding out? Do you think you will have enough to last you through?

POLICE COURT.—No business before Court this morning.—The song "Give us a Rest" is not practiced in this Court.

THE HOUSEHOLD MAGAZINE.—This New York publication is at hand for March, full of entertaining reading.

THE streets and roads are a little worse than disagreeable. They are horrid. Business is still at a stand-still. No life in town and little travel.

A DULL, wet, drizzling, cold, clammy day, a disgrace to a respectable month like February. Out upon such a one-horse thaw.

MR. CULCHETH's friends in Portsmouth and Kingston will be happy to hear that he is fast recovering from his severe sickness of inflammation of the lungs, and hopes to be able in a few days to attend to business as usual.—Local Adv.

GLORIOUS.—It is splendid to have a by-law compelling persons to remove the snow from the side-walks in front of their dwellings. The real beauty and advantage of this by-law don't strike one till he undertakes a promenade along one of the back streets. One door-way in every twenty, generally speaking, is the average of places cleared.

LESS EXPENSE AND BETTER.—It is telegraphed that the bill introduced by the Minister of Justice, on the subject of Penitentiaries, does away with the present unwieldly process of supervision by Commissioners, and continues their control directly under the Department of Justice, whose officer and inspector is, twice a year, to visit them and report on their management. His office shall be in the Department of Justice, Ottawa.

THE WATERTOWN INFLECTION.—There was only one death on Tuesday and one new case of small pox, reports from Watertown say. The Board of Health has taken strong measures to stamp out the epidemic; several special policemen have been appointed to guard the infected districts, and prevent people from the houses in which small-pox patients are confined, from visiting other parts of the city. The public schools are closed.

NEW SONG.—Great song and chorus of the day is "Remember Deeds of Kindness," which we are assured, as report says, will be one of the most popular songs ever published in the United States. Over 1,100 copies were sold in three cities, after being sung in public for one week in each place. The arrangement is in the key of C, and so easy that everybody can play and sing it. Will be sent to any address, free of postage, upon receipt of 35 cents, by F. W. Helmick, music dealer, 278 West Sixth street, Cincinnati, O.

BLARNEY.—Those irregular mail trains on the R., W. & O. RR. are responsible for a great deal more than the delay and interruption in business and transport. For instance they have given opportunity for a piece of flattery: "We miss the regular visits of our Kingston exchanges—the Whig and the News—very much. When this cruel blockade is over, we shall hope to receive them regularly each morning as before the storm. Kingston has reason to be proud of her press." We got red in the face with those innocent blushes of ours when we read that. The Despatch knows one good reason why a portion of the Kingston press is readable—copying frequently from its Watertown confrere.

The Country Roads.

(To the Editor of the British Whig.)

DEAR SIR,—I have taken notice of the roads in different townships and find that it is impossible to travel these roads on the allowance laid out, people travelling fields at a great inconvenience, and in many places the persons owning the land along the roads have put up notices forbidding any person trespassing on their lands. The Councils of the different townships in the County of Frontenac and people living in the vicinity of Kingston ought to look into the matter, for the welfare of the travelling community, and see that it is remedied as quickly as possible. If out of their jurisdiction they ought to apply to Parliament to enact a statute law that would be compulsory and all would be right. It is a thing that should not be neglected, as the County is getting very much cleared up every year and what the people does not clear up the wind does it for them. Imagine the trouble saved in the province of Quebec—where this law is in force, it would save a great deal here every year, that has heretofore been expended in keeping those roads clear of snow. I think it would be advisable to have two or three men chosen to see after this thing to mark the places that the fences should be laid down. It would be an advantage, as the fences need not be laid down all along the different routes.

Yours respectively,
A TRAVELLER.

Wolfe Island, Feb. 23, 1875.

LAWYER SUSPENDED.—Mr. John O'Farrell was by judgment rendered yesterday by the Council of the Bar suspended from his functions as advocate, solicitor, attorney, proctor-at-law, &c., for the term and space of three months. The complaint against him was that in a criminal prosecution in which he acted on behalf of the private prosecutor, he voluntarily accepted an appointment as constable by the Magistrate issuing the warrant, and effected the arrest of the accused.

WEATHERISMS.

—The 'beautiful snow' looks to-day as if it wanted its face washed.

—We haven't heard any apprehension expressed this winter of a failure in the ice corn.

—They say that winter is over two-thirds gone, but we have not missed any of ours yet.

—The warm weather has thawed out the bummers and a number occupied their old stands yesterday.

—We are afraid the remarkable person who has had no fall this winter is reserved for a worse fate.

—Don't eat cucumbers without plenty of pepper and salt, and be careful regarding garden sauce generally.

—Stress of weather and scarcity of food are driving moose on the Upper Ottawa to the barns and stables of the settlers and the shanties of the lumberers.

—In Vienna they have a single word for a fact very common with us now—the bursting of a water-pipe. This is the word—Hochquellenwasserleitungsrohrenfatalitaten.

—The extreme cold weather and consequent obstruction to navigation by ice, it is said, will soon raise the price of oysters In Baltimore the prices have increased from fifty to seventy-five per cent.

—And this is the 'open winter' that was prophesied by the knowing ones, who said all the hair was falling from the squirrels' tails, the skunks smelled stronger than usual, and the woodchucks were unusually plenty.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF CARRIERS.—The Court of Appeals has unanimously confirmed the judgment of the Court below in the appeal case of the Canadian Navigation Company, appellant, and Hayes, respondent. The latter was on board the steamer "Kingston" with his baggage and samples of merchandise on the trip when she with her cargo was destroyed by fire above Brockville. He sued the Company for value of his baggage and samples, alleging negligence. This the Company denied; the Superior Court gave judgment for the value of the baggage, but not for the samples, because no freight was paid on them. On the Court of Appeals confirming the judgment, Judge Taschereau remarked that the origin of the fire was uncertain. It started in state-room 19, which was used as a store room for linen, &c., and which adjoined one of the smoke stacks. The Company had not accounted for the fire; the presumption was against them and if was probable it came from a hot pipe, which showed negligence. The Chief Justice remarked that there was negligence in putting combustible material in such a place as room 19, and as only servants of the Company had access to it, they should have accounted for the fire.—Witness.

A TREAT IN STORE.—Several ardent temperance advocates and intellectual gentlemen of the city have endeavored to secure the visit of the celebrated Mr. Gough to Kingston for a temperance lecture under the auspices of the P. M. Church. Though his engagements ahead will prevent his early acceptance of the invitation, it is expected that he will visit the city within two months. Then for a lecture that is a lecture.

ST. PATRICK'S SOCIETY.—At the adjourned annual meeting on Friday evening the new St. Patrick's Band will be present.

A CALIFORNIA PHENOMENON.—The San Francisco Alta of Feb. 4 says: 'Yesterday at about 10.30 o'clock, while some topographical students were out on the Presidio adjusting their instruments, suddenly they heard a sharp whistling in the direction of the north-west. The sound increased, and as it passed overhead as if a whistle at first, increasing to a scream, then as a park of artillery rapidly rolling over a rough road, it dwindled into silence, passing to the south-east. Nothing was visible in the air. But the most curious thing about it was that before the sound the needle of the compass pointed 22½° to the west of north. But when the sound had ceased, and the students with pale faces gave their attention to their theodolite it showed a variation of 22½° to the east.

OVER THE WAY.—At Cape Vincent the ice is twenty-eight inches thick; the wells are giving out; the sidewalks are run on the narrow gauge plan; the Eagle's "patent innards" didn't arrive in time for last week's publication day; the "Home Guards" are (politically) played out; there hasn't a train of cars left that station in over two weeks; the Radical candidate for Supervisor was badly beaten; Lent is in progress and the fish dealers can't ship their stock on account of the snow blockade. And yet Cape Vincent isn't happy.—Despatch.

PARLIAMENT YESTERDAY.—After routine of business, Hon. Mr. Cartwright, introduced a bill respecting banking and Currency, after which the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie proceeded with his motion for the expulsion of Louis Riel, as an outlaw. An amendment was moved by Mr Plumb, but it was lost on division, and the original motion was carried by a large majority.

TROUBLE.—There is a sensation in Indiana. All marriages under the new constitution, since 1852, are illegal. The constitution provides that every law shall have an enacting clause, and that without it the act shall be void. The law relating to marriages has no such enacting clause; hence it is void, and the State is without any law on the subject.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk.—Sold by Grocers in packets only, labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, 48, Threadneedle street, and 170, Piccadilly; Works, Euston Road and Camden Town, London."

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."—See article in Cassell's Household Guide.
