Curry's fundraiser

Curry's Artists Materials is celebrating its centennial with a fundraising art sale to benefit those with dystonia.

The neurological disorder causes involuntary contractions or spasms in muscles, forcing the body into twisting, repetitive motions and abnormal postures. As focal dystonia can particularly affect artists, Curry's is hosting the fundraiser at its downtown Toronto location on Tuesday, Oct. 25 from 6:30-9:15 p.m.

Proceeds will go to the Dystonia Medical Research Foundation Canada.

Tickets can be purchased at Curry's stores, including in Oakville or online at www.currys.com.
