CITY AND VICINITY

TO NIGHT the "ever tuneful" Tandys are to sing in Montreal.

LARGE ARRIVAL of New Shades in kid Gloves for Ladies and Gentlemen, at Erly's.

THE work on the long sewer on Princess street was yesterday resumed with full energy, and the air is redolent of 357 drain odors, from the openings made.

OF COURSE, everybody is prepared for the announcement that it snowed this afternoon, a real, cold, business-like snow. Spring is on the wing, they say, but it must be flying from and not towards us.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—To-morrow Mr. Wm. Murray will offer for sale the Garrett Homestead, a fine parcel of property on King street West, coupled with a water lot most eligibly situated for manufacturing or commercial operations.

"THE PEN AND PLOW."—This well conducted monthly comes regularly. It is a spirited advocate of the application of useful knowledge to agriculture, and its contents always exhibit a pure taste and a high literary ability. The typographical style is splendid.

THERE are two papers handled now in every one's house—that paper of tax left by the assessors, who are on their rounds this week, and the paper of tacks yanked about by the busy renovator. The man of the house shows his tactics by keeping shady.

SINGING CLASSES.—We understand Mr. Youmans intends having a meeting tomorrow (Saturday) at 10 a.m. and 2 p.m. for such as wish to join his juvenile class; and that on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock an adult class will be formed. For terms see bills.

THE spelling fever is not catching in the healthful scholastic air of Kingston. There are no bad spellers to form a virus for the insidious disease to get a hold on; therefore there has not yet been a rumor of a spelling class, and the dictionary trade at McAuley & Co.'s is unruffled.

KIND.—The intimation is publicly given that the news room of the town of St. John's, P.Q., is open, and that papers and periodicals will be there fyled when supplied free of charge. Striking generosity! Noble condescension! Something will have to be done to stay the rush of papers soon to take place in that direction.

THE NEWEST OUT.—The latest issue is a very useful one, that of "Dawson's Registered Letters List," for checking and keeping a record of the receipt of registered letters. This little book will be found invaluable by all merchants who receive remittances by mail. It is neat and compact, and substantially bound for the low price at which it is issued. It will do; it fills a want in every large office.

THE BANK OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.—The half yearly statement of the Bank to-day published shews such an amount of specie held against circulation that its safety is equal to that of the very best institutions. Its good management, and prosperity are, besides, sufficiently attested by the announcement we made the other day, of there having been a net profit in the year past of £109,925, affording a dividend at the rate of 10 per cent.

ARRIVALS.—The Deputy Sheriff of Middlesex and body guard arrived here this morning with three prisoners from London for the Penitentiary, to wit:—Andrew King, burglary, 2 years; William McDonald, fraud, 3 years; Charley Ashley, burglary, 2 years. We regret that the first impressions of the Prison and its beautiful situation formed by these gentlemen were not more favorable, but with the advent of brighter skies and an open lake, they will find their new quarters both picturesque and salubrious.

CORONER'S INQUEST.—An inquest was held on Monday by Coroner Cowdy, on the body of John Lewis, a soldier of 1812, who came to Kingston on the 13th inst., and drew his pension. He drank hard while the money lasted, and was found on the road near home hanging helplessly out of a waggon and in an insensible state. He was taken to his son's house in Bedford and died, completing another public temperance lecture. In consequence of severe bruises found on the body, the inquest was called; no conclusion yet.

THE NAVIGATION.—The steamer Queen arrived last evening from Gananoque, being the first boat of the year from down the river. She did not meet much ice in the way, and had a comparatively easy passage, but the south wind provided all the difficulty she could wish to encounter in choking the river channel up with ice from the lake last evening. The Queen is therefore ice-bound here, unable to return, though the steamer Pierrepont is running to the Island and Cape as before.

A GRAND TIME.—The splendid consecration ceremony of Sunday last in Kingston is dwarfed into a side show by the accounts in anticipation of the ceremony to be conducted on Tuesday next in New York, in the conferring of the baretta on the Cardinal Archbishop McCloskey. We were proud of the attendance of two archbishops and six bishops, but at the New York service it is expected that, in addition to some forty archbishops and bishops and about twelve hundred priests, the President and Cabinet, Governor Tilden and staff, and the municipal officers of New York will be present.

UNITED STATES.

—Boston does nothing literary by halves. One of the prizes at a spelling match was a $300 rosewood piano.

—One Quigley, of New York, fatally stabbed his brother-in-law in a family quarrel, and then went for a doctor.

—The "second advent" came and passed away very quietly. The centennial made twice as much noise.

—A survey of the Erie Canal will probably be taken before the water is let in, to see what the cost of seven feet of water throughout will be.

—Our American cousins have gone mad on the centennial business, the latest instance being the voting by the Boston Corporation of $30,000 to celebrate the Battle of Bunker's Hill.

—Mrs. Mary Clemmer (Ames) is in Brooklyn and liable to be put upon the stand in the Beecher trial. She is the lady who complained to Bowen that she had been insulted by Theodore Tilton.

—A man in Troy, N.Y., ninety-three years of age, has had six weeks during his lifetime. His present wife is eighty years old. The old gentleman says that he expects he is too old to marry again.

—Kentucky, the famous race horse, died at August Belmont's nursery, in New York, on Sunday, after two weeks' inflammation of the lungs. He was once bought by Lawrence Jerome for $40,000, and then sold to Hunter & Travers for $30,000.

—The accounts of Henry Hazen, the absconding collector of the port of Fernandino, Florida, have been examined by a special agent of the Treasury, who says a deficiency exists of $168,428. This deficiency will likely be somewhat increased.

—At a dinner given by the Liverpool Chamber of Commerce to M. Michel Chevalier, the celebrated French economist, the distinguished guest, referring in the course of his speech to the subject of free trade, especially pointed out the inconsistency of the United States in imposing duties on foreign grain, and at the same time flooding the European markets with their own products.

CANADIAN.

—The Canada Guarantee Company have declared a dividend of 4 per cent. for the current half year.

—A clerk in the Department of the Interior was suspended yesterday for impertinence to a Minister of the Crown.

—Late European advices say that the recent rise in Anglo-American mining stock in London has been sustained.

—A telegram from St. Paul, Minnesota, states that the Red River was open that day for passengers and freight to Manitoba.

—Montreal is revelling in new strawberries at $1.25 per basket. Strawberries are not good for people this time of the year.

—Bishop Bourget has issued a pastoral to the clergy, directing that hereafter the Festival of St. Boniface shall be celebrated on the 5th of June.

—A spelling mania is raging in Cobourg. Young men with dictionaries under their arms, may now be seen perambulating the streets, training for the match.

—A rage for land speculation is developing in Toronto. Another sale of Winnipeg town lots comes off on Saturday, and two auctioneers have advertised sales of Fort William property for to-day.

—A waggon and horses, with the driver, went over a precipice 130 feet high, near St. Catharines. The horses were killed, and the teamster cannot recover.

—The Guelph Herald makes his bow and an ample apology for his publication of the libel on the Hon. George Brown, as it appeared in the National some time ago. This, we believe, is the last of the batch.

—Notwithstanding the assertions of the Nova Scotia Senators at Ottawa that the County Courts Act was unpopular and that there was every chance of its being repealed by the present House of Assembly, the Act has been sustained by nearly two thirds of the House.

—An action for breach of promise has been taken in the Superior Court, Montreal, in the name of Miss Wheeler, of Edinburgh, Scotland, against Mr. Francis O. Wood, advocate, of Montreal. Damages are laid at $20,000. Plaintiff alleges that attentions were paid from 1867 up to 1870. She formerly resided in Montreal, and acts there through a power of attorney.

GENERALITIES.

—Pope Pius the IX has buried 104 Cardinals.

—Nobody has ever been hanged for killing a book agent.

—A new gown for ladies, to slip on over everything when in a hurry, is appropriately called Jeff-Davis.

—A New Orleans prima donna fainted in the midst of an air the other day. It couldn't have been a fresh one.

—Young men wearing a thin, fashionable overcoat and a piece of red flannel pinned round the neck are seen about now-a-days.

—Linen dusters after the Ulster pattern will be worn this year. Pants and vest however with those articles will, of course, be entirely superfluous.

—There is no question about Mr. Varley bringing the sinners to him. Six persons had their pockets picked while he was preaching at Greenpoint on Tuesday.

—John Chinaman is said to be winning the respect of Californians. That is to say, we suppose they shoot him in the head instead of the bowels, as formerly.

—To pardon those absurdities in ourselves which we cannot suffer in others, is neither better nor worse than to be more willing to be fools ourselves than to have others.

—The paper makers say that the rags they have received this year are more threadbare than usual, which they attribute to the general prevalence of hard times.

—In some places, slate has became altogether too expensive an article for roofing. The demand from the saloon keepers for slates during the present dull times has tended to stiffen the price.

—"No," said she, leaning out of the window and addressing herself to the back door neighbor, 'we don't expect to do much at housecleaning this year until after the Brooklyn trial is over.'

—It was a woman—Elizabeth, Countess of Thanet—who first petitioned the Irish Government for a penny post. This was 172 years ago. Subsequently for that valuable hint she was awarded a pension of £300 per annum.

—An exchange states that there is imminent danger of a spruce gum famine, as the cold weather has destroyed the spruce blossoms. Many young women will be either thrown out of employment or forced to turn to shoemaker's wax.

—Mrs. Lovit, of Rochester, N. Y., has forced her husband and three grown up sons to take board at a neighbor's, as she finds it impossible to spare time for housework while the Beecher Tilton trial is going on. She is a slow reader.

—Pain and anguish rings the brow of the housewife, who humbugged by the recent warm spell hauled down her base burner. Club us to death with a mop handle, but duty compels us to state that there is to be six weeks of winter yet.

PLUNDER FOUND.—A New York telegram says: Three men cleaning out a cess-pool on Staten Island discovered between $20,000 and $30,000 of gold coin. It appears that the premises on which the discovery was made were formerly owned by the City Bank cashier, who was a defaulter to the amount of $160,000 to the institution, of which he was an officer, and who is now said to be a fugitive in Europe.

BREAKFAST.—EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL AND COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many doctors' bills."—Civil Service Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk.—Sold by Grocers in packets only, labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, 48, Threadneedle street, and 170, Piccadilly, Works, Euston Road and Camden Town, London."

MANUFACTURE OF COCOA.—"We will now give an account of the process adopted by Messrs. James Epps & Co., manufacturers of dietic articles, at their works in the Euston Road, London."—See article in Cassell's Household Guide.
