CITY AND VICINITY

A LOSS.—A telegram to-day reports the schooner Anglo-Saxon, owned by Mr. Dawson, of Sombra, driven ashore on Lake Erie.

THE FIRST RAFT.—Messrs. Calvin & Baeck are well up to time this season, if it did open so very late. To-day they despatched a large raft to Quebec.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—As the prepayment of newspapers from publication offices must begin on Oct. 1st next, our subscribers are warned not to make prepayment of postage at the receiving offices beyond that date.

CRICKET.—The K. C. Club members have practiced in the evenings for a week past, and to-day afternoon practice was begun. The Ottawa and Prescott matches, so soon in prospect, are an incentive to practice.

VARIETY TROUPE—Showers & Co's troupe had a full house last night in the City Hall, and Mr. Kelley, who was soon recognized as one of the Brennan Troupe, amused and entertained highly. The the little troupe of dogs were also well worth seeing and admiring.

SENTENCED.—A man named Wyness, who pleaded guilty to setting fire to Wilson's store in Windsor and said he had been instigated to do so by the proprietor, has been awarded a term of ten years in the Kingston Penitentiary. The next person who endeavors to instigate him will be pretty severely scorned.

ASCENSION DAY.—This morning at St. Paul's Church and St. George's Cathedral service was held in connection with the Festival. At St. Mary's Cathedral the Rev. Father Toohey celebrated mass. Bishop O'Brien, being in Brockville, performed the same service in the R. C. Church there.

INSTALLATION.—At the regular meeting of Ontario Lodge No. 80, B.A.O.G.T., Portsmouth, the following officers were installed by Bro. James Schroeder, P.D.: Bro. James Schroeder, W.C.T.; Sister C. A. Culcheth, W.V.T.; Bro. H. Lindsay, W. Chap.; Bro. T. Kennedy, W. Sec.; Bro. W. Graham, W.T.; Bro. Alexander Johnston, W.F.S.; Bro. J. Watt, W.M.; Sister S. Woods, W.A.M.; Bro. Wm. Armour, W.I.G.; Bro. Amos Nicholson, W.O.G.; Bro. R. Funnel, P.W.C.T.; Sister M. Fraser, W.R.H.S.; Sister C. Bannister, W.L.H.S.; Sister L. M. Baiden, W.A.S.; Sister P. Schroeder, Organist.

THE CENSUS.—In that interesting statistical report, the census of 1870-71, just received, we gather the population of the towns, townships and villages in Lennox and Addington, and the number of acres each contains:—

	Pop.	Acres.
Adolphustown	756	910
South Fredericksburgh	1,497	1,277
North do	1,722	1,327
Richmond	3,431	2,137
Napanee	2,967	50
Amherst Island	1,189	1,568
Ernesttown	4,233	1,921
Bath	601	212
Total	16,396	9,402

RECOVERING.—There is a slight abatement in the spelling fever, and yet a proposal for a big match in aid of the Kingston General and Marine Hospital would be favorably received all over the city and especially on the Evening Board. One orthographist alone will guarantee spellers enough to make the affair very interesting if some other gentleman will but organize the entertainment. There is no risk in the undertaking for a simple announcement of a real, live spelling tussle will do more than a Cool Burgess red and blue poster in drawing a crowd to the City Hall. By the way, who can supply a box of spelling matches!

"THE CHAMPION."—There is something in a name as far as one particular mowing and reaping machine is concerned. "The Champion" bears a significance in its title that is fully borne out by its uncommon success. It is in use everywhere, 22,000 machines being turned last year out of the manufactory at Springfield, Ohio, where very extensive works are carried on. This year the demand is equally as great, and in extending their agencies to Kingston the manufacturers are meeting public desire. Messrs. J. S. Powley, of this city, and T. McGillivray, of Washburn, are the authorized agents in Frontenac, and what they cannot tell you about this excellent machine is not worth knowing.

IN THE ICE.—An Allan Line Surgeon tells an Ottawa Confrere what a detention in the ice is like. Thus, when steamships such as those now overdue get into the field ice it is impossible for them to use their screws until an opening is found in the pack. It closes round them as far as can be seen from the mast head. The sea is quite calm from the extent of ice on its surface, the ships remain as if resting and totally helpless until the wind or some other cause opens a space for them to steam out. No steamship has ever been lost in field ice in the St. Lawrence, and, coaled and provisioned as these ships are, the passengers will suffer very little discomfort from their detention of a few days in the pack.

WHAT IS DOING.—For several days past railroad surveyors have been taking measurements of the upper part of the city and thence of a line to Colinsby. Rumor says that they are employed by the G.T.R. company, and that the running of their line directly through the city is in contemplation, together with a reopening of the repair shops at the suburban depot to their full capacity. The citizens will rejoice greatly if either design be carried out, and especially over that first mentioned, the incalculable benefits of which, with the arguments to be cited in its favor, have so often been presented.

Presbyterian Synod.

The annual meeting of the Montreal Synod of the Canada Presbyterian Church was opened in Bank street Church, Ottawa, on Tuesday evening. Among those present were the Rev. Messrs. Andrew Wilson, Thomas Chambers, John Gallagher and Andrew Dowsley of Kingston Presbytery. Yesterday morning a discussion interesting to Kingston readers took place.

The Rev. A. Wilson, of Kingston, presented a verbal statement of the work done anent the Provincial Penitentiary. Last September he had held an interview with the Hon. Mr. Mackenzie, but nothing had been done at that time. Afterwards the matter had been taken into consideration by the Premier. What was complained of was the fact that the liturgy of the Church of England was used at all the prison services, whilst ministers of other denominations were not allowed to address those who belonged to them. The result of the negotiations was that they were allowed, after the Church of England services were conducted, to address Presbyterians and other members of Protestant denominations who might be present. This was all they had been able as yet to do. With respect to the asylum, he was sorry to say that the medical attendant seemed to have things his own way, and called whom he liked and conducted the services as he chose. He thought it would be well to appoint a deputation to wait upon the Premier and request him to take some steps to remedy the matter.

Rev. Mr. Mackenzie, of Almonte, believed that the ministers of all denominations should have free access to the convicts. He thought, as a matter of right, they should be allowed a proper place in regard to these institutions.

Rev. Mr. Wilson begged to call the attention of the Synod to the fact that this chaplaincy was a public appointment and intended for all Protestants, but when Ritualistic doctrines were introduced into the services, he thought the members of the various Protestant denominations had a right to interfere. The chaplain was appointed by Government, and the number of diets of worship which he was to conduct was also appointed, but the manner in which the services were conducted were not specified. In respect to the asylum, he might say that there was no Government appointment. The medical attendant, however, had introduced a hymn book, called "Hymns Ancient and Modern," and which embodied all the Ritualistic errors.

In reply to a member of the Synod, Rev. Mr. Wilson stated that there was no law stating that the chaplain should be a member of the church of England. In the case of the Penitentiary, the Bishop seemed to consider it as part of his charge, and administered the various Church rites as though it were his own parish. Mr. Mackenzie had stated at the interview that he would attend to the matter at once, and he (Mr. Wilson) believed that the Inspector of Prisons had been communicated with. The result was that the Warden and Chaplain had come to the conclusion that the only method by which the petition could be granted, without interfering with the prison rules, was in the manner before stated. There were three inspectors of Prisons at the time of this correspondence, two of whom were Catholics, but since then he understood the matter would be left in the hands of one man, and he believed that no difficulty would likely be experienced.

After some further discussion, Rev. Mr. Burton of Belleville, said if they went on as they were at present doing, they would have to abolish the chaplaincy of these institutions altogether. If they had a Presbyterian chaplain he could conduct the services after the manner of his own church, and then the Church of England people would likely find fault, and then perhaps the Methodists would object to having so much Calvinism. They could hardly blame a Church of England Chaplain for conducting the services after the manner of his own Church, and endeavouring to make them all churchmen. They could not find fault if the convicts were all being converted into Presbyterianism. He thought the most advisable course was to request the Governor to abolish the chaplaincy of these institutions altogether and have the ministers of the various denominations conduct the services in turn.

Rev. Mr. Moore was of opinion that the present state of things was as good as they could expect. He thought if they could not preach after the Church of England prayers it was a very small affair.

Mr. McLaren was of opinion that unless they could obtain a special hour for their services, it would not be of any use to hold their meetings after the regularly appointed chaplain had finished. He thought that unless they could obtain this, they should ask that the chaplaincy be abolished altogether.

A number of other reverend gentlemen continued the discussion, after which, on motion of Mr. Perry, the report was adopted, and a committee appointed to ask that the grievance complained of be remedied. The committee consisted of Revs. Messrs. Mackenzie and Wilson, and Robert Wilson, elder, appointed to wait upon the Premier at the earliest possible moment.

THE "POLYNESIAN."—As there have been some absurd rumors afloat as to the number of passengers on board and other particulars in reference to the detained steamer, it may be as well to state that the number of cabin passengers is forty-five, and that they have fresh provisions for twenty-five days, and dry stores for fifty days in addition. Of steerage passengers, there are 536, who are provisioned on the scale of the Government allowance for 32 days. Economy would at once be exercised, as soon as the steamship was caught in the ice, so that the provisions would last without difficulty for sixty days. The steamer had on starting, 1,000 tons of coal, and, when running full speed, only consumes sixty tons per day, while from two to three tons a day will suffice to keep up steam while in the ice, so that there is no danger of there being too little fuel.—Witness.

THE MISSING STEAMER.—The mail steamship Prussian, which left Liverpool a week after the Polynesian, passed Father Point yesterday evening on her way to Quebec. She reports having yesterday seen a steamer corresponding with the description of the Polynesian. The accounts given by sealers as to the extent of the field of ice fully confirm the opinion previously expressed as to the cause of the three steamships' non-appearance.

THE Napanee Standard waltzes off into its holiest horror because a revival meeting out at Bellrock was followed by a dancing hop. Bellrock folks ought to be ashamed of themselves. Brooklyn's their atmosphere. The village will never succeed in a moral County like this if it runs its social and religious affairs so closely together.

BASE BALL.—The Dauntless base ball club of Watertown will play the St. Lawrence club of Kingston in Kingston on the 24th of May. The return game will be played at Watertown on the 4th of July. One good turn deserves another. If Watertown beats us here, we will endeavor to reciprocate there.

Pittsburg Town Hall.

DEAR WHIG.—In your last week's issue there is a paragraph signed "A Visitor," in which what pretends to be the particulars of a Union Meeting are given. Passing the style and wording of the paragraph, as beneath notice, I merely ask enough space to correct the various statements made by your correspondent. In the first place, the union was effected between S. S. No. 8 Storrington and S. S. No. 12 Pittsburg, and not S. S. No. 5 Storrington and S.S. No. 17 Pittsburg, as your correspondent has it. Secondly; while a large majority was for the union, yet the people were by no means unanimous; and, lastly, the statement that it was held in the town hall was untrue. You know, Mr. Editor, as well as I, that Pittsburg does not possess a Town Hall, although it is rich enough to have one. The meeting in question was held in a large room belonging to Mr. Samuel Smyth, which room is situated over a driving-house belonging to that gentleman. This building was erected last summer by Mr. Smyth, and though built for his own use, he very kindly gives it for any public meeting for which it may be asked. When I say that Mr. Smyth is the most obliging and popular tavern-keeper in Pittsburg, I am but echoing the public opinion of the rear part of the township. Your correspondent, in calling the building a town hall, evidently desired to draw forth adverse criticism on the locality. In conclusion, I have only to say that others (which 'A Visitor,' no doubt, remembers, to his grief) as well as 'A Visitor's' shadow can criticize, too.

THINGS IN GENERAL.

—Wimbledon Rifle meeting is fixed for July 12.

—Ben Block (Wm. Smith), the Hamilton pillar of Orangeism, is dead.

—Hepworth Dixon has a book ready on the aborigines and half breeds of America.

—Ex-Senator D. D. Pratt has been appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue for the United States.

—The Corporation of London has doubled the salary of the chief engineer of the fire department.

—The man who pronounces "Don Quixote" "Donkeyhote" shows a disposition to obtrude his own name that is not commendable.

—Circulars printed in English and Chinese have been distributed throughout China, giving information concerning the Philadelphia Contennial.

—There is such a quarrel among Insurance Companies of Chicago, that there is a chance of the International Board of Underwriters breaking up.

—A reward of four hundred dollars is offered for the capture and conviction of the burglars who robbed Mr. Lear's jewellery store at Simcoe on Wednesday last.

—We have passed the eightieth day of the Beecher trial, and on the hundredth they ought to have centenary celebration in Plymouth tabernacle and a love feast of "true inwardness."

—There was once a Pennyslvania legislator who laid by thirty thousand dollars in one session. When he was asked how he managed this with a salary of one thousand dollars, he said that he saved it by doing without a hired girl.

—It is stated that a large quantity of timber drawn out to the Madawaska river will, in all probability, not be floate this season. They have succeeded in taking timber from this place for the past ten years, and this is the first time the water has failed.

—The girl of the period in her new wrap with long hanging sleeves and sides like wings, bunched up arrangement behind like a tail, and general brilliant appearance, has reminded somebody of an indignant peacock.

—The marriage is announced of the Duke of Medina Coeli, a Spanish grandee who in point of wealth and rank stands at the head of the blue blood of Spain, and the second daughter of the Duke d'Alba, niece of the ex-Empress Eugenie.

—Five times has Oshkosh been partially burned up, and four times has it been rebuilt, and its atrocious name retained. When it is rebuilt for the fifth time perhaps the people will see the wisdom of not continuing to tempt the fire-fiend by calling their town Oshkosh.

—The silverware for the great palace hotel at San Francisco cost $60,000, and among its features is quite a novelty in the shape of silver tea caddies, with four compartments for as many kinds of tea, which will be set before the guests at the table with scalding water at hand; that, they may help themselves to the leaf and make their tea after the Chinese fashion.

—When a young man in Patigonia falls in love with a girl he dosen't visit her six nights in a week and twice on Sunday, and feed her upon molasses candy, and gum drops, and sit up until two o'clock in the morning burning the old man's oil and that sort of thing. Not at all. Courtship in Patagonia is much more simple. He lassoes the girl, drags her home behind his horse, and that is all the marriage ceremony necessary.

GOVERNOR CRAWFORD.—Our Toronto correspondent, a few days since, referred to the illness of the Hon. John Crawford, Lieut.-Governor of Ontario. We regret to learn that His Honor's illness is much more severe, and has been of much longer duration, than the statement telegraphed to the press led us to suppose. For six months he has been under the Doctor's care, and has suffered very severely. We understand that the family physician prescribes change of air, as soon as the season becomes a little more advanced and Mr. Crawford attains strength enough to permit his removal. We are sure that the many friends of the Lieutenant Governor, throughout the Dominion, will learn with deep regret of his illness, and will pray earnestly for his recovery.—Gazette.

LIVE AND LEARN.—The New York State Legislature has passed a bill to prohibit the custom of salting the tracks of street railways or the roadways or sidewalks in any public place in the city of New York, under penalty of being held guilty of misdemeanor. It is stated on the best scientific and medical authority that the practice of dissolving snow and ice by covering it with salt gives rise to diphtheria and pneumonia, and is very hurtful, as well, to horses that are compelled to travel over streets thus treated.

HE'S EXCUSED.—Some of our United States contemporaries announces with some surprise that Mr. Beecher's sermon on Sunday last "contained no jests and nothing to cause that open manifestation of amusement which Mr. Beecher's sermons usually produce." This is too bad. But under the peculiar circumstances which surround the reverend gentleman at present, we suppose he is quite excusable.—Sun.

THE BRIGADE CAMPS.—Toronto, May 5.—It is now positively decided that the first brigade camp in No. 2 military district will be formed at Niagara on Tuesday, the 1st June, and it will probably be comprised of the same corps as were assembled there last year. A second camp will be formed about the middle of June at Holland Landing, composed of the troops who were under canvas there last year, with the probable addition of the 2nd Battalion of the Queen's Own Rifles.

MISSING MINISTER.—The Rev. Joel Briggs, of the Methodist Church of Canada, who has been missing from his home in Toronto since last Saturday, had been suffering from mental depression for some time past, but was thought to be better on Saturday, when he set out to walk to the Wesleyan Book Room, and has not since been heard from.

As Numerous Cases of Poisoning and Death have occurred from the use of Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites, containing strychnine, sold the public without being properly labelled "Poison," purchasers of Dr. Wheeler's Compound Elixir of Phosphates and Calisaya, are requested not to confound the two preparations, as they are entirely different chemically and medicinally. Phosphates are necessary elements of the human organism, and essential to the phenomena of life, entering into the composition of every solid and fluid of the body, and are as harmless as our ordinary food. As Strychnine is frequently poisonous in the smallest doses, it is of the greatest importance that this caution be heeded.
