

Blades move into first

A pair of lopsided weekend wins on home ice moved the Oakville Blades into first place in the Ontario Junior Hockey League's West Division. Oakville sliced up the Buffalo Jr. Sabres 7-0 Friday, then snuffed out the Stouffville Spirit 6-2 Saturday to improve to 10-2 on the season. Seven different Blades — Stephen Hickey, Braedan Russell, Connor McGlynn, Brandon Denham, Tyler Karius, Jordan Coccimiglio and Brad Kobryn — scored Friday in support of James Prigione, who made 25 saves to record the shut-out. Stefan Thompson added three assists in the rout. Saturday, Coccimiglio paced the Blades with two goals and an assist while Chris Taylor, Martin Kudla, Denham and Karius added singles. Bradley Ryan contributed three helpers from his defence position, and Michael Stiliadis notched the win in goal with 24 saves. It will be a busy next six days for the Blades, who have four games scheduled over that span. Oakville will visit the Newmarket Royals tomorrow (Thursday), host the Burlington Cougars Friday (7:30 p.m. at Sixteen Mile Sports Complex), travel to Hamilton Monday to face the Red Wings, and visit Buffalo Tuesday.

Ford to sponsor Oakville Soccer Club house league

The largest soccer club in Canada has joined forces with one of the country's most prominent auto makers. Ford Motor Company is now one of the Oakville Soccer Club's largest corporate sponsors, the soccer club announced Monday at its Pine Glen headquarters facility. Ford will sponsor more than 4,000 children within the OSC

All jerseys for the Ford teams will be car-themed, bearing the name of some of the company's most popular vehicles — like the Edge and the Fiesta — on the back. OSC president Tom Tithecott said the partnership is indicative of the direction the club is headed and will continue to help the club achieve its goal of advancing every player.

"We are pursuing excellence in our club and who could be a better demonstration of that than the Ford Motor Company?" he said. "We look forward to a long and great partnership with Ford."

Intermediate Hornets drop weekend pair

The Oakville intermediate AA Hornets dropped both their games last weekend to fall to 2-3 in Provincial Women's Hockey League play. Oakville was defeated 7-1 Friday by the Burlington Barracudas at Joshua's Creek Arenas, then dropped a 4-2 decision to the Aurora Panthers Sunday in Aurora. Victoria Bach scored the lone goal Friday for Oakville, which was outshot 52-9. Melani Moylan and Bach scored third-period goals Sunday after the Hornets surrendered the first three markers of the game. The Hornets, who have lost three in a row since opening the season with two straight wins, will look to break out of their funk when they play a pair of home games this weekend. The Etobicoke Dolphins visit the Hornets Friday at 8:30 p.m., while the Panthers travel to Joshua's Creek Arenas for a 4:30 p.m. clash Saturday.
