THOUSAND ISLAND PARK

International Camp Meeting,

A CAMP MEETING will commence on these magnificent grounds on the 21st instant, continuing two weeks. Eminent Clergymen from the States and the Dominion will be in attendance. Ample accommodations for all at reasonable rates will be provided by the Association. The occasion will be one of great interest and Canadians are cordially invited to join in the exercises, so as to make it international in the largest sense. The beauty of the spot, the nobleness of the object, and the healthy surroundings unite in making this a most attractive centre for a few days residence.

CITY AND VICINITY

GOLD in New York at 3 o'clock 114¼; Exchange 87½.

One hundred and fifty dozen Shirts for sale cheap at Ashley's Shirt Factory.

ONE MILLION DOLLARS is the amount Mr. Forepaugh has expended in organizing and equipping his great Eight-tent Combination.

PERSONAL.—The Rev. Father Lonergan is on a visit to his friends in Kingston. He is the guest of His Lordship Bishop O'Brien. We are happy to learn that the Rev. gentleman is in the enjoyment of good health.

Look out for our big sale of Shirts, commencing on Saturday, the 17th instant. ASHLEY BROS.

EXCURSION.—The Gananoque Lodge of Good Templars, have arranged for an excursion upon the steamer Queen, to Kingston, on Thursday, July 29th.

THE treasurer of the Orphan's Home begs to acknowledge with thanks a liberal donation of hams and tongues sent by Mr. Pisati, to the Orphan's Home.

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.—Prof. Mowat of Queen's College, preached morning and evening in St. Andrew's church, Belleville, yesterday.

HEALTHY.—It is a consolation to know that the public health this year is in a better condition than it has been for many past summer seasons. It is almost free from sickness.

OPPOSITION.—The performing bears are again parading the streets, opposition to the organ-grinders and the knife-sharpener opposition to both. Opposition is the life of trade.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday while a gang of men were loading the Propellor Columbia with railroad iron a bar slipped from the nippers and fell, injuring one of the men. His injuries are not serious and he is quickly recovering.

PRINCESS STREET.—Complaints are made to us that Princess street is in a shocking bad state of repair, and so full of holes that drivin on it is very dangerous. The proper parties should loose no time in seeing that it is restored to its former condition.

THE WEATHER.—The moon last night was in full bloom, and the weather delightfully cool. The streets were full of promenaders enjoying the beauties of the night and giving the sofas a rest. Front gates are complaining of fatigue this morning.

AMUSEMENTS AHEAD.—Congregational Church Pic-nic on Tuesday; St. James' Sunday School Pic-nic to Simcoe Island at 11:30 a.m. on Wednesday; St. George's Sunday School Pic-nic on Wednesday; Excursion to Belleville on Wednesday; Excursion of Brock Street Presbyterian Church on Friday.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Pratt, President, Mr. Lamere, General Manager, and Mr. Milloy, Traffic Superintendent, of the Richelieu & Ontario Navigation Company, passed up yesterday on the steamer Corinthian on their way to the Falls. Several of our citizens also left by the same boat for Fort William.

THE cheapest Shirts, Ties, Cuffs and Collars in the Dominion is at Ashley's Shirt Factory.

TO BELLEVILLE.—The excursion of the young men of the Wesleyan Church to Belleville on Wednesday will be the best trip yet offered in that direction. The Maud is the boat, and as she goes up direct without calling the trip will be short—to be paradoxical—for its length. The Bay is quite as pleasant to sail on as the river.

THE Science of Health for August is a seasonable and timely number of this model and excellent health publication. It contains information which seems worth more than a year's subscription to every thoughtful reader. It seasonably discusses what is to be eaten at this season, how to treat summer complaints, and how to keep well, in which latter science it has very little, however, to teach some Kingstonians.

THOUSAND ISLAND PARK.—Next Wednesday the great International Camp Meeting on Well's Island will begin. For some time activity has marked all the preparations for the great meeting, and all interested in its prosperity are sanguine of its abundant success the first year. The liveliest interest seems to have been awakened in the meeting by all classes of evangelists, not Methodists alone.

THE NEW STREETS.—The City Engineer is to report this evening on the probable cost of extending Bagot street through the Artillery Park and opening a passage through St. Lawrence Ward near the American Hotel. The expenses in either case is not likely to be larger than the city can well afford this year, and the public benefit is so great as not to be put into comparison at all. We should like to record one little city improvement this year beside the city drain that has caused so much inconvenience.

ARRIVALS AT THE ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL.—W. N. Carrison, Toronto; Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Simpson, Belleville; Robt. E. King and wife, Rome, N. Y.; A. Deuel, Watertown; J. B. Wilson, Utica, N. Y., Mrs. Patterson, Chicago Ill.; Mrs. Leslie Toronto; B. A. Bousie, Fort Mayne, Ind. D. M. Nanson, Boston, Mass.; J. Redfield, Boston, Mass.; Chas. Watt, Oswego; W. P. Derohee, Oswego; M. P. Grant, Philadelphia, Pa.; J. C. Hamilton, Boston; J. C. Hayes, Belleville; J. J. Campbell, Capt. Str. Rochester.

A Secret Religious Service in an Anglican Church.

The Liverpool Evening Albion publishes the following:—

There has been an unpleasant rumor circulating the last few days respecting the proceedings at St. Peter's parish church, and especially in reference to those on a recent festival occasion. It is stated that on the occasion of a recent festival, not authorized nor recognized by the Church of England, a private and secret service unknown in the ritual of the Church was performed with locked doors; that at this service one of the clergy was gorgeously robed, and that there were other attendant circumstances directly opposed to the pledges and promises of the rector, and certainly utterly repugnant to the wishes of the parishioners. We regret to find that there can be no doubt that a private unannounced service was held under peculiar circumstances, with closed doors, on the feast of Corpus Christi.

The Manchester Guardian says:—

We are enabled to give what are the facts, substantiated by the 'priest' himself—the Rev. George R. Burrows. This gentleman informs us that the service referred to did take place as described, and that he alone is responsible for it. It was attended by lay friends of his, to the number of fifteen—members of the Confraternity of the Blessed Sacrament, and believers in the Real Presence. The hour at which it was held was nine in the evening, after the ordinary service, and it occupied about half an hour, conducted with locked doors. It was what is called the Service of the Benediction and Procession of the Blessed Sacrament, the procession being accompanied with hymns, litany, and incense. Mr. Burrows, it may be said, is well initiated in these services, he being in the habit of spending some time at Llanthony Abbey with Father Ignatius, where such services are of daily occurrence; and we understand that in the event of the present disclosure resulting in a termination of Mr. Burrows' labors in Liverpool, he will at once join the English Benedictine Order. We may state that Mr. Burrows, who commenced work at St. Peter's about two years ago, has no license from the Bishop, but simply his permission to work in the diocese.

The vicar of the church is the Rev. Alexander Stewart, and it appears from the Liverpool Mercury that he has, in a letter to Mr. Burrows, expressed in very strong terms his disapproval of that gentleman's conduct.

An Invitation.

(N. Y. World.)

It is rather a pity that at our next intercollegiate regatta the two leading Canadian colleges, McGill University, at Montreal and the Upper-Canada College, at Toronto, cannot be invited to compete. It is true that neither institution has as yet formally organized a boat club; still both have been represented in the best amateur crews of the two cities. They possess, however, splendid facilities for boating on the bay at Toronto or at Lachine, St. Lambert's and Longueuil, near Montreal, and they have the pick of a constituency, if not quite as large as that of one of our larger universities; shall perhaps, of a more eligible sort. The young men of Canada, and particularly of the two cities in question, whether students or engaged in business, are literally in training all the year round, what with snow-shoe racing in winter and lacrosse playing and foot-racing in summer, which, with the quieter methods of Canadian life, should give them no small advantage in preparing for such a contest. The hollow victory of Bowie, of McGill, in the foot race for the Bennett Cup, might be taken as an indication of the atheletic quality of our cousins in the Dominion. Perhaps a sound defeat on the element which Britannia claims as especially her own would induce our Canadian brethren to look on Americans with more respect than they do at present, and to admit that as a people we are not narrow of chest, flabby of chest and puny of muscle.

The Attack on Orangemen.

Lawrence, Mass., July 16.—The Roman Catholic clergy of this city publish the following:—We, the undersigned Roman Catholic clergymen of Lawrence desire to publicly make known our condemnation of the riotous proceedings of last Monday evening. We do not consider as Catholics, in the proper meaning of the term, those who participated in the disturbance of the public peace and, by their shameful conduct, sullied the fair fame of our city. We teach our people good-will towards all people and we strive, by precept and example, to impress upon them the importance of faithfully observing the laws. We trust that the few ruffians who, under the name of Catholicism versus Orangeism, have created such bad feelings and given rise to so much trouble, will be made to feel the enormity of their crime.

ON HEROIC TRIP.—A small sloop, named the Whim, has recently sailed from England, bound to the Arctic seas and zone. It is under the command of Captain Wiggins, of the merchant service, and is manned by five able seamen. The little vessel is twenty seven tons register, with a spencer and square sail on the mast proper, a small spencer sail at the stern and the usual jibs. There is a saloon in miniature about six feet long by five feet wide and five feet deep and the usual forecastle for the crew. Captain Wiggins commanded an expedition to the Arctic seas last year and he is of opinion, that a valuable field for investigation and trade is open to the philanthropist and commercial adventurers among the scattered people who occupy Samopede Land and northernmost Russia generally, and he and his crew go out in pursuit of further investigation in the direction indicated.

SABBATH TEMPERANCE MEETING.—W. Hersey Sr., Presided. The Rev. Mr. Allan said seeing so many young men present that he would speak to them on the importance of forming good habits while young, and that our character whether for good or evil was formed by them and as a person is known by the company he keeps, so is his character by the habits he has formed. We cannot part with them the same as a suit of clothes that did not please us which would be very convenient for us especialy in view of our accountability in another world. Of all the evil habits intemperance is the most powerful imperceptible in its approaches its victims are brought gradually within its deadly embrace and the poor infatuated mortal wakes up to find (if they ever do in this world), themselves the slaves of an habit which is dragging them down to misery wretchedness and eternal woe, the scorn of his fellows, an outcast from the world, a human wreck of all that is good and noble in humanity, left like the sick Hindoo to perish on the shores of the Ganges, abandoned by the human jackals as no longer of any use to them to become the pray of the infernal jackals who are waiting their turn of the victim. What is the safe course to take you would ask? I say abstain as Dr. Johnson when asked to drink wine said no; he knew his future if he took one he would want more, so he took none. That was his safety it is yours connect yourselves with some Temperance organization, take your place in the Temperance ranks, work, do all you can, for the cause is good and you will be forming habits for good, which will carry you with honor through the world, a blessing to your kind. Try it.

CURRENCY.

—New Orleans has twenty-nine Catholic churches.

—A laugh is worth a hundred groans on any market.

—Lord Sandhurst will hand over the Irish command at the end of July to General Sir John Michel.

—In Belgium 100,000 women, girls and little girls, are engaged in the fabrication of lace.

—Three Illinois women have just taken a contract to do all the mowing and potato planting on a hundred acre farm.

—Base ball:—St. Louis Browns 5, Mutuals 1; New Havens, 13, Uticas 5; Chicagoes 4, Hartfords 3.

—A romantic Chicago woman had her lap dog colored a gorgeous crimson by way of compliment to a convival lover's nose.

—A society has been organized for the purpose of enforcing the Dunkin By-Law in the township of Elizabethtown.

—Lightning set fire to a building at Harriston, Ont., and other adjoining houses were destroyed by the fire.

—The President is not so well satisfied with Long Branch this season, as he finds it inconvenient getting to church there.

—The Rev. Archibald Ross, formerly of Wolfe Island, has been appointed to the care of the Presbyterian mission at the Cross, Hochelaga.

—It will take Moody and Sankey ten years to visit all the cities and towns that expect them if they do not stop more than a day in a place.

—Tucked away down in the corner of the Christian woman's heart forever lurks that sentiment, dear to all the sex, a "new bonnet or no church."

—When you die, name all your old sweethearts as pall-bearers. It is becoming quite fashionable for the ladies to act in this capacity, and it is so gratifying.

—A site has been chosen for the Vetinary College at Guelph. The Agricultural College is to be raised another story making additional accommodation for students.

—Information has been sent to New York from London, that a large quantity of forged and counterfeit notes on the banks of England and France have been shipped to America.

—Miss Clara Rose, of Philadelphia, had $7,000 expended on her Latin, French and German education, and then married a man who has to buy his butter half a pound at a time.

—The enquiry into the loss of the steamship Vicksburg has been completed, and it is understood that the Commissioners' report willfully exonerate Captain Bennett from all blame in the matter.

—A fashion writer announces that a little patch of black court plaster on the cheek or chin is now the correct thing for ladies. Husbands and fathers will please see that the ladies have occasion to wear it.

—The trustees of St. Andrew's church Hamilton, have been empowered by the congregation to lock out the Rev. Mr Burnet, their pastor, who has refused to enter the United Church along with them.

—The second annual session of American Hebrew Congregations convened at Buffalo, N. Y., for the purpose of taking steps to estalish a Hebrew College. About 150 delegates were present.

—It said that the Eton boys had laid in a large stock of unhealthy eggs as an incense offering to Messrs. Moody and Sankey, and this was why the Mayor of Windsor withdrew his consent to the use of the hall.

—A young matron in Clark County, Ky, has added insult to injury in just giving birth to three bouncing boys at one time and then insisting on having them christened Shadrach, Meshech and Abednego.

—The New York ladies must be stage-struck. Fifty-three have made application to one theatre alone (Daly's Fifth Avenue) for places in the company next season, and of these eighteen offer to pay for the privilege.

—A New Orleans man will sit on a log in the boiling sun all day and fish and feel rewarded with one bite and yet if his wife wants a pail of water brought he will exclaim: "Oh yes—keep right on—fix for my burial!"

—The Vicksburg Herald denies that three of its editors have been killed in duels within the past four months. Another paper, the Sentinel, now dead, had five of its editores killed, but this "run of bad luck extended through a term of years."

—A free negro was brought before a magistrate and convicted of pilfering. The magistrate begins to remonstrate. "Do you know how to read? "Yes, massa, a little." "Well don't you never make use of the Bible?" "Yes, massa; I strap my razor on it sometimes."

A. F. BRYANT,

(From London, England.)

Piano Forte Maker

AND REPAIRER,

BEGS leave to inform the citizens of Kingston and vicinity that he has commenced the above business, and is prepared to execute all kinds of REPAIRING AND TUNING on the most reasonable terms, and having worked the past 17 years at all its branches, both in England and the United States, and the past four years in Ottawa, feels confident of being able to give general satisfaction.

Mr. B. has so many calls out of Ottawa that for the future he must spend half his time in the neighboring Towns and Villages. Any Pianos repaired by A. F. B. not giving satisfaction, as near as can be expected from the class of instruments, no charge will be made.

Numbers of references can be had if required. Orders may be left at the City Hotel, Princess street, Kingston.
