CITY AND VICINITY

☞ GOLD in New York at 3 o'clock 113¼.

ANOTHER fine day. Nobody's to blame for it.

SECOND PEACE.—Watertown can now step down and out in its pretensions to be first in the Baby Show line. Yesterday's exhibition puts Kingston ahead very far.

DISCOVERY.—Two new bars have been found at the mouth of Niagara River, (joyful tidings to the soldiers in Fort Niagara.) It must have been one of these bars that the Press Association discovered on its trip and struck upon for an hour.

SO FAR.—The judges in the Baby contest have escaped any permanent or fatal injury, but they are threatened with assassination at any moment by 39 fathers, each of whom declares his infant to have been neglected and insulted by not receiving the first prize.

FIRE AT PITTSBURG.—On Monday evening the Post Office and out buildings at Birmingham, township of Pittsburg, were destroyed by fire. The buildings were insured for $600, and the loss is said to be several thousands.

POLICE COURT, Thursday.—Only one case, a simple drunk, and nothing more, in which was recorded a fine of $3 or 30 days. You see that yesterday's pic-nic, though a jolly-living Englishman's demonstration, was a temperance as well as temperate affair.

THE DERRY DEMONSTRATION.—It is said that Jupiter and Venus will indulge in a paroxysmal kiss on the night of August 12. This will be the concluding piece on the programme of the 'Prentice Boys celebration of that day. It is expected to pass off with eclat.

PUT HIM OUT.—The irreverent paragrapher of the Rochester Union thus relieves himself:—"It is impossible to estimate how many souls have been saved at the Thousand Island Park camp meeting, but it is quite certain that somebody will make a good sum of money by the sale of lots."

O'CONNELL CENTENNARY.—This will be a strong prayer for fine weather to-morrow, as the success of the demonstration here depends altogether now on the atmospheric elements, all the society elements here being united in the one bright object of doing honor to a brilliant memory. Belleville and Watertown joining hands with us will give the celebration a very interesting character.

COMING.—The millenium must be near at hand. A cabman at St. Catharines has been brought to justice and fined for not calling for a passenger according to agreement. There are a couple of Kingston gentlemen on whom this information would have had a soothing effect last week. It was well for one particular cabman that they were not inspired by the knowledge.

RACING.—Belleville won in the yacht race yesterday, which was a result as a matter of course. Kingston has no racing yachts left. Her jolly yachting days are over. The Sappho may have been built with the idea of getting speed out of her, but no other boat in port was either built or rigged with that design. Safety and comfort seem to have been the first considerations. Belleville can, therefore, with our good will take the cup and the championship of the Bay.

MAMMOTH EXCURSION.—The Young Men's Christian Association are making arrangements for a grand excursion to Rochester by the steamer Norseman, to leave here in the evening and remain in Rochester a full day, thereby giving excursionist an opportunity of visiting all the places of interest in that city. They will be joined by excursionists from Belleville, Picton, Bath and Napanee. This will probably be the most attractive excursion of the season.

SHORTS.—One of Forepaugh's young lions died at Brockville on Tuesday—Duck shooting will be in season on the 15th, not one day sooner, unless you are rich and don't care for a fine.—Civic holidays are many. Elora loafs on the 13th, and Collingwood sprees it on the 11th.—New York will very soon be unable to raise a baby show of its own, for want of the material. Children are dying there at the rate of 100 per day. Cholera Infantum is the cause of this excessive mortality.

ARRIVALS AT ANGLO AMERICAN HOTEL.—Eli B Gustin, Stanstead, Q; L L Fell, City; S A Smiley, Watertown; R A Ropburn, Conn; Rev Wm Dumecell, New York; D C Bullock, Brighton; J Lamkud, Dayton, Ohio; Miss Miller, Belleville; C Henderson, Rochester; Jas K McDonell, St Louis; Miss A McDonell, do; Harry W Guvinner and wife, Philadelphia; W A Taylor, Montreal; David McArdell, Ottawa; Wm Burns and wife, Rochester; D Derbphire, Plum Holloro; E F Patterson, Montreal; Albert Rumberg, Hamilton; P E Fox and daughter, Syracuse.

ODDFELLOWS' ENCAMPMENT.—The following grand officers were elected and installed:—Harper Wilson, St. Catharines, Grand Chief Patriarch; W. H. Cole, M.P.P., Brockville, Grand High Priest; J. B. Young, Chatham, Grand Senior Warden; E. R. Robinson, London, Grand Junior Warden; M. D. Dawson, London, Grand Scribe and Treasurer; John Gibson, Stratford, Representative to the Grand Lodge of the United States. The following officers were appointed:—E. E. Henderson, Lindsay, Grand Marshal; John G. Moore, Belleville, Grand Inside Sentinel; George Midgley, Hamilton, Grand Outside Sentinel.

TO-DAY'S GLEANINGS.

—Arrangements have been completed for the volunteer camp at London in September.

—There is nothing so easy to report as the prices at the wood market, they are always the same.

—Wm. Smith of Ailsa Craig, has been committed for trial for criminal assault on his own daughter, a girl of 13.

—It is kindly said of a Rochester corpse, that although a married man, he was not addicted to profanity.

—Monkeys never grow old in expression. A young monkey looks exactly like his grand papa melted up and grown over again.

—The fishermen near Wellington are meeting with the rewards they deserve. At two hauls recently made, 7,100 white fish were taken from one seine.

—The Rev. E. Green, of St. James' Cathedral, was married to Miss Elizabeth Samson, by the Lord Bishop of Toronto.

—The Ogdensburg Journal for the 115 time feels pretty certain that the N. T. propellers will run this fall, probably before the first of September.

—In the match between the Ottawa and Toronto Clubs, the latter won by a score of 82 to 48. The Ottawa Club left for St. Catharines.

—Messrs. Moody and Sankey held closing services, on the 3rd, in Liverpool morning and evening, in Victoria Hall, before congregations of 10,000 people.

—Two men have been each fined 40s at the London Guildhall for having caused an obstruction in the street while singing songs ridiculing Messrs. Moody and Sankey.

—The late Bishop Lorocque of St. Hyacinthe has bequeathed the greater part of his property to the corporation of the Bishopric. It is valued at $34,000.

—I'll remember, I'll remember,
How this summer fleeted by,
With the warmth of a December
In the middle of July!

—Toronto has not got over the excitement of its abortion case before the police report that they have information of another murder, but refuse to give particulars.

—Mrs. Potwine is the name of a prolific woman in Ottawa, who has during her life borne no fewer than 30 children, 20 of whom are alive. The Humane Society have our permission to award her a gold medal.

—In Rome a law has been passed condemning persons guilty of blaspheming God, Christ, the Virgin, or saints in the streets, to one month's imprisonment for the first offence and six months for the second.

—A great saving in the manufacture of mince pies in New York is secured by substituting cockroaches for raisins. They are very similar to raisins when warmed up, and cost almost nothing.

—A fanatic has arrived at Niagara for the purpose of examining the river at the head of Goat Island to the Falls. He announces his intention of placing himself in a rubber canoe and running the rapids, landing at Prospect Point.

—During the night of Saturday last, the smelting works, Crushing Mills, Saw Mills, and all connected with the Huntington Mines, Dillington, Bolton, P. Q., were reduced to ashes. Loss estimated at $100,000.

—Dr. Grant, who accompanied his Excellency to England, arrived at Quebec by steamship Polynesian. He is the bearer of a magnificent cup from the Duke of Sutherland for the St. Andrew's Society of Ottawa.

—Scott, a young man, son of the late warden of the military prison at Quebec, was about to embark on a train at Trois Pistoles on Saturday, when the embankment gave way under his feet, throwing him on the track, where the cars passed over him, killing him instantly.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING AT OTTAWA.—Quite a large number of the elite of the city assembled in the Church of St. John the Evangelist this morning, to witness the marriage of Mr. Dalmage, a gentleman from Ceylon, to Miss Geddes of this city, formerly of Hamilton. She wore a plainly made moireantique dress trimmed with tuille, a long white veil, with a wreath of orange blossoms, and made a very charming appearance. The bridesmaids were Miss Geddes, sister to the bride, Miss Armstrong, Miss Haycock and Miss Geddes. Miss Armstrong wore a white dress, trimmed with blue, and Miss Haycock a white dress trimmed with maize, with bonnets to suit. The Misses Geddes were similarly dressed and looked very pretty. The happy couple will proceed to Ceylon, where they will live. The Rev. Messrs. Pollard and Morris performed the ceremony.—Ottawa Free Press.

A WALKING PINCUSHION.—A curious story is told is of General C. A Evans of Augusta, Ga. At the battle of Monocacy, Md, while leading his brigade in battle, he was struck in the left side by a minie ball. The ball passed through his arm, and thence through his body. In ploughing through his coat pocket it tore through a paper of pins, burying some of them in his flesh. For the past few months he has been troubled with a pain about a foot and a half from the wound. About a week or two since a bump about as large as as a pigeon egg was raised on the spot where the pain was most severe. A few days ago three or four pins worked out on this bump, and it disappeared at once. Thus for eleven years Mr. Evans has been a walking pincushion.

CRICKETANA.—A cricket tournament of a very interesting character will be held in Philadelphia in September. A British officers' cricketing team, and a representative Canadian team will take part in the games. This will be a return for the Halifax tournament of last year, at which the Philadelphia team came off champions. The British officers' team will be a very strong one, captained by N. W. Wallace, of the 60th Regiment Royal Rifles, now stationed at Halifax. The Canadian team will be captained by the Rev. T. D. Phillips, of Ottawa. The Philadelphia team will consist of American born cricketers, and will be much stronger than last year.

THE BAND.—The Band of "A" Battery will play on the Queen's Wharf this evening at 7 p.m. The following will be the programme:—

1.—March—Priest's War March—Mendelssohn.
2.—Quadrille—French Wedding—C. Marie. Arr. by Hare.
3.—Selection—Martha—Flotow.
4.—Valse—The Dragoon Guards—F. S. Jones.
5.—Selection—Der Freischutz—Weber.
6.—Galop—Storm King—Moscow.

God Save the Queen.

A. H. RACKETT,
Bandmaster.

S'CAT THERE.—Oswego paper:—"Kingston wants three second and third class female teachers. How the fur would fly if the teachers were classed on this side of the water." Oswego has not yet learned how to do these little things delicately and yet be happy. It's school board may come over here and learn.

THAT Peace Society can live. The Oswego Palladium says that the repairing and strengthening of Fort Henry is a useless expenditure of money—there will be no more wars. We are glad, neighbors, that we have won your respect and fear.

The O'Connell Centennial in Ireland.

THE ADDRESS TO THE IRISH PEOPLE.

The following spirited address has been issued by the O'Connell Centenary Committee, and it gives a live political significance to the celebration which deepens its importance:

To the Irish People:

Fellow-Countrymen,—The idea of celebrating the one hundredth birthday of O'Connell originated with the National Monument Committee, which is now incorporated with the present Centenary Committee, the members of the former being ex-officio members of the latter. As the idea was in the noblest sense national, so the organization which aims to mould it into shape and form has been constructed on a large and liberal basis. Sectionalism and faction were excluded, but within it was reserved a place for every man of every hue and shade and party, who feels a pride in being the countryman of O'Connell and wishes to honor his memory. The one idea which has inspired its every act and regulated its every movement is embraced in the one comprehensive word, "O'Connell"—O'Connell in the fullness of his character, the author of a new era in humanity, the foremost champion of civil and religious liberty—O'Connell in the entirety of his life, from the cradle in Inveragh to the tomb in Glasnevin. It is in this spirit, fellow-countrymen, that we ask you to associate yourselves with us from the Giant's Causeway to Cape Clear, and from Connemara to the Hill of Howth, in this glorious work of patriotism and piety and love, that so the three days set apart for the Centennary celebration, Thursday, the 5th, Friday, the 6th, and Saturday, the 7th of August, may be three days glorious forever in the annals of Ireland. On these days may we not hope the great soul of O'Connell will walk abroad in its majesty, infusing itself into every artery and limb of the nation he loved so well, regulating the ardor of the young, while rekindling in aged breasts the fires of Tara? He was liberty's most powerful advocate, and therefore, of license and disorder the most unsparing foe—we promise you, his children, that peace and order and decorum respect for constitutional authority for persons and property, and the right to differ, characterize the national celebration. Come forth in your majesty and power, in peaceful and orderly array, and grouping around the majestic figure of O'Connell, present to mankind the spectacle of a self-reliant, self respecting and united people. Remember that your banners will be reflected in the Seine and the German Rhine-bank be a listener to your music—that, borne across the Atlantic, from Derrynane to California, your cheer will ring through the great cities of the West. This Centennary will will be the festival of the Irish race, and from millions of Irish hearts throughout the globe will go forth the aspiration which O'Connell so loved to repeat:

Ireland, as she ought to be,
Great, glorious and free,
First flower of the earth and first gem of the sea.

Lennox and Addington.

(Napanee Standard.)

BASE BALL.—At a base ball match on Friday last between the Union of Napanee, and the Merry Nines, of Clark's Mills, played at the latter place, the Unions were victorious by a score of 47 to 25.

THE CHEAP EXCURSION.—An active committee of the 'Prentice Boys Association of Napanee have been posting the town with the news of their 50-cent excursion to Kingston on the 12th inst. That day is a memorable one in the history of Orangeism, and the loyal youths from the regions round about the ancient city have decided to do it honor by holding their annual celebration in it.

FIRE AT TAMWORTH.—On Saturday night last about nine o'clock a fire broke out in the shed behind Fuller's hardware shop in the village of Tamworth. At first it was supposed that half the village would burn, but the wind changed, and the people worked very hard, confining the fire to shed and adjoining barn, both the property of R. N. Neely. A valuable horse and other property were destroyed. Several persons are suspected of the incendiarism, and great excitement prevails.

A CROQUET PARTY.—A committee of Odessa and other gentlemen arranged for a croquet party, which took place in that village on Wednesday evening last. A large number of invitations were sent to ladies and gentlemen, so that beauty and grace adorned the economical furnishings of the Drill Shed and spread their fascinating influence. Croquet was but a secondary element in the enjoyment, dancing being the first great attraction. A bountiful spread was supplied by the ladies.

SUMMER TRAVEL.—A very large falling off is noticed in the number of visitors to watering places and summer resorts this season. There are probably not more than two thirds of the usual pleasure-seeking procession; thousands stay at home, and those who go are more economical than ever before. The Americans most anxious to run about the country, and most lavish in their expenditure when money is loose, are scarce this year; and those who are sailing around keep their purse-strings pretty tight.

—If those dresses were twice as tight they would wear them. If it were the fashion to carry a barrel of flour on the back of the neck they would do it, or die trying. You couldn't devise a fashion the women wouldn't meekly follow, from no clothes in winter, to bearskin overcoats in summer.

IN NEW YORK.—The Irish societies of New York city propose to celebrate the birthday of Daniel O'Connell on Friday. The Rev. Dr. McGlynn of St. Stephen's Church will deliver an oration at the Cooper Institute, Friday evening, and will also celebrate High Mass at St. Stephen's at 11.30 a.m.

—A life insurance agent was killed in Iowa recently, but it took a lightning express train with seven passenger coaches and three Pullman sleepers to do the job

—Holding the train clear of the walk is called "nursing your dress."
