Daily British Whig

WEDN'SDAY EVEN'G, SEPT. 15, 1875.

SOME RHYMES.

NEW VERSION.

—Mary had a little lamb,
Twas filled with kerosene,
And Mary down the chimney blew,
And left this earthly scene.
Gone to meet her father, who drew his gun to him by the muzzle.

THE PULL-BACKS.

—Bowing and smiling she crossed the street,
With a love of a tied-back on;
A melon rind gilded from under her feet,
And then her tied-back was gone.
She rose from seat with a martyred air,
And gathered the things she wore:
She looked like one that was willing to swear,
But then she never swore!

BURNS, SELF-WRITTEN EPITAPH.

The poor inhabitant below
Was quick to learn and wise to know,
And keenly felt the friendly glow,
And softer flame;
But thoughtless follies laid him low,
And stain'd his name.

A PORTIA MACHINE.

Des Moines, Ia., has a little girl of eleven, named Lillian R. Fearing, who is in fragile health and nearly blind. She dictates to her mother literally by the hour such verses as this:

Oh, the hands that white and trembling,
Grasping yet life's lingering ray;
Standing neath the crimson banner,
Waving ever to the day.
Banners that are ever tossing,
Where the mighty shadows play.

CURRENCY.

—Joseph wore the first pull-back. Mrs. Potiphar pulled it back.

—Boston has 'put its foot down' against smoke in the public streets.

—'Sailor Ned,' Donaldson's former assistant, is Barnum's new aeronaut.

—A. T. Stewart has presented to his chief superintendent a house worth $30,000.

—A Canadian agricultural society offers a prize for the best bread made and baked by bachelors.

—It is predicted that the pancake crop will be short. Is there anything left to live for?

—Orange Judd says half a million dollars' worth of advertising has made him a millionaire.

—The fellow who stole $10,000 worth of gloves in New York had evidently got his hand in.

—Mark Twain's new book is in press and is to bear the title, 'Mark Twain's Sketches, New and Old.'

—K. J. L. Price, of London, owns a dog valued at £10,000—that is, valued at that sum by Mr. Price.

—The Victoria City election for the Local House of New Brunswick has resulted in the return of the Hon. Robt. Beaven.

—Paris papers ridicule Webb's and Boyton's feats in crossing the English Channel, because a fish can swim still further.

—People who carry chewing gum and postage stamps loose in their pockets do not complain of lack of business.

—A young girl in Chicago has been crazed by religious excitement, and persists in tearing off her clothes and running about the streets naked.

—The New Bedford Mercury says there is alcohol in buckwheat cakes. It is probably introduced in a syrup-titious manner then.

—It is pretty well decided now that instead of an insurance of $350,000, the late ex-President Johnson had none whatever on his life.

—Every Gallic man from 20 to 40 is liable by the new law to serve in the French army. The women are free to play vivandieres in or out of the ranks.

—Mrs. Andrew Johnson, whose condition has been considered quite critical, is slowly recovering from the shock occasioned by her husband's death.

—He poured before applying the bottle to his lips, and after taking a long draught, said respectbely "We didn't think Donaldson could have dropped this."

—Cyrus W. Field, of New York city, is expending about $10,000 as a volunteer offering in beautifying the college buildings at the grounds at Williamstown, Mass.

—Unto Tilton's lawyers the voice of the American press comes "when forests are reddened," and the burden of the dispason is "For Heaven's sake don't do it."

—A department for the Fiji Islanders is to be reserved at the Centennial. The New Bedford Mercury hopes that for modesty's sake they won't come along in their every day clothes.

—A Chicago man who had looked on the whiskey when it was amber-coloured was returning home on lodge night when he ran against a barber's pole and reproved his wife for kicking him in the eye.

—The English naval authorities are experimenting on a submarine boat in the torpedo service. It is proposed to blow an adversary in a naval combat by attaching a torpedo to her by means of this boat.

—Members of the Masonic Mutual Benefit Association are now called on for assessment of $1 each on the following deaths:—Chas. Greiner, Kingsville. Robert Moore, Walkerton; M. L. Morgan, London.

—The Sultan of Zanzibar is a clever pianist. At a recent visit to a music shop in Paris where he went to buy a piano, the Sultan caused considerable astonishment by sitting down to the instrument and performing with effect a fantasia by Thalberg.

—Murfreesboro, Tenn., recently had an eminently pious and respectable lynching affair, wherein, as a sort of grace before meat, the entire company assembled to hang a negro without shadow of law kneelt and "implored the mercy, blessing and counsel of God to attend them."

—One of the few Englishmen who have never betraved any tendency to sociability was recently fined £17s. for risking his life by scrambling along the foot-board of a railway train in motion for the purpose of having a chat with an acquaintance in a compartment near his own.

—A woman in New Orleans and her daughter, a girl of eighteen, having been severely burnt by an explosion of oil while filling a lamp, have recovered $1,250 damages in the Supreme Court from the Saptatian Oil Company. This is a timely warning to the innumerable manufactures of "non-explosive" oils.

—A returned Enoch Arden was tearing around and railing at Christian community that would allow a woman to starve nearly to death in the absense of her husband. The truth is left her in the days of hoopskirts looking like this O, and on his return found her pinned back and looking like this I. The impression that she had starved was natural.

Dr. Hoare's Testimony.—Pittsfield, Me., March 1872.—Mr. James, I Pelouze: Dear Sir: During the past two years I have given your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites a fair though somewhat severe trial in my practice, and am able to speak with confidence of its effects. In restoring persons suffering from emaciation and the debility following diphtheria, it has done wonders. I constantly recommend its use in all affections of the throat and lungs. In several cases considered hopeless it has given relief, and the patients are fast recovering. Among these are consumptive and old bronchial subjects, whose diseases have resisted the other modes of treatment. For impaired digestion, and in fact for debility from any cause, I know of nothing equal to it. Its direct effect in strengthening the nervous system renders it suitable for the majority of diseases. I am, sir, yours truly, Wm. S. Hoare, M.D.

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT. A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thos. Robinson, Farnham Centre, P.Q., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all." —J. H. Earl, Hotel Keeper, West Shefford, P.Q., writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relief, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried on my horses in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it is equally as good for horse as for man."—A. Maybee, merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Eclectric Oil, and are pronounced by the public, one of the best medicines they have never used; it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence."—Joseph Rusan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a great public benefit."—A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes, "For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which annoyed me very much. Mr. Maybee of this place induced me to try Eclectric Oil, and before one bottle was used I was cured. It is a most remarkable medicine." ☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 50 cents.
