UNRIVALLED SALE OF The Globe Safety Burner

THE GLOBE is a Burner fitted to receive a chimney having an oblong base, and we do not hesitate to say to our patrons in Coal Oil Lamps that the Globe is unsurpassed by any Burner in the market.

1. It has more good qualities than any other Burner.
2. It gives a bright, steady, white flame.
3. The combustion is so perfect no odor can be detected.
4. It is so constructed as to heat the chimney equally in all its parts.
5. The chimney, deflector, and holder are removed together, giving free access to the wick for lighting and trimming.
6. The chimney and deflector are adapted to each other, producing at all times a perfect and brilliant light.
7. It is substantially made, and easily kept clean, having no pockets or places for charred wick to accumulate.
8. It combines all the advantages claimed of a gas tube for burning light oils, and at the same time has all the desirable features of any heavy oil Burner now in use, thereby making it the most desirable Burner for all persons needing light.
9. The chimney cannot be put on the Burner wrong.
10. We get all the benefits of a flat chimney without any of its risks of breaking by being misplaced upon the Burner.
11. The chimneys made for this Burner are XX Fire-Proof Flint Glass, and are absolutely Fire Proof.
12. The Globe chimney will not break from heat.
13. No parties will be permitted to make chimneys for the Globe Burner without license, and no lime Glass or cheap chimney's will be tolerated.
14. If you would save time, patience, and money, buy a Globe Burner and Chimney.

THE Thousand Island Park.

THE Trustees, Stockholders, and Lot holders, and all other persons interested in the success of the Thousand Island Park, under the charge of the Thousand Island Camp Meeting Association are requested to meet AT THE PARK,

On Tuesday, Oct. 12th, 1875,

At Two o'clock, p.m.

Some improvements are contemplated in the way of setting out trees, opening new avenues, etc., this Fall, and the Trustees would be happy to meet the Stockholders, Lot holders and others in Council. The meeting will be held in the large Dining Hall.

About one hundred Lots remain unsold, and at the above named time they will be offered for sale at former prices, viz:

Lots 33, 34, 43, 44, 47, 48, 51, 61, 135, 137, 138, 141, 151, 158, 168, 199, 202, 203, 204, 319, 322, 323, 389, 390—$100 each.

Lots 42, 45, 46, 50, 118, 120, 123, 124, 127, 128, 129, 131, 132, 136, 139, 140, 143, 144, 147, 330, 331, 334, 335, 345, 348, 349, 352, 353—$75 each.

Lots 38, 119, 196, 197, 200, 201, 219, 220, 351, 354—$50 each.

Lots 454, 457, 458, 459, 470, 473, 474, 484, 485, 486, 487, 492, 493, 506, 509, 510, 513, 514, 523½, 524, 525, 526, 527, 528, 529, 530, 531, 532, 533, 534, 535, 536, 537, 538, 539, 540, 541, 542, 543, 544—$25 each.

After the meeting, all the unsold Lots will be advanced in price.

All persons going to the Park on this occasion over the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad and its branches, Syracuse Northern Lake Ontario Shore and Utica and Black River Railroads, and paying full fare one way will be returned free on tickets countersigned by the Secretary of the Association, such return tickets to be obtained at the office of the Association at the Park.

As the regular boats that have run from Cape Vincent and Clayton during the season in connection with the trains, will be discontinued at that time, all are advised to go direct to Clayton by railroad, and special transportation will be in readiness to meet all emergencies in getting from Clayton to the Park.

J. F. DAYAN, Secretary. E. O. HAVEN, President.

CITY AND VICINITY

☞ GOLD in New York at 3 o'clock 116½

PERSONAL.—Mr. Thomas McGaw, principal of the Queen's Hotel, Toronto, stopped at the British American yesterday.

HUSH!—The Cape Vincent Eagle whispers: "We hear it reported on the street that the Maud has already earned this season, $17,000. Is it a fact?" We guess is it, but keep still.

GRAIN.—The market here is better for sellers than any of the surrounding towns. Barley ranks higher, and so do the other grains in a few instances. That is surely something worthy of notice.

IT LIES at the St. Lawrence wharf, and has a nice crank that turns the big saw around as fast as the dickens. The saw has not a bit of covering on. Oh, do leave it there a while, please; we want some items.

CRICKET MATCH.—A cricket match was played between the Kingston Collegiate Institute, B. B. C., and the Kingston Juniors Cricket Club, yesterday, which resulted in an easy victory for the former. The score was K. C. S's first innings 38; second 48. Kingston Juniors first innings 34 second 21. Victory for the K. C. I's 31.

Y.I.C.B.A.—The delegates at the late annual meeting of the Grand Council of the Young Irishmen's Catholic Benevolent Association express their gratification through the 'Tribune,' for the handsome manner in which they had been provided for and entertained whilst in session here. Mine host Jennings is also praised. The Convention will meet next year at London.

EASIER.—It was an old saying, and one that had been sustained to some extent by experience, hence when the fire occurred the other morning it was instantly set down that two others would surely follow. They have not up to date, and the anxiety which we felt lest some of these chilly nights sweet slumber would be disturbed, and we should be run out to Williamsville to see a chimney blaze is gradually leaving us.

MATCH.—Speculative persons were in a "sweat" last evening to arrange for another race between Robertson's "Laura" and the "Katie Gray," of Belleville. Neither boats were in trim for a fresh contest; both required some fixing, hence the terms proposed by outside and merely betting characters were not accepted. The "Katie Gray" is a good boat, but we believe the "Laura" to be her match, and a little more than her match.

MATCH RACE.—The yacht "Katie Gray" and "Surpris" have been matched to run from Trenton to Mill Point and return. Let's see, this is the same "Katie Gay" against which the Intelligencer of a few days since said the "Emma," of Kingston, should not attempt to run. The latter beat her yesterday by 27 minutes of time, which, on such a rough day, stood for a good many miles. Brag is a good dog, but wait-a-while-and-see is a better.

FOR BRAZIL.—During the past winter a new schooner named the "Florida" was built between Montreal and Quebec. Two weeks ago she was towed here with a cargo of coal for the Kingston Gas Company; at present she is receiving her spars and is being rigged out complete at Power's Marine Railway. In about fifteen days she will leave here, and sail from Montreal with a cargo of pine lumber for the River Plata, Brazil, South America, —a long and important voyage. She is 600 tons burden.

DIFFERENT MEN.—The Cobourg Sentinel makes a mistake when it refers to "Josh Billings" as the funny humorist of the Danbury News. Josh may write an occasional "squib" for the News, but he is not the dry-bones who has made that paper so popular, but Mr. Baillie, the proprietor. This fact does not tend to lessen Josh's light, however; he shines brilliantly, and should be heard by every lover of literature in his lecture here on the 12th of Oct.

THE CHEESE CASE.—The case of Wilmot vs. Burrows, heard in the Division Court on Thursday, ended in a verdict for the plaintiff. The point which the suit was believed would establish failed—the discovery of the parties who adulterated their milk, leading to injurious results in the manufacture of cheese. The patrons who indulged in this sharp practice escaped detection by the addition of whey, which stood the test of the lactometer, as well as if entirely pure.

THAT HORRIBLE BETTING.—If Alderman Allen, whose virtuous indignation was so thoroughly aroused at the betting indulged in over recent base ball matches—in which, of course, he was quite right—had stepped down to the St. Lawrence Wharf yesterday he would have seen money passing from hand to hand with rapid and easy motion. It is perfectly horrible to think of the betters using the noble lake and its sports for their wicked purpose.

POSTAGE FREE.—The new postal law comes into operation on Friday next, when publishers of newspapers will have to pre-pay postage. Subscribers to Canadian papers have no postage to pay henceforth. This imposes an additional burden on the publisher, which we trust friends will recognize. We will continue to send the papers to subscribers at the old rates, and same to clubs. We know it is not pleasant for those who pay promptly to read the dunning paragraphs which we will now more than ever feel compelled to print, but it is the only means we have of reaching those at a distance, and those only to whom the remarks apply need consider them as applicable.

THE CHURCHES.

Sept. 26th.—18*th Sunday after Trinity.*—St. Cyprian, Archbishop. Jerem. xxxvi.; Gal. iv. 21 to v. 13. Ezek. ii.; St. Luke ii. 21. Or Ezek. xiii. to v. 17; St. Luke ii. 21.

ECCLESIASTICAL COUNCIL.

The first Provincial Council of the Bishops of the Province of Toronto will commence to-morrow, at 10 o'clock a.m., under the presidency of the Archbishop of Toronto, at his Metropolitan Church. The procession will leave St. Vincent's Chapel at half-past nine. The Bishop of Kingston left to-day to attend it. The Tribune says that the Toronto societies are invited to line the streets through which the procession is to pass. If the weather be unfavorable the procession will be made in the Cathedral. The Catholics of the city, with the various societies in their regalia, are to meet the Bishops at the Grand Trunk station this evening, to conduct their Lordships to the Archiepiscopal Palace. The last masses in all the churches of the city will be at nine o'clock to-morrow; and on the following Sunday there will be Mass at the altar in the garden of the Palace at 11 o'clock, to accommodate all who cannot get admittance into the Cathedral. In the evening at 5 o'clock the Archbishop and Bishops in full pontificals will give their benediction to the Jubilee pilgrims both in the Cathedral and at the altar in the garden. There will be sermons every day during the week, and evening devotions at 7:30, and also a Synodical Mass each day, to commence at 8:30 a.m. The sermons will be preached by the Bishops and Theologians of the Council. Wednesday being St. Micheal's day, there will be High Mass and sermon; Thursday, Requiem Mass for the deceased Bishops of the Province, and sermon by Bishop Jamot.

ADVERSE OPINIONS.

A prophet has no honor in his own country; and thus it is that the fanaticism which drove men mad in England simply provokes satire in the native land of the great revivalists. The N. Y. Sun, describing a recent sermon of Mr. Moody—of the Public Conversion Company of Moody and Sanky—says:—"The sermon in question, as printed in the paper which preceded the report of it, is twaddle. The argument is flimsy, the exhortation is turgid, the appeals are fluffy, and some of the decorative stories, given in the way of illustration, are altogether too flat and feeble." The N. Y. Times says: 'It is a little singular that Northfield, the home of Mr. Moody, should be the scene of the first demonstration within the church against the doctrinal basis of his method of evangelistic work.'

A HINT FOR US.—At Ottawa, during this week of fair, there was conducted an establishment which might with advantage be imitated in Kingston during the Central Show days. An Ottawa correspondent writes:—

"The Methodist Church Boarding and Lodging Rooms." Such is the novel heading of a large placard reaching entirely across Sparks street at Ottawa. A great want has been felt by some of the leading men in the Methodist Church when the Provincial Shows and other gatherings are held, bringing together large crowds of people, a rallying place was much needed where those who are connected with this church, from distant places, may obtain food and beds at reasonable prices. With this idea of moral enterprise they have rented a large store on Sparks street. The ground floor is fitted up as a dining-room, and the upstairs are filled with beds. This is only tried as an experiment, yet it exceeds all their expectations, and a great many of those applying for beds cannot be accommodated. The denomination has a large booth on the Exhibition ground where cheap meals can be obtained. If any surplus is made after all expenses are paid, the proceeds will be devoted towards the two churches which are now being erected in Ottawa. The Presbyterians also have a booth near the Exhibition grounds, which is well patronized.

THE RACING.—When the yachtsmen met last evening at the British American there was a good deal of talk about protests; but we are glad none were presented and that all the competitors received the result with good grace when the managers of the regatta met for the distribution of the prizes. The races were generally said by disinterested parties—parties having nothing at stake to be about the finest they had ever seen. They were very fairly contested.

PHILHARMONIC.—The Boston Philharmonic Club will give one of their excellent and superb concerts in the City Hall on Tuesday evening next. The merits of their entertainments cannot be described by us. They are something grand it will easily be understood when it is said of the Club that it is the finest combination of talent in America. Every seat in the City Hall should be occupied.

NOT SO.—It was reported in certain quarters last evening that Cape Vincent, in order to secure the attendance of the fine yachts attending our regatta, had prepared a race for their benefit, and in which they were expected to enter to-day. Upon enquiry we found no grounds whatever for the report. It was merely idle gossip.

SPLENDID WEATHER this to-day for the races in the Park and the wholesale base ball wrestle in the cricket field. The three past sporting Saturdays have been very fine; singularly so after boisterous weather during those weeks. It is jolly both for business and pleasure.

OFF.—The schooner Norway, reported ashore some days ago at Point au Pelee, has been safely taken off. Domelly scarcely ever fails when he takes hold of a job of this kind. He is remarkably successful. The schooner left Detroit yesterday for Kingston.

THE BOOTHS.—The large booths on the ground of the Midland Fair were sold yesterday to Mr. Richard Cooper and Mrs. Purdy. The third booth was not sold—it was reserved for the accommodation of those officially connected with the fair.

ARRIVED.—The ss. Sarmation, from Liverpool, arrived at Father Point at 10:40 to-day. This is quick time. She has 63 cabin and 162 other passengers. Yesterday she was detained 15 hours off Belle Isle, and yet she's early.

SWIFT'S WHARF.—Steamers calling: Magnet from Prescott; Spartan, America and Corinthian from Hamilton; Corsican, Lake Erie and Prussia from Montreal.

FOUND.—The second of the two young Clayton men who were drowned last week (Roderick) has been found near the head of Grindstone Island.

POLICE COURT.

Such sad havoc had been played among the sheep of Cataraqui district—such fearful havoc—that it was quite natural the utmost haste should be exercised in despatching the brutes, and hence so soon as complaint was lodged Hinde was rushed off with his little revolver to end their career. He did as he was told; obedience and morality are two of the most consequential qualifications of a policemen. The brutes aforesaid were Mrs. Lowry's dogs, members of that happy family which so frequently engage Peter Toland, the respected pound man, in byplays of a more or less romantic character. For some time Mrs. Lowry's household kept somewhat retired; but lately Peter had the misfortune to stir up the smouldering fire, and the heat that has been emitted therefrom has been mighty uncomfortable to stand. But we are digressing. Sheep had been worried in this vicinity, and Mrs. Lowry's canines being suspected of doing the mischief they were ordered to be destroyed by Chief Hance. Hinde didn't sit down and rest himself when he called at Mrs. Lowry's; he meant business, and although the persecuted female may have surmised that something was on its edge—as the boys with the blue coats don't walk round her way for mere pleasure—she had no idea that there was murder in his eye until he took aim, cracked his pistol, and then all was over—the pups were laid out straight—their spirits had crossed the mystic river. The scene—the bloody affair—was too sensational for Mrs. Lowry to say or do much then. But grief did not injure her energies long. She slipped on her pin-back and white fringed bonnet, and down she went to the P.M. "for the law," if such an article could be got for love or money. It is not known what the talkative dame said to His Worship; but certain it is he visited the station a short time afterwards, and was seen engaged in studiously perusing the statutes of 1868-69, subsequently to which he made some allusions about police service, which seemed to make the effeminate Sergt.-Major very restive and uneasy indeed. Something had been loose-jointed and irregular.

The P. M. had scarcely departed when the Sergt.-Major cleaned his glasses on the tail of his frock coat, and read aloud the whole Act bearing upon Mrs. Lowry's suit. His emphasis and comments, as he proceeded, were fluent, lawyer-like and to the point; and summing up his views briefly he informed the City Commissioner and his yachting friend and ex-Alderman, who were present, that the affair had a bad look. 'You see,' said he, 'we have not had our hand on the right gridiron. We should'nt have shot the dogs without a scrap of law in our hand. The statute is as sure, and, as you will perceive, the owner of the dogs can come at the owners of the sheep for false identity and mistaken shootin', and if the sheep men are not 'well fixed,' then the municipality can be taken and such a course being followed there is no help for the municipality but to come on the dogs, and make it even with them." That settled the issue effectually so far as the law and the Sergt.-Major were concerned, and the City Commissioner and the ex-Alderman felt that the difficulty would likely have a damaging effect upon the municipality or the dogs, though they hinted it couldn't make much difference with the "twin curleys," who were put beyond the agitation of Bell's baton or the legislation of a dozen Parliaments.

The City Com. here disappeared to attend to some official call; the ex-Alderman left for the British American to join in the regatta discussion and be ready for a drink, while the Sergt.-Major resumed his easy chair, smoked and pondered over the sea of tribulation through which a public man must pass, especially a public man in his important position.

The calendar to-day was about the average. Sharp on time the performance began by the playing of a selection from Handel by the band. Variations on Monday.

Mary Farley, who snuffed, and winked the windward eye, as if she had the epizoo, said she didn't know as how she should be there—a stranger to be sure, but one who ain't ashamed to own her name.

The glance of her eye is blue rain;
Her blush is the blood of the vine:
Her pout is a punch in whose brewing
Tart, sugar and spirit combine.

The P.M. didn't like her style exactly; she looked rough and reckless but he thought the meekest way to settle her hash would be to pass her on to the next station. She was sent adrift, and was last seen on the yacht "Katie Gray" tacking for the "Isle of Tanty." Joy be with her. She's one of those kind who are fairly spoiled with beauty and laziness—the latter features being particularly prominent.

William McFadden said he was the advance agent of Sergeant Bates, the American madman, who contemplated raising a riot here as he tramped through the country, and hoped no one would tread on the tail of his coat nor "sassed" him, because he carried a little star spangled banner.

The band began to play "Yankee Doodle Dander," but the music was smothered up. The P.M. informed the musicians that Grant wasn't round, and that they could save themselves the trouble of serenading a vagrant at the expense of the loyalty of the Court. Willie was thereupon dismissed with a sharp reprimand. The P.M. gave him to understand that he didn't care if he was Sergeant Bates' representative; if he was a patriot he'd find him some other place than a woodpile for a bed, and drink more champagne than peppermint cordial.

Pat Fagan had been in the American war. He remarked that perhaps the Court would like to hear his "experience," whereupon he commenced, that sorely as his mother grieved because he carried a bayonet, she said "God bless ye, for ye was always a good, obadint boy, and I hope you'll send me home a bit of your bounty, for the rint is coming due at the first of the month." "I will, mother," says I. "But howsomever, gintlemin, I was always the first man in battle and the last out of it, and I never liked to cross my sword with a man that had as white a face as I did, or spaking of the same language, or a man from my own country, but if it was a nagur, or a Dutchman, or a Cuban, or any other fillibuster, begorra, he wouldn't be masther of his own scalp for more than fifteen minutes, for I always was and always will be to the day I die—God bless the mark!"

The P.M.—"It would have been well for you had you stayed in the army. I understand you are one of the stationery nuisance with which the city is at present heart-scalded. I'll fine you $2 or 15 days—God bless the mark!"

John Fowler, drunk, $2 or 15 days. He had the sugar.

Patrick Marow, drunk and disorderly. He was settled to the tune of $6 or 60 days.

William Kennedy did what few men will do, even under heavy pressure and temptation, he struck a woman, and was fined $10 and costs.

CROSSING THE ATLANTIC.—Several papers recently contained an account of the first steamer which crossed the Atlantic the Royal William. The account is incorrect in several particulars, we are informed by Mr. W. Power, of the Marine Railway, who has a personal knowledge of the circumstances. The Royal William was not built at Three Rivers, but at John Sexton Campbell's ship yard, Cape Cove, Quebec. For some time she carried the mail between Halifax and Quebec, but in 1833 she went to England where, while under command of Captain McDougall, she was sold to the Spanish Government, not the Portuguese Government, as erroneously printed.

EPPS'S COCOA.—GRATEFUL and COMFORTING.—"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicately flavoured beverage which may save us many doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame."—Civil Services Gazette. Made simply with Boiling Water or Milk.—Sold only in packets labelled—"JAMES EPPS & Co., Homœopathic Chemists, 48, Threadneedle street, and 170, Piccadilly, Works, Euston Road and Camden Town, London."

APPLETONS'

American Cyclopædia.

NEW REVISED EDITION!

ENTIRELY REWRITTEN BY THE ABLEST WRITERS ON EVERY SUBJECT.

Printed from New Type, and Illustrated with several Thousand Engravings and Maps.

The work originally published under the title of THE NEW AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA was completed in 1863, since which time, the wide circulation which it has attained in all parts of the United States, and the single developements which have taken place in every branch of science, literature, and art, have induced the editors and publishers to submit it to an exact and thorough revision, and to issue a new edition entitled

THE AMERICAN CYCLOPÆDIA.

Within the last ten years the progress of discovery in every department of knowledge has made a new work of reference an imperative want.

The movement of political affairs has kept pace with the discoveries of science, and their fruitful application to the industrial and useful arts and the convenience and refinement of social life. Great wars and consequent revolutions have occurred, involving national changes of peculiar moment. The civil war of our own country, which was at its height when the last volume of the old work appeared, has happily been ended, and a new course of commercial and industrial activity has been commenced.

Large accessions to our

Graphical Knowledge

Have been made by the indefatigable explorers of Africa.

The great political revolutions of the last decade, with the natural result of the lapse of time, have brought into public view a multitude of new men, whose names are in every one's mouth, and of whose lives every one is curious to know the particulars. Great battles have been fought and important sieges maintained, of which the details are as yet preserved only in the newspapers or in the transient publications of the day, but which ought now to take their place in Permanent and Authentic History.

In preparing the present edition for the press it has been accordingly been the aim of the editors to bring down the information to the latest possible dates, and to furnish accurate account of the most recent discoveries in science, of every fresh production in literature, and of the newest inventions in the practical arts, as well as to give a specimen and original record of the progress of Political and Historical Events.

The work has been begun after long and careful preliminary labor and with the most ample resources for carrying it onto a successful termination.

None of the original stereotype plates have been used, but every page has been

Printed on New Type,

Forming in fact a new Cyclopædia, with the same plan and compass as its predecessor, but with a far greater pecuniary expenditure, and with such improvements in its composition as have been suggested by longer experience and enlarged knowledge.

The Illustrations

Which are introduced for the first time in the present edition have been added not for the sake of pictorial effect, but to give greater lucidity and force to the explanations in the text. They embrace all branches of science and of natural history, and depict the most famous and remarkable features of scenery, architecture, and art, as well as the various processes of mechanics and manufactures. Although intended for instruction rather than embellishment, no pains have been spared to insure their Artistic Excellence.

The cost of their execution is enormous, and it is believed they will find a welcome reception as an admirable feature of the Cyclopædia, and worthy of its high character.

This work is sold to subscribers only, payable on delivery of each volume. It will be complete in SIXTEEN LARGE OCTAVO VOLUMES, each containing about 800 pages, fully illustrated with several thousand Wood Engravings, and with numerous colored Lithographic Maps.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE.

THE WINTER SESSION

of this Institution will commence

On the FOURTH of October,

When Twenty additional Students can be accommodated.

THE COLLEGE now possesses facilities superior to those of any other Institution in the Province for the education and training of farmers' sons and others in everything relating to agriculture.

The Theoretical Departments of Instruction are,

Agriculture, Horticulture, Chemistry, Natural Sciences except Chemistry, Veterinary Surgery and Practice, English and Mathematics.

The Practical are:—

The Field, the Live Stock, the Horticultural, and the Mechanical.

The Principal is assisted in the former by well qualified Lecturers, in the latter by competent instructors.

Each student is required to work, which work, if faithfully performed, is paid for at rates sufficient to cover the expenses of board and tuition.

For particulars regarding terms of admission &c., send for circulars to the undersigned, by whom applications for admission will be received until the First of October.

WM. JOHNSTON, Rector.
