Some of the Testimonials
From Dr Duncan McCallum Montreal:
I, the undersigned, have been suffering very much for the last two years from Rheumatism in the ankle joint, so much so that I was often prevented from attending to my calling, but three applications of Dr Birnbaum's Rheumatism and Gout Remedy gave me that relief from pain and stiffness which I did not experience for the last two years, and after eight days use of this remedy I find myself entirely cured.
I owe this statement to the public, to the profession and to the merits of the genuine article. DUNCAN McCALLUM, M.D.
From Dr Munro, Prof Victoria University, Montreal:
From the trials I made in my practice with Dr Birnbaum's Rheumatism and Gout Remedy and from what I know about its composition, am convinced that its use will be highly beneficial for all the different purposes for which it is designed, even in such cases where internal medical treatment is required. It is well worthy the confidence of the profession and I can strongly recommend it to the public, it being prompt, active and efficacious in exterminating pains and swellings.

WEDNESDAY EVEN'G, NOV. 24, 1875.

GEORGE BELMORE.

George Belmore, the English actor who died last week in New York, of consumption, appeared as Nat GoslING in "The Flying Scud" a few days previously. He knew that his case was hopeless, and on leaving the stage for the last time said mournfully of his costume "I shall not put them on again." Edmund C. Stedman the well known American poet has the following beautiful lines in the New York Tribune:—

THE COMEDIAN'S LAST NIGHT.

Not yet! No, no—you would not quote
That meanest of the critic's gags?
'Twas surely not of me they wrote
Those words, too late the veteran lays:
'Tis not so very late with me:
I'm not so old as that you know,
Though work and trouble—as you see—
(Not years) have brought me somewhat low.
I failed you say? No, no, not yet!
Or if I did—with such a past,
Where is the man would give me quit
Without one triumph at the last?

But one night more—a little thing
To you—I swear 'tis all I ask.
Once more to make the wide house ring—
To tread the boards, to wear the mask,
To move the coldest as of yore,
To make them laugh, to make them cry,
To be—to be myself once more,
And then if must be let me die!
The prompter's bell! I'm here—you see;
By Heavens, friends, you'll break my heart!
Nat GoslING's exit! let he be—
None but myself shall act the part!

Yes, thank you, boy, I'll take your chair
One moment, while I catch my breath.
D'ye hear the noise they're making there?
'Twould warm a player's heart in death.
How say you now? Whate'er they write,
We've put that bitter jibe to shame:
I knew I knew there hoped to night
We'd fan my veins the olden flame!
Stand off a bit; that final round—
I'd hear it ere it dies away
The last, last time! there's no more sound:
So end the player and the play.

The house is cleared. My senses swim;
I shall be better, though, anon.—
One stumbles when the lights are dim,—
'Tis growing late; we must be gone.
We'll brave luck than mine, old friends!
A little work and fame is ours
While heaven heal how fortune lends.
And then—the coffin and the flowers!
These scattered garments? let them lie:
Some fresher actor (I'm not vain)
Will don anew the part;—but I—
I shall not put them on again.

SUNSKITS.

—Front gates are now lifting up their voices in thankfulness.

—One of our contemporaries publishes an extract headed "waltzing without hugging." We prefer it the very opposite. Yum, yum!

—The West Durham News man yearns for a libel suit with all the yearnishness that a spring calf yearns for a pan of new milk.

—The great fear is that when Dr. Ryerson retires from active service on a well deserved pension, he may not become a pen-shunner.

—They say that Charley Rykert's Scrap Book is swearing like a trooper. Its place has been usurped by the People's Almanac.

—We have frequently noticed that men who wear diamond rings and do not clean their finger nails are the ones who chew tobacco in church.

—There is a time for all things, and when you are chopping wood and a pig runs between your legs you are apt to think it should be hog-killing time.

—The Minister of Justice finds it impossible to live on $7,000 a year. Why, we could live on $7,000 a year ourselves, and keep hens. But it would worry us some.

—"We do not approve of attacks on public men," says the Guelph Herald. "Sambo, is it right to steal chickens?" asked one hen-house fiend of a companion. "Dat am a great moral question," replied Sambo, "hand down another pullet."

—A man has just received a verdict of $200 in a damages court against another man because the other man took the man's wife away. There are some people who would willingly pay two hundred dollars to anybody for obliging them that much. It's queer.

—Napanee rejoices in the possession of a "professional house mover," who is prepared to remove dwellings on the shortest notice. We expect to have any number of them in Toronto next week. They will "move the House into Committee."

—When Mr. D. D. Hay, M.P.P., rises in his place in the House to second the address in reply to the Lieut. Governor's speech, we earnestly request that the Guelph Herald man will not take a bold stand in the gallery and bombard the unsophisticated member with bundles of affidavits and reams of sworn statements concerning the Mount Forest county town scandal. We ask this as a favor, as Mr. Hay is a man easily agitated, and he might feel put out if he had to stand under a hailstorm of documents while addressing His Excellency.

That Pastoral.

The pastoral of the Archbishop and the Bishops of Ontario. It makes a pamphlet of eight pages, and discusses the following sub-heads:—Poor missions, education, training schools intemperance, secret societies, no just task masters, indifferentism, civil power supporting the church, propagation of faith, mixed marriages, exhortation to protestants, patrimony to St. Peter, Secret societies are condemned, and the faithful are warned against trade combinations, and are told to let every man sell his labor as best seems to him. At the same time men of capital are exhorted to pay fair remuneration to the employed. The equality of the Church with "so-called churches, founded by fallible men," is denied. The civil power is declared to be supreme in its proper sphere, but its limits to be founded by the supreme law of God. A warning is given against mixed marriages and the occupation of Rome is protested against.

CHINIQUY THREATENED.—Rev. Father Chiniquy has received a letter written by 'A Canadian. It reads:—'Chiniquy—Charity obliges me to warn you, that if in a short time hence you do not relieve the city of your infamous presence I have a sure and simple means to make you disappear from the world even at the cost of my life, if I am discovered because I consider I would die a martyr for the Faith in relieving the city of a being so infamous from his scoldals and the dishonour of Canada. You have to choose between death or quitting Canada. I am a man to do what I decide on, no matter what cost.'

WATERTOWN BOARD OF TRADE—Nov. 20.—Five factories were entered, offering their season's make. No sales whatever were effected. The following are the market quotations as reported: New York, cheese nominal, about 13½c asked for best September; no bids made; full stock of low and medium. Large London—Cheese 62s, Liverpool 58s.

CIVIL SERVICE.—Instructions have been received by the deputy heads of Departments, directing them to rigidly enforce the provisions of the Order in Council relative to the attendance of employees at their offices. The attendance books in which the clerks enter their names on arriving in the morning are to be closed at a quarter to ten o'clock, and no leave is to be granted to them to leave the buildings for lunch or other purpose till four o'clock. The officers of the civil service appear to admit the justice of this order, but very justly say that it is necessary that the establishment of a decent place of refreshment be provided in the building, such as that provided in the public offices in England.

BLEEDING FROM LUNGS, CATARRH, BRONCHITIS, CONSUMPTION A WONDERFUL CURE.—Rochester, N. Y., Jan. 13th, 1874. R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.: Dear Sir—I had suffered from Catarrh in an aggravated from for about twelve years and for several years from Bronchial trouble. Tried many doctors and things with no lasting benefit. In May, '72, becoming nearly worn out with excessive Editorial labors on a paper in New York City, I was attacked with Bronchitis in a severe from, suffering almost a total loss of voice. I returned home here, but has been home only two weeks when I was completely prostrated with Hemorrhage from the Lungs, having four severe bleeding spells within two weeks, the first three inside of nine days. In the September following, I improved sufficiently to be able to be about, though in a very feeble state. The Bronchial trouble remained and the Catarrh was tenfold worse than before. Every effort for relief seemed fruitless. I seemed to be losing ground daily. I continued in this feeble state, raising blood almost daily until about the first of March, '73, when I became so bad as to be entirely confined to the house. A friend suggested your remedies. But I was extremely skeptical that they would do me good, as I had lost all heart in remedies, and began to look upon medicine and doctors with disgust. However, I obtained one of your circulars, and read it carefully, from which I came to the conclusion that you understood your business, at least. I finally obtained a quantity of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, your Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets, and commenced their vigorous use according to directions. To my surprise, I soon began to improve. The Discovery and Pellets, in a short time, brought out a severe eruption, which continued for several weeks. I felt much better, my appetite improved, and I gained in strength and flesh. In three months every vestige of the Catarrh was gone, the Bronchitis had nearly disappeared, had no Cough whatever and I had entirely ceased to raise blood; and, contrary to the expectation of some of my friends, the cure has remained permanent. I have had no more Hemorrhage from the Lungs, and am entirely free from Catarrh, from which I had suffered so much and so long. The debt of gratitude I owe for the blessing I have received at your hands, knows no bounds. I am thoroughly satisfied, from my experience, that your medicines will master the worst forms of that odious disease, Catarrh, as well as Throat and Lung Diseases. I have recommended them to very many and shall ever speak in their praise. Gratefully yours, Wm. H. Spencer.

Pulmonary Diseases.—Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, Dec 9th, 1871.—Jas I Fellows, Esq. Dear Sir: We are receiving orders almost daily from the outports for your invaluable Syrup of Hypophosphites, and the sale is steadily increasing. I firmly believe it has done more good than any medicine yet discovered in the cure of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, whooping cough and kindred diseases. It is the only medicine we have which cures these diseases by strengthening the nervous system; and as it is also what we call a sound chemical preparation, I predict for it a more extended demand than any other remedy in existence. Yours, very truly, W H THOMPSON.

READ THIS TWICE.—Five to thirty drops of THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL will cure common Sore Throat. It never fails in Croup. It will cure a Cold or Cough in twenty-four to forty-eight hours.
