DEATH OF EDWARD DALY

AT LONDON—RELATIVES IN KINGSTON AND NAPANEE.

Born in the Limestone City Eighty Years Ago — A Commercial Traveller's Sad Experience.

Napanee, Feb. 17.—Word was received on Friday morning of the death at London of Edward Daly, early that morning. Deceased was born in Kingston over eighty years ago, and spent his young days there, later on living in Napanee, and only the last ten years had he been a resident of London. A family of six children and an aged widow survive. Two daughters, Mrs. A. W. Grange and Mrs. F. S. Richardson, reside here; Mrs. A. Pepler in Toronto, and Mrs. Keenleyside in London. Mrs. Hanson, another daughter, died in Montreal a few years ago. Two sons, Reginald, a professor in Yale college, and Frederick, in London; another son died in London a few years ago. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. McIntyre, Kingston, mother of Rev. C. E. McIntyre, of Napanee, and John and Donald McIntyre, Kingston. Since his youth he has been connected with the tea trade, and through industry had amassed quite a competence. The deceased was a brother of Denis Daly, Napanee, and of the late George and Charles Daly, of this town. Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Richardson are in attendance at the funeral, which takes place this afternoon at one o'clock.

The many friends of Joseph McAllister will be pained to hear he was the commercial traveller reported a few days ago as suffering such a terrible experience on the rear of a train from Montreal to Quebec. The report stated that a commercial traveller named McAllister, from Toronto, met with a terrible experience on the way from Montreal to Quebec. It appears he had lost his ticket and alighted at a way station to purchase another. When he came out to take the train it was moving, and he had only time to board the rear car. He found the door locked and had to ride outside until the next station was reached. There it was found that both his hands and ears were very badly frozen. It is feared that some of the fingers will have to be amputated.

Miss Alice Neilson left yesterday for Toronto to attend the millinery openings prior to her return to her position in Aylmer, Ont. Mary Keller, Bath, spent yesterday in town.

AMERICAN PRODUCTS.

The Place They Have Taken in Foreign Lands.

Washington, Feb. 16.—The growing popularity of American products, in those parts of the world in which all manufacturing and exporting nations are making earnest endeavors to extend their commerce, is illustrated by the figures of the treasury bureau of statistics showing the exports in 1900 compared with 1890, our exports to Europe increasing during that period sixty-three per cent. to North America 108 per cent.; to South America 163 per cent.; to Oceanica, 143 per cent.

The united kingdom, which stood at the head of our list of customers in 1890 still maintains that position. France, which stood third in the list of our customers in 1890, is now fifth. Canada, which was fourth, has taken third rank, and the Netherlands, which was sixth, is now fourth on the list.

HAD CANADIAN VICTIMS.

Bloomington, Ill., Woman Arrested For Swindling.

Bloomington, Ill., Feb. 16.—Miss Elizabeth Kabrick, arrested on Tuesday for swindling a number of men by inserting a matrimonial advertisement and asking those who replied for money and jewelery, had received several answers from Canada. The postal authorities received a letter from a man in Manitoba stating that he had been requested to forward $50 and a diamond ring, and enquiring for particulars of his correspondent's character. It was this letter which brought about the investigation which led to the woman's arrest.

Becomes An Arbitrator.

Buffalo, N.Y., Feb. 16.—The New York Central railroad has become the owner of the Niagara elevators numbers one, two and three, which have a total capacity of upwards of 2,000,000 bushels. The Central will command over 3,200,000 bushels of storage capacity in this port. This, of course, renders the company entirely independent of the facilities of any other elevating company, and makes it practically an arbitrator of elevating business at this point.

A New Pipe Line.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 16.—After a hard fight of many years the first successful competition to the Standard oil company's pipe line has been completed. The new line, which is the United States pipe line, is now finished and today began flowing from the oil fields of McKean county to tidewater in Delaware bay.

Team For Shoeburyness.

Ottawa, Feb. 16.—The council of the artillery association has decided to send a team to Shoeburyness this year if competitions are held there, and voted $3,500 towards the expenses. Col. Macdonald, of Guelph, was elected chairman of the council.

SPORTING PARAGRAPHS.

The Various Events Which Have Created Interest.

Sydenham, Gananoque and Renfrew have written to the Rambler hockey team, asking for matches at those places.

"Q" ladies will be presented to a number of Queen's footballers and athletes at the alma mater meeting on Saturday evening.

On Monday night at the Kingston rink, Ramblers and Frontenac II will have a match. Tickets have been placed at a reasonable price.

At the bonspiel of the Canadian curling association at Toronto, the Toronto Caledonians won the governor-general's trophy by defeating Seaforth curlers by eight shots.

The regular scheduled match between Deseronto and Crescents, announced for last night, was cancelled, on account of the suspension of the Crescents. The Deseronto team will not visit this city until they come to meet the Ramblers.

The famous Indian hockey club, of Queen's, has, at the urgent request of the university senate, (so the bulletin notice says), decided to re-organize. The team is open for challenges, but refuses to play against "dubs." "Pees" Williams is chaplain-elect.

The hockey players of the Chicago dental college, touring Canada, had a disagreement with their manager, Dr. Diamond, at Hamilton, the result being the dismissal of Dr. Diamond as manager, and the election of J. J. Sullivan, St. Catharines, to the position of manager.

Some of the Toronto papers refer to the Whig's criticism, that Queen's senior team would have met the same fate at the hands of Peterboro juniors, at Peterboro, Monday night, as was meted out to Frontenacs II, by saying that Wellingtons went down to Peterboro recently and trimmed the senior team of that place. Now, just to show up the inconsistency of the stand taken by the Toronto papers, it might be mentioned that the same team which Wellingtons defeated, was defeated by the Peterboro colts by a score of twenty to one.

The tie between Peterboro and Port Hope, in the intermediate series of the O.H.A., was played at Lindsay Thursday. The game was fast and exciting. In the commencement the Peterboro team was much faster, and at half-time the score stood three to two in favor of Peterboro. The latter half was more exciting. Port Hope played rings around their opponents, and succeeded in scoring four more goals, while Peterboro got only one, leaving a final score of six to four in favor of Port Hope.

At the Ottawa ice races Jewel, owned by A. Paquette, Montreal, broke the Canadian one mile ice record by covering the distance in 2:19 flat, three-quarters of a second better than the old record. In the 2:09 class Golden Prince, Frederick Miller, Bath, was drawn after the fifth heat, seven heats being run. The premier place was taken by Looking Glass, L. G. Bennett, Port Hope; Sloppy Weather, W. H. Comstock, Brockville, second, and Jewel, A. Paquette, Montreal, third; time, 2:19. Puzzler, E. P. Brannigan, Kingston, took first money in the 2:29 class, winning three straight heats. Sir Knight was second; time, 2:24:30.

The sporting writer of Queen's University Journal makes this hockey comment: "The incessant pass-pass-pass is rapidly destroying the effectiveness for which Queen's senior forward line has been noted. With such men as Harty, Walkem and Dalton, individual work should invariably take the place of the 'stand still' pass. Combination of this kind is a strength to the enemy. On what is known as a 'lull,' let each player go it himself, then the chance to pass, if it ought to come, will come. The present system of combination work in such cases is to get rid of the puck and await developments. This will not do, Queen's. On exactly this point hinges the O.H.A. championship. The days of a slow four combination all over the rink have gone. A two or three combination, approaching goal, is the only method by which a team like the 'Iron Dukes' can be defeated."

Bankers Play Tie Match.

Kingston and Brockville bankers' hockey teams played a tie match at the Kingston rink last night, the score resulting three to three. In the first half the Brockville coin handlers played a faster game than their opponents, but lacked staying power of their Kingston brethren, as evidenced before the match concluded. At half time the score was three to two in Brockville's favor. In the second half Kingston scored a goal, and blanked their eastern friends.

Kingston—Goal, Taylor; point, Keeney; cover-point, Murphy; centres, Betts, Dowsley; wings, A. C. Patterson, P. C. Patterson.

Brockville.— Goal, Sheffield; point, Jackson; cover-point, Gibnour; centres, Fields, Church; wings, Liddle, Mallory.

Referee.—H. Waddell.

Kingston Wins The Trophy.

Kingston curlers defeated Rockwood yesterday afternoon by seven shots, and won the Quinte league curling trophy, having won four straight matches. The scores were:

Kingston, No. 1—E. Lyons, F. Shaw, R. M. Waddell, A. Strachan, skip—17.

Rockwood, No. 1—W. R. Dick, W. Carr, J. Davidson, Dr. Forster, skip—10.

Kingston, No. 2—S. Bailey, J. W. Power, L. L. Henderson, W. B. Dalton, skip—17.

OVER THE TEA CUPS.

The Boston Ladies' symphony orchestra attracted a full house to the city hall last night, and the programme fulfilled all the expectations of those who looked for a musical treat. The director, Frank W. McKee was obliged to return home yesterday, owing to the serious illness of his mother, and his place was filled by Miss Demilla, who conducted with the finished grace and accuracy of an accomplished musical director. It was a pretty sight, that platform of white gowned girls, each of whom lovingly handled the instrument over which she had acquired so complete command as to render her worthy of a place in that orchestra.

There were ten numbers on the programme, and every one was encored. The style of the music was varied, and the orchestra proved themselves equally at home in an overture by Wagner, a symphonie by Raff, or a bright military march. The martial music was most popular, one number being encored twice, when the trombone player received special applause. Miss Elizabeth Banks, the cornet soloist, played with delightful ease, and her sweet face and winning smile, as she acknowledged the plaudits of the audience, were an additional attraction to her fine execution on the cornet. In response to an encore she play "The Palms," and in each solo the artistic undercurrent, the delicate accompaniment of the orchestra, was a very important part of the charming whole. The violin soloist, Miss Grace Hastings, played "Ballad et Polonaise." Her ability is of the highest order, her dexterity was much admired, she did some very pretty bowing both of arm and wrist movement, the former being particularly graceful. As an encore she played "Old Folks At Home," and the harmonies in that well known strain were beautiful. Perhaps, however, the favorite soloist was Miss Florence Beckett, whose flute playing was simply captivating in its sweetness, its clearness, its smooth richness. The upper notes were like a sweet voiced bird, the lower notes were full and deep, and she played with such perfect ease the clear notes chasing one another about and flooding the hall with melody. Mr. Carl Crance, basso, of Ottawa, has a splendid voice that he uses well. His solo "Bandolero," by Stuart, was followed by Tennyson's "Three Fishers." Taken as a whole the concert was a rare treat and it is doubtful if one left the hall feeling other than pleased with the success of the programme.

Mrs. Harry Tandy very kindly opened her pretty house on Barrie street for the organ fund of St. George's cathedral, and on Wednesday afternoon and evening her rooms were well filled with guests who responded to the cathedral ladies' invitation to the ten cent tea and musicale. Mrs. McFaul was in charge of the door and collected admission fees amounting to seventeen dollars. Refreshments were served in the afternoon from a prettily arranged table in the dining room where Mrs. Deacon poured tea and Mrs. Irwin presided over the coffee urn while Miss Bessie Smythe and Miss Bea McGill made admirable hostesses, seeing to the wants of every one in the tea room. The candy table in the hall brought thirteen dollars and sixty cents, and was in charge of Mrs. Thomas Mills, Mrs. Grover and Miss Charlotte Moore. In the sitting room was the work table in charge of Mrs. John Routley and Mrs. Eames, useful and fancy articles were offered there for sale, and before the evening was over the table was cleared and the proceeds amounted to twenty-five dollars.

Mrs. Tandy, Mrs. Buxton Smith and Miss Tandy welcomed the guests and from a social as well as from a financial standpoint the affair was a great success. In the evening a very delightful programme was enjoyed. Miss Anna Lesslie played the opening piano solo followed by a song by Mr. Kelso and a piano solo by Miss Fortescue. C. B. S. Harvey sang twice, his first sentimental solo being encored when he gave a rousing patriotic song that was much enjoyed. Miss Ada Bates, who is always a favorite, sang a very sweet song, and Mrs. Campbell's wonderful piano playing was heard with wrapt attention and called forth general comment on her perfect execution and sympathetic touch. Mrs. Farrell sang two numbers, her rich contralto voice commanding the instant attention of both rooms. Miss Clements gave a soprano solo in very sweet voice. The programme closed with "God Save the King." All the accompaniments were played by Mr. Harvey, and the ladies are indebted to him for much of the success of the musicale.

A MONTANA "BLOW-OUT."

Description of a Celebration to Commemorate Victory.

New York Commercial Advertiser.

Senator Clark's triumph in Montana was followed by a "week of carnival and sport" the like of which the history of royalty even fails to supply a parallel. The scene was Helena, to which special trains were run from other points. Every bottle of champagne in the town was brought by the senator's agents and "dispensed free by from three to five bartenders in every bar-room." Cigars and luncheon and plain ordinary drinks were thrown in as a matter of course. The senator's "wine bill" was $30,000, his full salary as senator for his term of six years. Was not that handsome? The feasting was followed by some of the "tallest gambling ever seen in the west." Swede Sam's faro rooms were the chief centre of interest. All of the most eminent plungers gathered there. A Butte plunger won $8,000 within an hour; an insurance solicitor won $7,000 from Swede Sam, but lost it with $800 more in a rival establishment. Poker playing filled the hotels, with $10,000 the uniform stakes, sometimes rising to $40,000. In one private residence of a very eminent citizen they reached $25,000. Swede Sam's experience forms a beautiful domestic idyl. Four years ago he started for Montana with $20,000 to see his dear old mother in Sweden. He stopped in New Orleans and played it all on the races, losing every penny. He borrowed money and returned to Montana. He accumulated $15,000 and was preparing to start for Sweden again when he "bucked the tiger" and lost it all. Now, through the "Clark Carnival," he is $250,000 "to the good," and is packing up to start for Sweden. He will, if he gets there, give his dear old mother $25,000 and then continue his journey around the world. "And yit," said the cynical Jack Oakhurst, "and yit there is them as sez keards is a waste er time!" And yet there are those that say that the purification of politics in Montana does not increase the happiness of the human race!

Rapid Railway Travel.

Representatives of the Grand Trunk railway company had in their charge the other day two children who, probably made the quickest trip ever recorded between Truro, N.S., and Council Bluffs, Ia., covering the 2,033 miles in exactly sixty-six hours and thirteen minutes. The little ones were alone and made the trip to join their parents, the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. J. Simpson, in the city on the banks of the Missouri river. They left Truro, at 3:45 o'clock in the afternoon on the Maritime express, arriving at the Bonaventure station at 5:30 o'clock the following afternoon. While here they were entertained by representatives of the company, and at 10:30 o'clock in the evening they boarded the "Fast Flyer," arriving in Dearborn station, Chicago, at 8:43 o'clock the following evening. They continued their journey the same evening, leaving for Council Bluffs at 10:30 o'clock, and reached their destination at 3:45 o'clock the next afternoon. Their journey was uneventful, but they seemed to enjoy every minute of the time they were on the trains, as the men in charge as well as the passengers showed them every attention. The total time occupied from Truro to Council Bluffs was seventy-two hours, from which, of course, the stops at Montreal and Chicago are to be deducted, as well as the differences of an hour in eastern and central time. The foregoing shows one of the possibilities of modern railroading.
