Oakville man scores $180K secondary prize in lottery

Coming in second isn't always a bad thing, especially for one lucky Oakville resident who scored a more than $180,000 secondary lottery prize.

Robert Schofield picked up $180,129 after winning the second prize in the Feb. 27 Lotto 6/49 draw.

"This is just breathtaking. Unbelievable," said Schofield, a 63-year-old supervisor, in a news release from the OLG.

"This money is coming at a great time, as my wife just retired. When I told her she started to cry."

Schofield is a regular lottery player and this is his first major prize.

He says he and his wife of 29 years plan to use the windfall to pay off their bills and take a vacation.

Players have won more than $10 billion in prizes since the launch of Lotto 6/49 in 1982.
