GEN. DEWET IS CRAZY

So Says A Report From Cape Town.

GEN. BOTHA WANTS PEACE

IS SAID TO HAVE INTERVIEWED LORD KITCHENER.

Gen. Botha Visited Gen. Dewet and Found Him Practically Irresponsible—Wants Peace for All Time.

London, April 11.—For weeks past reports have been current to the effect that Gen. Dewet had lost his reason in consequence of his incessant anxiety, his inability to rest, or even sleep, owing to the unrelaxing pursuit of his men by British columns. Although these stories have been attributed to reliable Boer prisoners, and have been accompanied with considerable details, it has been impossible to accept them as entirely convincing.

To-day, however, come statements from Cape Town reaffirming these tales of Dewet's mental collapse, and asserting that Gen. Botha, having satisfied himself of their truth, has reopened negotiations with the British military officials, for the conclusion of peace.

It is known to be a virtual certainty that Gen. Botha very lately visited Gen. Dewet in the neighborhood of Heilbron, and there, according to these despatches, he discovered that Gen. Dewet's intellect had been weakened to the extent that he was not responsible for his actions, and had lost his influence over his followers, who were rapidly forsaking him. These facts convinced Gen. Botha that a continuance of the campaign rested with him alone, and as Gen. Dewet has hitherto been the only opponent of opening negotiations for peace, he (Botha) resolved to re-open negotiations looking to that end, and these negotiations are now proceeding.

The Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Telegraph claims his story to be semi-official. He says Gen. Botha has had a further interview with lord Kitchener, whom he informed of Gen. Dewet's condition, and added that Dewet refused to entertain the idea of surrender on any terms. Gen. Botha, however, regarding Dewet as irresponsible, desires a modus vivendi in behalf of the whole burgher forces. The correspondent adds that the only possible terms obviously are unconditional surrender.

The newspapers are charry in accepting the Cape Town story. The Times remarks that Cape Town is hardly the place from which early and trustworthy news on such a subject is likely to come.

THE CHINESE SITUATION.

M. DeGiers is Angry—Great Distress Prevails.

London, April 11.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times says field marshal count Von Waldersee and all the generals are agreed as to what military measures will be requisite when the evacuation by the allies has begun. All the commanders are becoming impressed with the expediency of reducing the forces at the earliest possible moment. It is impossible to find enough work to keep the troops employed, and the risk of dangerous friction between the various nationalities and the approaching heated term are additional reasons.

The correspondent pictures the situation in the district occupied by the foreign troops in the gloomiest colors and says trade with northern China is paralyzed. The first steamers from Shanghai to Tien Tsin, after the opening of navigation, usually carry goods to value of ten millions taels. This year scarcely a single package has come forward.

The condition regarding administration of affairs is little short of chaos. What with flying columns, Chinese marauders, and extortioners and black mailers, the utmost distress prevails. It is reported that Boxerism is lurking beneath the surface. The anti-foreign feeling is more widespread and genuine in the province of Chih Li than at any time since the Boxer triumphs.

In reference to the Russo-Chinese relations, the language used by M. Degiers, Russian minister at Pekin, hardly reflects the benevolent sentiments expressed by count Lanmsdorff, the Russian foreign minister, in his circular. Degiers demands the return of all communications from the Russian legation respecting the Manchurian negotiations, and has warned earl Li that instead of being, as heretofore, an advocate of the Chinese cause, he (Degiers) will henceforth support a policy of the utmost severity.

The Bridge Swept Away.

Terrebonne, Que., April 11.—That part of the Masson toll bridge, which withstood the ice for years, has been carried away by the ice, and the executors of the estate of Masson are saving what they can of the wreck. They do not intend rebuilding so that there is no bridge communication with Montreal. This will be a serious loss to the public and the farmers in the surrounding district. Hon. Mr. Mercier's government offered a subsidy of $20,000 to aid the municipalities interested in building a free steel bridge and it is claimed that the offer has not been rescinded.

Orders Study Of English.

Washington, April 11.—United States consul-general Guenther reports to the department of state from Frankfort that emperor William has decreed that the English language shall be taught in the high schools of Germany in place of French, which hereafter shall be optional.

THE STOLEN GOLD.

It Was Taken From the Steamer's Strong Room.

New York, April 11.—The robbery at sea of the specie of the North German Lloyd, liner Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse seems a mysterious crime. Apparently there has been complete failure to locate either the missing gold bullion or the men who took it, although the search of passengers and ship at Bremen again may furnish material for the investigations. Two bars of gold aggregating in value $22,750 shipped by the National City bank, of New York, were stolen from cask No. 4, of the specie room, somewhere between this port and Cherbourg.

The advices to Oelrichs & Co., agents for the company, came in German, and on the point as to whether the specie room was broken open or entered by beating the lock admits of translation either way. The specie room of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse is iron bound and almost as strong as a vault. Its door was secured by a patent lock for which there were but two keys. One of the keys was kept by the chief officer, the other by the purser. The bars of gold were packed in oak casks bound with iron hoops. Thousands of dollars in gold were within the reach of the man who forced his way into the strong room, but only the sum named was taken.

HUGGED SCHOOLMA'AMS.

Prof. E. P. Eaton Arrested in Oswego—He is The Hugger.

Binghamton, N.Y., April 11.—Prof. E. P. Eaton, a schoolmaster whose home is in Apalachin, is under arrest in Oswego for hugging school teachers on the street. The Tioga county teachers' institute has been in session in that village, and the pretty schoolma'ams from the rural districts were annoyed by a man who sprang from behind trees, hugged them and then ran away. Several of the teachers who resented his advances were stoned. Last night officers Hourigan and Page lay in wait and captured Prof. E. P. Eaton, who, they say, is the "hugger." Prof. Eaton pleaded not guilty and in default of bail was locked up. The arrest and the discovery of the prisoner's identity caused a sensation among the teachers.

RUSH FOR DIGGINGS.

Gold Discoveries on Santa Creek, in Idaho, Cause a Stampede.

Tekoa, Wash., April 11.—There is intense excitement over the discovery of rich placer diggings on Santa creek, twenty-five miles east of here, in Idaho. Many have left to stake claims. The discovery was made by Tyson brothers, three farmers, in a gulch which runs into Santa creek, within about eight miles of the creek's confluence with the St. Mary's.

From a piece of ground forty by fifteen feet they took out $308 in coarse gold. Their appliances were crude, and it is estimated that they got less than a third of the gold, as the bed rock was not cleaned at all. The new camp is on the divide between the old Hoodoo district and the Cour d'Alenes. It is said several million dollars was taken out of the Hoodoo district in early days.

Greeks Attack Swindlers.

Chicago, April 11.—Three hundred angry Greeks, armed with knives and revolvers, besieged four men in a building for several hours. Stones were hurled through the windows and other damage done. When the police arrived it was with difficulty they forced their way into the house. The men, it is alleged, embezzled $3,000 belonging to the members of the infuriated crowd outside. The men were John Papadopoulis and two sons, James and Theodoris, and Theodoris Malaran. The men secured $10 from each of the 300 other Greeks to pay transportation to a point on the Union Pacific road, where the men were to have work at $1.75 per day. George Papadopoulis, sent to buy the tickets, disappeared, and the riot occurred.

Thrown In A Panic.

St. John, April 11.—The postal authorities have been investigating a supposed dynamite outrage. On Tuesday while the clerks were obliterating stamps on drop letters one of them exploded, frightening everybody in the office. Sufficient of the letter was left to show that it was addressed to a lad named McDonald at the general hospital. Officers were sent to investigate and found that McDonald's brother was lending him paper caps for a toy pistol. He put them in the letter and they worked to the stamp corner and went off when the clerk hit them, and thus caused a sensation.

Want Only Fair Play.

London, April 11.—At a meeting yesterday of the great iron workers, Bell Bros., limited, a dividend of twenty-five per cent. was declared on the stock. Sir Lowthian Bell stated that profits for the year had been £360,000. He added that notwithstanding all that had been said about foreign competition, he had no fear as to the future of iron and steel trades in Great Britain, provided they received fair play.

Woman Accused of Election Fraud.

Denver, Col., April 11.—A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mrs. M. A. Ratcliffe on the charge of having wilfully, knowingly and unlawfully voted in the wrong precinct at the late city election. It is said that she is the first woman formally accused in this country of an election fraud.

SOLD GYPSY GIRLS.

But They Declined to go to Their New Master.

Chicago, April 11.—The sale of two girls, members of a gypsy band, at Momence, this county, brought on a riot. So angry were the citizens over the traffic that a mob was formed which drove the gypsy band from town. The deal which caused the trouble was the sale of Juanita Costello and Margot Czech, sixteen and seventeen years old, by their guardian, Nicholas Karoptkin, a Russian, to a Brazilian, also a member of the band, the price paid being $800.

The girls refused to recognize the sale and threatened their prospective master. The Brazilian then swore out a warrant for Karoptkin, charging the obtaining of money by false pretences. A squad of police was found necessary to secure the Russian, who drew a revolver on the officers. The failure to secure an interpreter made it impossible to get evidence against the prisoner and he was discharged. During the trial a mob gathered. Threats of lynching and of tar and feathers were made. The gypsies hastily packed up and fled.

THE LADIES PROTEST.

Do Not Want Statue Raised—Indians are Indignant.

Brantford, April 11.—J. Brant-Sero, a well-known Indian of this city, now in England, conferred an Indian name upon the lord mayor of Liverpool. The matter came up at a meeting of the Six Nation chiefs, and indignation was expressed. It was decided to write the lord mayor telling him that only the chiefs in council have power to confer titles.

At a meeting of Fessenden chapter, daughters of the empire, a resolution was adopted protesting against the proposition to erect a statue for Gen. Montgomery in Quebec. The ladies have raised sufficient money to provide new colors for the 13th regiment.

THE SUGAR MARKET.

Speculators Laying in Heavy Stocks In England.

London, April 11.—With the approach of the budget statement, excitement in the sugar market is reaching fever heat. The wharves of Hamburg are choked with sugar waiting to be shipped to England and there is such a run on vessels that even colliers are being pressed into service. Sugar imports for the month of March were 257,499 tons, as against 131,262 tons in March of last year. It it should turn out that no tax is to be levied on sugar there would doubtless be a great slump in price and probably a number of speculators would fail.

Capt. Bernier's Project.

Ottawa, April 11.—The government has been asked to assume the cost of building a vessel of special design to enable Capt. Bernier to make his expedition in search of the north pole. Should the application be refused the captain would have to depend upon private subscription. The estimated cost of a vessel of the design required by Capt. Bernier is $60,000 and in the opinion of many scientific bodies, the government would be quite justified in undertaking the expenditure.
