BROKE THROUGH TRESTLE.

SIXTEEN ITALIAN EMIGRANTS KILLED.

Over Fifty People Seriously Injured—Several Cars Demolished—A Bad Accident on the Wabash.

Peru, Ind., June 26.—Sixteen persons were killed and about fifty seriously injured in a wreck of train No. 2, the west-bound Wabash, nine miles west of this city, at 12.30 a.m. to-day. The dead are all Italians, immigrants en route to Colorado. Many of the injured undoubtedly will die.

Having left this city one hour late, the train was proceeding westward at high speed, when at a point nine miles west the engine plunged through a trestle which had been undermined by the recent heavy rains. Owing to the momentum of the train, the engine leaped across the abyss, plunged into the soft earth on the opposite bank and fell back to the bottom. The express car and the first chair car were telescoped. The immigrant car, followed by two chair cars, went down on the left side of the track, and the first sleeper pitched foward upon the mass of wrecking. Its windows and trucks were broken, but none of the occupants were injured.

The remaining cars also left their trucks, but were not badly damaged. The division superintendent of the Wabash system wired superintendent Gould, general superintendent of the Wabash, saying that fourteen were killed, mostly Italians, and about thirty injured, that the four first cars were completely demolished and three sleepers badly damaged, but none of the occupants seriously injured. Among the injured is Mrs. William Cotton, wife of the general superintendent of the Iron Mountain railway, badly bruised.

DECISION GIVEN.

In The Action Of The Donnelly Wrecking Company.

Justice Ferguson gave judgment at Osgoode Hall, on Tuesday, dismissing the action of $1,358 brought by the Donnelly wrecking and salvage company, of Kingston, against J. Turner, owner of the schooner Wave Crest, which went ashore at Point Breeze, N. Y., on Lake Ontario, on the 7th of December, 1899. Turner engaged the wrecking tug by wire for $150 per day, and a steam pump for $15 per day. The tug set out for Point Breeze, but the ice and storm prevented her from reaching her destination. After six and a half days had been consumed in this way a wire was received notifying the tug not to go, as the schooner had gone to pieces. The company then entered the claim for damages, and the owner of the boat put in a counter claim for failure of the company to keep the contract. The action was dismissed with costs, and the counter claim was dismissed without costs.

Marine Notes.

Craig's wharf: Steamer Persia, from Toronto.

The steamer Toronto had about 400 passengers down this morning.

The steambarge King Ben is on the marine railway at Portsmouth for repairs.

The steamer India and consorts cleared from Garden Island for Toledo, light.

The steamer Pierrepont takes the first picnic of the season to Long Island park on Saturday.

Swift's wharf: Steamers Toronto, from Toronto, North King, from Charlotte, Hamilton, from Hamilton, Rideau Queen, from Ottawa.

M. T. company elevator: Tug Thomson cleared with two laden barges for Montreal; schooner Flora Carveth, from lake ports, discharged grain and cleared.

The steamer Jessie Bain will leave Kingston towards the end of this week with a party of civil engineers aboard to continue the survey of the river St. Lawrence between Kingston.

The steamer Kingston will leave Toronto on her maiden trip on Tuesday, July 2nd, which will bring her to this port on Wednesday morning, when the ceremony of flag presentation will take place.

The Professors Of Queen's.

In view of the recent discussions about Canadian universities and colleges going to Britain for professors, this information will be of interest. Of the seventeen professors in arts and theology at Queen's, ten are Canadian born and educated, and seven are from England, Scotland and Ireland. Profs. Ross, Dupuis, Ferguson, Dyde, Shortt, and Knight were originally educated at Queen's. Principal Grant is from Nova Scotia; Prof. Goodwin from New Brunswick, and Profs. Fowler and Macgillivray from Ontario. Principal Grant has an honorary degree from Glasgow; Prof. Macgillivray graduated at Leipsic; Prof. Dupuis at Edinburgh, and Prof. Goodwin at Edinburgh and London. The other professors sought abroad are: Prof. Watson came from Glasgow; Prof. Macnaughton from Aberdeen; Prof. Glover from Cambridge; Prof. Marshall from Edinburgh; Prof. McComb from Oxford, and Prof. Jordan, long resident in Canada, but graduate of London university.

The Bargain Seeker.

Many buyers demand real inducements. They can tell a bargain and will not let it go by. Others wait for dull season bargains, because they must make their money go as far as possible. These and other bargain hunters depend upon the daily newspaper to learn what the merchant has to offer. The merchant who creates trade is far ahead of his rival who does not.

Fell From Her Wheel.

Mrs. William Atkinson, Wellington street, met with a painful accident while out wheeling last evening. She was riding along the road by the penitentiary farm, when her wheel struck a stone. She was thrown to the ground very heavily. A large gash was cut in the side of her head and her cheek was also badly injured.

Col. Hunter was at Barrieffield camp yesterday, visiting the officers and men of his old command, the 47th regiment.

Gave Him A Reception.

A reception was last evening tendered to Rev. Eber Crummy, the new pastor of Brock street Methodist church. There was a good attendance. Solos were rendered by Len. Cooke and the Misses Bailey, McVety and Davies. Rev. E. B. Lanceley and Rev. T. Brown made short addresses. Miss A. Abernethy read an address of welcome to the new pastor, whose reply was appropriate to the occasion. He thanked the congregation for its welcome and the good wishes extended, and promised to do his best for the advancement of the church and the cause. Ice cream and cake were afterwards served.

Moonlight Excursion.

THE TERMS OF AGREEMENT.

BY WHICH THE STREET RAILWAY TROUBLE ENDED.

The Company Recognizes the Union and the Men Left to the Company the Question of Increased Wages.

There has been so much discussion over the street railway strike and the settlement made that we give below the agreement signed by both parties.

Memorandum of compromise suggested by a third and disinterested party re the difficulty between the Kingston, Portsmouth and Cataraqui electric street railway and its employees:

1. Former employees, motormen, middlemen and conductors, to be reinstated.

2. The company shall allow the officers of street railway men's union, No. 150, to sign any agreement or treat for the men belonging to aforesaid union.

3. Any member of the union suspended, laid off, or discharged, shall be given a fair hearing by the company, said member being represented by the grievance committee.

4. That any men now taken on during the life of this agreement may become a member of the union.

5. In case of any dissatisfaction by either party to this agreement one week's notice shall be given by the party thus dissatisfied.

6. The men to return to work on Saturday morning, June 22nd. Increase in wages to be left to the company, and said increase to commence from date of returning to work.

7. This agreement is to be in force until April 1st, 1902.

Signed, B. W. Folger, Manager K., P. & C. railway; Hugh C. Nickle, superintendent K., P. & C. electric railway company; James Brown, secretary division No. 150; Peter Ryan, president division No. 150; witnesses, Daniel L. Dilworth, James R. Black.

Outlet Utterances.

Outlet, June 25.—The crops in this section are looking fine. On Friday afternoon a number of gentlemen from Gananoque visited this place, in the interest of the water power company. On Friday a number from this vicinity attended the box social at J. Lappan's, Sand Bay. The picnic at Greer's point on Saturday was a success. The most severe electric storm of the season visited us on Saturday evening. A number started from this place to a social at Edward Deer's Greenfield, but the storm prevented them from going. However, the social was postponed until Wednesday evening the 26th. Miss Alma Bradley, Tilly, visited relatives at Woodvale, on Sunday. James Fodey visited his family on Sunday; he was accompanied by his young friend, Mr. McAvoy, Seeley's Bay. A great many from this vicinity attended the laying of the corner stone of the new Roman Catholic church near Fairfax, on Sunday afternoon. Miss B. Cook, Dulcemaine, was at A. Greer's on Saturday and Sunday. John Reed and family have taken possession of their house on the property recently purchased from George Bradley, sr., Miss M. Webster, Lansdowne, accompanied by a friend, spent Friday afternoon on the lake.

Charleston Chats.

Charleston, June 25.—Mr. Banta has his new horse barn completed. S. Y. Bullis moved down to his cottage last week. A very large crowd of people visited our lake on Saturday, among them picnic parties from Brockville, Addison, Athens, Toledo, Frankville, Lyndhurst, Soperton, and Seeley's Bay. In the evening the spacious ball room of the Harbor View house was opened and an enjoyable time was spent for a few hours. But the crowd had a wet time going home as the heaviest electric storm of the season prevailed. A large number of foreigners have visited our lake of late, and they all report having never before enjoyed such good fishing. Among the visitors are to be seen doctors, lawyers, clergymen, members of parliament and many other prominent gentlemen. Misses Mulvenna have returned from a visit to their brother, Archie, Gananoque. Miss M. Burns has returned from a visit to friends at Trevelyan. Mrs. M. Green and son, W. J. Green, Sweet's Corners; W. J. Slack, Long Point; Mr. and Mrs. Danby, Soperton, were recent visitors. J. Foster is spending a few days with his son in Toledo.

Picnic Well Attended.

The Bay of Quinte railway carried three carloads of people from Yarker and beyond to the Roman Catholic picnic at Varty Lake this morning. Another big batch of passengers were taken over the Napanee line, and still another from Sydenham and way points. The picnic, as far as attendance was concerned, must have been a great success.

Married At Wolfe Island.

At Wolfe Island Roman Catholic church on Wednesday morning, Michael Ryan and Miss Etta Hennessy, were united in marriage. Charles Ryan was groomsman, and Miss Rosie O'Brien, bridesmaid, Rev. Fr. Spratt performed the ceremony. The newly married couple left on a trip to Toronto, Chicago, Buffalo and New York.

At Addington, in Kiowa Indian reservation, Olka., R. S. Castleberry, shot J. M. Wambold, president of the first National bank, three times, inflicting fatal wounds. Castleberry then shot Horace Addington, a bystander, in the shoulder. Castleberry surrendered to the marshal. The shooting resulted from a quarrel over town lots.

John W. Considine, Seattle, Wash., gambler and ex-chief of police W. L. Meredith, met on the street to-day and began shooting at each other. Meredith was killed. He was recently compelled to resign his office as chief of police after trouble with Considine and other local gamblers.

The trial of George O'Brien, charged with the murder of Lynn Wallace Relf and Fred. H. Claysen, both of Seattle, and Ole Oleson, a Dawson-Skagway, telegraph lineman, on Christmas day, 1899, on the winter trail near Minto, south of Dawson will cost Canada $100,000.

The flood victims in West Virginia number only fifty.

WANTED TO DIE.

William Phillips Attempts Suicide a Second Time.

William Phillips seems to have a mania for slashing his throat. He was arrested Tuesday afternoon on a warrant charging him with using threatening language towards his sister-in-law. He was searched, as customary, and everything in his pockets removed, afterwards being placed in a cell. The police kept a close watch on him, fearing that he might attempt to do himself violence, but he managed to elude this watchfulness and attempted to destroy his life with the aid of a two inch wire nail, where he procured this nail is a mystery, but it is surmised that he had it secreted about his clothing.

Along about half past six o'clock Sergt. Snodden visited Phillips and found him lying on the cell floor. He spoke to the prisoner, but did not get an intelligent reply. Opening the cell door, he found the prisoner lying in a pool of blood. With the aid of constable Timmerman Phillips was lifted to a bench, when Sergt. Snodden saw something sticking from the man's throat. He pulled it out and found it to be a two inch wire nail, which the prisoner had thrust into his wind pipe. A physician was summoned and the wound dressed, after which Phillips was removed in an ambulance to the general hospital. The wound is not considered dangerous.

Two years ago Phillips attempted to end his life under similar circumstances. While under arrest he slashed his throat with a knife but inflicted superficial wounds.

Westport Waftings.

Westport, June 24.—Strawberries are very plentiful, selling at three boxes for twenty-five cents. Miss Kate Healip, Ottawa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. T. P. Hogan. Entrance examinations will be held in St. Edward's school next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Mrs. Peter Murphy has gone to Peterboro to visit her sister. We are pleased to see James Dier around after an attack of bronchitis. Those writing on departmental examinations will begin on July 4th and finish on the 11th. Miss Creighton, New York, is the guest of Miss Blair. The annual excursion to Ogdensburg will be held on July 4th, under the auspices of the English church. Last Sunday the masons of Delta, Elgin and Newboro met here and attended service in St. Paul's church. Rev. Mr. Beamish, Brockville, preached to them. The Rideau Queen arrived on Sunday at four o'clock, being one day late. Among the passengers were a number of soldiers on their way from Ottawa to Kingston. A large crowd met them at the wharf.

Dominion Day At Rochester.

Steamer Caspian leaves Swift's wharf at 5 p.m., Saturday. Fare for round trip, $2.00.

Every effort will be exercised to compel the British government to discuss in parliament the conditions of the Mediterranean fleet.

Good for Baby. — Good for Baby's Clothes

Lily White FLOATING Soap
Made from the very best materials, no expense spared to make it absolutely pure. It will not harm the delicate skin of infant. It cools and soothes all irritation. Clothes washed with it are clean, soft, and sweet.
Lily White Soap is an eight ounce twin bar and sells for 10 cents at all good grocers. A smaller size at 5 cents. It is a perfect soap for general toilet use and economical enough for washing fine linens, shirt-waists, etc.
