NEGROES ARE INDIGNANT.

DEPLORE ATTEMPT TO DRIVE THEM FROM HOTEL.

No Color Line in England—Bishop Gaines Calls Action of Americans Who Protested Unpatriotic and Unjustifiable.

London, Aug. 23. Manager Richardson's decision that St. Ermin's hotel was "open to anyone, white, yellow, brown, or black, so long as they conducted themselves properly and paid their bills promptly," has left the situation created by the protests of a number of Americans against the admission of colored delegates to the ecumenical Methodist conference unchanged.

Intense indignation prevails among the negro delegates at the attempted exclusion. They declare that they are particularly hurt at the fact that the trouble was instigated by a few of their fellow countrymen, patrons of the hotel, while the large body of English patrons did not dream of raising the slightest objection to their presence.

Bishop Gaines says: "I deeply deplore such unpatriotic and unjustifiable action on the part of our compatriots. Throughout an extensive continental tour my daughter and my self have been everywhere received with the most courteous treatment. I nowhere saw the faintest trace of discrimination against us on account of our color. It is painfully humiliating to find such treatment reserved for us until reaching England, the home of liberty. The bitterness is increased by the knowledge that my own countrymen, citizens of the other greatest liberty loving nation in the world, are responsible for the attempted slight on their colored brethren. I fear race prejudice is growing in the United States. It would be a misfortune should the feeling extend to the shores of Europe."

Bishop Gaines expects that the conference will be directly productive of much benefit to the negroes in America.

Bishops Tanner, Arnett, and Gaines and other colored delegates have been invited to fill the pulpits of the most prominent Methodist churches in London tomorrow.

THE BODIES ARRIVE.

Gov. Ross Came Down With His Wife's Remains.

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 21. With flags at half mast and caskets of two of the dead of the Islander disaster on board, the C.P.R. steamer Haiang returned from the north to-day. Governor Ross, administrator of Yukon, who started from Dawson as soon as his wife told him the news arrived by the steamer accompanying the remains of his wife, niece and child. The other bodies brought by the steamer were those of Capt. Foote, master of the lost vessel, and Dr. John A. Duncan. Parson Bishop places the death list at forty, made up as follows: Passengers, E. D. Mills, Mrs. Dr. Philipps, and Dorothy Phillips, J. W. Bell, Dr. Duncan, Miss Kate Larkin, Mrs. Minnie Ross, A. W. Jett, J. Dahl, M. J. Breeden, Mrs. Nicholson, Mrs. Ross and child, Andrew Keating, a millionaire, and his son Arthur Keating, E. E. Douglas, E. Baker, Mrs. J. G. Henderson, H. T. Rogers, William Noades, N. Casper and Duncan McKay. Crew, Capt. Foote, H. Lloyd, Miles Jock, Claude Barkhedder, H. Porter, Norman Law, S. J. Price, George Allan, A. Kendall, P. Burns, James Hatch, James Baird, George Miles, coal passer name unknown, three Chinese.

The bodies of the following have been recovered: Miss Kate Larkin, H. T. Rogers, Mrs. J. B. Ross and child, Mr. Duncan, Dorothy Phillips, Mrs. Minnie Ross, Joseph Dahl, two passengers, names unknown; A. W. Jerry or George, Thomas Procelon, Alfred Kendall, S. J. Price, A. H. Noble, Chinaman, Miles Jock, Hugh Porter, P. Burke, Capt. Foote. There make nineteen out of forty lost, twenty-one bodies are still missing.

George McL. Brown, executive agent of the C.P.R., says the bodies of the victims buried in Duncan will be brought down to Victoria as soon as arrangements can be made. The recovery of the remains immediately after the accident necessitated their temporary burial at Duncan. Some of the bodies recovered at Duncan had been robbed of valuables by the Indians. The United States marshal at Juneau has gone in pursuit of the Indians. An inquest was held at Duncan on the body of Dr. Duncan and the following verdict rendered: "We, the jury, impanelled and sworn in the matter of the inquest upon the body of Dr. J. A. Duncan, deceased, find that he came to his death on Aug. 17th, 1901, by the wreck of the steamship Islander, and by evidence produced, we find that we can blame no one for the accident."

SENT TO THE MERCER.

Nellie O'Neill Heavily Sentenced—Two Drunks.

Nellie O'Neill, the thirteen-year-old little orphan, who pleaded guilty to stealing a gold chain and ring from the American hotel on Monday, appeared before the magistrate this morning for sentence. She was given six months in the Mercer reformatory for girls, with a further period not to extend over three years. If her behavior is good, she will probably be released at the expiration of the three months. The girl wept bitterly as she heard the fatal words. The magistrate considered it was the best thing that could be done for her, as she was not well taken care of by relatives, and was beginning to go astray.

William Mack, drunk, was remanded until the 28th inst.

Joseph Chamberlain, who were no eye-glass and bore no resemblance to his illustrious namesake, answered to a similar charge. He is a sailor on the propeller Pejepscot, and said he would rejoin his boat on her up trip Sunday. He was remanded until that date.

Is Death On Skunks.

Engineer Emmon, of the water works pumping house, had an unexpected episode last evening. A skunk of large dimensions and odiferous odor invaded the premises. Mr. Emmons dog made an attack on the intruder, but soon returned to his master's feet, where he buried his nose in a rather earthy. Mr. Emmon then worried the skunk with a stone, after which the dog completed the job. The funeral was a private one and there were no mourners.

A Splendid Market

Market square was a scene of great activity to-day. The market was largely attended, and it is doubtful if a better one could be found in any city. The produce offered for sale was of the finest quality. Melons, squash, celery, cauliflowers and other fresh vegetables were temptingly arranged in waggons. The buyers were numerous, and great quantities of produce were sold. Some exceptionally fine harvest apples and tomatoes were on sale.

Sergt. Swain, of the 14th Princess of Wales rifles, has been selected as one of the members of the Canadian team to take part in the National rifle association's big meet at Sea Girt, N.J., during the week of Sep. 1st.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Aug. 24.—The Bruce mining company has shut down its mine at that place and about 150 workmen are thrown out of employment. The cause of the shut down is not known here.

A MILLIONAIRE'S FUNERAL.

NEGROES THE MOURNERS AT BENEFACTOR'S BIER.

Remarkable Procession Follows The Body Of Croesus Bachelor To Last Resting Place.

New York, Aug. 21. Henry Dolan, the multi-millionaire and eccentric bachelor, was buried yesterday in Greenwood cemetery, his funeral being the most remarkable ever held in New York.

His body was followed to the grave by one millionaire and thirty negroes, all of the latter former personal servants of Dolan. The one white man was Frederick Roberts, secretary of Henry M. Hughes and life member of the Union club.

The vast estate is to be divided up among the children of the testator's dead brother, Godwin Dolan, all of whom live in the west. Several cousins also share in the property. It is hinted that his servants are all remembered in the will, and that he left large sums to charity.

He was fond of negroes and was especially good to William, who had been his valet and in charge of his household for years. At the time of his death he had eleven servants in his household. He was a man of splendid character, and had a most charming personality. No man in the Union club was more popular than he.

A LIVE WIRE

Causes An Ottawa Boy's Death—Scaled Jail Wall.

Ottawa, Aug. 24. Wilfrid Angus Duhamel, a twelve-year-old boy, picked up a live wire on Chapel street yesterday and dropped dead. A companion, Octave Philion, also picked up the wire, but he escaped after having his hand burned to the bone and getting a severe shock. Duhamel grabbed the wire with both hands, while Philion only touched it with one. The wire fell and in some way, the insulation was removed, thus making it extremely dangerous for any one to touch.

Dr. Davies, Chelsea, speaking of the small pox epidemic at St. Pierre de Wakefield, where there are about thirty new cases, says no attempt was made to stop the spread of the disease, but he has notified the Quebec board of health and also the township council to establish quarantine. The disease has been running through the district for the past four weeks, and the families in which it has secured a foothold have mingled freely with their neighbors, thus spreading the disease. The residents have no direct communication with the city, but a village situated a few miles from the small pox district is in constant communication with the capital through the city market.

A man named Johnson, in jail on a charge of robbery, scaled the high walls yesterday and escaped. He has not been seen since, but a search is being made for him.

Joe Lacelles has been acquitted of the charge of causing the death of Alphonse Bleau, a thirteen year old boy, who died a few days ago. In his dying statement Bleau said Lacelles tied a rope about his waist, and that the end of the rope was attached to a pony. Then the pony was started on the run to the stable, and Bleau was dragged after it. He was injured internally, and he died in the hospital after an operation. There was no evidence to substantiate what Bleau said, and it was shown that Lacelles and Bleau were good friends.

WHY THE DELAY?

It Is Causing Some Alarm In Pekin.

Pekin, Aug. 21. The delay of the Chinese plenipotentiaries signing the protocol is causing some uneasiness in the foreign community here, although the members of the powers do not think China needs to defy the powers by unnecessarily pressing to sign. Indeed, they think China is anxious to wind up the negotiations speedily. Business resumes, punishment and suspending the examinations will be issued immediately.

MAY END IN BLOODSHED

Three Thousand Armed Men Menace Argentine Troops.

London, Aug. 21. "Three thousand laborers engaged in constructing a branch of the Southern railway from Pringels to Bahia Blanca have gone on strike, alleging that their wages are in arrears," says a despatch to the Times from Buenos Ayres. "Most of them are armed and they have assumed a menacing attitude. The government has ordered troops to the scene."

SHOCKED TO DEATH.

Little Hugh Thorpe Touched Live Wire.

Ogdensburg, N.Y., Aug. 24.—Hugh Thorpe, aged eleven years, was killed last night by picking up a live wire which was lying across the sidewalk after the thunderstorm, on the corner of Jay and Elizabeth streets.

The Church In Luck.

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 24.—The will of Patrick O'Mullin was probated to-day, estate valued at $225,000. Halifax bequests total $10,000; $15,000 is left to the Paulist Fathers and the same amount to the Dominican Fathers, New York; $10,000 is left the archbishop to educate the young men for the church. The best part of the estate is left to the superior of the Jesuit order of Canada.

Bad Barnado Boy.

Port Arthur, Aug. 24.—A Barnardo boy by the name of William Ross was sentenced to Kingston penitentiary for two years for maliciously destroying property. He had been employed at the Algoma hotel and left. Because he was not taken back again he went to the barn belonging to the hotel on Friday night and cut up harness, etc. He also cut the tail off one horse.

No, Not One.

There isn't a swell dresser in Kingston too swell for our new suits. Oak Hall.

THE CROP WELL SAVED.

The Frost Has Not So Far Been Felt.

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 24.—Manager Thompson, of the Ogilvie milling company, estimates that about two-thirds of Manitoba's wheat crop has been cut. If this is the case all danger of serious damage by frost is at an end. Of wheat still standing a great portion is fully ripe and would not be damaged except by a heavy frost. In the new districts, where the crop is late, some danger still exists, but the crops affected would be but a very small portion of the total. A considerable portion of oats and barley is still uncut and there is a possibility that these crops may be damaged to some extent. The weather was fine in the eastern and central districts of Manitoba yesterday, but in the southern districts heavy rains prevented the continuation of harvesting operations.

SUSPENDED CERTIFICATE.

An Alleged Cause For Loss of Many Steamships.

London, Aug. 21.—A board of trade enquiry was held at West Hartlepool, into the stranding of the British tramp steamship Delmar, off the coast of Newfoundland, on July 8th. Capt. Williams, of the Delmar, maintained that the English chart of that coast differed from the American by a quarter of a point, which was quite sufficient, he claimed, to cause the loss of the five new steamships which had been wrecked this summer in the vicinity of Cape Race. The board decided to suspend Capt. Williams' certificate for six months.

GIFTS FROM BOERS.

Ring And Brooch Made From Transvaal Coins.

Cape Town, Aug. 23.—The Boer prisoners, at Simontown, presented to the duke and duchess of Cornwall and York several severite rings and a shield shaped brooch all made from coins of the Transvaal. The gift was accompanied by an address. At the request of the duke, the donors were presented to himself and the duchess at the admiralty house to-day.

WANTS A RACE.

Eddie Durnan Is Anxious To Meet Towns.

Toronto, Aug. 24.—Eddie Durnan, the well known Toronto sculler, has posted a forfeit of $500 for a race with George Towns, to take place on Toronto bay between September 14th and 21st. This action is in response to a letter received from Sullivan, who is training the English champion at Rat Portage for his coming race with Jake Gaudaur, for the world's championship.

Oil King Flagler Weds.

Wilmington, N.C., Aug. 24.—Henry M. Flagler, the multi-millionaire, who obtained a divorce from his insane wife just a week ago, married Miss Mary Lily Kenan, of this city, today. Only a few cards were issued for the marriage. The ceremony took place at 10 a.m., at Kenansville, Duplin county, named after the bride's family. For the last two years Miss Kenan and her mother have been frequently the guests of Mr. Flagler, and there have been reports than an engagement between the young woman and the millionaire existed.
