HIS INAUGURAL SERMONS.

REV. A. LAIRD, M. A., IN COOKE'S CHURCH.

The New Pastor Possesses a Strong Personality And is a Clever Speaker — Church Crowded to the Doors—Two Fine Sermons.

Rev. Alexander Laird, M.A., preached his inaugural sermons in Cooke's church yesterday, the audience at each service being unusually large. His able discourses held the close attention of his listeners and left a deep impression. Rev. Mr. Laird is a pleasing speaker, his ideas being very lucidly expressed, and uttered with the firmness of earnest conviction. In his sermon is seen a strong personality, which gives weight and color to the truths taught. The congregation of Cooke's have apparently made a wise choice in a pastor, for in the pulpit he has shown an activity which bespeaks diligence in his pastoral work.

At the morning service his subject was "The Church of Christ," based on the questions and sayings of Christ, found in Matt. XVI, 15-18. The discourse was a masterly effort, delineating clearly the duty of the church in its three-fold nature. The church had a duty to perform towards God, in faithful worship; towards the world, in earnest testimony of the love of God, and towards itself as a social and distinct organization. In dwelling on the latter he advocated faithful attendance at the mid-week prayer meeting as a means of help and stimulus to the members in the work of the church.

In the evening he spoke on the compassion of Christ, the text being found in Matt. IX, 36. Compassion, he said, was a deeper feeling than love, a characteristic of the truer christian, which brought him in closer touch with suffering humanity. It would more quickly elevate the degraded than the influence of the intellect of the philosopher, for it was the greatest medium of reaching the heart of man.

The audience at the evening service was the largest the building ever held. The singing was bright at both services, the whole congregation joining in. The morning anthem by the choir was "In Mercy Hear Us," and in the evening Dr. Hall's "O Praise The Lord," both of which were pleasantly rendered. The pulpit was encircled with choice flowers and plants. This evening a reception will be tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Laird by the ladies of the congregation.

May Cancel the Parade.

The officers of the 15th battalion, Belleville, will, on Friday night, consider the invitation of the citizens' committee to visit Kingston on May 24th to take part in the celebration ceremonies here. The officers of the 41st battalion, Brockville, will meet next week for the same purpose.

Mayor Mines has communicated with the officers of the 14th battalion, asking them to give an audience to a civic deputation with reference to the battalion turning out on the queen's birthday. Unless the 14th turns out the military part of the programme will be cancelled.

The court adjourned till 18th April.

Was Instantly Killed.

Port Huron, Mich., April 2.—Colin Cameron, a Grand Trunk brakeman, after coupling the engine of his train in the Sarnia tunnel yard on Saturday night, stepped on to the track alongside and directly in front of an approaching train, and was instantly killed. He was badly mangled, the head being severed from the body, both legs and also one arm cut off. The unfortunate man was from Ailsa Craig, Ont. He was a widower and leaves two small children.

Crime of An Insane Man.

Kansas City, Mo., April 2.—Harboring imaginary wrongs, John W. McKimm, aged twenty-nine years, yesterday shot and instantly killed Dr. B. F. Shaw, his brother-in-law, as the latter sat reading the Sunday school lesson to his five-year-old daughter. McKimm states that he had not been treated rightly and that he intended wiping out the entire family, consisting of Dr. Shaw and his child, his mother, two brothers and a sister.

Died on a Train.

Hamilton, Ont., April 2.—John R. Vert, traveller for F. F. Dalley & Co., wholesale druggists, of this city, who died on a train near Ottawa, on Saturday evening was well and favorably known here. He resided at 81 Northpark street, and leaves a widow. He had been complaining of illness for some time.

POLICE COURT SKETCHES.

Two Cases Before the Police Magistrate for Hearing.

James Cole thought it was only an April fool joke when he awoke to his senses and found himself locked up in the police cells yesterday, but the illusion was dispelled this morning when he came up before the police magistrate. He promised all sorts of things in the way of reformation, but the magistrate accepted these with a grain of salt and ordered Cole to pay a fine of $3 and costs, giving him two weeks to earn the "mun" at sugar-making. If the fine is not paid Cole will be arrested and confined in jail for two weeks.

Kam Sing charged "Jimmie" Smith with assault. Defendant denied the impeachment. Kam was unable to speak the queen's English so he brought a friend into court to interpret him. For about ten minutes Kam delinated in oriental vernacular while his friend punctuated his remarks by a frequent grunt of approval. When it was all over the interpreter said Smith and a friend had broken glass and a counter in Kam's place of business. Smith claimed he could bring witnesses to prove that he did no such thing. He was allowed until to-morrow morning to do so.

Assemblage of Mining Men.

During Friday and Saturday last there was an interesting assemblage of mining men in the parlors of the British-American hotel, in consultation on the erection of certain plants to be erected in Ontario. Among the group of experts were graduates of leading scientific institutions of America. It is seldom in any city that such a group would be found together. Among the group were graduates of the scientific department of Yale, the Massachusetts institute of technology, the Michigan college of mines, the Leigh university, and California college, besides the two Canadian universities, Toronto and Queen's. They thrashed out some intricate problems, which should aid materially in the development of provincial mineral industries.

Died Saturday Last.

Saturday evening Henry Hunter, a highly respected resident, died at his residence, Sydenham street north, aged sixty five years. Deceased was not long ill, but had been frail for some years of general debility. He came to Kingston from Port Elmsley upwards of ten years ago and won respect by his quiet demeanor. He leaves to mourn his demise his aged partner, three sons—Henry, of this city; George, British Columbia, and John, Watertown, N.Y.—and one daughter, Mrs. Smith, of this city. Two brothers, George and Thomas, reside one at Port Elmsley and the other at Cardinal, where the remains of the late Mr. Hunter will be interred.

His Melancholy End.

Ottawa, April 2.—Edward F. Hubbell, formerly bank clerk and stock broker in Ottawa, died in the city of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, on Friday. Hubbell served two years in Kingston penitentiary for embezzlement of $7,000 when with the bank of Ottawa. On his release he returned to Ottawa, and went into partnership with S. Maynard Rogers as stock broker. In June, 1897, Hubbell cashed a firm cheque for $1,250 in an Ottawa bank when there were no funds for it. The same day he left Ottawa and nothing has been since known of his whereabouts until notice of his death now arrives.

The Last Rites.

At the Church of Our Mother of Sorrows at nine o'clock this morning a requiem service for the late Sister Mary of Mercy, nee Johanna O'Connor, was held. His grace archbishop Gauthier was on the throne, assisted by Rev. Fr. Spratt, Wolfe Island, as deacon, and Rev. Fr. Meaghar, as sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. O'Connor, brother of the deceased, celebrated the mass, the archbishop singing the libera. The bearers were: T. J. Rigney, J. Rigney, N. O'Connor, M. Nolan and Edward J. Koen. The remains were placed in the vault at St. Mary's cemetery.

TRANSFER LUMBER MILLS

GEORGIAN BAY DISTRICT TO BE HEAVY PRODUCER.

The Output Will be Very Nearly Double That of Any Previous Year — The Figures Obtained Are Said to be Really Conservative.

Saginaw, Mich., April 2.—The Georgian Bay district in Ontario has suddenly assumed formidable proportions as a lumber producer, and the output this year will nearly double that of any previous year. This is owing to the fact that the Ontario act prohibiting the exportation of logs has resulted in the transfer of Michigan lumber mills to the Georgian Bay district. The estimated lumber output of the Georgian Bay mills for 1900 is four hundred and eighty million feet. These figures were obtained from well-informed lumber men on the ground, and are believed to be conservative. It is expected that fully one hundred million feet of lumber manufactured in Georgian Bay will be imported to the Saginaw river during the coming season. Mershon & Co., of Saginaw, have bought twenty million feet of logs of the Arthur Hill company, which will be manufactured at Midland, Ont., and the lumber brought across the lake to this place. Schuett & Co., have bought five million feet to be manufactured over there, and a number of other Saginaw lumbermen have made, or will make, purchases of lumber in that district to stock their yards here.

HEALTHY WOMANHOOD.

WHY shouldn't a woman enjoy life? Why shouldn't she be strong and vigorous, as an all-wise Providence intended?

Yes, but those aching backs—ah? that's it—those aching backs. What a lot of misery and discouragement they bring into the world! But they shouldn't be aching; they wouldn't be if the kidneys did their duty.

Kidneys are such delicate little organs that when they get out of order the poisons they ought to take out of the blood are left in and carried all through the system.

Backaches, headaches, pains in the limbs, and a hundred other ills follow as naturally as night follows day.

But there's a cure—a perfectly sure, reliable cure—

Doan's Kidney Pills

They've been curing people in Canada for years; curing every form of Kidney trouble, from the simplest packache down to the last stages of Bright's disease.

MRS. A. BEAM, Cochrane, Alberta, writes: "I took doctors' medicine for backache and kidney trouble, and receiving no benefit I started using Doan's Kidney Pills. After two days' treatment I was surprised to find myself beginning to improve, and the improvement continued so rapidly that by the time the box was finished the pain was entirely gone and has never returned.

My husband is now taking the pills for kidney complaint, and says he is deriving great benefit from them. We both think there is no medicine equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."

MRS. GEO. LEIGH, Brockville, Ont, says: "I cannot speak too highly of Doan's Kidney Pills. My back was so bad that I could not straighten up without suffering greta pain. I used one box of the pills and the result was simply marvellous. It took every bit of the pain out of my back so that now I can do my own housework without the slightest inconvenience. I trust this account of my experience with this remedy may be of benefit to other sufferers in directing them to a means of cure."

Doan's Kidney Pills at 50c. a box, 3 boxes for $1.25, all druggists.

COMING TO KINGSTON.

Rev. J. F. Porter, of London, Eng., Hopes to See Old Friends.

Rev. John Fletcher Porter, Primitive Methodist minister in Kingston, 1872-5, is the delegate of the Primitive Methodist missionary society, England, to the Emmanual conference on foreign missions, to be held in New York, April 21st to May 1st. Mr. Porter has some hope that he may have an opportunity to visit Kingston and Chatham, Ont., scenes of his labors 1870-76. Letters addressed. Rev. T. F. Porter, care of 156 Fifth avenue, New York, N.Y., will find Mr. Porter.

Mr. Porter's eldest son has had a very distinguished career as a medical student. He is a graduate in honors of the London university and has entered into practice in London. Mrs. Porter's breakdown of health, which was the cause of Mr. Porter's removal to England, has not prevented her from giving yeoman service to philanthropic work in East London. She has raised large sums of money and led huge enterprises of benevolence in connection with Mr. Porter's work. Mr. Porter has the honor of being the author of "London, Pictorially Described," a book which is now in its second edition.

City Must Give Notice.

Contractor M. Sullivan says he is willing and ready to remove the obstructions fronting the new drill hall, any time the city gives him two days' notice that they require to replace the sidewalk. The city tore up the sidewalk on the north side of Montreal street, and of course it will be obliged to lay it down again. The sooner the authorities give the contractors such notice the more pleased people traversing that busy street will be.

Best Remedy in the World for Catarrh.

Miss Bessie McK. Kennedy, of Kingston, N.B., says: "I have used Catarrhozone for catarrh and think it is the best remedy in the world for that disease."
