

The Kensington Retirement Residence recently held a sidewalk sale/street fundraiser for the new Oakville Hospital. Here, Cartoon Bob sketches a caricature of Kensington resident Sheila Curran. The Oakville Hospital Foundation has reached the $51-million mark of its $60-million campaign to equip the new hospital, which is slated to open in late 2015. The event raised nearly $1,000 for the hospital.

Oakville Community Foundation
2012 Annual Meeting
at 5:30 pm (doors open at 5pm)

St. Joseph's Ukrainian Catholic Church & Heritage Centre
300 River Oaks Blvd. E | Oakville ON

Immediately following the Annual Meeting, we will have a Special Conversation and Discussion with Guest Speaker The Honourable Michael H. Wilson. Mr. Wilson will be joined in conversation with Dr. Alan Brown, Chief and Physician Program Director, Halton Healthcare Services and Dr. Angela Saunders, of R.O.C.K. (Reach Out Centre for Kids).

Public is welcome to join for both events.

Former Federal Finance Minister and previous Canadian Ambassador to the United States, The Honourable Michael H. Wilson is a tireless champion for mental health and was recently appointed to the governing council of the Canadian Institutes of Health Research.
