MR. PRESTON'S CHALLENGE

TO THE LEADER OF THE ONTARIO OPPOSITION.

Dares Him to Produce Proof of Complicity in West Elgin Election—Lord's Day Alliance is Hard at Work.

Toronto, April 9.—The Globe to-day publishes an open letter from W. T. R. Preston, to J. P. Whitney, M.P.P., which it says Mr. Preston forwarded to it under date of March 31st. In opening Mr. Preston says he has read with interest reports of speeches delivered by Mr. Whitney and certain of his followers in the legislative assembly of Ontario and elsewhere, dealing more especially with alleged conduct on his (Mr. Preston) part in connection with the West Elgin election of January, 1890. Continuing Mr. Preston says: "I have long since recognized the futility of carrying on a controversy at a distance of 3,500 miles of the scene of interest, had circumstances permitted or had my personal wishes prevailed I would have met you and my traducers months ago, on that side of the Atlantic. The time is now near, when I shall have an opportunity of visiting my native province, of which I desire to give you due notice, trusting that you will have courage and manliness to meet in one of the arenas that I shall mention, and one or the other produce, in my presence, evidence to substantiate your statements and insinuations."

Mr. Preston then goes on to ask Mr. Whitney to meet him before the commission before which the Ontario government has appointed to enquire into and report on the alleged wrong doings of returning officers in connection with the West Elgin election, undertaking to absolve him for any legal responsibility in the event of his failing to substantiate his statement. If Mr. Whitney will not risk an investigation before an impartial tribunal under oath, Mr. Preston asks him to meet him upon any public platform in Ontario (that he, Mr. Whitney, may select) and there formulate the charges and produce his evidence in this Mr. Preston's presence giving him an opportunity to reply here, too Mr. Preston says he will undertake to absolve Mr. Whitney from legal responsibility in anything he may say. Mr. Preston adds that he respectfully desires that Mr. Whitney shall have associated with him on this occasion Thomas Crothers, Q.C., of St. Thomas, J. J. Foy, Q.C., M.P.P., Dr. Pyne, M.P.M., and W. F. Maclean, of Toronto. The he says "let the public judge and I will cheerfully accept the verdict, whether I am worthy of the confidence of my fellow countrymen." Mr. Preston adds that he expects to arrive in Canada by the middle of April and will remain there for two or three weeks awaiting acceptance of his challenge.

Private J. A. L. Hornibrooke, whose splendid "bluff" when unarmed at Paardeberg resulted in the capture of one of Gen. Cronje's adjutants, armed with a rifle, and whose coolness received high encomiums of praise from Lieut.-Col. Otter, in the official despatch to Ottawa, enlisted in the Canadian contingent as a members of the 48th Highlanders. Hornibrooke is a native of Dunnville, but resided in Toronto for some years. He is about twenty-three years of age, and is brother-in-law of William Lount, Q.C., ex-M.P., of this city.

At a meeting here of the executive board of the Lord's day alliance it was announced that assurance had been given by the minister of railways and canals that the question of opening the canals on Sunday would be carefully investigated and an opportunity given for the alliance to submit such information as may be available. It was also stated that steps were being taken by the alliance of Canada to secure the closing on Sunday of the Canadian exhibit at the Paris exposition. The special test case submitted by the attorney general as to whether the province has jurisdiction over Sabbath legislation and as to the meaning of the present law, it is expected, will be argued before the court of appeal at the May session.

Attacked by a Highlander.

Toronto, Ont., April 9.—In a letter just received by friends in the city, private Redway, of the Royal Canadians, describing his experiences in the engagement which led to Cronje's surrender, says: "I had just got into the trench when a Gordon made at me with his bayonet and proceeded to put me out of business. But my time had not yet come, and I grabbed his bayonet and easily took control of him. I yelled 'Canadian' but he kept on saying, 'Who are you?' It would have gone hard with him if I had had my breath."

Trafford Tales.

Trafford, April 5.—Sugar making is the order of the day. Miss Annie Byrnes is visiting friends at Croyden. F. and D. Byrnes left on Monday for Rochester. Mrs. R. Murphy returned on Tuesday from visiting friends near Tamworth. B. Scantlin and A. Kenny were guests of William J. Murphy on Sunday. T. Clancy made a business trip through here last week. L. Whalen spent a few days with friends in Croyden this week. Miss Nellie Lawrence, ill, is quite well again.

Illness Prevents His Writing.

Bert. Graves, son of W. D. Graves, customs officer, is very ill of pleurisy at his father's residence in Williamsville. He is a student in the mining and engineering department of Queen's college, and his illness just at this time of the year precludes him from writing on the examinations. He is a clever student, and would probably have passed if he had been able to write. His many friends wish for his speedy recovery.

SOLDIERS' WIVES' LEAGUE.

Half-Yearly Report—Some Noble Work Done.

The half yearly report of the Kingston branch of the soldiers' wives' league has been issued. The branch was organized on Nov. 25th, 1899, and these officers elected: President, Mrs. Montizambert; treasurer, Mrs. Macnee; secretary, Miss B. Montizambert. Since the organization six committee meetings and five fortnightly sewing meetings have been held. At the latter, the members of the league served sheets, pillow cases, dressing gowns, etc., for a bed in the general hospital. The hospital authorities have promised that members of the league will be taken at greatly reduced rates. Three monthly lectures were also held during the winter.

The league has investigated and recommended for relief from the city contingent fund seventeen cases of distress among the families of soldiers gone to the war, and about $200 has been paid out. The patriotic society at Ottawa also responded generously to appeals for those here in urgent need.

On Jan. 8th the committee served 180 little packets of emergency rations into duck coverings. They each contain a packet of Armour's meat—vegetable tablets and a packet of chocolate. They were given by the city to the men of "C" battery. Several members of the committee and others interested in the soldiers had two bales and a box packed with medical comforts for "C" battery. They consisted of about thirty cushions, walking sticks, fans and other articles for hospital use. Another bale for "C" battery was sent with the Strathcona Horse. It contained nearly 200 Balaclava caps and sixty pairs of socks.

Barriefield Briefs.

Barriefield, April 9.—A poultry man and partner from the city have leased Mr. Strachan's country residence, and will keep a large stock of poultry for sale here. W. Milton lost a fine litter of young pigs, and one of his best horses this spring. D. McLean lost a five-year-old colt last week. Gardens in many places are fit for seeding. Mr. Knapp and A. Rickey have some handsome skiffs on hand ready for the spring trade. Alexander Rickey has his new workshop filled with handsome work and model carts made to order. Farmers near the village are making all the maple sugar and syrup they require for their own use. St. Mark's choir is practicing for Easter services.

A popular assembly will be held in town hall on Wednesday after Easter. The Barriefield boys make the evenings pleasant by marching in step to tunes played on a mouth organ by a good player. It sounds very swiftly and is a pleasure to others besides themselves. Although there are a large number of boys of all sizes, there is no bad language ever used among them when playing together, which is something to be proud of. Mrs. William Allen, is improving since her daughter, Mrs. Milton, has been with her. Her many friends hope she will continue to improve.

Visitors: Mrs. Wilson and two sons, Winnipeg, Miss Donaldson, Washburn at Mrs. Hutton's; Mrs. Jackson, Seeley's Bay, at Mrs. J. Esford's; Miss Kathleen at her aunt's, Mrs. Nevison; doctor Ruttan's daughter, New York, at her uncle's, Walter Ruttan; Miss May Medley in Montreal visiting her sister, Mrs. Lyc. W. Toner, jr., while returning with his wife from Oswego by way of Cape Vincent, though suffering from severe lung trouble, was obliged to wade through the water and push the boat through the broken ice. He is now dangerously ill.

A Generous Little Girl.

Dr. Garrett has received the following letter from Kathleen Crisp, Beverly street, Toronto, a little girl whom he treated in the general hospital during the latter part of 1898. The writer is only about seven or eight years old, and the letter she writes is quite interesting, and its enclosure shows the generous character of the child:

"Toronto, April 5th, 1900.—Dear Dr. Garrett: I am sending you ten dollars, which is the first check I ever had, and I want you to spend it on the hospital in which ever way you think best. I hope it will be useful in some way. I want to thank them all for their kindness to me while I was there.—Your little friend, KATHLEEN CRISP."

Thrown From His Horse.

While taking a ride on horseback yesterday morning, Capt. Miller, a short course officer at Tete de Pont barracks, met with a serious accident. When nearing the G.T.R. crossing at Collins Bay a train came along, and the captain's horse took fright, jumped into a barbed wire fence and threw its rider heavily to the ground. Capt. Miller was stunned for a time by the fall. His head was cut and his body somewhat bruised. The horse was also cut by its leap into the barbed wire fence. A farmer passing along shortly afterwards, drove Capt. Miller to the city.

Six Months For Bigamy.

Winnipeg, April 9.—About two years ago a young German girl, Katie Mosk, married a well-known Regina man. She was then about fifteen years old. A few months ago she deserted her husband and married a man at Indian Head, named Beech. On Friday she was tried before judge Richardson for bigamy, and the jury returned a verdict of guilty. The girl was sentenced to six months imprisonment.

Disturbed by Boys.

A number of large boys are causing much annoyance to the teachers and pupils of Louise school. They frequent the grounds and hall ways, look in the windows and otherwise disturb classes. Inspector Kidd secured the names of a half dozen of the offenders, which names were given to the police, who will now attend to the matter.

A Change in The Report.

SWEDEN'S STRINDBERG.

The New Dramatic Light Who Came to Honors and Fame Almost in a Single Night.

August Strindberg is the new dramatic light of Sweden. He has come to fame and honors in almost a single night. The dramatic and literary critics of the continent say that his "Brott och Brott" ("Crime and Crime") is the chef-d'oeuvre of the century. The work was given its first presentation Feb. 28 at the Royal Dramatic Theatre, Stockholm. It is now being translated for presentation at the Court Theatre in Berlin and by the Sarah Bernhardt Company in Paris. Strindberg is a past master in the use of satire, and this power has too often in the past weakened him in other particulars.

The Stockholm press said of the first performance of "Brott och Brott:" "We bow in admiration, even we, who with every ackonowledgment of general details have never participated in the jubilation of his historical dramas. He surprises and affords us pleasure with a brilliant drama, in an ethical sense as powerfully affecting as it is above criticism. Sympathetic, but at the same time sharply logical; witty, brilliant repartees of imposing grandeur and without a single 'satire' of which Strindberg is a past master and with which he often destroyed the powerful impressions he so skillfully understood to awaken."

The praise continues: "It is a conscience smitten Inferno that in its frightful anguish partly recalls Zola's 'Therese Requin,' but with rays of hope and an understanding of the good that competes with the evil in the human breast, with suggestions of mercy, with affecting allusions to the Almighty Father above and the ultimate resort in times of trouble. And this the great agnostic has done. Well, it is the prerogative of men of genius to surprise, but this is the first surprise of the kind coming from Strindberg. Such was not expected from him at this hour."

Still further it is added: "The drama was superbly staged and artistically presented. It was a crowning triumph for Swedish drama, and a proud evening for the Royal Dramatic Theatre. King Oscar repeatedly started the enthusiastic applause."

All literary Sweden is now discussing the play and its powerful pictures and on the continent great influences are at work to have it reproduced at all the dramatic centres. The production is different entirely from anything that Strindberg has ever done, and this causes all the more wonder.

GROUP OF ODD CROPS.

The Unique Collection Gathered by a Philadelphia Lady.

The group of odd crops pictured in the illustration are owned by a fair lady of Philadelphia, who is given to equestianism and who has travelled considerably. The crown buckhorn crop is a great rarity, the crown being left on the horn and utilized for the monogram of the owner. This is mounted on a stick of "Sisi" wood, which grows in the West Indies.

The red boar's tooth crop comes from India, and is of English manufacture. The stick is of pimento or alspice wood.

The buckhorn crop without a crown is the regulation English crop, being in general use for the opening of gates, which are so frequently met with in English lanes. The stick is bamboo.

The cherry stick crop has a finely carved head of ivory, showing two horses' heads as they appear when racing.

A Tennessee whip of death-dealing powers is made of pigskin loaded with iron. The handle is, in fact, an iron bar covered with leather, a thong of which attaches it to the rider's wrist.

Two monkeys sitting on a tree bough form the handle of a whip which is of Philadelphia manufacture and a fine specimen of ivory carving. The whole handle is of ivory, the whip part being made out of an interior product of the silkworm.

The bulldog buckle is carved from solid ivory and is set in gold, the back plate being marked with the monogram of the owner.

A Crown of Wild Olive.

It is announced in the London Daily News that a "Crown of Wild Olive" has been placed on the grave of Mr. Ruskin. This was due to the happy thought of Miss Grace Allen, who sent to Dr. Robertson, of Venice, and desired him to send her a wreath of real wild olive leaves. This has now been sent to Coniston.

New Customs Officers.

Ottawa, April 9.—Philip Smith and James Ryan have been appointed preventive officers of customs at Toronto. M. G. Hay has been appointed sub-collector at Ridgetown, and Robert A. Lynch sub-collector at Orillia.

THE SLATER SHOE

Business Moods.

When a good man swears on a wet day it's more than likely the profanity comes from his feet.

The shoe that pinches spoils the temper, irritates the nerves, impairs digestion, and obscures the merry sunshine of life.

It had to fit the shoe.

Success or failure in life oft hinges upon a man's mood at critical moments, and the way his feet feel sometimes sways destiny.

A pair of "Slater Shoes" may unconsciously save a fortune, but can't cost more than $5.00.

It's cheaper to throw away a shoe that hurts than to keep it, and mark this—new "Slater Shoes" need no breaking in.

A tag on each pair tells just what leather it is made of—how it will affect the feet—and the wear it will, or will not give, according to use.

The makers name and price stamped on the sole protects against imitations of Goodyear Welt, and ensures value every time to the wearer. $3.50 and $5.00.
