

Band wants its audience to have fun, feel good

When the band performs at the Vans Warped Tour, it will perform music from the album, plus a few other originals.

The band has played some well-known venues such as the Horse-shoe Tavern and El Mocambo in Toronto.

The band is comprised of Krouglow on lead vocals and guitar, Anthony Zhura on bass, Justin Bell on drums and Luke Nishihama on lead guitar. Krouglow said the band has a positive, friendly and uplifting energy and that's how the group plays.

"We want people to have a good time and for people to come out feeling better than they came in," he said.

have an eating disorder. It will always be there but I am happy to say that I feel stronger than ever. I will never see my mom again, but the bravery she showed through her 15-year battle with cancer now lives within me.

"Most people can say that their lives have been touched by cancer or eating disorders or body image problems, or know someone that has," says Campbell.

The program will also include a memorial slide show. Anyone who would like to have a relative or friend included, who has lost his or her life to either of these illnesses, can send a photo to info@glenabbeyunitedchurch.com.

The Town of Oakville hosted its annual Summer Tune Up earlier this summer at the Queen Elizabeth Park Community and Cultural Centre. The showcase featured a variety of local musicians aged 13-19 performing for their peers in a free concert. Among them were Simon Spencer (left) and Reinhardt Jondrasch. The concert was headlined by Hip-hop artist Deshaun Clarke.
