AMONG THE CHURCHES.

SERMON BY REV. J. M'VETY, OF GRANBY, QUE.

The Man Who Controls Himself is the Greatest Victor—Every Boy Has Startling Possibilities—Notes by the Way.

Rev. John McVety, Granby, Que., preached in Queen street Methodist church yesterday. In the evening he chose as his subject the last clause of the twenty-second verse of the sixteenth chapter of Proverbs: "He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit than he that taketh a city." The world, said the speaker, has always admired a hero. Britain has always been proud of Wellington; he lived years ago, but he lives still. If you want to stir up the French nation speak of Napoleon, or if the United States speak of Gen. Grant. We like to do honor to military heroes now. Speak of Gen. Roberts and wherever there is a British subject that subject is thrilled by the mention of that name. Who is not proud of Maj. Gen. Baden-Powell and his noble company of men? If he were to visit Canada he would stir the hearts of the people from ocean to ocean. Every British subject would feel proud of a man like that. The speaker then referred to an instance in history—the story of Leonidas, the Greek hero, holding at bay, with only 300 men, king Xerxes, with his 500,000 men, and defeating him at the battle of Thermopylae, 480 B.C. Such men may pass away, but their work remains. When our boys come back from South Africa—and we hope they will return to us in safety—we will do them honor. They are the very joy of our heart. That man is worthy of all honor, who will overcome difficulty after difficulty until he reaches the climax. There is abundance of space in Canada for a young man to make success. He need not go out of the county to work his way up, and make his influence felt in secular life. But above all conquests is the conquest of self. Is it within the range of possibility for a man to bring his entire self under the supremacy of his will? He is the greatest victor who can do it. No heroes tower above him. There is no boy who has not startling possibilities. He requires two great things—self-respect and self-control. God has given to us the power of perfectly controlling ourselves. Man needs responsibility sometimes thrust upon him to rise, and then he will rise to the full measure of that responsibility. For any failures in life the responsibility lies at our own door. The speaker closed his very thoughtful discourse with an exhortation to every one to gain control of themselves, for he that does so is 'greater than he that taketh a city."

A Patriotic Service.

Yesterday was patriotic Sunday in Sydenham street Methodist church. In the morning Rev. Mr. McCallum, returned missionary, preached, and in the evening the pastor, Rev. E. B. Ranceley, spoke very forcibly concerning the queen, her life, reign, noble qualities, influence, etc. The church was very handsomely decorated. Above the organ hung a large picture of her majesty, and about it was entwined red, white and blue bunting. Large union jacks and Canadian flags were much in evidence, while plenty of bunting enlivened the scene. In his sermon Mr. Ranceley said it was quite fitting to have decorations at this time of the year. A wave of loyalty was sweeping over the land, and congratulations were pouring in to the aged queen from every shore. The speaker proceeded to review the queen's history. She showed her great wisdom, when, as the archbishop of Canterbury first informed her that she was queen of Great Britain, she asked him for his prayers. The speaker next touched on war—a terrible calamity for a country. But in the wars England has just been engaged in, she would have acted cowardly if she had not gone to war. The queen, said Mr. Ranceley, has had a great influence over the women of Great Britain. As a wife, she was the wife model; as a mother, the mother-model, and as a widow, the widow-model. Queen Victoria was not a follower after fads; she was not a new woman, but a model woman whose influence for good will be undying.

The music during the service was of a patriotic nature. The choir sang "Britannia," and Fletcher Spence rendered a patriotic solo.

Church Items.

Edward Koen rendered "O Salutaris," in good voice, at St. Mary's cathedral last evening.

A christian endeavor rally is to be held in Cooke's church this evening, with address by Rev. Mr. Laird.

In St. John's church, Portsmouth, last night, J. B. Walkem sang as solo, "Through The Day Thy Love Hast Spared Us."

Rev. E. A. Anderson, Smith's Falls, curate with the late canon Nesbitt, is to be removed, notwithstanding the petition of the congregation asking him to take the late rector's place.

A new church, the Tennysonian Church of Common Sense, is being founded in Glasgow. Money has been provided not only to build to accommodate 1,000 people, but to endow perpetually.

Beginning with next Sunday the hours for Sunday masses at St. Mary's cathedral will be changed for the summer. They will be held at 7:30, 8:45 10:30 a.m., instead of 8, 9 and 11 a.m.

Next Sunday's services, (Whit-Sunday), in the diocese of Ontario, will be unusually fervent, as it is the last general service before the election of bishop, (on June 6th), and prayer is being used for the guidance of Providence.

During the offertory at Queen street Methodist church last night Mrs. Striewing sang the celebrated intermezzo from "Cavalleria Rusticana," by Mascagni. She surpassed her previous efforts, the high notes being reached and held with great precision. The audience was well pleased with the solo.

Senseless Old Saw.

Ladies' Home Journal.

In olden times when a person died it was customary to toll the church bell a certain number of times to indicate whether it was a man, woman or child. For a woman it was tolled three times and for a man thrice three times. The stroke of a bell was called a "teller," and hence it was nine tellers for a man; or, as folks said in those days, "Nine tellers mark a man." This saying, which was continued long after the tolling custom was abolished, finally became converted into the present saying, "Nine tailors make a man," which is devoid of both sense and reason.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

Notes Regarding the Movements of Vessels.

Schooners White and Burton cleared today for Oswego.

The tug Hall arrived to-day from Montreal with four light barges.

Called at Craig's wharf on Sunday: Steamers Persia from Montreal; Ocean from Toronto; Melbourne from Toledo.

Arrivals at Richardsons' elevator: Schooners Echo, Ballou and Minnie, from bay ports, with peas and barley.

The tug Nellie Reid, with two grain-laden barges, cleared from Richardsons' elevator for Montreal on Saturday night.

The schooner Annie Minnes arrived at the M.T. company elevator this morning from Consecon with 10,000 bushels of wheat.

The steamer North King on her trip to Rochester last evening had a good passenger list. The steamer commences her Sunday river route in two weeks.

Harbor master McCammon is on the lookout for vessel captains who anchor their boats within the prescribed limit, in the line of the range lights, endangering their own craft and those trying to enter the harbor after dark.

Capt. Esford, of the steamer Toronto left last evening for Rochester, N. Y. He went over to superintend the sinking of a number of spiles at Charlotte wharf, to enable the steamer Toronto, to be snubbed around in the river instead of using a tug as heretofore.

Mr. Dooley And The Queen:

Mr. Dooley was determined to celebrate the queen's birthday, and explained the reason for his intentions in this respect to his friend, Mr. Hennessey:

"Ye see, it's this way," continued Mr. Dooley, "a munth or so ago th' quane Victoria says to herself, she says, 'I'm gone to war,' she says, 'on me own account,' she says. 'Me gineral Bobs an' me Oirish rigiments,' she says, 'are a whalin' daylights out av the Boo-ers,' she says, 'an' it's a good time for me to go over an' conker Oireland,' she says. 'How many rigiments will yer majesty take wid ye,' inquoired th' first lord av th' bedchamber.' 'I'll take jist two,' reploid th' quane, 'an' tell th' captain t' bring th' stameboote up t' th' war-ruf,' she says. An' so next mornin,' Hennessey, th' quane walks up th' gang-plank wid her two rigiments an' starts fer Oireland, an' jist before th' stameboat landed on th' grane o'ile th' quane says, 'Where's me looking glass,' she says, 'till o'i git me rigiments in ordher,' she says."

"Phwat was th' name av thim two rigiments?" interrupted Mr. Hennessey.

"Phwat was th' name av thim?" exclaimed Mr. Dooley, "wan av thim was called 'Goodwill,' Hennessey, an' th' quane saw it whin she smoiled into that lookin' glass, an' th' other wan was called 'Concilliashun,' ay' th' sign av it was th' beautiful grane shamrock which th' quane wore upon her motherly bosoom. An' so trustin' t' th' strength av her foorces th' quane marches down upon th' mimy, an' whin th' Pats an' th' Moikes an' th' Tims who war there' in thousands saw thim two blessed rigiments which th' quane had brot wid her, they forgot their boots an' their groans, an' they dropped their slugs an' their bricklats, an' scraped th' dirt over them wid their feet, an' wid tears runnin' down their chakes all Oireland shouted 'God Save the Quane,' an' th' war was over foriver and foriver. Amin!"

"That's phwat, Hennessey," continued Mr. Dooley with moist eyes, "an' if iver there was a day whin th' orange an' th' grane should be entwined its th' twenty-fourth av May next wake; an' so it will be, my boy, an' we're goneto celebraate her majesty's burthday. God bless her."

Had Catarrh so Badly That For Months Previous to Using Japanese Catarrh Cure He Could Not Breathe at all Through His Nostrils — Japanese Catarrh Cure Cured.

John McKenzie, Elgin, N.S., writes: "I feel it a duty I owe you to tell what Japanese Catarrh Cure has done for me. For Some years I have been a great sufferer from catarrh in its worst form, and for some months I could not breathe at all through my nostrils. Since completing the treatment with Japanese Catarrh Cure, I am pleased to say I am absolutely free from catarrh, and can now breathe as naturally as ever through my nostrils. Japanese Catarrh Cure cures catarrh by healing every diseased portion of the mucous membrane. It cures permanently. 50c. Sold by J. B. McLeod, druggist, Kingston.

Aged Man Drops Dead.

Platt Curtis, aged eighty-two years, was found dead at his home, situated on the Path road, early Sunday morning. The deceased arose at his usual hour, four o'clock, and left the house to do some chores. Shortly afterwards a boy employed about the farm left the house and passed close to a bush wherein the old man was sitting. At five o'clock a son, Donald, passed the bush and saw the old man lying prone. He went over and found his father dead. Heart disease is supposed to have been the cause of death.

The late Platt Curtis for many years conducted the Windsor hotel at Westport, and accumulated considerable wealth. Two sons, Donald and Nuttno Curtis, reside on the farm and conduct a dairy. The deceased is survived by his widow, two sons and one daughter, the last mentioned being married and residing at Phillipsville. The deceased was an uncle of Guy Curtis, of football and hockey fame. Interment will take place at Westport.

Says He Killed Mooney.

Quebec, May 28.—Sheriff Gagnon has received a letter posted at Ottawa, in which the writer confesses that he was the murderer of Mooney, for whose death David Dube has been sentenced to hang on July 6th. The writer, who signs "John Is," says that he was in the bush when the quarrel arose between Dube and Mooney, that he saw the former strike Mooney with a stick and then run away, and that after Dube disappeared the writer approached Mooney, who attacked the former with an axe, when he (the writer) fearing that his life was in danger, hit him on the head with an axe he had in his hand. Is writes that he was—at the time under the impression that Mooney was deranged. His reason for explaining the killing is, he says, that he is sorry to see a man hung for a crime of which he is not guilty.

The letter will be submitted to the attorney-general.

CEMETERY COMPANY.

Large Surplus Carried Over After Year's Expenses Were Paid.

The annual meeting of the Cataraqui cemetery company was held in the police court chamber Saturday afternoon, chairman John Duff presiding. The annual report of superintendent George Nicol was presented, showing that for the year ending 30th April there had been 254 interments, an increase of six over the preceding twelve months, and showing a total of 9,056 registered since the opening of the cemetery. Last year four whole, eight half, sixteen quarter and nine eight lots were sold, equalling thirteen and one-eight whole lots, a decrease of five and one-eight lots under the preceding year. Five lot holders paid for the perpetual care of lots, making a total of lots now under care of sixty-two, it is desirable that this number be largely increased; several stockholders have re-transferred to the company the unoccupied portion of their lots, for the perpetual care of that portion of the lots occupied. Thirty-three monuments and stones were erected, for which the company built foundations. One hundred yards of boundary fence was rebuilt and the balance repaired where necessary. The work of filling in the old quarry in section "L" is proceeding as fast as material is obtainable. The ranges of graves in the single grave section have been levelled, seeded and marked with terra cotta markers, enabling this section to be better cared for. Several hedges and railings were removed and many marble slabs were replaced by neat granite monuments. The regular work of caring for the lots under annual and perpetual care received the usual attention, while special attention was given to keeping the grounds neat and clean. This work has greatly increased by the large number of enclosures around neglected lots; the appearance of the cemetery would be greatly improved by the removal of all enclosures around neglected lots. Wire baskets for refuse have been placed at different points throughout the grounds, so that there is now no excuse for visitors scattering paper and other refuse around the cemetery.

The statement of the treasurer, certified by the auditors, was creditable, showing a surplus for the year of $521.41. The revenue was thus derived: Land sold, $841.96; interest, $341.47; sodding, $316.35; graves, $666; vault rent, $603.25; dressing lots, $620; foundations, $266.07; deeds, $5; total, $3,599.80.

Expenditure—General expenses, $592.32; salaries, $770; labor, $1,716.07; surplus for year, $521.41; total, $3,599.80.

D. Callaghan and J. E. Clarke were re-elected auditors. These directors were elected: Lieut.-Col. Duff, R. V. Rogers, Q.C., B. W. Robertson, H. W. Richardson, Dr. A. P. Chown. Lieut.-Col. Duff was re-elected chairman.

Wanted To Be Governor.

Toronto World.

During the election of 1896, and only a few days before polling, Hon. Dr. Montague, at the instigation of Mr. Birmingham, suddenly resigned his position in the cabinet and asked Sir Charles Tupper to make him governor of Ontario in place of Sir George Kirkpatrick. Sir Charles said he could be spared from the cabinet, but that he could not be governor of Ontario. Two days after this interview Hon. Mr. Taggart hunted up Sir Charles in Montreal and implored him not to let the doctor go, but to take him back, as he was the one man who could carry Ontario. Sir Charles consented.

Fast Train To Chicago.

Chicago, May 28.—The Delaware Lackawanna and Western railroad began this week through an arrangement with the Wabash railroad, the running of a train between this point and New York, in twenty-five hours. The Lackawanna and Wabash got the privilege several years ago of making lower rates than the standard lines on condition that they should stop paying commissions on passenger traffic and should not run any through trains between New York and Chicago in less than twenty-eight hours. It is thought that the Pennsylvania and New York Central will take decided action.

To Revise State Laws.

Hartford, May 28.—The state revision commission met in the supreme court room in the capitol to-day and listened to suggestions concerning the revision of the present statute laws of the state.

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORS

WHAT OUR CORRESPONDENTS HAVE TO TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points In Eastern Ontario—What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Oates Occurrences.

Oates, May 23.—The seeding is all finished, and the farmers are busily engaged preparing the ground for planting. A large number intend celebrating the 24th in the city. L. McDonald had a large ploughing bee last week. W. A. Claxton paid us a short visit this week. The news of the relief of Mafeking was glady received. Mr. Ryan's sale was largely attended and he has moved to the city.

Dogs Do Great Damage.

Daytown, May 26.—The 24th of May was a very quiet day here. A number attended the Hornerite camp meeting at Lake Eloida last Sunday. Dogs have been doing great damage here lately, killing sheep and cattle. They killed one yearling heifer of D. Wood's, three yearling heifers of Campbell Bros.', one fine two-year-old ewe of J. H. Wood's, and two fine sheep of P. A. Huffman's.

Patriotic Amherst Island.

Stella, May 25.—Empire day was fittingly celebrated at Stella to-day. About 150 students from the different sections assembled at the township hall, and, headed by the Stella brass band, marched to the beautiful grounds of Stella Point. Each school was headed by a beautiful flag. Patriotic speeches were made by Revs. Cumberland, Orser and Tighe, and patriotic songs and choruses were sung by the children. A large crowd was in attendance.

NO REST FOR HIM.

He Dreaded When Night Came on—A Well-Known Toronto Citizen Tells of His Years of Suffering From Asthma—Was Cured by Clarke's Kola Compound.

J. Ponston, driver for J. Walsh, soda water manufacturer, Toronto, writes: "I have been a great sufferer from that dread disease asthma for eight years, finally the disease becoming so severe that I could not rest at night. I dreaded when night came on, for there was no rest for me. I suffered only what an asthmatic can realize. I tried many remedies; at last the stuff I smoked lost its effect. I consulted my family doctor, and after a few weeks' treatment said he could do nothing for me. I thought it funny that the science of medicine had done nothing for the poor asthmatic. A neighbor, who had been cured by Clarke's Kola Compound, advised me to try it. I procured a bottle, which helped me some. I took in all five bottles, and it has worked wonders in my case, and have not since lost a night's sleep or a day's work. It is truly a wonderful remedy, and I can cheerfully recommend it to any sufferer from asthma." Clarke's Kola Compound is sold by J. B. McLeod, druggist, Kingston, or by the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., limited, 121 Church street, Toronto.

Disfranchisement Of Negroes.

Richmond, Va., May 28.—An important question will be decided at the polls today when by vote the negroes' franchise rights will be determined, the question being voted upon at a call of the constitutional convention, whose primary object is the disfranchisement of the negroes. The key note of this radical suffrage reform has been sounded by the democrats of some of the negro counties where the people are tired of the methods which they are forced to countenance in order to retain white supremacy in the state. The elements opposing this movement are the great corporations, the local office holders and the republicans. Some of the democrats, including Gov. Tyler, have taken the position that their party cannot carry at the polls to-day. They insist that the element named with the addition of the illiterate whites will defeat it.

Doctors Agreed.

Every doctor who has been shown the formula of Merrill's System Tonic has expressed great admiration for its scientific and medical ingenuity. It is a thorough blood purifier, a great muscle, blood and tissue builder, and an excellent and permanent cure for constipation. Fifty pleasant-to-take doses 50c. Sold at J. B. McLeod's drug store, Kingston.

Jefferies Umpires.

Hartford, Conn., May 28.—Champion James J. Jeffries, who has quite a reputation as an umpire, is the star attraction at the game between Hartford and Providence this afternoon.

Benham's Retrial.

Canandaigua, N. Y., May 28.—The second trial of Howard C. Benham for the murder of his wife will be begun here to-day. Surprises are in store on both sides.

Doctors All Agree

That WHOLE WHEAT BREAD is the grandest article for human health that the present age has produced. It nourishes the blood, nerves and muscle, tickles the palate, pleases the senses, and sickness is unknown in the home which it enters, and the beauty of it all is that it is just as cheap as the inferior forms of bread.
