UNIWORLD ALL-IN in 2014

Uniwold Boutique River Cruises will become the only North American river cruise line to offer a truly all-inclusive river cruise experience in 2014. Uniwold currently offers a host of inclusions such as all non-alcoholic beverages, wine and beer served during lunch and dinner onboard; all meals onboard prepared using ingredients from local farmer's markets; fully hosted shore excursions; free internet and WiFi and arrival and departure transfers. In 2014 Uniwold will expand its services and amenities on all Uniwold European Boutique river cruises to include unlimited wine, beer, spirits, soft drinks and bottled water; and all gratuities for all onboard and onshore services, including pre- and post-cruise extensions. Uniwold will launch the S. S. Catherine in France in early 2014, a sister-ship to the S. S. Antoinette. She will sail the Rhône and Saône Rivers and the Uniwold's River Royale will move to its new home in the Bordeaux region. Bordeaux is the focus of two new itineraries, the eight-day Bordeaux, Vineyards & Châteaux cruise and the 15-day A Portrait of Majestic France, taking guests through the Bordeaux region of France and along the three rivers of the Aquitaine - the Garonne, the Gironde and the Dordogne. Traveller will visit some of the Aquitaine region's most prestigious chateaux, as well as Pauillac, gateway to the Medoc wine route and Saint-Émilion, the oldest wine area of the Bordeaux region and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. In 2014 Uniwold will offer 500 departures sailing on over 13 rivers in more than 20 countries throughout Europe, Russia, Egypt, China, Vietnam and Cambodia.
