Beach Time in Fort Myers, Florida

On The Beaches of Fort Myers and Sanibel, nature runs her sandy white course; each beach is unspoiled, with a different atmosphere, view and sand to offer. Lighthouse Park Beach: Nature lovers will not be disappointed with a trip to Lighthouse Park Beach. This tree-lined beach lies on Sanibel Island's southern tip, providing plenty of shade and spectacular views of the gulf. Families, leashed pets and tourists can pass the time fishing, swimming, sailing, windsurfing, shelling and picnicking. Lovers Key State Park: This barrier island park is a popular spot for couples looking to bond or tie the knot, while families find it an equally attractive place to spend the day. Kayak on the water, bike along the paths or hike around the island before settling under a tree on the shaded picnic grounds. Lovers Key State Park can be reached on foot, by car or by boat. Lynn Hall Memorial Park: Perfect for travellers who love shopping, tanning and beaches, Lynn Hall Memorial Park features an inviting stretch of soft white sand bordered by palm trees and turquoise waters. Let the kids run wild at the playground after picnicking on the grounds and before heading to Times Square, where shops, restaurants and bars invite tourists to trickle inside.
