THE DIOCESE OF ONTARIO.

THE ANNUAL SESSION OF THE SYNOD.

An Unprecedented Attendance Owing to Expected Election of Bishop—Generally Encouraging and Gratifying Reports.

It was almost a record occasion when in St. George's hall archbishop Lewis this morning opened the thirty-seventh session of the synod of Ontario diocese over which he has presided. He has been thirty-eight years its bishop. The attendance was unconmonly large, owing to the expected election of bishop. Usually about thirty lay delegates attend; this year fully one hundred and fifty out of one hundred and eighty delegates will attend. The election of a bishop is important and then every man dearly loves a vote.

His grace was attended on the platform by the Very Rev. Dean Smith, the venerable archdeacons Bedford-Jones and Carey, chaplain Worrell, chancellor Walkem. Prayer was said by archdeacon Bedford-Jones. The Lord's prayer said in hearty service by the large assemblage, was an imposing service in itself. The clergy present were Revs. W. Roberts, Stearne Tighe, A. H. Creeggan, Prof. Worrell, F. T. Dibb, Canon Burke, J. L. Helab, C. J. H. Hutton, A. Stunden, D. F. Bogert, Ven. T. Bedford-Jones, G. R. Beamish, O. G. Dobbs, F. D. Woodcock, A. W. Cooke, E. M. Rowland, Edward Costigan, canon Grout, J. R. Serson, C. P. Emery; Very Revs B. B. Smith, Revs. G. L. Starr, J. K. Macmorine, J. H. H. Coleman, Ven. W. B. Carey, Thomas Leech, W. Wright, J. W. Forster, W. P. Reeve, W. W. Burton, C. M. Harris, R. S. Forneri, A. Jarvis, G. H. P. Grout, F. G. Kirkpatrick, J. de P. Wright, J. Elliott, J. W. Forsythe, J. W. Chaplin Wilkinson, E. Loucks, David Jenkins, J. O. Crisp, H. B. Patton, J. H. Nimmo, W. G. Swayne, T. F. Dowdell, T. Austin Smith, G. Metzler, J. W. Jones, F. W. Armstrong, C. A. French, A. Grassett Smith, Rev. A. L. McTear, C. J. Young, R. W. Irvine, canon Baker, F. Codd, W. Lewin, H. H. Bedford Jones.

The list of lay delegates was so incomplete it must be reserved till tomorrow; many arrived by the afternoon trains.

The treasurer presented his report giving a resume of the finances for the year ended April 30th. The audit and accounts committee and the official auditors reporting the accounts very correct, the securities in excellent shape, interest unusually well paid up, with a growing rest account to fortify against impairment of capital. The consolidated fund is $379,043, an increase of $11,742. In mortgages are $206,500; in debentures, $98,110; real estate, $30,698; in stocks, $22,500; in cash, $15,700. The revenue was $18,487, a gross income of four and four fifths per cent., giving four per cent. clear, after putting a quarter of one per cent. to rest and paying expenses. The bishops' fund is $57,555, the income was $3,041. The trusts in the consolidated fund are: clergy superannuation, $4,250; diocesan augmentation, $11,184.56; clergy trust, $165,894.66; divinity students, $3,000; Gainsford mission, $9,718.95; Gainsford parochial, $4,859.47; McLaren trust, $500; sustentation, $17,900; widows and orphans' $13,100; rectory lands, $177,233.95; rest, $2,012.

Debit balances: See house, $2,484.17; mission fund, $1,800.42; widows' and orphans'i $1,193.07; rectory lands' fund, $248.44; assessment fund, $438.92.

Credit balances: Clergy superannuation, $207.13; clergy trust fund, $726.59; divinity students' fund, $367.21; episcopal fund, $114.65.

The finance committee reported its work, and in the special case of Lansdowne that $10 be accepted in full of arrears for parish assessment.

R. V. Rogers, Reuben Wright and F. J. C. Tighe were the scrutineers to receive lay delegates' certificates and had been busy for an hour before opening of synod. They reported only one case of contested seats, Leeds Rear, and to settle this a committee was struck of the chancellor, dean, Prof. Worrell, judges Macdonald and Wilkison. They retired and after considerable absence reported as between the two claimants, John P. Power and Dr. Gardiner, in favor of the latter. The question was whether he had attended communion three times during the year; he had not communicated in his own parish at Newboro. This it was claimed was not regular, but as he was not given notice of an objection, the committee recommended him, on ground of fair play. At this point the church bells began ringing, guns firing and whistles blowing and the archbishop announced that according to official reports lord Roberts was in Pretoria. Then all rose, sang the doxology and national anthem, and cheered for her majesty and lord Roberts.

The officers were re-elected—Canon Spencer and R. V. Rogers, secretaries; E. H. Smythe, treasurer; Rev. S. Tighe and R. J. Carson and Allan Turner, audit and accounts committee.

Among the memorials received was one from the board of management of the general mission board, complaining of the lack of interest among the laity in mission work, mission papers, and mission progress. The ladies were the chief support of the work.

The synods of Toronto and London asked for conference with this diocese regarding an ecclesiastical synod for Ontario alone.

The present provincial synod covers all the dominion east of Winnipeg. A committee to report was appointed, composed of the archdeacons, Prof. Worrell, canon Spencer, Rev. C. A. French, Rev. S. Tighe, Edw. J. B. Pense, R. V. Rogers, judge Macdonald, B. S. O'Loughlin, the chancellor.

The report of the registrar upon conveyances, parish registers, appointments, changes in the clergy, removals and deaths was presented. Adopted with corrections. A question arose over the status of Rev. W. A. Gustin, late curate in Belleville, now removed to Toronto. It was claimed that he was still a clergyman of this diocese, and would arrive to share in the proceedings and to vote. This would imply that he was absent upon leave of absence. This the archbishop said was not the case; he could not give leave to an unbeneficed clergyman, one not licensed to a charge in the diocese. He had resigned his curacy. A reference to his being transferred to Toronto diocese was expunged from the report.

Adjourned at one o'clock for two hours.

To Give All Men Work.

While the council was in session last night alderman Graham called attention to the officiousness of two civic employees who refused to give work to two corporation laborers—Messrs. Attwood and Reilly—who were cut off because it was stated they were too old; one of them was only fifty-eight. One man in particular, Attwood, had been employed in keeping the market square clean during the past few weeks and he had performed his work creditably.

Alderman Cooke also spoke of the clean condition in which these two men, Attwood particularly, had kept the market square.

Alderman McLeod paid a tribute to the good work performed by the two men. He would see to it that they would get their share of work.

Alderman Donnelly pointed out that the board of works could not keep going all the men who sought work, and a great many old employes had to be allowed to go. But all these men would receive their full share of work. He upheld the contention of alderman Graham that the city officials in question should not be officious but perform their work in a manner that would meet with the approval of all citizens.

Order An Enquiry.

Toronto Telegram:

There should be the sharpest kind of enquiry into the case of Corpl. Courtney, of "A" battery, Kingston, reduced to the ranks for refusing to carry beer according to the order of a superior officer.

Orders are orders, and once an order is given it must be obeyed. Corpl. Courtney has been reduced, and in the interests of discipline it may be impossible to reinstate him, but it should be possible to get after the officer who forced such a hard choice upon an apparently good soldier.

Canada should not require her soldiers to peddle beer. There are men who object on principle to drinking themselves or putting the bottle to their neighbors' lips. A willingness to serve as bar-tender is not necessarily one of the accomplishments of a good soldier. The soldier who disobeyed orders has been punished already, but the minister of militia should require an explanation from the officer who issued the order.

"D" Battery Fellows All Well.

Miss McCann, daughter of J. S. R. McCann, Queen street, has just received a letter from major Hurdman, late of Ottawa, commanding D" battery, R.C.A., now in South Africa. The letter was written from De Arr on April 27th. The major states that he was in poor health when he went there, but that he was able to eat anything now. His health had been fully restored. All the Kingstonians, who are members of his battery had just completed a 500 mile march. There was no grumbling, and the men were in good spirits. So far they had been in no engagements, and they were all anxious to get to the front and have a brush with the enemy.

Pretty Bit of Superstition.

When a Chinese baby takes a nap, people think its soul is having a rest—going out for a long walk perhaps. If the nap is a very long one, the mother is frightened. She is afraid that her baby's soul has wandered too far away and cannot find its way home. If it doesn't come back, of course the baby will never awaken. Sometimes men are sent out into the streets to call the baby's name over and over again, as though it were a real child lost. They hope to lead the soul back home.

If a baby sleeps while it is being carried from one place to another, the danger of losing the soul along the way is very great. So whoever carries the little one keeps saying its name out loud, so that the soul will not stray away. They think of the soul as a bird hopping along after them.

Hot Water Bags.

A hint in the use of hot water bags is gained from a trained nurse. Very little water is used, not more than a coffee cup full in a three pint bag, but it is very hot. Before the stopper is screwed in the air is pressed out of the bag by a quick smoothing of the hand toward the opening. In this way the weight is considerably lessened. This particular nurse in attending a pneumonia patient kept in use during the severity of the attack six of the bags, three of them upon the patient at one time. During periods of the critical two or three days the bags were changed every 15 minutes, but so light were they that their weight did not in the least inconvenience the sufferer.

Among Japanese a daily hot bath is the rule. When people are too poor to have a bath in their own houses, they patronize the public baths.

MAY HAVE A BIG HOLIDAY.

ONE GENERAL ALL OVER CANADA PROPOSED.

Canadians Rejoiced Over the Surrender of Pretoria—Bells and Whistles Gave the Announcement of the Good News.

Ottawa, Ont., June 5.—There is some talk here of there being a general holiday all over Canada to celebrate the taking of Pretoria.

Royal Salute At Montreal.

Montreal, June 5.—A royal salute of twenty-one guns boomed out from the summit of Mount Royal this morning, when the news of the occupation of Pretoria arrived. The people generally received the intimation through that source cannon having been taken up the mountain for that purpose by the local regiment of artillery. Newspaper extras were soon on the streets and the display of bunting became general all over the city, while ships in the harbor gave the usual salute with bombs. The mayor has declared a civic holiday to-morrow and the local militia has been called out for a military parade to-night.

All the civil courts adjourned when the news arrived and the judges made appropriate references on the occasion, several speaking of the loyalty of the French-Canadians and the work they are doing in Africa for the empire.

The Joyful Bells.

Quebec, June 5.—Great rejoicing in town to-day on account of the official report of the capitulation of Pretoria. Flags are flying everywhere on all the public buildings and on great many private residences. At ten o'clock this morning the bells of the different Anglican churches of the city were ringing joyfully to announce the important event.

Toronto Was Quiet.

Toronto, June 5.—Toronto exhausted its enthusiasm over the premature report of the capture of Pretoria almost a week ago and received the news of Bobs' triumphant entry this morning without turning a hair. The bells were rung for half an hour and "extra specials" were issued, but there was no general renewal of the celebration of last week and no more holidays will be declared unless ordered by the dominion government.

Half Holiday At St. Thomas.

St. Thomas, Ont., June 5.—The mayor has proclaimed a half holiday in honor of the British occupation of Pretoria. The citizens are turning out loyally and the celebration this afternoon and evening will be enthusiastic.

Diphtheria Again Prevalent.

Denbigh, June 2.—Court of revision was held at the Denbigh house on the 26th ult. There were no appeals, and only a few unimportant changes had to be made. William Lane attended the liberal convention at Harrowsmith on the 30th ult. He had only just recovered from a severe illness. Paul Stein intended to accompany him, but was prevented by illness. Diphtheria has broken out again in the Thompson Settlement. Louise Wright, daughter of Simon Wright, has been ill of the disease. The public school has been closed again in consequence. Gustave John has returned home from Algoma, where he had been at work during winter and spring. Howard Kerr has joined the benedicts, having been married a few days ago to Miss Laura Pettifer. He has rented the workshop formerly owned by Paul Warlick. The big bridge crossing the Mill creek south of this village is now completed and is quite an improvement over the old one. Edward Petzold has started repairs on his grist mill and expects to have it ready for work again in a few weeks. Mrs. A. Fritsch is expected home from the general hospital, Kingston, in a few days. The residents of the Thompson Settlement are trying to get a post office established.

Bell Rock Pebbles.

Bell Rock, June 4.—About forty of Rathbun's company's men are camped here, under the supervision of E. Clare and James Scanlon. They are doing good work, and are likely to make a quick drive this year. The work of repairing the church here will be begun this week. Mrs. Elizabeth Percy has been very ill for the last two weeks. Mr. Bannerman, agent for the bible society, spent last Sunday here. He gave a short address to the Sunday school, which was highly appreciated by teachers and scholars. Visitors: Rev. Mr. Stafford, Mrs. Stafford and Master Roy, at our school on Empire day; Mrs. James Scanlon, Enterprise; Miss Grace Pomeroy returned after a week at her grandmother's, Mrs. H. McDowall, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Ruttan at T. B. Wheeler's; Mrs. E. M. York and daughter, Edith, at J. Pomeroy's; Miss Dewey, Frankford, at G. M. Sanborn's.

Lake Opinicon Doings.

Lake Opinicon, June 1.—There will be no service in the Methodist church, Sunday, it being conference Sunday. This locality was represented in the city on the 24th. The scow has made several trips up the lake for wood. The first sales in connection with the cheese factory occurred last Friday. Already the caterpillars threaten to destroy the beautiful foliage of the trees. Mr. and Mrs. H. Kellar and family, Northmore, spent Thursday with friends here. Mr. and Mrs. William Nicol, Sydenham, Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindsay, Yarker, and Mr. and Mrs. R. Lindsay and family Harrowsmith, were recent visitors here. Miss Agnes Young is visiting friends in the city.

Eric Locals.

Eric, May 31.—Local sports took in the celebration of the queen's birthday at Kingston. Farmers are through planting. William Stuart, J. Whitney and J. Sibbit are remodelling their barns. The handsome residence of John A. Wilmot is nearly completed. Mr. and Mrs. W. Finnegan, visiting at Stella for a few days, have returned. Miss Mamie Wilmot, Pittsferry, is the guest of her cousins, the Misses Wilmot. Mr. and Mrs. J. Milton are visiting at J. McLean's, Pittsferry; Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Huffman and family, of New York, at William Stuart's.

A DELIGHTFUL SAIL.

The City Looks Charming From the Lake—Trip to the Cape.

A very pretty trip to take at this season of the year, when earth dons her loveliest garb, is that from Kingston to Cape Vincent and return. The steamer America, of the popular "White Squadron" line, makes two trips daily, leaving Folger's wharf at 5 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. Of course the former hour is too early for pleasure seekers; most of us like to woo "tired Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," about that hour. But the afternoon trip is very timely, and is taken advantage of by many people, exclusive of those travelling from the one country to the other. Nearly every afternoon, and especially on Saturday, many Kingstonians enjoy the trip to the Cape. They can leave home at two o'clock and reach the city on the return passage at 7 p.m. sharp.

On Saturday afternoon a number of prominent Kingstonians and their wives were aboard. As the America left the wharf and steamed past the Murney tower into the outer expanse of the harbor and then into the blue waters of lake Ontario, one was impressed with the number of steamers lying at every wharf along the harbor front. Three or four of the "White Squadron" steamers lay lazily at their moorings, while the trusty Pierrepont looked grim and threatening, probably at the unavoidable fate of having to return to such a place as Gananoque. Besides these boats, the steamers Hero and Columbian, and other merchant vessels, lined the harbor front.

As the steamer made her way nearer and nearer Wolfe Island, the view of the city became very lovely. The stately residences appeared to be set in a forest of green trees, at a distance resembling thick foliage. Here and there a tall church spire pointed the way to heaven. The three large elevators stood like grim sentinals ever on guard over the harbor, while old Fort Henry frowned down upon the opposite bank of Cataraqui river. From the steamer were obtained fine views of Macdonald park, Henry Folger's residence, the pentitentiary and asylum buildings, etc.

The scene as the steamer passed Channel Grove was very beautiful. The low shores of the islands on either side of the steamer were covered with foliage that had newly burst into being, while here and there contented cattle were cropping the sweet, fresh grass. As one tanred his gaze from the smoking chimney tops of the city to this refreshing bit of rural beauty, it recalled that homely yet strikingly true expression: "God made the country and man the town; it is good to be in one and out of the other."

The trip around the head of Wolfe Island, from which a fine view of the broad expanse of Lake Ontario is obtainable, is a very delightful one. Here one experiences something of what a sea voyage is like. On a windy day old Ontario can raise quite a commotion as she takes it into her head to do so, and the staunch steamer America rises and falls in a motion, which, not sufficiently violent to give one that peculiar feeling brought on by sea sickness, is still enjoyable. But rough weather is the exception, not the rule. The water is generally calm and the sail a most delightful one. It is no wonder that Kingstonians relish it.

Pathetic Message From Mafeking.

Perhaps the most pathetic message received from Mafeking during the siege is contained in a letter received in England not long since. The letter is dated Jan. 22nd, and was written by the mother of four little girls. The following is a brief but poignant extract from it: "When shall we be relieved? Surely England cannot have deserted us. Hettie and Nellie lie in the cemetery, baby lies in her cot a little skeleton, and as I write my tears fall on the pallid face of Winnie. She is dying." This message defies comment.

Sir Charles Tupper At Brockville.

Brockville, June 2.—The arrival of Sir Charles Tupper in town last night, where he remained till this morning as the guest of James Hutcheson, barrister, lends color to the rumor that has been abroad for some time that a strong effort was being made to induce that gentleman to become the Tupper candidate in the coming campaign. Heretofore Mr. Hutcheson has declined to take a very active part in politics, but is is thought probable that he will consent this time.

HAIR RAISING.

A Year Ago No One Would Believe What Thousands Now Know to be a Fact—Hair Can Be Grown on Bald Heads.

The hardest to convince that baldness can be replaced by a new growth of hair are the bald.

Why?

Because hundreds of things have been used with no effect. Nothing that has ever been prepared would produce a permanent growth of hair on bald heads until the discovery of the Rose Hair Grower.

This preparation is the first to successfully demonstrate the hitherto impossible, growing hair on bald heads.

The originator, after perfecting the formula, found himself face to face with an incredulous public, who said:

"No, no, too good to be true."

"Would like to believe it, but can't."

"Nothing will cure my baldness."

"Good man, if true you could not supply demand."

"Useless to talk; been fooled too often."

Now these same people, who know what they are talking about, express themselves as follows:

Robert Ross, plumber, Parkdale, says: "I have been bald for over twenty-two years, but after using the Rose Hair Grower for two months I have a good growth of hair all over my head, and it is filling in at the sides nicely. I have much pleasure in sending you this reference and will continue using your treatment."

W. Livingstone, druggist, 25 Howard street, Toronto, says: "This is to certify that I have seen the results of the use of the Rose Hair Grower. As a druggist with many years' experience in the city of Toronto, I have seen a multitude of hair tonics tried with varying results, but have never sold a hair grower that has been such a pronounced success as the Rose. Ladies and gentlemen amongst our best people in the city, to whom I recommended it, many of whom were bald, now have beautiful heads of hair. I have used it myself and now have a head of hair as thick as anyone would wish for."

The Rose Hair Grower stops falling of the hair with a few applications. It absolutely removes dandruff, makes the hair soft and pliable. It is a perfect hair dressing, and the only preparation in the world that overcomes baldness.
