Berrigan has returned after spending a few days in the city; she is accompanied by her grandson, Eric Dunn, who intends remaining for the summer. R. Webb and sister Josie spent Sunday in Kingston. Ed. Rochefort and sister Clara took in the picnic on Howe Island, Saturday. H. Orr, Ida Hill, spent Sunday at Mrs. W. Fisher's. G. Fisher has gone to Winnipeg.

Regret His Removal.

Sharbot Lake, June 11.—A number from out village attended the football match at Mountain Grove, on Friday, between the Mountain Grove and Sharbot Lake teams. The game ended in a score of one to nothing in favor of Sharbot Lake. The citizens regret very much the prospects of the removal of Rev. Eber Crummy to Catarraqui, but wish him every success in his new work. E. Fralick, visiting at Dr. Kilborn's, has returned to his home in Picton. Miss Short, Ottawa, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. (Rev.) Smith.

Scott, merchant tailor, has purchased a fine site on Queen street and purposes building a residence on it. Rev. W. S. Smith, Middleville, and Rev. Mr. McLaren, Old St. Andrew's, Lanark, exchanged pulpits Sunday. James McFarlane, grocer, is about to remove to the shop which has been prepared for him in the Mendle block. D. A. The new shed at the Victoria house is completed.

An Unpleasant Experience.

Kepler, June 11.—Herbert Buck, enlarging his residence, expects to have it completed about the 19th. He has made some extensive improvements and has one of the prettiest residences in Kepler. F. Aykroyd had a narrow escape from drowning one evening last week. While driving along the lake road, which is within a few feet of the water, the horse took fright, dashed over the bank into the lake, overturning the buggy with Mr. Aykroyd under it. It was with much difficulty that he extricated himself from beneath the vehicle and swam ashore, none the worse for his bath. Sydney Guess launched his new boat on Monday. It's a beauty. W. Switzer, Switzerville, is at C. Cranston's.

Kaladar Catches.

Shuman is erecting a fine residence to accommodate the men who are working on the new piece of railroad. John Forbes is hauling wood to the station.

An Old Resident Gone.

Donaldson's Mills, June 11.—Friday death visited our neighborhood and took one of the oldest residents, S. Allan. Friends extend heartfelt sympathy to the deeply bereaved wife and family. Mr. Allan was a member of the Presbyterian church and had a wonderful knowledge of the bible, and always ready to give council to those desiring it. Rev. C. Whiting preached the funeral sermon. Mr. Allan's remains were interred in the Ompah cemetery. Mrs. S. Donaldson, sister of the deceased, is here, but will return to her home in Dufferin to-day. Miss Emma Hannah is ill of appendicitis. She has been staying at Mississippi for the last two months. W. J. Donaldson leaves to-day to open his mine; he will be assisted by Mr. Bragg, Kingston. Mr. Donaldson will still continue his services here this week. We shall all be very disappointed if Rev. J. Snell is removed to another charge. Miss Alice Allan, Perth, visiting her home here last week, returned yesterday. Misses Jessie and Euretta Black were guests of Miss Mary Rodgers yesterday.

Some Barriefield Notes.

Barriefield, June 11.—Barriefield is losing all her prettiest girls. The last one to go is Miss Laura Byrnes, who became Mrs. Frank Purdy, and has made her home in Rochester, U.Y. The good wishes of the whole village follow her. Milton Baillie is road master and is doing much to put roads and side walks in good condition. On Sunday, while on the way from St. Mark's church to her home, Mrs. Kitson, R.M.C., lost a very valuable pin, diamonds and pearls. Last evening the five-year-old son of John Esford was attacked by a vicious dog and received two severe wounds. The dog was immediately shot. Miss McLean, who has just graduated as a nurse from Rockwood hospital, with special medal for massage, has been visiting her father, reeve McLean. A number of young people are to have a picnic this week at Murray's point. Mrs. Edward Corkey gave an ice cream party to some of her many friends. Music and games helped to make a very pleasant evening.

DISTRESSED HUMANITY.

How Hard it is to Fight For an Existence in the Daily Struggle and at the Same Time Suffer From a Constitution Physically Incapable.

The Story of Anthony Larman, Carpenter, of Winnipeg.

It is not the easiest thing in the world to carve out one's fortune. Sometimes one finds it a difficult matter to eke out a bare existence. What must the struggle be when a man has to fight hard for an existence and at the same time suffer from a constitution weakened by disease. Anthony Larman, of Winnipeg, had a rather hard time of it. Some of these stories read like romances, bitter romances.

I have been suffering from dyspepsia, indigestion, sick headache, tired feeling, weakness, loss of appetite, etc., for the last thirteen years. Have tried several doctors who have prescribed for me, but did not give me any relief other than temporary and sometimes not that. Have also tried some patent medicines. I always carried a box of pills or powder in my pocket and was continually taking medicine in order to get relief not thinking of ever getting cured. My nervous system finally became affected from taking all these strong medicines and I gave up all hope. One day last August while suffering terribly from indigestion, heartburn and nervous headache, I rushed into Eddington's drug store and he mentioned some of the remedies that he had on hand for indigestion. Among those he mentioned was Celery King and I concluded to try it and from that day on I was like a new man and don't know what it is to suffer any more. Celery King has worked wonders with me. I have introduced it to my friends and relatives and made them a present of a twenty-five cent package. My wife thinks Celery King is really grand. It has cured her of constipation. I would not be without it at any cost. My age is twenty-six years, occupation draughtsman, carpenter and joiner.—Yours very truly, ANTHONY LARMAN, Prairie street, Winnipeg, Man.

MINISTERS RESIGN.

A Coalition Government For Cape Colony is Proposed.

Cape Town, June 11, (2:55 p.m.)—Hon. John Xavier Merriman, colonial treasurer, and the Hon. Jacobus Sauer, commissioner of public works, have resigned. It is not known whether prime minister Schreiner will fill their places or resign himself.

The Argus advocates the formation of a coalition ministry, including Mr. Schreiner and Sir John Gordon Sprigg, who was formerly prime minister.

Gov. Sir Alfred Milner, has postponed his departure for the Transvaal, presumably on account of the cabinet crisis here.

Among the subjects discussed at the meeting of the Afrikander bond with the ministers were the trial of the Dutch rebels, the appointment of a commission with power to disfranchise for fixed periods, all persons who aided the Boer republics and a bill condoning necessary acts under martial law.

Prime minister Schreiner submitted bills dealing with these matters, which had been drafted by the ministers and adopted as government measures. Commissioner of public works Sauer, Mr. Hofmeyer, the Afrikander leader and Messrs Merriman and Tewater strenuously opposed these measures and finally the Afrikander bond decided to oppose them in the Cape parliament. Twelve members of the bond voted for premier Schriener. The opposition, that is the British members of the Cape parliament, will support Mr. Schreiner's bills and this will assure him a majority.

A Manly Decision.

John H. Farley, democratic mayor of Cleveland, Ohio, took the sensible and sound American view of the visit of the Beer envoys when he said: "It would not do for me, as the executive of Cleveland, to extend a greeting to the representatives of a country that is at war with another country to which the relations of the United States are friendly, this country preserving a neutral attitude toward the war. They will be welcome to Cleveland, but they will not get any official welcome from me, and I shall not recognize them in any way. I believe in letting everybody skin his own skunk, anyway."

Transferring The Company.

Lieut.-Col. Cox, 47th battalion, and Lieut. Healey were at Inverary to-day on regimental business. Col. Cox was transferring the stores, accoutrements, command, etc., of No. 1 company from Capt. Ferguson to Lieut. Healey. Capt. Ferguson will be gazetted junior major of the regiment. Capt. Hewton retains the adjutancy. The headquarters of No. 1 company will be transferred from Inverary to Kingston. Lieut. Healey will ask for a room here and will likely recruit the company from the city.

Blanco for white shoes and belts 10c. a cake. E. C. Mitchell.

Rev. Father Brady, Hamilton, has received word from Superior City that judge Bunn's judgment in favor of the Stinson estate would mean an addition to the estate of nearly $6,000,000, as the land comprising 2,000,000 acres was principally in that city.

AN OBJECT LESSON IN THE SCIENCE OF MEDICINE.
A Household Word in Four Continents.

Washington, D. C.,
Feb. 21, 1900.
In my experience with the sick, I have seen some very serious cases of kidney and bladder troubles cured through the use of Warner's Safe Cure, after doctors had failed to do any good. I have used it myself several times when bilious and for indigestion, and never have failed to find help from its use. I am therefore pleased to endorse it as well worthy the confidence of those suffering with stomach troubles or diseases of the pelvic organs.
