

Members of the Kenyan Boys Choir performed at Rotherglen School earlier this month. The choir, which performed at We Day 2013 and U.S. President Barack Obama's inauguration ceremony, brought the world to the students and inspiration to the Neyagawa Boulevard's 12- and 13-year-old leadership students.

Reduce opportunity: police

work in tandem with police social media messaging on Facebook and Twitter — all in an effort to raise public awareness regarding street-level crime prevention.

Halton Police Service reminds residents to stay vigilant in locking their car doors at night and avoid leaving valuables inside the vehicle while it's unattended.

"Thefts from automobiles are most often crimes of opportunity and keeping your car locked and the interior clean, will significantly reduce the risk of it being broken into," said the release.
