LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

A Word For Prof. Worrell.

Grenville, June 12.—(To the Editor): Now that dean Williams has declined the bishopric the supporters of Rev. Prof. Worrell have occasion to be indignant at the character of the opposition against him, not only as regards his own standing, but also as regards those related to him, who had every right to be guarded against being dragged into criticism in a public assembly. There probably never was a more inconsistent opposition than was shown to this clergyman. It was declared that it was not advisable to appoint a man within the diocese, yet the clergy as a body nominated dean Smith. It was said Prof. Worrell's college standing was not sufficiently high and yet the clergymen unanimously recommended Rev. E. P. Crawford, who had little college training. It was said that Prof. Worrell would be stepping over the heads of the senior clergymen and not be a success on that account, and yet the clergy who objected unanimously recommended a very much younger man, Mr. Crawford. It was claimed that the laity were dictating to the clergy. Not so, for they unanimously accepted the clerical nominee, dean Williams. They were free from excitement and acted with perfect good temper. Those who objected that the "vote for Worrell was controlled by an influential layman," must admire the way he used his influence to bring about harmony and unanimity. Now that the laymen have accepted the parsons' nominee and have proved that they know how to give way in the church's interest they have a claim to be generously considered. The clerical choice having failed the laymen's choice should be tried. At one time Prof. Worrell lacked only four votes of clerical election while he always had the majority of the laity. He must have many strong recommendations for the position, especially as he was accepted generally on Thursday morning by Mr. Roper's supporters, his personal bearing having won him new friends. The separate conferences of the clergy apart from the laity are not an unmixed blessing. Things were said which might much better have not been said. The next conference should be an informal one of both orders. —DELEGATE.

Capt. Sharpe Is Popular.

Capt. A. Sharpe, of No. 4 company, Kingston, 47th regiment, was tendered a complimentary supper at the Avondale hotel, Ottawa, Friday evening, by a number of his Ottawa friends. The chair was occupied by Chipman Vaughan, who had the guest of the evening on his right. After the many good things had been tested, the chairman called the company to order and proposed the health of "The Queen," which received musical honor. A number of toasts followed and then the health of "Our Guest" was given. In doing so chairman Vaughan referred to Capt. Sharpe's fifteen years connection with the sessional staff of the house of commons and testified to his gentlemanly and courteous demeanor on all occasions. The toast was very heartily received, the company singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Capt. Sharpe replied in fitting terms, expressing his deep gratitude for such an exhibition of kindness and good will toward him. A number of songs, etc., added to the happiness of the occasion.

The funeral took place this morning and was private.

Given Full Charge Of Choir.

At a meeting of the trustees of Sydenham street Methodist church, the resignation of W. H. Medley, choir leader, has accepted. Miss Shaw, organist, was given full charge of the choir, being appointed to the two positions of organist and musical director. Her salary was fixed at $550 a year. Mr. Medley resigned because of lack of time in which to do the work.

His Horse Dropped Dead.

C. H. McKee drove from Stirling to Napanee yesterday morning. There one of the horses took ill, but a veterinary, who attended it, thought it would be able to come to Kingston. Shortly after arriving here, and being stabled at the Windsor hotel, it dropped dead. The owner valued the animal at $150.

The Uniforms Here.

The uniforms of the Kingston Army Medical corps arrived this morning. They are similar in general appearance to that of "A" battery, except that red braid is worn instead of yellow. On the arm of the tunic is affixed a Geneva cross, and on each side of the collar is a maple leaf.

FUNERAL OF LATE A. HORN

IT WAS LARGELY ATTENDED THIS AFTERNOON.

Board of Education Pass a Resolution of Condolence—Trustees and Members of St. Andrew's and Sons of Scotland Societies Attend the Funeral.

The funeral of the late Alexander Horn, government inspector of hulls, took place from his late residence, Clergy street west, at 3 p.m. to-day. It was largely attended, the members of the board of education, St. Andrew's society and the Sons of Scotland taking part in the procession.

Chairman Lambert called a meeting of the board of education for 2 p.m. to arrange for attending the funeral of their fellow trustee, the late Alexander Horn. Mr. Lambert explained the reason why the meeting had been called, and referred to the late trustee in eulogistic terms. The city, and this board particularly, said he, are much poorer because of Mr. Horn's demise. He was one of the oldest members. He was a man of sterling worth; a man whose judgment was invariably relied upon. The chairman stated that he had ordered a wreath in the name of the board of education, and that the flags on the schools should be floated at half mast. He had also closed the schools this afternoon in respect to the memory of Mr. Horn. The chairman's action was endorsed by the board, on motion of Dr. Herald, seconded by Dr. Fee.

The secretary then read the following letter from J. G. Elliott, trustee:

"Absence from the city prevents me from joining with the members of the board in paying the last respects to our deceased colleague and friend. I join with you in any expressions of regret at our loss. I found Mr. Horn a real, sturdy man, wise in counsel and helpful in all ways in the advancement of education. We will miss him in our deliberations; we will remember him for his kindly spirit and activity."

The following resolution of condolence was then read by Mr. Meek:

"Moved by R. Meek, seconded by J. P. Oram, that we put on record our sense of the great loss which this board has sustained by the death of Mr. Horn. He was one of Nature's noblemen, a man of large heart and generous disposition, a citizen whose relations to the state were marked by the utmost integrity. He was one of the oldest school trustees, having served on both the high and public schools boards, and on the joint board, which he helped to form.

"He brought to the discharge of his duty the qualifications that rested upon a long experience and a ripe judgment. He won his way into the regard of all his colleagues, and was, in due season, elected to preside over their deliberations. This he did with a most becoming dignity. In usefulness he seemed to be ever growing, and he came to be recognized as a foremost advocate of every improvement in school buildings, school methods, and school appliances.

"He was emphatically a thoughtful man. He possessed the caution which is characteristic of his countrymen, and so usually looked into all questions deliberately before passing upon them; but when he reached a decision he was tenacious of it, and his words generally carried conviction with them. He was withal a modest man, and did not take as much part as he might have done in our discussions. He never spoke, however, except to impress us with the sincerity. Out of his meditations he seemed to rise stronger, firmer, and more courageous in the public service.

"He was eminently loyal to his queen and country, and one of his last acts was to assist in shaping the programme for a proper observance of Empire day. In the carrying out of this programme he was intensely interested. In the home, in the office, and in the private walks of life he was always the same—kindly, considerate, attentive and faithful, and his will be a memory both full, and his will like to cherish.

"He will be remembered as a man of sterling worth, but it is as an educationalist he will be particularly recalled by us, and we can have no nobler ambition, as trustees, than to desire the motives and principles which actuated him, and passing away leave, as he does, the priceless heritage of an honored name.

"Resolved, That the seat of the late Mr. Horn, at this board, be draped for a period of thirty days, and that the secretary convey to the bereaved family an expression of our heartfelt sympathy."

J. P. Oram seconded the resolution in brief but touching words. He paid a kindly tribute to the memory of the deceased. It was with feelings of heartfelt sorrow that he seconded the motion. As a father, husband, friend, Mr. Horn was everything that could be hoped for.

When the meeting adjourned the members formed in line and accompanied by a large deputation from St. Andrew's society, marched to the house, and from thence to Cataraqui cemetery, which this afternoon received to its bosom another of the limestone city's valued and public spirited citizens.

The non-jury sittings of the high court opened this afternoon, justice McMahon presiding.

HE GETS SEVEN YEARS.

Wilson Found Guilty of Stealing $10,000—Toronto is Growing.

Toronto, June 18.—Tenders were opened this morning for lighting the city for the next five years. Various offers were received from the Consumers gas and Kitson oil system, but that of Electric company is the cheapest. The company offers to give a full service of arc lights at $71.90 per 1,000 candle-power light per year, as compared with $74.82½, the present figure. On a ten years contract the price will be $65.70. If the city wants all wires put underground in the central area the price will be $94.90 per light. Contrary to general expectations, the Ontario power company, of Niagara Falls, did not tender.

The Toronto Methodist conference spent some time this morning denouncing the lewdness of many of the posters used by theatrical companies. The opinion was freely expressed that these posters do more to degrade the morals of children than any other cause. A resolution was passed on motion of Warring Kennedy and Rev. Dr. Parker asking the government to give the chief of police in all cities and towns the power to censor the posters displayed in public places. The agitation of conference was largely the result of a recent display of Sappho posters.

The population of Toronto is still rapidly on the increase. The assessment of the second ward shows an increase of 1,051, as compared with last year, the total being 37,008. The taxable value has also increased over three per cent, chiefly because of house building.

Magistrate Kingsford at the police court this morning passed sentence upon George McC. Wilson, the defaulting teller of the Merchants bank. The magistrate stated that in regard to the charge of stealing the missing package of $10,000, he must find the prisoner guilty. The money had been left in Wilson's care and his evidence that he did not know what had become of it, must be disbelieved. Wilson was sentenced to seven years in Kingston penitentiary.

A SOLDIER SUICIDES.

Cut His Throat With a Razor—Thought To Have Been Insane.

Quebec, Que., June 18.—Last night shortly after ten o'clock Gr. Wheatley, R.C.A., was left alone for a few minutes in the company room at the citadel, and on the return of his comrades was found on the floor with his throat cut from ear to ear. The weapon used was a razor. Surgeon Lieut. Col. Sewell was summoned and everything possible was done, but of no avail. He died at four o'clock this morning and an inquest will be held this afternoon. The unfortunate man was twenty-one years old and was recruited from Charlottetown, P.E.I. He arrived at the citadel Saturday, 9th inst., and was placed in No. 1 company. The drill did not come at all easy to him and he was moody and taciturn. It is thought that he committed the rash act when he was temporarily insane. He was a Methodist.

A Pleasing Surprise.

On Friday evening upwards of fifty persons took possession of the Methodist parsonage at Verona and spent a most enjoyable, social time. Music was furnished in abundance, and willing hands served refreshments, including ice cream and cake, which had been provided by the visiting company. Dr. Clayton was chairman, and addresses were given by Rev. Joseph Moorhouse, Dr. McCarter and E. M. York. Afterwards an address was read by the chairman, and a presentation made by Mrs. Tallen. The address, from the Sunday school, extended consolation and sympathy to the esteemed pastor and family for their great loss and bereavement in the death of their dear son, Edgar. He was a bright boy and a constant member of the Sabbath school for nearly two years. Regret was also expressed at the pastor's sudden and unexpected departure to another field of ministerial labor. Rev. Mr. Stafford made a brief and suitable reply, thanking all for the many kindnesses received during their stay in Verona. The memorial was beautifully prepared and handsomely framed. The company dispersed to their homes about twelve o'clock, after having enjoyed a most pleasant evening.

Detectives To Be Employed.

Owing to the great annoyance which the shippers and employers of labor along the harbor front have been subjected to of late, through the drinking habits of many of their employees, most of whom follow the water, it is stated they are seriously considering the advisability of employing detectives to ascertain where these men get their liquor in prohibitive hours, which usually commences, it is complained on the latter part of Saturdays, after their boats come into port, continuing through Saturday nights and Sundays, and often for two or three days afterwards, unfitting both officers and crews from attending to their duties. This proves a great cause of inconvenience, heavy expense and disappointment to the aforesaid employers, who are held responsible for the handling and delivery of valuable cargoes on a given time. They are determined that this state of things shall be put a stop to, and to help the license inspector, who, they find is hampered at every turn, in his honest endeavors to execute his duty, even though they have to meet the expense themselves of paying special detectives to accomplish the work.

To Seize The Railroad.

London, June 18.—A belated despatch from lord Roberts sent from Pretoria, under date of June 16th, gives an official version of an attack on a British post at Zand river June 16th, by 800 Boers with three guns. It says that Gen. Knox with a mixed force drove off the Boers who left four dead and four prisoners on the field. The British loss was major Seymour and two men killed and nine wounded.

There is a rumor at Cape Town that lord Roberts is about to seize the Delagoa Bay railway at a strategic point.

Kruger Again Moves Capital.

London, June 18.—The Lorenzo Marques correspondent of the Times says: "President Kruger has removed his headquarters to Alkmaar, near Nel spruit."

New Mahdi In Egypt.

Alexandria, June 18.—A new mahdi recently appeared at Wady Halfa, preaching the proclamation that Christ would be soon again in the flesh upon earth. He was arrested by the government, together with forty-five adherents.

HAVE CAPTURED THE FORTS

BUT 'TIS NOT CLEAR WHICH FORCE HOLDS THEM.

The Forts Fired Upon the Fleet, Which Responded, and Later on Landed and Took the Strongholds—Much Anxiety is Felt in England by Relatives of Persons in China.

Berlin, June 18.—The German consul at Chefoo cables that an engagement is proceeding at Taku, between the Chinese forts and the foreign war ships.

The Forts Taken.

London, June 18.—Shanghai is to the front again with the statement that the Taku forts have been occupied by the international troops. According to a Chefoo special the forts opened fire on the war ships, whereupon the fleet replied in kind and silenced the Chinese guns and the international forces subsequently landed and seized the forts. The news of this engagement is stated to have been brought to Chefoo by a Japanese warship, but the date of occurrence is not given. According to a despatch the Chinese bombardment followed an ultimatum sent by commanders of fleet.

An official despatch from the German consul at Chefoo, received in Berlin, confirms the report of a Japanese torpedo boat with the following message: "The Japanese torpedo boat reports that the legations at Pekin have been taken." Whether taken by the "Boxers" or the Chinese troops or by the mob is apparently not stated, nor is mention made of the message of the Japanese boat of capture of Taku forts.

The morning papers consider the situation in China more serious than ever. The Times says: "The anxiety with which further news is awaited is heightened by the painful fact that perils of situation in Pekin are shared by a number of European ladies and children, including lady Macdonald and her daughters."

Will Remain In Office.

Yokohama, June 18.—The Marquis Yamagatu, the premier, at the request of the emperor, consents to remain in office in view of the Chinese situation. The Japanese government is inclined to confine its action in China to the protection of Japanese interests.

To Aid The Powers.

Washington, D.C., June 18.—The navy department to-day received a telegram from admiral Remey informing the department that commander Tausig cables that the Taku forts at the mouth of the river fired on the foreign gun vessels and surrendered. The department has instructed the admiral to concur with other powers in taking steps to protect American interests.

The report that military forces would be sent from Manila to Taku was confirmed this morning by the following cablegram from Gen. MacArthur: "Manila, June 18th, ninth infantry, Col. Liscum, ordered to Taku on Logan transport. Albert probably started on the 14th. The typhoon delayed movement." The entire infantry has been doing garrison duty in the city of Manila.

Consider It A Grave Crisis.

New York, June 18.—The extreme gravity of the Chinese crisis in the eyes of the British government, says the London correspondent of the World, is shown by the decision to detach a division of 1,000 infantry and three batteries of artillery and a siege train from the Natal, (Sir Redvers Buller's), forces for immediate dispatch to China.

When asked how many troops he could spare from South Africa, lord Roberts at first replied that he could not spare a single man until he had fought a decisive battle with Gen. Botha, the commandant general of the Boer army, as the sending away of any part of the British force would encourage the Boers to prolong their resistance. But when the government at London pressed the demand, lord Roberts consented to the use of the above mentioned force from Gen. Buller's command.

Would Not Pray For Queen.

Montreal, June 18. Rev. A. Murman, pastor of Zion Congregational church, resigned his pastorate last night because he declined to pray for the queen and the success of the British arms in South Africa. He is an American citizen and recently came to this city. His course has recently caused some feeling in the congregation. He says that in the States he never prayed for the president and he did not propose to pray for the queen here, and under no circumstances would he pray for the success of arms.

Teddy Consents Conditionally.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 18.—A story is in circulation that Roosevelt has intimated his willingness to run for vice-president if Gen. Francis V. Greene is nominated for governor of New York, and he Roosevelt receives a pledge that he will be nominated for president four years from now.

Some unknown person, signing himself an "ex-scholar" sent T. F. Harrison a letter containing $5 as a gift toward purchasing a new carpet for the floor of the Sydenham street Methodist Sunday-school room. A fund is being raised to purchase the carpet. Mr. Harrison read the letter before the school yesterday.

Henry McKendrick, Detroit, jumped in front of the through express from the west about two miles from Windsor last night, and received injuries which caused his death. The cause is not known. His wife has been notified.

None of the persons connected with the Lasar diamond smuggling case under arrest at Lockport, N.Y., have yet obtained bail. The Pilons may furnish bonds to-day.

Capt. Alexander Sharpe, No. 4 company, 47th regiment, and Maj. Kelly, paymaster of that corps, arrived from Ottawa, to-day to take up their regimental duties in camp to-morrow.

The bell of St. Mary's cathedral, clanging freely yesterday, made inroads upon the hearing of the sermons in uptown churches. This hardly seems right.

Endeavors are being made on behalf of the young man, sentenced at the police court this morning. He may be released on suspended sentence.

Superintendent Paley, of the Rideau canal, left this afternoon on a tour of inspection. He will visit the locks in this vicinity.
