Matthews talks healthcare Dec. 5

Ontario's Minister of Health and Long-Term Care Deb Matthews will be the keynote speaker at a Thursday, Dec. 5 Oakville Chamber of Commerce luncheon.

The event will be at the Oakville Conference Centre, 2515 Wyecroft Rd., and is being held in partnership with the Oakville Hospital Foundation.

Registration begins at 11:30 a.m. with Matthews' address at noon.

"We are thrilled to be hosting Minister Matthews," said Orla Johnston, chamber chair.

"Our members are very interested in what is happening with Oakville's new hospital and how it fits into Ontario's healthcare plan."

Matthews is expected to discuss the accomplishments in Ontario's healthcare system and where it is heading with a particular focus on the role Halton will play.

Joining Matthews will be a representative from Halton Healthcare Services (HHS), who will provide an update on the status of Oakville's new hospital, which is set to open in 2015.

Tickets cost $25 for members and $35 for non-members. Tables of eight are available. Prices are subject to HST.

Tickets are available by visiting the chamber website at www.oakvillechamber.com or emailing carina@oakvillechamber.com.
