WHEN DOCTORS DISAGREE

What Becomes Of The Patient?

Doctors have their hobbies as well as well as other people and in the treatment of disease often carry them too far for the patient's good. For instance in the treatment of indigestion or dyspepsia many doctors give bismuth and nothing else others rely on pepsin to bring their patients through, still another doctor treats stomach troubles with the various vegetables essences and lent remedies becomes a hobby with the fruit salts.

Now one or the other of these excellent remedies becomes a hobby with the doctor who has had most success with the particular one in question, because all of them are first class remedies for indigestion and dyspepsia, but not one of them alone is so good as a combination of all of them, such as is found in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets which contain not only vegetable essences and fruit salts, but also the freshest, purest pepsin and bismuth, making altogether a remedy unsurpassed for every form of indigestion, sour stomach, nervous dyspepsia, belching gas, distress after eating, sleeplessness, headaches, etc.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is not a secret patent nostrum, but you can see for yourself what it is and knowing this its success as a dyspepsia cure is not surprising. All druggists recommend and sell them at 50 cents.

A LARGE MILITARY CAMP.

ACTIVE DRILL HAS NOW BEEN COMMENCED.

Were Short of Tents—Soldiers Interested in Their Work—Instructors Attached—No Liquor Sold on the Camp Ground.

Beyond Barriefield there is a military camp of over three thousand men. Yesterday morning there was hardly a soul upon the camp ground; to-day all is noise and bustle. For the distance of three-quarters of a mile the white tents of Canadian warriors in training extend in a solid mass. As one approaches that scene of camp life, he is strangely moved by the sight. He is impressed by the warlike grandeur of the scene, and his mind reverts to a foreign continent, where the camp scene is more weirdly sublime. He realizes that the camp before him is not for mere play or pastime, but that those engaged there may be called upon some day to assist in further upholding the great British empire.

These yearly camps have now come to be recognized as more important than ever before, and the volunteers themselves are much more interested in the two weeks' drill before them. They have come to camp to do their best, to learn the methods of warfare, so that they can uphold perhaps in the near future the glory and honor won by their Canadian brethren upon the field of battle.

From noon on Tuesday until late at night the regiments from east and west poured steadily into the city, some arriving by rail and others by water. It was after midnight before the camp had become at all settled. Those who arrived early were fortunate, but the late comers did not grumble. Late in the afternoon, Lieut.-Col. Macpherson discovered that there was a shortage of tents, although it was thought that there was abundance of them at the stores department. As soon as this was found out, a telegram was sent to Ottawa, asking that a large number of tents be sent immediately. By careful arrangement what tents were on the ground were made to suffice, although at six o'clock Lieut.-Col. Macpherson reported that notwithstanding the fact that eight men were assigned to each tent, two whole regiments would be without cover. The camp being an unusually large one, the regiments had to do with less than heretofore.

On Barriefield common, the camp ground of former years, are encamped the 3rd Dragoons of Peterboro, and the 4th Hussars of Kingston. This place was decided upon as it bordered on Cataraqui bay, where the horses could be easily watered. A mile down the Pittsburg road is the big camp. Extending from the right of the line, the regiments are bivouacked in this order: 16th, 40th, 45th, 46th, composing the fifth brigade; 47th, 49th, 56th, 59th composing the sixth brigade.

Drill commenced this morning, the master parade taking place at eight o'clock in front of the several regimental lines.

These non-commissioned officers from the Royal Canadian dragoons have been attached as instructors, as follows: Corpl. Beales to the 45th regiment; L. C. Edson to the 16th; L. C. Melinier to the 40th; L. C. Glenn to the 45th; L. C. McIntyre to the 47th; L. C. Rice to the 49th; L. C. Chamberlain to the 56th; L. C. Walsh to the 59th.

These cadets of the Royal military college have been attached: Hughes and McParland to the divisional staff; Mudie to the 56th; Murphy to the 16th; Roberston to the 49th; Curry to the 59th; Kent to the 59th; Reid to the 40th; Cameron to the 45th; Willets to the 47th; Dezell to the 46th; Keefer to the 49th; Caldwell to the 40th; Stewart to the 4th Hussars; Tenenden to the 3rd Dragoons; Macpherson to the 16th.

Most of the regiments have bands. The fifth brigade furnished a band for duty to-day.

The alarm post was to-day in the parade in front of the 46th regiment.

Sergt. T. Pugh is appointed divisional bugler.

The board of officers for inspection of daily rations consists of the brigade field officers, the medical officer of the day from each brigade and a veterinary surgeon appointed alternately from the 3rd Dragoons and the 4th Hussars.

No. 2 field hospital, Kingston, of the army medical corps, are encamped near the road about a quarter of a mile from the camp lines. They have fifteen tents and two marques for hospital purposes. The corps look well in their new uniforms, but are not entirely pleased with the wide artillery stripe on their trousers.

Water is supplied through pipes connected with an engine at Redrock quarry, on the St. Lawrence.

It takes 4,200 pounds of bread each day to supply the camp.

Lieut.-Col. Montizambert, chief staff officer, looks well in his khaki uniform. He is the most genial commanding officer ever at Kingston, and receives reporters kindly. Long may he live!

There are two canteens on the grounds, but they are "dry" affairs. No liquor is allowed to be sold at the camp, and even "old-timers" admit the wisdom of the order. P. Devlin has charge of the canteens, and does his work well. Mr. Devlin is also caterer for the brigade staff and for the 4th Hussars.

During camp the 9:30 p.m. gun at the fort will be fired.

A bus is run to the camp ground at intervals during the day by Elder Bros., Wellington street, who will do a good business.

The W. C. T. U. has a tent on the ground, and sell light refreshments, etc., to the men.

The hardest thing to find is the article that we have put away and know just where to find it.

ASTHMA FOR 35 YEARS

Doctors Said They Could Only Give Him Temporary Relief—Clarke's Kola Compound Cured Permanently.

R. D. Pitt, Esq., Kamloops, B.C., writes: "For thirty-five years I have almost constantly suffered with asthma and difficult breathing. I spent a fortune on remedies and doctors. At last my doctor said I might get temporary relief, but would always be troubled. When first hearing of Clarke's Kola Compound I tried it. The first bottle did not relieve me much, but after taking four bottles I was completely cured. I can now breathe as naturally as ever and asthma does not trouble me in the least." Clarke's Kola Compound not only relieves, but permanently cures asthma. Sold by J. B. McLeod, druggist, Kingston, or the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., limited, Toronto.

Thought They Were From Africa.

There were a number of people at Swift's wharf yesterday to see the steamer Hero come in. She brought a large number of soldiers from Belleville and vicinity. One woman looked at them, and, addressing a gentleman standing near, asked: "Are these our boys just returning from Africa?"

"No, madam, they are volunteers arriving to go into camp," explained the gentleman.

"They look pretty rough," said the woman. "that's what made me think they were from Africa."

It may be explained that the soldiers were from Belleville, and no one could blame the woman for being mistaken.

Much Water Used.

There is one thing that is certain: Kingston could never afford to furnish free water to its citizens. More water is being used now than ever before. The normal number of hours during which the pump is used each day is from seven to seven and a-half; yesterday it was used ten and a-quarter hours. The fireman had to keep the pump going all night. One wonders where or why so much water is consumed at night. Citizens must leave their hose and taps running all night long. It is quite an extra expense on the department.

The Flag Floated.

The flag over the Whig building floated to the breeze to-day in honor of the completion of the 63rd year of Queen Victoria's ascension to the throne. "Charlie" Vanluven, a veteran of '66, would not let such an auspicious occasion pass without due recognition, and he hoisted the union jack bright and early.

Charged With Seduction.

Samuel B. Benn, Adolphustown, a member of the 4th Hussars, was arrested in the city last night on the strength of a telegram from chief Ryan, Napanee. A charge of seduction is preferred. Benn denies the charge. He was taken to Napanee this afternoon.

A Pleasant "At Home."

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Chown, Brock street, were "At Home" to a number of their friends last evening. The gathering was in honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Mitchell, who were recently married, and was a very pleasant affair. Refreshments were served shortly before eleven o'clock.

The young men of Belleville seem not inclined to join the ranks of the 15th regiment, and Col. Ponton addresses them a stirring rebuke through the columns of the press.

330 boxes of gold and greenbacks will be sent to persons writing interesting and truthful letters about the good that has been done them by the use of Grape-Nuts Food.

10 little boxes, each containing a $10 gold piece, will be sent the 10 writers of the most interesting letters.

20 boxes, each containing a $5 gold piece to the 20 next most interesting writers, and a $1 greenback will go to each of the 300 next best. A committee of 3 to make decision and the prizes sent on July 3rd, 1900.

Write plain facts, sensible letters, giving detailed facts of ill-health caused from improper food and explain the improvement, the gain in strength, in weight or in brain power after using Grape Nuts Food.

It is a profound fact that most ills of humanity come from improper and non-nourishing food, such as white bread, hot biscuit, starchy and uncooked cereals, etc.

A change to perfectly cooked, predigested food like Grape-Nuts, scientifically made and containing exactly the elements nature requires for building the delicate and wonderful cells of brain and body, will quickly change a half sick person to a well person. Food, good food, is Nature's strongest weapon of defence.

Include in letter the true names and addresses, carefully written, of 20 persons, not very well, to whom we can write regarding the food cure by Grape-Nuts.

Almost everyone interested in pure food is willing to have his or her name appear in the papers for such help as they may offer the human race. A request, however, to omit name will be respected. Try for one of the 330 prizes. Everyone has an equal show. Don't write poetry, but just honest and interesting facts about the good you have obtained from the pure food Grape-Nuts. If a man or woman has found a true way to get well and keep well, it should be a pleasure to stretch a helping hand to humanity, by telling the facts.

Write your name and address plainly on letter and mail promptly to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich. Prizes sent July 3rd.

Laying Drill Hall Floor.

The contractors are getting along well with the new drill hall. The last coat of plastering is now being put on, and the floors laid. The contractors expect to turn the building over to the public works department in August, within the time specified in the contract.

Great Drop In Berries.

On Monnay strawberries sold at 9c. and 10c. a box; yesterday they fell to four boxes for 25c., or 5c. a box by the crate. The market was flooded with them yesterday, over 1,500 quarts from the Hay bay district being offered for sale. There were also a lot of berries in from the west. The crop is very abundant this year. This warm weather will ripen them rapidly, and citizens can expect in a few days to get them for almost a song.

Another Train Added.

It is reported that when the Grand Trunk announces its new summer time table a mixed train will be found in the schedule running daily between Kingston and Brockville, reaching Brockville at 9:30 a.m. This will be found a great convenience to commercial travellers and cheese men. The Brockville town council and cheese board and Kingston board of trade made representations to the management showing the necessity of this train and it is understood general manager Hayes has responded to their demands.

Woodman, Spare Those Trees!

The cutting down of shade trees on streets like George street, where they form such a beautiful arch over the roadway, should be strictly prohibited. Residents of that street strongly object to the destruction of the massive trees which line either side of the road, and were planted there many years ago by an esteemed citizen who still resides on George street. It is not right that a comparatively late comer to that neighborhood should be allowed to cut down the trees against the wishes of the rest of the residents, and the board of works should intervene.

Is Much Misunderstood.

The Whig lately spoke of a summer visitor as a barrister. It had been so told, and it forgot scripture having remarked that all men are liars. He is not a lawyer. Once, in Scotland, he was hailed as a grazier; he has been taken more than once for a ship captain; has been appealed to as a doctor, and at Vancouver was mistaken for proprietor of a Japanese store. He has been frequently dubbed reverend, and in Winnipeg was announced at a missionary meeting as Sir Charles J., the next speaker. He is a gentleman of many characteristics.

Health Preserved

Is, without doubt, the jewel of great price, and the one least valued. Disregard of symptoms that clearly indicate abnormal action of the liver, stomach or bowels is nothing less than criminal. Health through neglect too often vanishes like a "Will o' the Wisp," and the anxious seeker secures but pain and disappointment for his labor. No aid towards the preservation of health can surpass Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. These pills, being composed of vegetable substances, exert their remedial action without the evil effects too often following the use of pills containing mercury. For all bilious disorders they will even prove a positive specific. Hamilton's Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine.

LAWN SOCIAL AT HOSPITAL

IN AID OF A HOME FOR THE NURSES.

The Grounds Presented a Gay Appearance—The Ladies in Charge of the Booths—A Great Crowd is Expected to Attend This Evening.

The beautiful grounds of the Kingston general hospital presented a very gay and lively appearance this afternoon. The occasion was the holding of a lawn social in aid of the nurses' home. At the rear of the buildings a number of booths were arranged on the spacious lawn, and these were artistically arrayed in bright colors. Those conducting the affair are prominent ladies of Kingston, who are interested in the good work of the hospital. A visit to the grounds this evening is well worth the time.

Altogether there are nine different tables and booths where articles and eatables are offered for sale by ladies gaily attired and beautiful to behold. The tea table is in charge of Mesdames Calvin and Britton, and many hungered ones were filled to content at this important station. An ice cream booth was presided over by Mrs. (Dr.) Anglin and Mrs. C. Livingston, and a strawberry booth was looked after by Miss Nichol, Mrs. (Dr.) Garrett and Mrs. (Prof.) Martin. Mrs. (Dr.) Third, Mrs. Hugh Nickle and Mrs. H. W. Richardson superintended the candy table. There was a soda water fountain, or what the nurses delight to call a canteen, under the direction of Misses Veale and Pratt, members of the nurses' alumnae. Miss Ferguson and a large number of ladies conducted a notion table. The flower table was in charge of Mrs. R. T. Walkem, and a shooting gallery attended to by Mrs. W. H. Macnee. A fish pond containing golden fish was a pretty amusement for the children.

The lawn social was well attended during the afternoon, those in charge being kept busy. This evening a grand time is expected, and the attendance should be very large. The 14th regimental band will discourse a splendid programme of music, the bandsmen having willingly offered their services to aid the nurses. The hospital grounds are a cool and delightful place in the evening, and on this occasion will be brilliantly lighted by Chinese lanterns. The nurses will be in attendance in hospital attire, and with them will be Miss Hanaguche, the Japanese young lady just entered for a course of training. Everybody should lend a helping hand and add their portion to the shekels required to build a home for the nurses of the hospital. They are sisters of mercy, who minister unwearyingly to the sick and the dying, and when their day of patient toil is over their least reward is a comfortable home, where they can rest until their duty again calls them.

Riding On Sidewalks.

There are several young men on University avenue, near Princess street, who continually persist riding on the sidewalks, much to the annoyance of pedestrians and the danger of children. The police could well afford to check this uncalled for practice before it becomes too prevalent. There is plenty of room and good wheeling on the streets.

Portsmouth Cow By-Law.

The Portsmouth council met last night and passed the cow by-law. Edward Rodden has been appointed pound bailiff, and will imprison all stray cows in the old tannery field. Portsmouth residents feel highly gratified over the council's action, and want a dog by-law passed so that Kingston "dogs" cannot be smuggled into their village.

The Belleville Intelligencer suggests that "Considering the disquieting news from China, wouldn't it be as well to put an armed guard on all the Mongolian laundries in town?"
