A CHARGE OF BLACKMAIL.

THE PRISONERS WERE FOUND GUILTY.

Mine Driller Accused of Criminal Assault—Paid His Accusers $25—Prosecutor For Blackmail—Off on Suspended Sentence.

A case of blackmail was heard by Judge Price in chambers today. William Sylvester, a driller at a mine in the township of Barrie, charged Edward and Charlotte Delvea, of the same township, with having extorted money from him by accusing him of criminal assault upon the latter on May 10th. On May 31st in order to settle the matter, Sylvester paid his accusers twenty-five dollars for which they signed a receipt, agreeing to drop all proceedings, as they stated a mistake might have been made as to the man who committed the deed. The next day Sylvester reconsidered his action, and took proceedings.

The case was commenced this morning, J. L. Whiting acting for the crown, and John McGuire, Q.C., for the defendants, who have been in gaol. Sylvester denied the charge point blank. Alexander Clyde, who owns the mine at which Sylvester works, testified that he could not have committed the deed on May 10th, as he was drunk and was asleep in the afternoon, as Mrs. Delvea stated. At that time Sylvester was at work and he could prove it by the other men. Witnesses then gave the details, and from the statements made to him by Mrs. Delvea, he could see that she was not one of the country at the time where the alleged act resulted for.

The prisoners were examined for their evidence last week. The judge found there was not about them the go-to-church appearance.

NOT YET RETURNING.

Report of Home-Coming Unfounded—A Brave Canadian.

Ottawa, June 20.—There has been a revival doubtless, derived from statements in private letters from South Africa, that the first Canadian contingent was to be drafted home shortly. Inquiry from the minister of militia, however, elicits the information that there is no foundation for the story, for if such a move were intended Hon. Dr. Borden, would be the first to be apprized of it by lord Roberts, and no such intimation has been received at militia headquarters here.

The magnificent memorial tablet erected on the west wall of Christ church cathedral by his relatives to commemorate the death of brave Zach. Lewis, Ottawa company, of first Canadian contingent, the one Canadian who reached the Boer trenches in the first fight at Paardeberg, and was found dead the next day, has just been placed in a prominent place.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Is Not The Gaol Surgeon.

Kingston, June 20.—(To the Editor.) Through your paper I wish to deny the report in circulation that I have been appointed to the jail surgeoncy temporarily. Further, I have not sought said position, would not accept it if offered me. I was asked to see a patient there, [illegible] found old patient very ill and treating every one and proper treatment. MR. K. [illegible] GUN.

Declines To Resign.

Victoria, B.C., June 20.—It was announced that Lieut.-Gov. McInnes had been asked to resign to the lieutenant-governorship, but decided to do so on the ground that the conservative convention was not competent to advise the federal authorities. The lieut.-governor has asked Sir Wilfrid Laurier not to interfere.

Resignation Asked For.

London, June 20.—It is understood that the government has asked for the resignation of Lieut.-Gov. McInnes, and that he has been given a limited period of time in which to comply with their request. In the event of his not resigning his resignation, the inquiries mean precisely that the government will take further action. Sir Henri Joly is spoken of as successor to Mr. McInnes.

Weds A Toronto Lady.

A. J. Hamilton, district manager of the Scranton school of correspondence, with headquarters in this city, left last night for Toronto, where he will today wed a young lady belonging to the queen city. They will take up residence here on their return. J. C. Long, assistant superintendent of the school's agencies, is in the city attending to Mr. Hamilton's work, during the latter's absence. Mr. Hamilton's many Kingston friends extend congratulations.

Caretaker Will Prosecute.

Neil McCaig, sr., caretaker of Victoria public school, this morning laid complaint against the members of the gang of boys who assaulted him on Sunday night. The board of education will bear the expenses of the prosecution. The boys, who are ex-pupils of the school, style themselves the "Division street gang." They have occasioned a great deal of trouble, and it is about time the hand of justice was broken up.

From Capt. Irving.

The Toronto Globe today contained a very chatty letter from Capt. Irving, "C" field battery. The letter was dated at Maagdefontein, April 28th, and describes the march of the battery towards the relief of Mafeking. Capt. Irving was acting chief of the main body in charge of the horses.

YOUNG GIRL HYPNOTIZED.

Ethel Heath Led Away From Home by Charles La Clair.

Chicago, June 20.—Hypnotized and led away from her home in the country by a man who fell in love with her, but whose advances were repulsed, is the substance of the story Ethel Heath, an innocent-appearing girl fourteen years of age, told judge Callahan. Her home is in Indian Ford, Wisconsin. At a social gathering in February, the girl met Charles LaClair and from that time on he sought her society persistently.

According to Ethel's testimony, when all LaClair's efforts to win her proved futile, he tried his hypnotic power. In this he was successful and the pair left Milwaukee last March, boating in South Chicago. Until a week ago, Ethel lived under the powerful influence of LaClair, when unexpectedly, the spell was broken and she was free. She immediately wrote to her parents and begged of them to come and take her home. W. T. Heath, Ethel's father, arrived and had LaClair arrested, charging him with abduction. When the case was called before justice Callahan, LaClair admitted his guilt. He was committed to await the action of the grand jury, under bonds of $3,000.

Mr. Heath told the court that young LaClair worked on a neighboring farm and possessed a good education and polished manners. He was admitted to the social circles of the wealthy class of farmers. Several times his attentions to Ethel were repulsed and then, she says, LaClair practiced his occult powers upon her, which resulted in the girl leaving home against her will.

TRAGEDY IN MINING CAMP.

Four Men Are Murdered And the Fifth is Missing.

Seattle, Wash., June 20.—According to advices from Nortons Bay, four of a party of five men have been murdered and the fifth is wandering in the wilderness demented or has fallen a prey to savage [illegible]. The party consisted of Oliver Winchoff, Scott, Tacoma, Dr. A. A. Keyser, Minneapolis, Minn., W. W. Wright, San Francisco, T. B. Haines, San Francisco, and George Beckholdt, [illegible], Minnesota.

The men were working on an old Russian placer diggings, gleaned from a chart found on the body of Scott, found [illegible] and the eight drove it out of their head. Then the story of murder began. Keyser was the first victim. He had been stabbed while asleep. Wright was suspected, and, shouldering his gun, he left camp. A few hours later Beckholdt was shot in the back while talking to his companions.

Scott and Haines pursued Wright for two days, and captured him, but Haines was wounded and Wright was shot fatally and died two days later. On May 13th Scott's body was found fifty miles from the mouth of the Ungatulik river, which flows into Norton's bay. He had been murdered. As Haines, the sole survivor, has not been seen in any of the settlements, it is believed he perished, or is wandering in the forests demented.

Blue Trading Stamps.

There is scarcely a family in this city but what are collecting blue trading stamps. These stamps are nothing more nor less than discounts, but the ladies seem to take particular delight in saving them, and will go blocks out of their way to patronize merchants giving them. The Dominion Trading Stamp company have just leased their handsome showrooms, 235 Yonge street, for three years longer, so that collectors will have ample time to fill a good many books in that time. Twenty third June is the new red letter day, as it is called. A visit to their showrooms on that day will give some idea of the great number of people collecting Blue trading stamps. We notice the company have recently opened some new showrooms, making in all twenty three branches that are now established. Over 200 purchases in Toronto have already received their premiums to give stamps another year. Exchange Saturday Night.

Dock Strike Likely Settled.

London, May 20.—The London dock strike, involving 10,000 men, will probably be speedily settled by the London chamber of commerce, whose offer to arbitrate has been accepted by the strikers. They demand full recognition of their trade union and increased wages. The strikers are rich enough to have the affair seriously felt, and public interest is so engaged in affairs abroad that it has scarcely caused comment.
