

Halton Cowboys ground Jets to win OVFL tyke title

The Halton Cowboys won the Ontario Varsity Football League tyke championship, downing the Toronto Jets 28-6 in the final.

C.J. Winters paced the Halton offence, scoring three touchdowns in the Cowboys' championship win. Nolan Thomson had the Cowboys' other major with a run up the middle. Nicholas Horner kicked all four extra points.

Horner also earned player-of-the-game honours on defence while Winters also had a strong game on the defensive side. Justin Alves played a key role in shutting down the Jets' top player.

"I am extremely proud of my team and my staff at the hard work and dedication they had this year," said coach Jon Krone-meyer.

"A special thanks to Chuck Winters, defensive co-ordinator, who did a tremendous job on getting the kids focused on positional play. Defence played a huge roll in our success this year."
