LITTLE THINGS NO TRIFLES.

Just a little sunshine, just a little rain;
Just a little baby, just a little pain;
Just a little tiny tooth coming by and by,
Just a little colic, making little baby cry,
Just a little slumber, disracted parent gets,
Just a little yawning, then little baby frets.
Just a little Teething Syrup of Dr. Hammond-Hall,
Just a calm serenity, after midnight squall,
Just a little English Teething Syrup, worth its weight in gold,
And the great eventful tale of cutting teeth is told.

TO BE DRUMHEAD SERVICE

IN THE BIG MILITARY CAMP TO-MORROW.

Rain Cut Short the Drill on Friday—To be a Big Military Tattoo—Sick Soldiers in Hospital—Good Target Scores Made—Scenes Around the Big Camp.

Many officers would like to see a distinctive Canadian militia uniform, doing away altogether with the style of clothing now used by the militia. They present many good features in support of their arguments, but for some years at least they must be content with the uniforms now supplied. Great reforms are brought about only by many years' pressure upon the authorities. Khaki would make a serviceable uniform and no doubt it will be adopted after a while.

So far no complaints have been made concerning the quality of the rations. Tommy Atkins, in camp, is being well fed, and Lieut.-Col. Macpherson is looking carefully after the well-being of the men. It is quite a task to feed 3,000 men, but when it is done in a manner satisfactory to the whole outfit, it shows aptitude on the part of the supply officer for the duties to which he is assigned. Tommy Atkins is inclined to growl if given the least opportunity, and that he is not doing so is a sign that he is contented.

Lieut.-Col. Montizambert, D.O.C., has a big task in hand managing so large a camp, but his executive ability is not at fault. The camp is well kept, clean, orderly and remarkably well conducted.

Surgeon-Maj. Jones delivers lectures twice daily to the surgeons and members of the field hospital corps—two hours in the morning and two in the afternoon.

Lieut.-Col. Clyde, 4th Hussars, is in command for the first time. He is well liked by officers and men and is one of the most popular officers in camp.

The ladies conducting the W. C. T. U. tents are particularly kind and attentive to the sick in the hospital tents. Those upon whom the attention is bestowed are grateful for the kindness. The surgeons also speak highly of the kindness of the ladies.

Jimmie May, the subject whom Prof. Ferris put to sleep for one week in a window in this city a couple of years ago, is snare drummer for the band of the 59th regiment and he is a good one, too.

The officers of the 59th regiment pride themselves upon the fact that their mess tent is the prettiest in camp. It is handsomely decorated, thanks to the taste and energy of that king of humorists, M. G. Sheldon, Cornwall, who is in charge. The officers will back their caterer for originality against any man in camp.

Capt. Carstairs, an old Kingstonian, is in camp with the 56th battalion. So also is Capt. Chapman, North Augusta. Both are newspaper men, a credit to the profession. They can fight equally well with pen or sword, and it is immaterial to them which they use.

There is a company of Indians—red men of the forest—in the 40th regiment, strapping big fellows they are, too. The officers say they are the best behaved men in the regiment. The majority of them stand over six feet tall, and some of them hold rank as non-commissioned officers.

Photographers in camp are as thick as bees around a sugar barrel. They are doing a good business photographing groups, companies, regiments, etc. Even the officers have caught the fever and like to pose before the magic glass.

A great many are expected at camp to-morrow from Picton, as an excursion will arrive to-morrow from that place.

The 46th regiment is in camp without its fighting colonel, Sam Hughes, who is in South Africa fighting the good fight for queen and country. The boys all revere Sam and wish him a safe return.

A drum-head service will be conducted to-morrow morning at the camp ground at a beautiful spot just east of the camp. Rev. Mr. McMillan, the fighting chaplain of the 45th regiment, will preach. He performed a similar service at the camp two years ago, preaching a good sermon.

Pte. Frederick Knight, Lindsay, member of the 46th regiment, was removed to the camp hospital yesterday, suffering from hemmorhage of the lungs. He is in a very weak condition and the surgeons fear he will have to be removed to the general hospital, thence to his home upon recovery. His condition is precarious.

Trooper Orrie Warner, "A" squadron, 3rd Dragoons, while on parade Friday morning, was kicked by his horse on the right leg and received a nasty wound. At first it was thought his hip was broken, but upon examination, after being removed to the hospital, it was found that while the flesh was badly cut and bruised, the bones were intact. He suffers great pain.

Pte. Wellington James, Deseronto, 49th battalion, while engaged in a friendly game of baseball Thursday evening received a kick on the left ankle. The injury was a painful one and necessitated Pte. James' removal to the field hospital, where he is under treatment. He may not be able to return to drill.

Pte. Graham, Green Point, near Deseronto, member of the 16th battalion, accidentally received a painful wound to one of his hands, necessitating his removal to the field hospital for treatment. The wound will incapacitate him from drill for some days.

Adjutant Carter and quartermaster Huff, 16th battalion, have provided themselves with khaki uniforms and appear quite swaggar on parade. Their example in this respect is likely to be followed by other officers of the regiment.

The members of the 40th battalion are provided with linen caps, similar to the old Havelock caps in use by the militia many years ago. They are cool, shady and comfortable, being much more appropriate and serviceable than the service cap commonly in use.

A slight downpour of rain cut short Friday afternoon's drill.

The Hussars and Dragoons have to go down into Pittsburg, east of the infantry camp, to find a suitable parade ground. More room could be provided on Barriefield common if the tents were moved a little more towards the north.

Quartermaster Aiken's friends on the police force have paid him many visits already. He always receives them cordially and is always at home to his city friends. "If I am not in my tent," he says, "just go in and make yourself at home; everything I have is at your service." That's heartiness and good fellowship.

Thursday night the band of the 16th regiment provided music at the brigade staff tent at mess. The bandmaster was complimented upon the excellence of the music.

The 16th regiment has the best set of camp cook stoves in camp; they are of the regulation pattern and give splendid satisfaction. The cooks say there is no trouble to cook with them.

The camp looks forward with interest to the tattoo on Wednesday night next. Three thousand men and six or eight bands will participate. It will be the first time that a military tattoo has ever taken place in Kingston, and the spectacular military manoeuvre should not be missed by the citizens.

Corpl. Loft, No. 4 company, 16th battalion, is a descendant of the noble red men of the forest. He is a crack shot, one of the best in the camp.

Friday night the band of the 46th regiment furnished acceptable music at the brigade staff mess tent, the music being of a high order.

Monday night the splendid band of the 16th regiment will provide an open air concert for the 5th brigade.

The tallest man in camp is Capt. and Adjut. Hewton, 47th regiment, who stands six feet two inches in his stocking feet.

Lieut.-Col. "Rory," McLennan is in camp in command of the 59th regiment. He is as robust and hearty as ever and welcomes his many Kingston friends with his accustomed heartiness. "Rory" is as good-looking and humorous as ever.

The Ottawa stretcher corps, to drill here during the last three days of camp, will bring a photographer along with them. They will have their likeness taken and forwarded to the Army and Navy Gazette, London, England.

Capt. Macdonald, No. 3 company, 59th regiment, was in charge of the London company of the Halifax provisional regiment, but resigned his post to go into camp with his old company. The men wanted him back, declaring they would not go into camp without him.

The 59th regiment has two good pipers in camp.

The 16th regiment is the only corps in camp that flies a union jack within its lines.

The band of the 16th regiment is acknowledged the best musical organization in camp. Conductor Black is justly proud of his command.

Some good shooting was done at the ranges yesterday by members of the 16th regiment. Corpl. John Root, No. 5 company, made a score of 156 out of a possible 160. Pte. Thomas Noble made 155 out of a possible 160, and many other similar scores were piled up.

The 16th regiment has one officer, Capt. Wall, and seven privates in South Africa with the Canadian contingents.

Ex-quartermaster Adams, 16th regiment, visited camp yesterday and was cordially entertained by his old comrades.

Brigade Orders.

The duty band on the 23rd will be furnished by the 5th infantry brigade.

The massed bands of both brigades will on the 23rd, be massed for massed band practice.

The instructor of musketry will arrange direct with brigade major for the future detail of musketry.

Officers commanding cavalry and infantry brigades will detail an officer from each unit under their command to form an amusement committee. This committee will meet at the divisional headquarters' office on Friday at 5 p.m., and report to chief staff officer.

A board of officers composed as under will assemble in the mess of the 49th regiment at 8 a.m., 23rd inst. to investigate and report on the death of a horse, the property of an officer of the 49th regiment: President, Lieut.-Col. Checkley, a veterinary surgeon, to be named by officer commanding the cavalry brigade, major Ward, 46th regiment. Proceedings to be forwarded to chief staff officer.

Brigadiers will be good enough to ensure that half open interval is maintained on all parades, except ceremonial.

It is proposed to hold a tattoo on next Wednesday evening, 27th. A committee, composed of the amusement committee, and the brigadiers, will assemble at 5 p.m., 22nd at divisional headquarters.

The troops in camp will be mustered by the camp paymaster as follows: The cavalry brigade, at 6 a.m.; 25th inst.; army medical service corps, at noon, 5th brigade, at 6 a.m., 26th; 6th brigade, 6 a.m., 27th.

The brigade and commanding officers will meet to-day, 22nd, the camp commandant in the divisional mess tent at 3:30 p.m.

The following N.C.O's. will be attached for duty for pay and rations from 19th inst: Sergt. Rutledge, R.C.D., to cavalry brigade; Sergt. W. W. Creeggan, 14th regiment, to divisional staff; Sergt. J. Toner, 14th regiment, to 16th regiment; Sergt. F. A. Hubbs, 57th regiment, to 46th regiment; Sergt.-Maj. O'Hagan, A. M.C., to field hospital.

Quartermaster for the day, Maj. Tripps, 56th regiment; next for duty, Maj. Hopkins, 45th regiment.

Free to the Ruptured

Dr. W. S. Rice, the Well Known Authority, Sends a Trial of His Famous Method Free to All.

Out of the chaos of old-time failure comes a new and startling cure for rupture. Dr. W. S. Rice, Box E, 18 Victoria Street, Toronto, has invented a method that cures without pain, danger, operation, or an hour's loss of time from the day's work. To avoid all questions of doubt he sends free to every sufferer a free trial of his method and there can be no earthly reason why anyone, rich or poor, should not avail themselves of this generous offer. As an instance of this remarkable method the cure of William Bigford, a well-known and highly esteemed citizen of Bishop's Mills, Ont., will be a welcome piece of intelligence.

WM. BIGFORD.

Mr. Bigford says: I am pleased to say that I have been permanently cured of rupture by Dr. Rice's remarkable method. I suffered eight years, tried all kinds of trusses without help, and now I cannot be too thankful in expressing my appreciation of Dr. Rice's wonderful system of curing rupture and will gladly recommend it to all sufferers, as I know it will cure them.

Send, for this free trial. Don't be backward. It will surprise you with its wonderful power to heal. And if you know of other ruptured people ask them to write or write for them. Do not fail to write at once, do so to-day.

STUDIO FOOD.

An Artist's Diet.

An artist living in a New York studio writes regarding the advantage of a proper selection of healthful food. He says, "Some time ago a sister who had been ill, wrote me of the good she had obtained from the use of Grape-Nuts food two meals a day, and that all the family made great use of the food. She recommended it very strongly to me.

"I had up to that time supposed this was a luxury and had not tried it, but I sent for some and for quite a little time, depended largely on Grape-Nuts, with a surprising result. I have largely lost my taste for meat and am unusually strong, walking a long distance daily, which for some years has been almost impossible.

"I live in a studio and have neither time nor room to cook, therefore the Grape-Nuts being ready cooked, come in as an especial boon and I felt I must thank you.

"The Postum Cereal Coffee I have used a long time and if that comes from you it must come in for a share of thanks also." Ada A. Brewster, 201 W. 109th street, New York City.

Volunteers!

Those desirous of promoting the smelter by-law and helping Kingston are solicited to volunteer carriages for election day, Wednesday, the 27th, to Francis King, secretary board of trade. The danger is that electors consider the by-law safe. Everybody must turn out and make the passage sure!

The Work Completed.

The street railway tracks have now been thoroughly overhauled, and the cars run much smoother than before. A number of old switches have been replaced by better ones. The repairs to the tracks have left the road bed around the rails in a rather rough condition and steps should be taken to have it properly levelled and rolled.

"Swagger" Sticks In Demand.

Nearly all the "swagger" sticks in the local cigar stores have been sold to the volunteers now in camp, and still a great many of the soldier boys are without them. One Princess street tobacconist has been very busy the past week cutting up his bamboo fishing poles into "swagger" sticks. The sticks are very popular among the soldiers.

Nurses' Home In Sight.

The fund for a home for the nurses of the general hospital now amounts to $1,200. At the lawn social on Wednesday $430 was realized, and the excursion last week netted $120. Next year the building will likely be commenced. To the nurses' alumnae association is due the highest credit for their inauguration of the building scheme. Their early labors are now bearing fruit.

Buried Beside Brothers.

A correspondent at Delta says that the late Platt Curtis, of Kingston, was well known by Delta people, and they learned with regret from his eldest son the particulars of his sudden death. The remains were conveyed from Kingston to Soperton, where Rev. D. Earl, B.A., preached the funeral sermon in the Methodist church. The remains were buried beside the graves of his two brothers in the old Sheffield cemetery. The heartfelt sympathy of the entire community goes to his widow and two sons in their sad bereavement.

Health Preserved

Is, without doubt, the jewel of great price, and the one least valued. Disregard of symptoms that clearly indicate abnormal action of the liver, stomach or bowels is nothing less than criminal. Health through neglect too often vanishes like a "Will o' the Wisp," and the anxious seeker secures but pain and disappointment for his labor. No aid towards the preservation of health can surpass Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. These pills, being composed of vegetable substances, exert their remedial action without the evil effects too often following the use of pills containing mercury. For all bilious disorders they will even prove a positive specific. Hamilton's Pills are sold by all dealers in medicine.

Helping The Good Work.

The board of trade met yesterday afternoon to take up work for the smelting by-law. It being understood that the mayor would call the city council together to secure the active work of the aldermen on Wednesday at the polls, the board of trade proceeded to organize committees on its own account to sustain the aldermen in the hard work. Captain Gaskin was requested to take charge of the central work, and to look into the organization throughout the day on Wednesday. These chairmen were appointed for the different wards:

St. Lawrence ward—James Redden.
Cataraqui ward—Edward Bennington.
Sydenham ward—Dr. Herald.
Ontario ward—J. McParland.
Frontenac ward—Charles Livingston.
Rideau ward—R. F. Elliott.
Victoria ward—John McKelvey.

These are public spirited citizens and will each do his level best. The members of the board of trade and other active citizens were formed into various committees to assist these chairmen. The board issued a request for volunteer carriages and it is hoped that every citizen who can do so will respond.

MORMONS IN ADDINGTON.

THOSE WHO LEFT FOR OHIO IN EARLY DAYS.

Missionaries Were at Work Around Here—The New Jerusalem of Ohio—The Baptisms That Took Place—Mormonism Then Different From Now.

While most people are aware of the records and position of the Mormons in Utah to-day, few are aware of the fact that in the earlier times of "the latter day saints," its missionaries were at work in this part of Ontario and that a number of pilgrims went out from here to join their ranks. The Mormons of those days were, however, a different class from these of later times. For years, polygamy was not known among them. It was not till 1832, that the doctrine of polygamy was revealed to Joe Smith, the founder of Mormonism. This Joseph Smith pretended to have received revelations from an angel of God, and at the same time he claimed that it was revealed to him where some plates were deposited, "containing an abridgement of the records of the ancient prophets that had existed on the American continent." The angel, Smith claimed, told him that these records were deposited "on the west side of a hill, about four miles from Palmyra, in the county of Ontario, and near the mail-road, which leads thence to the little town of Manchester."

It was in 1827 that Smith claimed these records were placed in his hands. The letters were in an unknown language, called "Reformed Egyptian, and they constitute what has ever since been known as the "Mormon Bible." In 1831, Smith emigrated with his followers to Kirkland, Ohio, which they termed New Jerusalem. Missionaries were sent out and churches soon established in many places.

It was no doubt while they were thus in Ohio, that the missionaries were sent out, who came to this country. Among them were Joseph and Brigham Young, also the elder Lott, who was a neighbor of Smith's and some other families. They settled in Camden township. The Youngs were very zealous in their preaching and held out great inducements of both spiritual and worldly gains to all such as would emigrate to their new Jerusalem in Ohio. There were a number of converts, and numbers were baptized in the new faith and were soon on their way to this promised land. Several old residents remember baptisms taking place at or near Camden East, at Big Creek, and other places. Besides this first visit in the early thirties, another was made about 1840, and others were induced to go.

Among those who went were, Joseph Lott, of Camden, James Lake, of Loborough, or Portland township, William Boyce, of Loborough, Peter Davy, John Snider and Stephen Montgomery, from the vicinity of Camden East. Rev. Mr. Savage, a U. E. minister was also a convert, and went away with them at the time. Benjamin Dillon, a well-known resident of Camden and Sheffield heard the missionaries preach, near Bath. He was induced to go to the "promised land," but became disgusted, and returned home, a sadder but a wiser man. The amount of interest and enthusiasm once worked up in this part of the country among respectable men seems marvellous to us now, but it must be remembered that Mormonism as presented to them at that time was greatly different from the Mormonism that we hear and know of at the present day.

A NEW SCHEDULE.

Two New Ball Teams Ask To Enter The League.

The baseball match between the Granites and Ponies, scheduled to take place at Lake Ontario park this afternoon, will likely be either called off or changed into a practice match. This is owing to the fact that several new teams have applied for admission to the league. The old schedule will have to be dropped and a new one formed.

The "Black Watch" have applied for admission to the league, and their request will likely be granted. They claim to have a strong aggregation and the 200 or 300 employees will back up the team to "victory or death." The Athletics have also asked permission to enter the league. They are all young lads, but one of the swiftest teams in the city. A new schedule will be drawn up at once. It is likely that two games will be played each Saturday, in order to run off the list. Many of the players protest against five well-known baseball enthusiasts playing in the league games and to settle the question a general meeting will be called soon. Interest in the game is fast increasing, and some lively matches are in store for Kingstonians.

William Scott, Montreal, is visiting his parents in the city.

KIDNEY TROUBLE FOR THREE YEARS.

A Young Lady of Middlesex Co. Tells How She Was Cured at Last by Doan's Kidney Pills.

A great deal of suffering that women are called upon to endure is the result of kidney trouble.

When the back, the head and the limbs ache, when there is tiredness and weariness, dizziness and dimness of vision, in all probability the kidneys are out of order and poisons are being absorbed in the system that these organs should carry off.

The most effective remedy to correct the kidneys so that they will remove all poisons from the blood is Doan's Kidney Pills. Just read what Miss Gertie F. Steele, Belton, P. O, says about them: "For three or four years, I have suffered very much from pain in my back especially in the mornings and felt run down and worn out. I doctored off and on for some time and took a good deal of medicine, but derived little benefit from it.

"I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills on the advice of a friend, and before I had finished the first box I felt a great deal better. Then I got another box and by the time that was done the pain had left my back and now I feel stronger and better in health than I have for months."
