Tailors' Bad Backs.

The cramped up position in which a tailor works comes hard on his kidneys and hard on his back. Very few escape backache, pain in the side and urinary troubles of one kind and another.

Oftentimes the first warnings of kidney disease are neglected—think it will be all right in a day or two—but sick kidneys won't get well without help.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

Are the best friend of kidneys needing assistance. Read the proof from a tailor who has tried them.

Mr. John Robertson, merchant tailor, Durham, Ont., gives his experience as follows:

"I had been ailing with my kidneys for more than a year when I commenced taking Doan's Kidney Pills, which I got at McFarlane's drug store, and am sincerely glad that I did so. The wrong action of my kidneys made me sick all over and caused me much inconvenience and pain. That is now a thing of the past, because Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I have had no trouble or inconvenience with my kidneys or back since I took these remarkable pills, and you may be sure that I gladly recommend them to other sufferers."

BIG PICNIC AT THE PARK.

HOW THE DAY PASSED AT THIS POPULAR RESORT.

Winners of the Horse Races—Keen Baseball Match—Ponies Win Again—Speeches in Order—Fine Supper Prepared by the Ladies.

There were big "doin's" at Lake Ontario park yesterday, the occasion being the annual picnic conducted by the congregation of the Church of the Good Thief, Portsmouth. The weather was all that could be desired for such an event, which was well conducted, every detail being carried out to the letter. The picnic began at one o'clock, at which hour the street cars began depositing crowds at the entrance to the grounds, where a score of ticket-sellers and takers soon passed the people through the gates. At two o'clock a detachment of the 14th band arrived with the Armour cadets, of Chicago. Then the sport began in earnest. The first items on the programme were horse races, three being scheduled—one trot and two runs. In these much interest was manifested. The track was in first-class condition and good time was made. The trot was won by Hubert, owned by C. Woodman, Wolfe Island, which took three straight heats in fine style. Midget, owned by A. McCann, of this city, took second place with three second places. Palm Leaf, owned by J. Flynn, Wolfe Island, won third money.

The first run was for horses owned by butchers and grocers. Butcher Maid, owned by A. McGuire, with "Jimmie" McGuire up, won in three straights. Little Flo, owned by J. Eaves, took second place. Little Kate, owned by A. B. Bryant, entered, but was withdrawn after the first heat.

The second run was open to horses owned by livery and hackmen. Paul Kruger, owned by F. Bibby, with jockey McGuire up, won easily. Fox Tom, owned by J. Eaves, got second money.

The runs were in half-mile heats; the trot in mile heats.

In the last heat of the last run, Fox Tom suffered from a sore leg, his off foreleg having been kicked.

Interest in the baseball match was keen. Those two old time rival teams, the Granites and Ponies, were "up again," each other again. They played good ball and gave a splendid exemplification of the game. Up to the fourth innings the Granites led with a score of one to nothing. Then Dehaney tied the score by making a beautiful home run. This score was not broken until the eighth innings, when McCammon pitched loosely and was batted freely, Ponies scoring up six runs. McCammon must not bear all the blame, as the fielding was ragged and several errors allowed runs to be counted. In the ninth innings McCammon pulled himself together again and pitched his usual steady game, but it was too late to recover lost ground. The game ended with a score of seven to one in favor of the Ponies, and there was much rejoicing thereof. The last time the teams met the score was 17 to 11 for the Ponies.

Moore, catcher for the Granites, had to retire from the game in the sixth innings on account of injured fingers. Conley took his place and Turcotte went into the field. Moore's fingers were so badly torn that the services of a surgeon were necessary to stitch them up.

The teams were: Ponies—Elliott, c.; Sullivan, p.; Hunt, 1b.; Dehaney, 2nd b.; B. Derry, 3rd b.; Corrigan, s.s.; Black, r. f.; Easson, c. f.; Daley, l. f.

Granites—Moore, c.; McCammon, p.; Hazlett, 1st b.; Kennedy, 2nd b.; S. Derry, 3rd b.; J. Laird, s.s.; Fowler, r. f.; Gillespie, c. f.; J. Condy, l. f.

Sullivan and Elliott worked together beautifully and made few errors.

If the Granites had good field support the team would be much stronger.

Hunt made several nice catches, raking in some sky-scrapers that looked like impossibilities.

In the evening a fine supper was served by the ladies of the congregation. Plates were laid for 150 at a time and for a couple of hours the tables were besieged; the system of serving was splendid and everybody found accommodation. Afterwards dancing came on and continued until midnight.

The Addresses Delivered.

The addresses, announced to take place at half past two o'clock, did not commence until after six o'clock, much to the disappointment of a large number of people who had to leave the park before that time. Dr. Ryan acted as chairman of this part of the proceedings, which took place beside the pavilion. In introducing the speakers, Dr. Ryan said he was glad to be present and assist in the celebration of Canada's natal day. John McIntyre, Q.C., was called upon, and spoke briefly upon the fact that Canada had attained her thirty third birthday, and upon the great advance made in that time.

Hon. F. R. Latchford, minister of public works, was warmly greeted when he came forward to speak. He said he could look back now and remember the first dominion day. He heard the bells ring in the birth of this great dominion, and as he looked backward, he rejoiced in the progress the nation had made.

"It's hard to speak," said Mr. Latchford, "when religion and politics are barred."

Voice—"There's nothing left." (Laughter.)

"Yes," continued Mr. Latchford, "when those subjects are not allowed, you take out the present and the hereafter." (Applause.) The speaker was glad to meet the good people of Kingston, and to stand in the old city which has sent forth so many great men to do service for their country.

Voice—"Give us a little politics."

Mr. Latchford—I'm not going to talk politics." (Applause.)

He was glad to see Hon. Mr. Harty enjoying the best of health, and he was glad to see how honored he was by the people.

Voice—"He's an honest man."

Mr. Latchford—"An honest man is said to be the noblest work of God, and I am glad to say that Hon. Mr. Harty is also an honest politician." (Applause.)

Voice—"There are mighty few of those." (Laughter.)

Mr. Latchford concluded by a reference to the present being the growing time of the dominion. Never was there a time when the nation was more prosperous than to-day. It has a record throughout the world. He hoped that Canada would continue to prosper, and that when thirty-three more years have passed, there will be still greater prosperity awaiting our beloved country. (Loud applause.)

Hon. J. P. Whitney, opposition leader in the Ontario legislature, was also given a good reception. He, too, was most happy to be present and take part in the proceedings which had brought such a large concourse of people together. The day was a most remarkable one. Mr. Whitney informed the assemblage that Mr. McIntyre and Mr. Latchford, being lawyers, were very modest men, but they would find that he (the speaker) was even more modest and, therefore, he would speak briefly. He intended to touch both upon religion and politics in a sense in which these subjects interested everybody. The blessing of the Almighty has rested in a marked degree upon the people of Canada. We are the only nation where the people rule practically directly, and have a standard of morality which stands second to none among the nations of the earth. We are members of different creeds, and yet we live as peaceably together as if we were all of one belief. (Applause.) We are blessed with protection in religious belief, and the people are determined that such a state shall continue to exist.

Mr. Whitney then declared that Canada was now prospering wonderfully and that one reason of this prosperity was that all were protected in their religious belief. So will it remain as long as the people respect the liberty they have. The speaker referred to the great benefits of party government, the only trouble being the existence sometimes of too much party feeling. He concluded a most interesting address by a fitting reference to the day being celebrated.

Don't Experiment.

Diarrhoea and Dysentery Are Too Dangerous For You to Trifle With Untried Remedies.

Refuse Any of the Dangerous or Worthless Diarrhoea Compounds That May be Offered You Instead of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for the past half century has had phenomenal success in curing Diarrhoea, Dysentery, Cramps, Colic, Cholera Morbus, Summer Complaint, and all bowel complaints of young and old.

Both the medical profession and the people have given it their endorsation as the only reliable and safe remedy for these dangerous and distressing diseases.

There are some unscrupulos persons, though, who hope to profit by the merit and popularity of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. They put up a so-called "Strawberry Compound," and sometimes succeed in selling it to druggists and general merchants representing it as the genuine. Even the wrapper is yellow in color, like Dr. Fowler's, so as to deceive the very elect if they can.

If you want to be on the safe side, if you don't want to experiment or take chances as to results, refuse any and every diarrhoea mixture or compound that may be offered you, and insist on the old reliable and genuine Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and every honest druggist and medicine dealer will give you what you ask for.

DOMINION GOVERNMENT HOME

At Elkhorn, Manitoba, Has Found Japanese Catarrh Cure the Only Real Cure for Catarrh—Wonderful Results on Every Case Tried.

A. E. Wilson, principal government Indian Home, Elkhorn, Manitoba, writes: "Enclosed find $1 for two boxes of Japanese Catarrh Cure. Would also like to have some more of your books on catarrh. Some time ago we purchased three boxes of your Japanese Catarrh Cure, and must say it gave wonderful results on every case tried. It certainly is an article of unequalled merit." Don't go on experimenting with untried remedies; if you have catarrh in any form cure it now with Japanese Catarrh Cure. There is danger in delay. Price, 50c. by J. B. McLeod, Kingston, or mailed, post paid, by the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., limited, 121 Church street, Toronto.

SOME MILITARY NOTES.

No More Artillery For Instruction At Deseronto—Short of Men.

Nearly all "A" battery sergeants spent Sunday and Monday in this city.

It is not likely that any other artillery corps will assemble at Deseronto camp this season for instruction. Several others were ordered in, to begin their annual instruction to-day, but their commanding officers have reported that they cannot get men to fill the ranks. Consequently the camp has been cancelled.

"A" field battery will remain in camp until the 11th inst. The men will undergo instruction, and on the 13th be inspected by Lieut.-Col. Stone.

"A" field battery is still deficient of horses. Though several new animals have been secured, the total number is still far below strength.

Lieut.-Col. Stone tried to obtain the use of horses of other batteries for "A" field battery, so that that corps could properly undergo proper instruction, but his efforts were unavailing.

A day or two ago a member of "A" field battery became drunk in camp, was arrested and arraigned before Lieut.-Col. Stone. He refused to tell where he obtained the liquor, and in consequence was discharged from the corps after undergoing a term of confinement. The man belongs to Kingston.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

One of the trolley poles on the depot line of the street railway, fell on Monday morning, just after a car had passed. Of course there was a chance of it hitting the car, but it didn't, and therefore the possible result need not be calculated. It was replaced in a very short time.

The Brockville water commissioners cautioned water consumers against wasting water, and since then the pumping engines have had only about half the work they formerly had to do. Kingston's superintendent should follow this example, as the local pump is kept constantly going, at a large additional cost to the city.

RAIDED A CHINAMAN'S DEN.

Police Caught Sixteen Celestials in a Gambling Game.

Kingston entertained many Chinese visitors over Sunday and Monday, celestials from Napanee, Deseronto, Belleville, Peterboro and other places. Sunday they gathered in the domicile of Lee Sing, Barrie street, just below Princess street. The police have received many complaints about this place, as it is frequented by Chinamen at all unseemingly hours. Sunday evening Sergt. Snodden and constable Graham visited the place. They walked right in unannounced and watched the Chinese gambling game of Fan Tan progress for some minutes before the celestials became aware of their presence, so interested were they in the game. Then of a sudden the game ceased and the Chinamen tried to cover up traces of their doings. The police gathered up over $20 in small change, a hundred or two white buttons and a similar number of black ones, a small board about one foot square and a small stick with a crooked end, all used in the game. The money was staked up in front of one Chinaman, evidently the banker. The celestials refused to make any statement or acknowledgment of their actions. The money and paraphernalia were taken to police headquaters and the Chinamen, of whom there were sixteen present, will likely be summoned before the magistrate for gambling.

A Brutal Driver.

The manner in which one of the jockeys in a running race at Lake Ontario park yesterday, beat his mount was a downright shame. The animal had not the least chance of winning, yet the jockey slashed him with the whip in every heat. The poor animal's flanks were cut and blood trickled from the wounds. A resident of Watertown, N. Y., who saw the ill-usage stated that if such brutality took place in the United States the driver would be immediately arrested; he thought British law very lax if it allowed such conduct to go unpunished.

Of this number 200 went to Watertown by steamer America, via Cape Vincent, at 5 a.m.; 600 to Gananoque on the steamer America at 10 a.m.; 500 among the islands on the America at 2 p.m.; 400 on the steamer Empire State, from Ogdensburg to Kingston; 500 on the steamer New York from river points to Gananoque.

Tour Of The Tekona.

The steamyacht Tekona left on Saturday night for a tour of the Thousand Islands with the members of the Kingston union aboard, and arrived back late last night. Capt. A. H. Malone says that the yacht glided through many hitherto unknown channels, and in places where it was impossible to sail through, they carried the steam yacht over. At the foot of Howe island the Tekona met the sailing yacht Gloria and towed it to the city.

Water Running To Waste.

There is a serious leakage and a consequent waste of water from the water works service pipe in Tête de Pont barracks. This pipe, from which nearly all the water consumed in the barracks is drawn, is wide open and the water flows forth continuously. There seems to be no means of shutting off the flow, as the cross bar of the stop cock is missing. At a very low calculation four gallons of water passes from the pipe each minute, which would make a waste of 240 gallons an hour, or 5,760 gallons in twenty-four hours, quite a loss to the department.

Boy Run Down.

The one regrettable feature of the picnic at Lake Ontario park yesterday was an accident which nearly robbed a lad of life. While one of the running races was in progress little Willie Christmas, son of Mrs. Christmas, Ontario street, attempted to cross the track, two horses had gone past and he failed to observe the third. He got directly in front of Little Kate, ridden by John Gommer, and was knocked down. He was rendered unconscious and badly cut about the head and face, besides being severely shaken up. Three physicians present attended to his injuries.

The Lights Went Out.

A rather annoying incident occurred in St. George's cathedral Saturday evening. Workmen were busily engaged preparing for the opening, church workers were bustling about getting everything in readiness, and the choir was rehearsing, when suddenly the electric lights went out. The electrician was not present and could not be found, and the gas could not be used, for the reason that the fixtures had not been connected with the mains. In consequence, the absence of light brought all the work to a standstill, and in a few minutes the edifice was deserted.

King Liver

They go at once to the root of the trouble, liver soon acts cheerfully, digestion improves, and happiness brightens up the face of the bilious one. If bilious, or likely to be, buy Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut at all druggists.

SHE MAY HAVE FOUNDERED

SCHOONER PICTON DISAPPEARS IN STORM.

Story Told by Capt. Bongard, of the Schooner Acacia—The Picton Was Coal Laden From Charlotte to Belleville—An Old Craft.

What appears to have been the first disaster of the season on Lake Ontario occurred Saturday south-west of Sodus, N.Y. News of the disaster was brought to the city by Capt. Byron Bongard, of the schooner Acacia, which arrived at R. Crawford & Co's wharf, foot of Queen street, Saturday evening, after a rough trip across the lake. Capt. Bongard's story is to the effect that Saturday morning the schooners Acacia, Annie Minnes and Picton, all coal-laden, cleared from Charlotte, N.Y., Saturday. The two first named were bound for this port, but the Picton was destined for Belleville. Her cargo consisted of 350 tons of coal, which loaded her down pretty well. A stiff gale was blowing at the time and the three struggling schooners kept close together, the Picton standing off to westward, but following close in the route taken by the Acacia. The storm increased in fury towards the afternoon and between half past three and four o'clock it became too strong for the Picton; her captain evidently feared to continue the voyage as he reversed his tiller and headed the schooner for the south shore, pointing towards Oswego. About the time the Picton turned around a heavy squall struck the Acacia and kept those aboard quite busy for a few minutes steadying the craft. Looking around for the Picton Capt. Bongard saw her with all but one small sail reefed close. A second look a minute or two later failed to disclose the whereabouts of the Picton; she was no where to be seen. It was not possible for her to find shelter, as she was far from land, twenty-five miles to the south-west of Sodus.

Capt. Bongard took his glasses and mounted the shrouds of the Acacia, scanning the horizon at all points, but without gaining any sight of the unfortunate schooner. He concluded therefore, that she had foundered, carrying down with her all hands. She must have lurched over suddenly, filled and sank like a stone. It was Capt. Bongard's intention to render aid to the Picton had he seen that she was in distress, but the suddenness of her disappearance made this impossible. The crew of the Acacia share Capt. Bongard's belief that the Picton foundered, and that all hands were drowned.

The Picton was an old schooner, considered quite unfit to stand such a gale as swept over Lake Ontario on Friday and Saturday last. She was sailed by her owner, Capt. Sibley, of Belleville, whose wife and family were thought to have been aboard. The crew consisted of three or four men, all hailing from Belleville; one was named James Dunn. The suddenness of the fatality would not give the crew an opportunity to man the life boat, and even had this been done it is unlikely that the small boat would long live in such a heavy sea. Had the Acacia and Minnie Minnes not been staunch craft they could not have weathered the storm.

Capt. Bongard says the storm was the most severe he ever passed through. Capt. Buckley, of the steamer Columbia, saw the same thing. So also does Capt. Eford, of the steamer Toronto. The waves were rolling mountains high, the wind was squally, shifting constantly and coming in fierce gusts.

No Trace Of The Picton.

It is almost a certainty that the schooner Picton, with her cargo and crew, lie at the bottom of Lake Ontario. Nothing further has been heard of them. Capt. Bates left Oswego with the schooner Fabiola at eight o'clock Monday morning, and Capt. Ira Folger with the steamer King Ban at noon, and up to that time no tidings or trace had been received of the missing schooner. Both boats came across in the usual course, but no sign of the Picton was gleaned. All mariners are convinced that the Picton foundered.

Could Not Aid Sinking Ship.

Belleville, Ont., July 2—The schooner Annie Minnes arrived in port this morning, and her crew confirms the loss of the schooner Picton off Charlotte. Her captain says he was within two miles of the Picton when she foundered, but was unable to render any assistance.

The crew of the Picton were: Capt. John Sidley, his son, eleven years of age, Sylvester, mate Frank Smith; sailors Walter Dunn and William Bly, and cook Barney Ayres. Ayres and Smith have families. The other two are unmarried, but their parents and relations live here.

SWIFT'S SCRANTON COAL

Jas. Swift & Co.

Tried By Time.

If you let us furnish your coal this will prove—

That our coal is always as good as the best, always clean, always dry, and anxious to be burned.

That you always get the rock-bottom prices.

That you always get prompt and careful delivery.

We're always ready to prove all the things to you. Now is a good time to begin.

HARD WOOD, SOFT WOOD and KINDLING

P. WALSH

55-57 Barrack St.

JUST COAL.

Just the right weight to the ton.
Just the right hardness.
Just soft enough to light easily.
Just hard enough to burn well.
Just the same price as is charged for inferior coal.
