THE INDIANS ARE FRIENDLY

IDLE RUMORS CAUSED THE BIG SCARE.

Rainy River People Need Have No Fear of an Uprising—The Indians Simply Holding Their Annual Pow-Wow.

Toronto, July 3.—A despatch from Rat Portage sets at rest the rumors of an intended uprising of Indians in the Rainy river district. The despatch says: "The Indian scare has been dissipated by the return of Indian agent Levesque, and others who went to Big Grassy river yesterday to investigate the rumors that have caused so much anxiety. The party found about 450 Indians, men, women and children, camped on the beach holding a pow-wow. They came down to the shore to meet the steamer and were most profuse in their demonstrations of friendship towards the party on board. In conversation with the different chiefs, it was learned that pow-wow was the usual annual affair, and that it would end early next week. They were quite indignant over the reports that they had threatened the settlers in the Rainy River, and gave the stories an emphatic denial. There were only three United States Indians in the encampment and they came from War-Road, Minn.; and not from Leach Lake as reported. None of the chiefs had any grievances; they simply were having a good time, and a jollier crowd was never encountered even amongst white people.

Mayor McCarthy, of Rat Portage, was one of the party, and he has gone to Rainy River to assure the settlers that they need have no fear from the Indians. The settlers who were down on the Keewatin on Saturday evening, are still here, but will likely return to their homes this evening, as most of them are satisfied now that their fears are exaggerated.

ARE ENJOYING THEMSELVES.

The Armour Cadets Are Putting in a Good Time.

The Armour cadets, of Chicago, are evidently putting into effect the spirit of the song which says "Enjoy Yourselves." From the moment they struck the city up to the present they have been on the "go," and they are not "going" it alone; Kingston young ladies are noted for their hospitality, and have taken it upon themselves to make the visitors feel at home. Under the guidance of such charming companions the cadets visit all the beauty spots around the city and very much enjoy themselves. They will have to secure a new issue of buttons and decorations upon their return home, as they have been denuded of these useful ornaments.

The cadets have a fine drum and bugle corps, their bugles being softer toned than those to which Kingstonians are accustomed.

This morning the cadets had a "fishing parade," at three o'clock at the lake front. The total catch amounted to one innocent little perch. There is some talk of having the fish stuffed and mounted to keep as a souvenir of the occasion.

A piano has been mounted on the platform and on it the boys amuse themselves. There are some good musicians among them, and the air of the city hall is always heavy laden with sweet music.

To-night at the fair grounds the cadets will give an entertainment, assisted by the 14th regimental band. The affair ought to be well patronized, as the cadets will be sure to give the people their money's worth.

To-morrow they go down to Ogdensburg to take part in the celebration there and incidentally to view the beauties of the Thousand Islands. Thursday they will leave for home, stopping off one day at Belleville.

R. M. Henderson received a telegram from Chicago Sunday night on his return from church, from his Sabbath school children. There were twelve hundred and fifty-six present, all joined in kindly greetings.

The cadets have with them the silk union jack presented to them by the city of Toronto last year.

Aged Barriefield Resident Dead.

Barriefield mourns the loss of one of her oldest and most highly esteemed residents, John Ryan, postmaster, whose death occurred on Sunday morning, after lengthened illness. The deceased was eighty-seven years of age. He was born in County Clare, Ireland, and came out to Canada in 1837, settling in Barriefield, where he has resided ever since. A widow, two sons and two daughters survive. One son is judge Ryan, of Portage la Prairie, who will probably be home to attend the funeral. One of the daughters is a graduate of Queen's medical department, and a nurse of exceptional skill. The deceased gentleman was a member of St. Mary's cathedral, and a citizen held in great esteem by his fellowmen. His funeral will take place to-day to St. Mary's cemetery.

Their Fifty-Fifth Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hazlett, 151 Frontenac street, to-day celebrated the 55th anniversary of their marriage in county Derry, Ireland. Mr. Hazlett has been a resident in Kingston since 1851, and has been with the Calvin company for the past forty years. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hazlett are hale and hearty, and both seventy-two years of age. They are the parents of John, William, Thomas, Mrs. Kennedy, and Eliza in Kingston and George at Vancouver. Mr. Hazlett is a staunch conservative and an Orangeman, a good friend of the Whig and it is our wish that both he and Mrs. Hazlett may long be spared to enjoy each other's company.

Celebration At Gananoque.

About eight hundred from Kingston helped Gananoque to celebrate on Monday. There was a military parade in the morning, in which a detachment of the 14th regimental band took part. During the day there were races on the river by yachts and skiffs of the Kingston yacht club. The sailing race was won by the Kostrel, with the Tespi second and the Chickadee third. The excursionists arrived home last night at ten o'clock.

Are Being Re-Engaged.

A number of the Kingston young men, "kicked" out of the Crossman hotel at Alexandria Bay by the United States immigration inspector, returned to that place yesterday and to-day. They are taking advantage of the text of the alien labor law which permits of foreigners working in the United States if they are engaged in that country. The young men who have gone down have been re-engaged at the Crossman.

Information Wanted!

Richard B. Cook, of New York, writes city clerk Shannon, asking for information regarding Azel Cook, born in Kingston on September 10th, 1831, and his sister, Miss Lucinda Cook, born September 19th, 1829. Their father's name also was Azel and he lived in Kingston a long while. The clerk was unable to give the information, as there was no city register of births, etc., at that time.

Fell From The Scaffold.

Harry W. Watts, a carpenter contractor residing at 107 York street, met with a serious accident at noon to-day. He was working on a scaffolding at Cataraqui, when he fell, fracturing his arm. Dr. Bell reduced the fracture.

Dynamite Caps Exploded.

Louis Gendron a miner living at Arden, was brought to the general hospital on Monday. On Friday night some dynamite caps exploded in one of his pockets, and he was badly injured about the groin.

WELCOME AND GOOD-WILL.

ARMOUR CADETS AT ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH.

An Eloquent Sermon by Rev. J. Mackie—Exhorts the Cadets to be Men—National Hymns Sung.

Two empires by the sea,
Two peoples great and free,
One anthem raise.
One name of ancient fame,
One tongue, one faith we claim,
One God whose glorious name
We love and praise.

Headed by their unique bugle and drum corps, the Armour cadets, of Chicago, marched up Princess street Sunday to St. Andrew's church evening service. They were allotted special space immediately in front of the pulpit. The chaplain, Rev. J. Henderson, occupied a seat on the platform. Rev. John Mackie, M.A., pastor, conducted the service and preached an eloquent sermon from the text, "Be men"—I Cor. xvi, 13. Treating his subject in a physical and moral sense he concluded with the highest attainment, spiritual courage, and then alluded to the Armour cadets, whom he more particularly addressed as follows:

"Every lad in every land needs advice like this, for every lad, unless advised and persuaded, will not shape his life to noble deeds and be a hero. And every land needs noble lives; needs heroic men. Be such in your land, young Americans; be such and so increase the greatness of your great country, for a country's greatness is a country's goodness. Be such and greatly add to the great glory of your glorious republic, for the glory of a republic like the glory of a monarchy, is the high-souled courage of her sons, men who are head and shoulders—every inch of them, above the cowardly, the dishonorable, the disingenuous, the irreligious.

"Your country and mine have such such men. We have them to-day in undiminished number and multiplied force, that give our union jack and your stars and stripes to the breeze without a rent and without a stain, and sends them floating farther than ever beyond the polluting of the baser sort. Let us keep them flying thus, fittily, proudly, touching each other, blending together and now apart—separate as independent, mighty nations, while inseparable in righteous action, noble sentiment, exalted aim and heavenly aspiration. Let us, let you, the coming men, the fortunate heirs of the two greatest, grandest countries under the sun, so quit yourselves from the very threshhold of your manhood, that one in origin, in language, and in faith, one mighty people may be one heart-bound brotherhood, in perpetual holy crusade, against tyrannies and wrongs and all unmanliness of men, and nations where ever found mid the ancient monarchies of the old world or the modern republics of the new. Be men! Oh! youths of both lands and this will be."

After the sermon a hymn, combining a verse each of the British national anthem and the United States national hymn, and the stanza at the beginning of this article, was heartily sung. The choir was in good form and sang the anthem, "Depth of Mercy." A fine bass solo "Recessional" was rendered by Arthur Craig during the offertory. The choir gallery was draped with the union jack and stars and stripes, and the whole service was one of welcome and good-will.

Came Home To Die.

Strathcona, July 2.—On July 1st the flag was flying over the Orange hall. To-day the races are held in Napanee. W. McConnell has left the cement works; he intends going west. Miss Baker is spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. Rickson. Mrs. Rickson was summoned to Binghamton, N.Y., a short time ago, where her sister died suddenly of hemorrhage of the lungs. The sisters are terribly stricken with grief. Sermons will be delivered in both churches next Sunday to the Orangemen. Harry Hanes, who came here several weeks ago from Fitchburg, Mass., ill with consumption, died on Friday last at the residence of R. Harrington, Richmond. He left this country about five years ago. His father, brother and mother died here. He is the last of a once happy family, who came to Canada from England to better their fortune. He wished to be buried beside the other members of his family, so while able to make the journey returned to this country. He leaves a wife, but no children. Mrs. J. Murphy is about the house after six weeks of illness. Mrs. (Dr.) Hammond, Winnebago City, Minn., and Miss Asselstine, Morrow, were the guests of Mrs. Lott on Monday.

Joyceville Judgments.

Joyceville, July 3.—Some of the farmers have commenced haying, and report a very light crop. A number attended the celebration in Gananoque yesterday. H. Milne, Dakota, has left for his home after visiting relatives here. Little Willie Heaney, who stepped on a rusty nail last week, is suffering from blood poisoning. He was taken to the Hotel Dieu, Kingston. He is improving. The new appointed minister of St. James' church has succeeded in drawing a good attendance to his Sabbath services. He has organized a class for choral practice on Wednesday evenings, and, it is hoped, the young people will attend. Mrs. John Donaldson has returned after spending a few days in Kingston.

Columbian For Belleville Friday.

Steamer leaves Swift's wharf 9 a.m.; two hours in Belleville; home 9 a.m. Fare 50c.

James Connell, of North Augusta, who about a year ago was swindled out of about $5,000 by confidence men, went down to Montreal and looked over the two young men in jail there charged with attempting to perpetrate a gold brick swindle. He was unable to identify them.

Gordon Thompson, Trenton, while sitting at the lock on Thursday night took an epileptic fit and fell into the water. When found life was extinct. Deceased was forty years of age and leaves a widow.

Operations will commence shortly at the Brockville peat works. The delay was caused by the non-arrival of a dryer. This has now arrived, and is being placed in position.

John H. Allan and Miss Belle Beresford, were married at Picton on Thursday. The couple left on a trip to Paris, France.

Miss Adelia Bell, Brockville, second daughter of the late Rev. J. D. Bell, and John B. Lillie were married on Saturday.

JUST THE THING FOR HER.

Mrs. I. H. Show, of Calgary, N.W.T., Suffered From Shattered Nerves and Was a Victim of Constipation.

Celery King Made Her a Different Person.

Tired nature has to give out some time, especially in indoor work. That is where the woman has to suffer more particularly. Her delicate organization will not always stand the terribly exhausting strain put upon it. Mrs. I. H. Show, a seamstress, of Calgary, found that the confining work in which she was engaged almost destroyed her constitution. This is what she says:

"The fifth of August I received a sample of Celery King that I had seen advertised. I had been suffering with indigestion for over a year and had been taking medicine from our physician since spring. I got better but did not get well, I was very costive and terribly nervous. My nerves have been bad for years, always shaky in my hands. At times I would get nervous spells at night. I would feel as though I could not get my breath. I would be more that way in warm weather. When I received Celery King I started taking it right away and before I had taken very much began to feel ever so much better. I am almost well now. I was miserable and did not feel like doing anything or going any place. Now I feel so much better and everyone says that my appearance has improved greatly. I can say thruthfully that Celery King has made me feel like a different person. My age is forty-two years. I am a seamstress and had suffered for years from indigestion, constipation and nervousness.

Yours truly,
MRS. I. H. SHOW.

THE CITY AND THE SEA.

Miss E. Pauline Johnson.

To none the city bends a servile knee,
Pride-proud and scornful, on her heights she stands,
And at her feet the great, white, moaning sea
Shoulders incessantly the gray-gold sands.
One—the Almighty's child since time began,
And one—the might of Mammon, born of clods,
For all the city is the work of man,
But all the sea is God's.

And she, between the ocean and the town,
Lies, cursed of one, and by the other blest,
Her staring eyes, her long drenched hair, her gown,
Sea-layed, and soiled and dank above her breast.
She—image of her God, since life began,
Life—but the might of Mammon, born of clods,
Her broken body, spoiled and spurned of man,
But her sweet soul is God's.

HITHER AND YON.

Theodosia Garrison in Truth.

"When I am dead," she said, "I pray you, dear,
Think of me as not far away, but here
Beside you, ever in the sweet, old place,
Where we sat hand in hand and face to face,
Not as a homesick soul in some far sphere.

"Through all the days and nights shall I be near,
In summer twilights or when earth is sere,
Lo! I shall beg of death for this one grace,
When I am dead.

"Not as a sad-eyed ghost will I appear,
I shall bring all of comfort, naught of fear,
Only the woman that you love will come,
No death is strong enough to hold me dumb
Or helpless, summoned by your lightest tear,
When I am dead."

IF I CAN LIVE.

Helen Hunt Jackson.

If I can live
To make some pale face brighter and to give
A second lustre to some tear-dimmed eye,
Or e'en impart
One throb of comfort to an aching
Or cheer some wayworn soul in passing by,
If I can lend
A strong hand to the fallen or defend
The right against a single envious
My life, though bare,
Perhaps, of much that seemeth dear and fair
To us of earth, will not have been in vain.
The purest joy,
Most near to heaven, far from earth's alloy,
Is hidding cloud give way to sun and
And 'twill be well
If on that day of days the angels tell
Of me, she did her best for one of Thine.

OUR POINT OF VIEW.

Alfred Austin.

Is life worth living? Yes, so long
As there is wrong to right,
Wail of the weak against the strong,
Or tyranny to fight.

Long as there lingers gloom to chase,
Or gleaming tear to dry,
One kindred woe, one sorrowing face,
That smiles as we draw nigh

Look as the tide of anguish swells
The heart, and lids grow wet,
And at the sound of Christmas bells
We pardon and forget.

So long as faith with freedom reigns,
And loyal hope survives,
And gracious charity remains
To leaven lowly lives,

While there is one untrodden tract
For intellect or will,
And men are free to think and act,
Life is worth living still.

It is understood that the law will take its course in the case of Dubois, under sentence of death at Quebec.

The Backaching Kidney Sufferer is not Referred to Far Away People for Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablet Evidence. The Great Kidney Remedy Rolls up Volumes of Proof in every Community. In Kingston.

Mrs. M. Craig, 28 Pink street, says: "I have taken Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, and, though I have not taken them regularly, I can honestly recommend them for the back and kidneys. They proved in my case very beneficial for rheumatism. I had been troubled ever since I was [illegible], and though from time to time I had relief, yet I have never had anything so prompt as Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets that J. B. McLeod introduced. They are easily taken and mild in their effects. For headaches and backaches I have had nothing to equal them. The next time I am going to give them a fair chance and take the whole bottle before stopping, heretofore as soon as I obtained relief I stopped them."

Mrs. Hiram Casey, 309 Brock street, says: "I have used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets, procured from J. B. McLeod, the Princess street druggist, and I found them good. I had pain and lameness in my back that caused me sharp twinges when stooping or lifting and sapped me of energy. Added to this I had pain in the back of my neck and annoyance from the kidney secretions. These Tablets invigorated my kidneys, they strengthened my back, removed the indigestion that was beginning to assert itself, and I have no hesitancy in recommending them."

If you have the slightest symptom of kidney or bladder trouble you can test this great medicine free. Arrangements have been made whereby every reader of this paper can obtain a trial package of Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets absolutely free by enclosing two cent stamp for postage to the Dr. Pitcher Tablet Co., Toronto, Ont. When giving address mention this paper. If you are convinced Pitcher's Tablets are what you want you can purchase regular size for 50c. per bottle. If not obtainable at druggist's, mailed free of postage on receipt of price.
