Goalie's first shutout, forward's hot streak help Hornets win two of three

Daniela Paniccia made 31 saves for her first Provincial Women's Hockey League shutout, leading the Oakville Hornets to a 4-0 win over the Aurora Panthers Saturday at Joshua's Creek Arenas.

Jennifer MacAskill, Kirsten Miller, Christina Putigna and Cassidy MacPherson scored for the Hornets, who were playing their third game in as many days. Oakville lost 4-3 to the Brampton Canadettes Thursday in Brampton, then defeated the Southwest Wildcats 6-2 Friday at Joshua's Creek.

MacPherson recorded seven points during the three-game stretch, notching a goal and two assists in both of the Hornets' first two contests. Putigna scored once in each game, while Olivia Atkinson struck for a hat trick and added a helper in the win over Southwest. Miller had the Hornets' other goal against Southwest, when Stephanie Loukes turned aside 22 shots to earn the victory in net.

Oakville has won five of its past eight games, improving to 13-14-4-1 on the season.

The Hornets face another three-games-in-three-days schedule this weekend as they travel to eastern Ontario for contests against Nepean (Friday), Ottawa (Saturday) and Kingston (Sunday).

Oakville's next home game is slated for Tuesday, Feb. 18 against Cambridge — the Hornets' final home date of the regular season.

Chetrat repeats as OUA's male swimmer of the year

White Oaks high school grad Zack Chetrat was named a repeat winner of the Ontario University Athletics male swimmer-of-the-year award last weekend at the provincial university championships in St. Catharines.

The 23-year-old Chetrat won five gold medals at the meet, leading the University of Toronto Blues to their 11th straight OUA men's team championship and their 62nd all-time. The Blues also edged out five-time defending champion Western to win the women's team crown.

Chetrat swept the 50-metre, 100m and 200m butterfly events and was presented with a Major Grand Slam award after winning his fifth OUA 200m butterfly title. His time in the 100m win set an OUA record.

A five-time OUA all-star and four-time CIS all-Canadian, Chetrat added a silver in 400m freestyle and was also a part of two victorious U of T relay teams at the meet (800m freestyle, 400m medley).

The Oakville Aquatic Club (OAK) product will finish his university swimming career in his home pool as U of T hosts the Canadian Interuniversity Sport championships Feb. 20-22. Chetrat won a gold and two silvers at last year's CIS championships in Calgary.

Other Oakville swimmers to earn medals at the OUA meet were McMaster's Kurt Schubert (bronze in 200m and 400m freestyle relays) and Gamal As-saad (bronze in 50m butterfly and 200m medley relay). Kent Kikot, a former OAK swimmer who resides in Burlington, joined Chetrat on U of T's victorious 800m freestyle relay team.
