GERALDINE'S LETTER.

Easter Eve, 1898! The eve of the bright, glad season that has been handed down to us from that "first day of the week, very early in the morning," when Mary Magdalene made her way to the holy sepulchre in that far Eastern land, and there received the tidings of the reality of what we denominate "Easter." Coming after the harrowing events of that terrible Friday, when she and all the disciples felt the very foundations of their faith tottering as they saw their Master undergo all the bitterness of a shameful death, what a dazzling glory the Easter dawn brought to them! We, upon each successive Easter eve, can calmly contemplate the past, and, while joining in the properly mournful services of Good Friday, can see the golden edges of the cloud which we know will break and show us the brightness beyond. But those early disciples had no glimpses of the resplendent lining to the cloud which enveloped that day of sorrow, and that long Saturday, the the Jewish Sabbath,—our Easter eve—was a day of sad and weary waiting until it should be lawful for them to visit the tomb. With the early dawn came the first visitor—the woman who loved much because much had been forgiven. She had no presentiment of the joy that awaited her, but she marvelled when she found that the stone had been rolled away, and that the crucified One had been removed. Her cry of despair, "They have taken away my Lord and I cannot tell where they have laid Him" was answered by one word, "Mary!" then the veil was lifted from her eyes and her Easter dawned.

"Then the sun revealed its brightness,
Gleams of gold dispelled the gray,
All in earth and Heaven rejoicing,
'Christ hath gone to lead the way.'"

Thus was shown the bright side to the darkest tragedy in all the world's history, the pledge to man that death is swallowed up in victory. And since victory over death has been achieved, we look for an Easter out of every kind of trial,—the lesser is implied in the greater—so that in every sorrow, however hopeless it may seem during the interval of despair between the Good Friday and the Easter, yet the Easter dawn will, of a surety, break, and reveal the hidden glory. The "Sabbath" intervening between the crucifixion and the resurrection of our hopes may seem well nigh interminable,

"But Easter day breaks! Hat,
Christ rises! Mercy every way
Is infinite—and who can say?"

A unique undertaking in magazine literature has been presented to the reading public in "The Newspaper Magazine," published in New York under the editorship of Deshler Welch. The aim of the new venture is the compilation of a number of the best newspaper articles from contemporary journals, to which end the publishing company has arranged an exchange with one thousand newspapers, so the magazine will draw its supply from a very extensive source. And what an extraordinary responsibility will rest upon the editor, and upon those associated with him in reading the exchanges,—for one individual could not possibly read thirty thousand papers every month! But the result of that enormous task will be the selection of stories and articles that are best worth preserving, and this "creme de la creme" of the daily journals will be collected in magazine form, printed on good paper in large, clear type, and offered to the public, at the beginning of each month, for fifteen cents. I have found great pleasure in the perusal of the initial number (April). The articles contained therein show the nice discrimination exercised by the compiler, and, as may be supposed, the variety of subjects is literally encyclopedian, so that there is something to suit the taste of every reader. I heard of a little boy who was found in the library reading the Encyclopedia, and, when asked how he liked it, he answered, "Algebra's rather stupid, but Alligators is bully." So, in reading The Newspaper Magazine, if one article fails to interest the reader, there will certainly be others that will prove attractive, as the magazine is "for the million." The publication will assuredly meet with success, and it will give longer life and broader circulation to many clever articles which deserve a less ephemeral fate than that met by the contents of our eagerly looked for, hastily read, and straightway thrown aside, daily newspapers.

The children who are interesting themselves in a forthcoming entertainment are on the tip-toe of excitement over the affair which is to be on an elaborate scale. There is to be a Cinderella, with her cruel sisters and her kind fairy god-mother, and all the other wonderful surroundings of the fascinating fairy tale. There are to living pictures and other attractive features on the programme, and the grand finale is to be a cake walk, when a "real cake" will be awarded to the best walker. The papers will give all further details as to time, place, and admission, but little girls who are to take part want me to assure the readers of this column that the entertainment is to be "just perfectly splendid."

Easter Morning.

O happy Easter morning!
To hail the dawning rays
We join with all the ransomed
In songs of grateful praise;
The weary night is ended,
The heavy shadow fled,
Since Christ the Lord ascended
In triumph from the dead.

O holy Easter morning!
Thy glory shines within
And calls our souls to hasten
Eternal joys to win;
Since we with Christ are risen
We triumph in His grace,
And press to that dear country
Where we shall see His face.

O blessed Easter morning!
No more in hopeless woe
We see our loved departing
And know not where they go;
The light of Christ's awakening
On every tomb is shed,
And bids us seek our living
No more among the dead.

O glorious Easter morning!
O dawn of Christ's glad reign!
Spread wide thy blessed radiance,
Shine on o'er sea and plain;
The nations wait thy fullness,
The prisoner longs to see
The Christ of God anointed
To set the captive free.

—Emily Huntington Miller, in "The Palm Branch."

Singers, Clergymen, Politicians.

The well known comedy singers, Fostell & Emmett, say: "Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder is the most wonderful medicine we have ever heard of or used, especially for people in our profession, who are troubled with sore throat, hoarseness, tonsilitis and catarrh. Myself and wife are troubled with tonsilitis and catarrh. We have tried everything we know of, but found nothing to equal Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder for quick action and permanent cure." Fifty members of parliament and leading ministers of the Episcopal, Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Roman Catholic churches have testified over their own signatures to the effectiveness of this wonderful remedy. Sold by W. H. Medley.

Desert Lake Doings.

DESERT LAKE, April 9.—The recent frost has stopped ploughing for the present here and farmers are busy making fences and fixing things generally. P. Martin is moving on the farm lately occupied by J. Whaley. Mr. and Mrs E. H. Snook have returned from visiting friends in Westport. Perhaps it would not seem amiss to mention that we have an old lady in the person of Mrs. McAllister, 105 years old; she is still well preserved both in mind and body. She has been a resident of this locality for over fifty years. Mrs. William Snook presented her husband with a baby girl recently. J. Murphy is moving to Sunbury. Our school is progressing under the management of Miss Wood. A wedding expected soon.

HEAD A MASS OF SCABS

COULDN'T GO NEAR THE STOVE.

Treated by Different Doctors.

CURED BY DR. CHASE.

The most intractable and distressing skin diseases which defy all manner of treatment—even the best medical skill—are readily cured by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

MRS. JOS. QUERIN, hotelkeeper's wife, at Ethel, Ont., was troubled with Eczema of the Head and Face for about 9 years, and was so bad at times she could not go near the hot stove to do her cooking. Her head was one mass of scabs, and although she treated with doctors it kept getting worse. On hearing of Dr. Chase's Ointment, she got some, and was delighted to find the first application do her good. She used two more boxes of the Ointment, is now free from disease, can do her own cooking, and would not begrudge $200 for the good it has done her.

Price 60 cents a box, at all Dealers, or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont.

Death Of An Ex-M.P.P.

PICTON, Ont., April 9.—John Caven, ex-M.P.P., died at his home in Marysburg township yesterday of heart failure aged sixty-five years. Mr. Caven was formerly for many years prominently identified with the conservative politics of this county, but when the patron movement was inaugurated a few years ago he enthusiastically espoused the patron cause and in the provincial elections of 1893 was elected on its behalf to represent Prince Edward. He was defeated for re-election at the recent general elections. Mr. Caven leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters.

Free Trial To Any Honest Man

The Foremost Medical Company in the World in the Cure of Weak Men Makes this Offer.

HEALTH AND ENERGY ASSURED. HAPPY MARRIAGE, GOOD TEMPER, LONG LIFE.

In all the world to-day—in all the history of the world—no doctor nor institution has treated and restored so many men as has the famed ERIE MEDICAL CO. of Buffalo, N. Y.
This is due to the fact that the company controls some inventions and discoveries which have no equal in the whole realm of medical science.

So much deception has been practiced in advertising that this grand old company now for the first time makes this startling offer:—
They will send their costly and magically effective appliance and a whole month's course of restorative remedies, positively on trial without expense to any honest and reliable man!
Not a dollar need be advanced—not a penny paid—till results are known to and acknowledged by the patient.
The Erie Medical Company's appliance and remedies have been talked about and written about all over the world, till every man has heard of them.
They restore or create strength, vigor, healthy tissue and new life.
They quickly stop drains on the system that sap the energy.
They cure nervousness, despondency and all the effects of evil habits, excesses, over work; etc.
They give full strength, development and tone to every portion and organ of the body.
Failure is impossible and age is no barrier.
This "Trial without Expense" offer is limited by the company to a short time, and application must be made at once.
No C. O. D. scheme, no bogus philanthropy nor deception, no exposure—a clean business proposition by a company of high financial and professional standing.
Write to the ERIE MEDICAL COMPANY BUFFALO, N.Y., and refer to seeing the account of their offer in this paper.

CITY TENDERS AWARDED.

Prices Lower Than Last Year—General Business of Board of Works.

The board of works met on Thursday afternoon with the following present: Chairman Carson, Alds Toye, Johns and Robinson. Tenders for supplies were opened and considered. The firms receiving contracts were, Dalton & Strange, hardware; Rathbun Co., lumber, etc; James Skinner, smithwork. The agreement for the street railway spur to Clark's malt house was left over for consideration at a special meeting, to be held next week. It was city solicitor McIntyre's wish that all members of the committee be present when the matter was to be dealt with.

The Warden-Scharf paving company, Toronto, will be asked figures for paving streets. J. P. Gildersleeve's claim for damages for destruction to household goods, owing to choking of drain on Gore street, was referred to the city engineer to report.

John Gray and others wrote, asking for an advance on broken stone account, and the committee will recommend that the sum of $500 be advanced, still leaving to the credit of the stone breakers some three or four hundred dollars.

The petition from citizens for the opening of John street from Montreal to Bagot streets, was referred to the city engineer to report on the estimated cost.

J. C. Swain's letter touching the price of land wanted by the city, and which he offers for the sum of $40 or $50, was referred to the city solicitor for his consideration. Several accounts were signed for payment.

Flora Has Not Lost Her Charms.

PEMBROKE, Ont., April 9.—Flora McPherson, of Ottawa or thereabouts, who came into prominence last winter as wife No. 3 of Thomas Costello, now doing time for bigamy, has not yet given up the notion of having some one to cherish and protect her.

Over a week ago she started from town clandestinely with a sixteen year old boy named William Hanwell. No trace of them could be obtained till Saturday last, when it was learned the pair were at a farm house not far from town.

The boy's father, accompanied by constable Barrand, went out and brought the boy home, and left Flora, the loveable, free to go her way in search of conquests new.

Suddenly Ordered Away.

HALIFAX, N.S., April 9.—The second battalion of Royal Leinsters, now stationed in Halifax have received sudden and unexpected orders to prepare to embark on May 5th for another station. It is unknown yet to what garrison they are to be transferred but it is supposed that they will go to some port of the West Indies. The regiment arrived here only six months ago and was expected to remain in Halifax for three years. It will be succeeded here, it is expected, by the first battalion of Royal Leinsters (the Royal Canadian) now stationed in Ireland.

The British government is sending 2,000 troops to reinforce the garrison of Jamaica. The second battalion of the Leinster regiment which is stationed in Halifax has received orders to embark on May 5th.

Not Having Seen, Yet Believe.

From the German.

We saw Thee not, when Thou didst tread,
O Saviour, this our sinful earth;
Nor heard Thy voice restore the dead,
And waken them to second birth;
Yet we believe that Thou didst come
And quit for us Thy glorious home.

We were not with the faithful few,
Who stood Thy bitter cross around;
Nor heard Thy prayer for those who slew,
Nor felt that earthquake rock the ground.
We saw no spear-wound pierce Thy side;
But we believe that Thou hast died.

No angel's message met our ear,
On that first glorious Easter-day;
"The Lord is risen. He is not here;
"Come see the place where Jesus lay."
But we believe that Thou didst quell
The banded powers of death and hell.

We saw Thee not return on high;
And now, our longing sight to bless,
No ray of glory from the sky
Shines down upon our wilderness;
But we believe that Thou art there,
And seek Thee, Lord, in praise and prayer.

Demanding Reparation.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 9.—Telegrams received at Shanghai report that a chapel in Chung King, Kiaou province, belonging to an American mission has been attacked by rioters and some persons of the mission have been murdered. The United States consul has demanded from the tacto, first, that the soldiers shall be disbanded; second, that the murderers shall be put to death and the ring leaders arrested; third, that 500 taels be paid as compensation for the chapel destroyed, and fourth, that full protection be given to the missionaries when they return.

To Stand Trial Again

PARIS, April 9.—The officers composing the court-martial which acquitted count Esterhazy met yesterday and decided to commence civil actions against M. Emile Zola and M. Perreaux, publisher of the Aurore, recently sentenced to imprisonment, and who were also fined for making charges which were not sustained against the conduct of the court-martial. The officers also expressed the wish that the minister for war would ask that M. Zola be expelled from the legion of honor.

War In Another Spanish Island.

VANCOUVER, B.C., April 9.—War is raging in the island of Luzon and is rapidly assuming as serious proportions as the rebellion of 1896-7. Attacks were made upon the Spanish quarters at Subigandapalit, the rebels capturing and carrying off large quantities of ammunition. All the northern provinces are affected. The natives refuse the taxes. Many of the rich natives and half castes are closing their business places and are preparing to leave the island.
