THE "E. & D."

TUNE—"BOOM-TA-RA-RA."

The E. & D. is the wheel for me,
It climbs the hills so easily;
You don't have to soil your toilet,
For you never clean or oil it.

CHORUS:—
Boom ta-ra-ra boom be a,
Boom ta-ra-ra boom be a.
[Repeat.]

If there is a "run" I set the "pace,"
The others think they're in the race,
But they're not in it, push as they may,
I'm always the fellow that wins the day.

CHORUS:—"Ta-ra ra."

Bicycles good and bicycles bad,
Dear and cheap may all be had;
But if good value you wish to get,
The E. & D. is the wheel, you bet.

CHORUS:—"Ta-ra-ra."

It is always rigid, always true,
There is nothing about it to trouble you;
So if a leader you would be,
Throw away that wheel and get an E & D.

CHORUS:—"Ta-ra ra."

THE 4 P. M. EDITION.

FELL INTO THE HOLD.

Frederick Duncan, of the Steamer Brittanica, Suffers Severe Injuries.

Frederick Duncan, sailor on the steamer Brittanica, unloading at the M.T. company's elevators, fell into the hold of the steamer this morning and sustained injuries, which may result fatally. While performing his usual nautical duties he tripped over the combings and fell a distance of eighteen feet. He struck on his shoulders and one side of his head. The crew heard the fall and went to the young man's assistance. On picking him up they found that he was bleeding profusely from the left ear but still conscious. Dr. T. M. Fenwick and Reid's ambulance were summoned and the doctor had him removed to the general hospital. One rib was slightly fractured and but for the hemorrhage from the ear, which probably bespeaks some internal rupture, he is otherwise all right. Frederick Duncan's home is in Port Huron, and the captain of the steamer will hold his vessel over for a few hours in the hope that Duncan will be sufficiently recovered for removal to his home. The steamer was to sail at four o'clock this afternoon.

Dredging Kingston Harbor.

A great number of citizens have been watching the operations of dominion government dredge No. 8, opposite the foot of Princess street. Her work here, in making an eighteen foot channel, will occupy her all this season and a good part of next year. The eighteen feet will be provided for at low water mark, necessitating the deepening now to a depth of twenty and a half feet. Rotary dredging is a new feature here, and the powerful machine is well worthy of a visit. Engineer Cowie, public works department, started the crew at their work and returned to Ottawa last night. He is one of the busiest men in the dominion employment, constantly moving about overlooking operations and starting new works. It was under his direction that the survey of the harbor took place last winter and that the first complete map has been completed, showing the depths from Belle's island far out into the lake. Above Cataraqui bridge there is no depth above nine feet at low water mark. The government plan shows the proposed breakwater above the government dry dock. It would have to be located in water at a depth of thirty-five feet, costing over $50,000. In the channel as laid out on this harbor survey map no rock is encountered. The dredging will be in soft clay.

Facts For Faddists.

KINGSTON, May 19.—(To the Editor): By the band playing in the park on Sunday as proposed it will draw numerous young men from their usual occupation of hunting for a drink.

It will prevent strangers from trespassing on private property of public interest by congregating these strangers in the park.

It will, in listening to those grand old hymns, induce a spirit of reverence in most of those present.

It will promote rest for the body and soul of the multitude, the primary object of the Sabbath.

Do not these alone, apart from the question of personal liberty and precedents, overweigh the christian endeavor union's opposing argument of a decreased Sunday school attendance?—VOLUNTEER.

There Are Two Ways.

The Bennett property was bought in yesterday by Rev. R. W. Rayson for another person. In this connection, be it said, there is no occasion for the way newspaper offices are visited. Reporters do not wilfully make mis-statements, receiving information from supposedly reliable persons only. In this case the auctioneer who sold the property, and who surely would be looked upon as a trustworthy informant, called at the WHIG office and said that Mr. Rayson had purchased the property. That clergyman is so courteous to newspapers of Kingston that the WHIG makes no complaint regarding him; but there are others. Journalists of Kingston desire to be courteous and just, yet their treatment is very often uncivil and ungenerous.

Examination Of N.C. Officers.

Twenty-four non-commissioned officers of the 14th battalion, P.W.O. rifles, are undergoing an examination before a board of examiners composed of major Galloway, chairman; Capt. Sutherland and Capt. Cunningham. In the written examinations some of the writers did remarkably well, and in the practical so far the work has been well done. To-morrow night the examinations will be concluded by a test in manual exercise and company drill. The certificates issued as a result of these will be purely regimental, being only good for the 14th battalion.

Advertising Has Done It.

There is such a rush for Cleveland bicycles that orders placed three weeks ago from Kingston are not yet filled, nor likely to be soon. Orders are recorded at Toronto factory for 1,500. The company has done extensive advertising this year, leading all other makers in quantity, and the great rush is due in large part to printers' ink.

CALL FOR MORE VOLUNTEERS

FOUR AMERICAN MONITORS GUARDING HAVANA HARBOR.

The Possibility of Other Nations Being Drawn Into the War Makes It Wise For the States to be Prepared—A Supply of Coal Ready For Spain's Fleet—Part of Spanish Fleet Sighted Off Jamaica.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—An official, who is close to the president, said that the four monitors, Puritan, Amphitrite, Terror and Miantonomoh, are now in front of Havana. He takes this to indicate a re-arrangement of the squadrons of Sampson and Schley. He is confident they can whip Cervera badly.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—The state and navy departments place much credence in the report from Porto Plata that the Spanish squadron has reached San Juan, but they have been unable to confirm it. None of the scouts have reported the fleet.

McKinley is being strongly urged to call for 100,000 more volunteers. One of the strongest arguments advanced for calling out additional volunteers without delay is that with this reserve of 100,000 men under arms in the United States the president would be able to send enough men to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines at once to insure the early success of the campaigns in these places without feeling that he was leaving the United States totally unprepared. While complications with other European nations are not thought to be probable, the fact is recognized by the military authorities that it is possible that other nations may be drawn into the war, and it is regarded as the part of the United States to be thoroughly prepared.

PARIS, May 19.—Mr. Chamberlain's sensational speech is undeniably responsible for a decided feeling of nervousness here. The French press begins to see it has adopted a mistaken policy in declaring so pronouncedly for Spain as opposed to the United States. The Debate in a leader published on Monday tries to smooth away matters. It admits the the English have profitted by France's action in this matter.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A St. Pierre, Martinique, special says: "Three unknown steamers passed Martinique yesterday bound northwest. It is reported that the Twickenham has a supply of coal for Spain's fleet. The Spanish torpedo boat destroyer is coaling at Fort de France. The Alicanti still remains.

NEW YORK, May 19.—A dispatch from Kingston, Jamaica, says a number of large steamers, apparently warships, passed Port Morant at the extreme east end of Jamaica yesterday afternoon. It is thought they belonged to the Spanish fleet.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Information has reached the state department that German gunners have been assigned to the Spanish fleet fitting out at Cadiz. The German ambassador will be asked whether the report is true.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—Arrangements are completed by which the newspaper correspondents Thrall and Jones will be exchanged for Col. Cortijo, a relative of Gen. Weyler, and surgeon Julian, Spanish officers now at Fort McPherson, Ga.

LONDON, May 19.—A despatch to the Star from Montreal published to-day says senor Polo y Bernabe has secured by cable a coal depot near St. Pierre Miquelon, the French colony off the south coast of Newfoundland, at which the Cadiz squadron will coal previous to attacking the Atlantic seaboard of the United States, while the Cape Verde squadron, commanded by admiral Cervera, draws off the squadrons commanded by rear admiral Sampson and commodore Schley.

WASHINGTON, May 19.—A new light has been thrown upon the seizure in Cuban waters of numerous Spanish vessels as American prizes by the receipt by the navy department of a cablegram from the committee of Lloyds underwriters association, pointing out that most of the captured vessels are insured by that association, and that consequently Great Britain is really the loser by the captures, and not the Spaniards.

Instigated By Priests

VANCOUVER, May 19.—News was brought by the Empress of India yesterday that prior to the destruction of the Spanish fleet by commodore Dewey the Spaniards bombarded Cebu, the third city of the Philippines, which was completely wrecked, thirty Chinese being killed. It is said that no necessity existed for shelling the city, as if troops had been landed they could could have defeated any number of rebels. The Spanish troops met with opposition in landing, the rebels having absconded before they fired, taking with them about $200,000 in cash. No European casualties were reported. On the bombardment the foreigners hoisted their national flags which were respected by the Spanish admiral. It is stated that priests were at the bottom of Cebu rising.

Notes From The Field.

The Empress of India brings advices that crime is rampant in the Philippines.

While a party of British soldiers were boating at Gibraltar they attempted to land on Spanish territory, but were fired upon, wounding one man.

The bombardment of Santiago is thought to have been done in accordance with the plan to isolate Blanco by cutting the cable running from Santiago to Jamaica.

The United States auxiliary cruiser Harvard has suddenly darted out of the harbor of St. Pierre, Martinique, and there is much speculation as to her destination. She got away without being followed as the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror is still coaling at Fort de France.

Nine warships are reported to have passed Indian island, off Cape Lahave, to the west of Halifax, this afternoon. They were steaming at a moderate speed, in a southerly direction, but were too far from shore for their nationality to be made out.

Killed While Asleep.

LONDON, Ont., May 19.—A violent storm broke over the city last night. Rain and hail fell, while lightning was vivid and thunder terrific. The house of J. B Allenby, Dundas street, was struck by lightning and Mr. Allenby killed as he lay in bed. When his children found him his whiskers and hair were ablaze. The eldest daughter succeeded in smothering the flames. An examination showed the body to be badly burned, particularly about the head and breast. Death had been instantaneous. There were two holes in the ceiling just over the bed. A picture had been knocked from the wall, and the bed had also caught fire.

Preparing Another Bill.

OTTAWA, May 18.—It is rumored that the government will bring down another Yukon railway arrangement with Mackenzie and Mann, involving a cash and land subsidy for a railway from Peace river to Teslin.

R. J. Davidson, one of the oldest merchants of Newmarket, Ont., having been in business there for thirty years, is dead, aged fifty-six years.

Radcliffe, the hangman, has arrived at Joliette and all preparations for Nulty's execution made.

It Was Not Dear Old Kingston.

Montreal Witness.

Great Britain's world-wide empire has had the effect of interesting the British the world over in geography, or at least in maps, so that the British press at least makes few egregious blunders in regard to foreign lands. The worst we have seen was a telegram dated Kingston in a leading British paper, telling about some appearance of warships to which a foot-note appeared gravely saying that this was probably Kingston, Ont., but the news lacked confirmation. With the Germans the desire for colonial empire is a new passion, and they have not yet had time to study up. A correspondent sends an exchange the following quotation from the Colonge Gazette as a sample of what is possible still among the best informed and most influential German newspapers: "At Cavite, early in the morning, began the conflict, in which the shore batteries of Havana and Matanzas took part."

School Of Mining.

The governors of the school met yesterday in WHIG building. The budget of the year was considered. The salaries remain as before, with the exception of civil engineering. A full professorship of general engineering will be established instead of partial lectures, making the faculty complete. The extra salary has been provided for by the government grant of $1,500 extra. As the expenditure last year exceeded the revenue a saving of $837 in the general expense account has been planned. The professors were granted $1,000 for departmental expenditure, in accordance with closely considered estimates. The arrangement with Queen's university regarding the mechanical workshops was discontinued, and the mining students will pay the university annual fees for its use and lectures.

No Inquest Was Necessary.

Mrs. Bender, Long Lake, was found dead in bed early Tuesday morning, and having been in her usual health on Monday, some suspicion of foul play was entertained and word was sent to this city for Dr. E. Mundell, coroner. The old lady, aged sixty-five years, lived alone, four miles from Parham. Her dead body was discovered by her son, Walter P. Bender, who called in the morning to take milk to the cheese factory. Her farm consisted of over one hundred acres. Dr. Mundell went out yesterday morning, but found that an inquest was unnecessary, as death was due to natural causes.

Church Burned To The Ground.

INGERSOL, May 19.—About two o'clock this morning the Baptist church was found to be on fire. When the firemen reached the scene it was impossible to enter the church. The men directed streams of water through the windows. Their efforts did not avail. At four o'clock nothing but the bare walls remained. The church was erected eight years ago at a cost of $14,000. It contained a fine pipe organ and was fitted in modern style. The insurances were $8,000 on the building, $1,000 on the organ and $1,000 on the fittings and furniture.

The Late Mrs. Malone.

On Tuesday evening Mrs. Malone, wife of Capt. A. H. Malone, and sister of the late Col. Phillips, died at her late residence, corner of Brock and Frontenac streets, after a lingering illness. A husband, two sons, William, of Montreal, and F. Harcourt, of this city, and one daughter, Edith, at home, survive to mourn the loss of an affectionate wife and mother. Two sisters, Mrs. S. Anglin and Miss Fannie Phillips, of this city, and a brother, Francis Phillips, Toronto, also mourn her departure. The funeral was conducted privately to Cataraqui cemetery.

Frontenac Cheese Board.

A regular meeting of the Frontenac cheese board was held in Congress hall this afternoon with president Lake in the chair. There were boarded for sale 874 colored and 450 white cheese. The buyers present were Messrs. Bissell, Thompson, Murphy and Brentnell. Bidding opened at 7¼ cents and closed at 7⅜ cents, the Ontario factory selling thirty cheese at that price to L. W. Murphy. The buyers, by resolution, decided to allow one half pound on each cheese for shrinkage.

Just "Practical Friendliness."

WINDSOR, Ont, May 10.—Thomas Hutchins, a well-known resident of South Woodslee, returned to his home yesterday afternoon, having been turned back by the immigration agents at Detroit. He had money and a couple of good suits of clothes and told the officers that he was not under contract with any United States firm but that he might take employment if he got a chance. He wanted to go to Cleveland.

Flags At Half-Mast.

The flags on the city buildings, the Golden Lion building, the WHIG building, and over mayor Livingston's store were flying at half-mast to-day out of respect to the memory of the late honorable W. E. Gladstone. The Ottawa government also directed that flags be hoisted at half-mast over all local government buildings, etc., until after the funeral of the late lamented statesman.

Remembered By The Choir.

The members of the choir of St. James' church presented Mrs. Maudson (nee Cousine), with a cabinet of solid silver spoons as a wedding gift. Mrs. Maudson was for years a leading member of St. James' church choir.

The horse Klondyke, to whose nervousness is due the untimely death one of Canada's foremost sons, D'Alton McCarthy, was taken out to the country and shot.

The Dominion line's new vessel, the Dominion, Capt. James, arrived at Montreal on her maiden trip yesterday.
