INFRINGED ON THE ROAD.

A SURVEYOR HAS DECIDED THAT THIS WAS THE CASE.

An Accident Averted That Might Have Been Serious—Many Visitors to the Village from all Parts of the Land—An Hotel Has Changed Hands.

ODESSA, Aug. 29.—The much needed rain has not yet come and everything is the shape of vegetation is suffering very much. Through the medium of a dozen correspondents or more, the editor of the WHIG will learn this week that the potato and other late crops which are not yet gathered will be failures on account of the continued drought. This section is no exception to the rule and the lack of rain is very much felt. Farmers say that in their recollection never was the ground drier. Ploughing is almost impossible, except in very low land. On Friday last the village was overhung by a very smoky, sultry atmosphere, which, added to the excessive heat, made things very oppressive. The smoke rose from the south, where a large fire must have been in progress. The day was an ideal one for the pessimistic ranter about the drought and the perversity of nature in general.

At the invitation of Noble Bond a large number of the young people of the village and vicinity picniced at Loughboro lake on Saturday last. Boating was the chief attraction, the lake being one of the prettiest to be found in the country. This outing is becoming an annual fixture and is always heartily enjoyed by all who attend. On Friday last an evening party was held at Bernard Twomey's in honor of Miss E. Golding, Watertown, at present visiting at Mr. Twomey's. A large number of guests were most agreeably and hospitably entertained by the hostess, Miss Twomey. All agreed in pronouncing the evening a most pleasant one.

Mrs. Alexander Laughlin met with quite a serious accident last Saturday night. While she was in her Gladstone in front of S. J. Walker's her horse became frightened at a bicycle, which suddenly came round the corner and started to run down street. Several men rushed from the Dominion hotel stoop and stopped the frightened horse so suddenly that Mrs. Laughlin was thrown out against the wheel. It was thought that she was very badly hurt. Dr. Meacham was called and it was found that no bones were broken but painful injuries sustained which will confine Mrs. Laughlin to the house for some time, perhaps. She remained at Mr. Walker's until Monday afternoon when she was able to be driven home. The rig was not at all injured. Joseph Fuller is erecting an addition to his house on Centre street which will add to the appearance of that locality when completed. A great deal of the Shedd patent fence is being built in this section by the farmers. It seems to be the very best that can be built. On Sunday evening next an address will be delivered in the Methodist church on missionary work, by Mrs. Sawyer, of Montreal. The address will be preceded by a short sermon. Albert Timmerman, wife and son, Edlia, of Springhill, N.S., are visiting their old home here. Mr. Timmerman has a good position in the offices of the Cumberland Coal Co. His many friends are glad to see him again.

Visitors: Miss Shorey, Newburgh, and Miss Lizzie Perry, Collinsby, at G. Watts'; Mrs. White and son, Madoc, at her father's, Jacob Gardiner; G. Baker, Syracuse, at Ira Smith's; Isaac Mabee, Phillipsston, and John Mabee, St. Catharines, at P. A. Mabee's, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Hastings, at Rev. Mr. Secoombe's; Frank Schultz and Charles Schultz, Kingston, at S. D. Babcock's.

The Babcock hotel changed hands last week. It now belongs to John Storms, he having traded his farm, near Wilton, for it, with the former proprietor, J. W. Babcock. W. Madden has already rented the hotel from Mr. Storms and will take possession in a week or so. Mr. Babcock moving to the farm. Sidney Silver met with a bad accident while coming home from Kingston one day last week. His horse ran away and threw him out, inflicting a couple of bad cuts on his face. The rig was quite badly smashed in the affair.

The Hicks brothers are building a race track on their farm just north of this village. No doubt before fair time something very fast in the line of trotters and pacers will be developed. A race track somewhere close to the village is the thing necessary for a good afternoon's sport on show day. Miss Sidanna Davy left yesterday for Kingston, where she enters the collegiate institute. Mrs. J. C. Fraser is at Markham visiting her daughter, Mrs. David Aylesworth. Guy Watts, cashier of the Standard Clothing Co., Syracuse, is in town visiting his grandfather, P. S. Timmerman, and other relatives. Guy has not visited his old friends and home for sometime and his friends are glad to see him looking so well. O. D. Lewis is about to improve his residence. He will raise it all round and will otherwise improve both in the interior and on the exterior. James Summers, of Buffalo, a railroad man of some prominence, who is now at William Milsap's, is putting in a few days exercise in painting Mr. Milsap's residence with a view to buying the farm. Mrs. Greenwood, of Roseburgh, Mich., arrived last week to assist at the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Sproule. We regret to say that this morning Mrs. Sproule is very ill, having suffered a relapse of her illness.

As Monday (Labor day) is a national and legal holiday it is probable that the public schools will be closed in observance of it. W. K. Hambly has returned from Westminster, B.C. He had some experience with the floods in that district this spring. The regular session of the township council was held in the town hall yesterday; all the members being present. Considerable business was done. A communication was received from the county clerk, showing assessment of township for county purposes to be $1,157,42, and for public schools, $847. On resolution it was decided not to buy the map of roads, etc., prepared by A. R. Davis. A grant of $50 was applied for by Amos Snider, president of the agricultural society, in behalf of the directors, to aid in increased premiums to exhibitors. A grant of $25 cash was made, and the use of the town hall free for the purpose of holding the show. The date of which will be finally decided on Saturday night next. Messrs. P. Miller and R. Davis, the committee on the town line repairs between the townships of Ernesttown and Kingston, in their report recommended that the sum of $50 be granted, provided the Kingston township council grant a similar amount, to be expended in cutting down the hills on this boundary road. The same committee were appointed to look after the expenditure of the grant. The committee appointed to deal with the infringement of the highway by parties along the road leading from the York road to the Odessa cheese factory reported that they had had a surveyor establish a line between lots 81 and 82, and that the claim of ratepayers was correct, that the road was infringed upon by those living on the west side of the road. The same committee was again appointed to complete the clearing of the said road with full power to act. This appointment was opposed by councillor J. P. Aylesworth. A number of minor accounts were passed. The following road orders were passed and ordered paid: R. Howard, $44; Eli Emmons, $115.56; E. O. Clark, $14.50; T. O. Fraser, $6; Allen Fraser, $6; Jason Hawley, $6.

FROM POOLE'S RESORT.

The Tourists Have Been Having a Good Time This Season.

POOLE'S RESORT, Aug. 28.—There are a larger number of tourists here than has been for years. Robert Poole's summer resort is full and he has to turn away a number; he accommodates about thirty-six. Capt. Joe Senecal has some thirty and expects more this week. Albert Knam and family, of Carrol, Iowa, are rusticating in Robert Vanston's cottage. Allen Cook, of Chicago, is at Mallorytown Landing. He is so well pleased with the place that he is going to buy some place to put up a cottage. We hear that W. P. Darley, of Rockport, has bought the McKechnie lot composed of centre part of lot No. 24, Escott, from the heirs of Mrs. McClean, Brockville. R. H. Heaslip, Mallorytown, had a slight attack of sunstroke one day last week but soon got over it. William Wilson and wife, of Watertown, spending a few weeks here visiting, left for home last Monday. John W. Thomson wore a smiling face to-day—it's a girl. Charles Hagerman, of the firm of Elliott & Hagerman, was another happy man. His good luck was a girl too. Albin T. Trickey, Mallorytown's champion painter, has been doing a fine piece of painting for Charles McDonald, of Quobin, in painting his boat, the Sky Lark, of La Rue's Mills. Mr and Mrs. Fowler, of Montreal, and party left for home after stopping in Mrs. Moore's cottage for six weeks. Miss Olive Monroe, Mallorytown, has rented Sheldon Haw's cottage on Point Pleasant and will occupy it during September and October. W. Davis, Easton's Corners, is at Poole's Resort visiting friends. Mr. Davis was Mr. Poole's general manager last year. Wilson Mallory, of Bravo Valley, has picked 200 pails of wild berries. He also has raised 500 bushels of onions off one acre. Who can beat him in onions and berries? Martin Kavanagh and lady, of Quabin were the guests of Frank Thomson, at the Rainbow cottage, LaRue's Mills, Sunday. Miss Mary Harmer, of Kingston, visiting friends here, has gone home. Mrs. Mary Root, of Gananoque, visiting relatives, has left for home. The Pond View house closes for the season on Saturday. It has had a large number of guests this summer. David and his wife are very well liked by everyone.

Many improvements render it invaluable to all who are interested in that party. "The Sentinel" is free from political partizanship and unsparingly opposes both parties in their deviation from religious independence. E. F. Clarke, as editor and proprietor, is a success in this line as in other things.

GOOD HEALTH

PULLING THE TONGUE.

By This Simple Means One May Be Roused From Apparent Death.

Professor Laborde of Paris has been working for some two years on a certain form of treatment for impending or apparent death, and everybody will be interested in the facts he has discovered, because any one may at any day find himself in a position to require the assistance they provide and to confer it on others. In brief, the facts are, according to a Paris correspondent of Popular Science News, as follows:

In any cases where death is impending, or when it seems even to have occurred, by asphyxia under any form, life may be restored and has been restored in many cases where other methods failed merely by pulling out the tongue of the patient, grasping it firmly and stretching it at regular intervals, say every 10 seconds, for instance, and then relaxing it without letting it go. Now and then, every second or third minute for instance, the process may be stopped in order to ascertain whether breathing has begun again. In a great number of cases, after a few stretchings of the tongue, which is firmly pulled out of the mouth, a spasmodic inspiration takes place. If a second one seems inclined to follow or does occur, one should try to have the succeeding pull coincide with the next inspiration and so until respiration seems to be able to go on of its own accord. By stopping the process for awhile, we can see whether breathing is restored. It may happen that one has to go on during half an hour or more, but in most cases success is obtained in a shorter time. The method may be applied to a drowned person or the victim of asphyxia by different gases, fire, etc.

A man recently was apparently killed by electric shock while dealing with wires in which a powerful current was running. To all appearance he seemed quite dead, but Professor Laborde's method brought him to life again. Of course this method cannot be of use in most cases of apparent death, but in all where asphyxia and nervous shock are concerned it should be applied.

The effect of pulling the tongue on the nerves is easily understood. The sensory nerves are stimulated, and this operates on the center of the spinal cord, whence it is reflected upon the motor nerves of respiration, which are thus made to contract.

In Visiting the Sick.

Bear in mind that the inmates of every home where there is sickness are unusually busy, having extra duties and cares, and therefore less time to entertain callers.

A call should never be undertaken unless you expect to make the recipient in some way feel the better for it.

When leaving at the door your card, flowers, or a kind word, verbal or written, it is better that you retire from the premises as soon as possible.

Never ring the doorbell or make any noise sufficiently loud to cause the patient to be aware of your presence; but make all necessary inquiries in the most quiet and unobtrusive manner.

Never enter the sickroom until you have the unqualified consent of the attending physician or nurse.

Never remain longer than your best judgment, with that of the attendant, agreed upon before entering, dictates. Do not speak of the malady or symptoms of the patient in his or her presence, if you can avoid it, but allude to the whole matter of the sickness in the most general way, expressing entire confidence and hope in as speedy a recovery as possible, says The Healthy Home, in which is formulated the foregoing practical piece of advice.

Cure For Mosquito Bites.

The best antidote for the bite of a mosquito is undoubtedly ammonia weakened with a little water or salt and water. Some people go so far as to press the poison out of the bite with some small metal instrument like the point of a watch key before applying the antidote. This prevents the painful swelling that sometimes occurs. As in other cases, "one man's meat is another man's poison," and the same remedy will not apply to all individuals. Some find camphor most efficacious, and salt and water will not avail. Ammonia, however, seems to be generally successful as a neutralizer of the mosquito poison.

A Friendly Contest.

SEELEY'S BAY, Aug. 28.—The dredge left here for Kingston Mills, last Wednesday, to repair the dam there. It is expected to return here, as the job was not more than half finished. Cottage prayer meetings are being held every evening in the village. Two ladies of christian Israelite persuasion gave an interesting discussion on the second coming of Christ on the street last Saturday evening. William Reid is painting and otherwise improving his house. Mrs. Alfred Chapman was taken very ill last Friday, but has taken a change for the better. William Gainford, student of the business college at Brockville, is home on a short vacation. Work on the new butter factory will commence next week. Owing to the continued dry weather wells in this section are beginning to fail. Mrs. C. Brady is visiting friends at Portsmouth. Mrs. E. Coleman and Mrs. R. Moulton have presented their respective husbands with a young daughter each. A friendly match game of football was played here last Saturday between Seeley's Bay and Inverary teams. Seeley's Bay won the game after a hot contest, the score standing 3 to 0. After the game the boys took tea at the Queen's hotel.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

Effect wonderful cures of bad legs and wounds. If these medicines be used according to the directions which are wrapped round each pot and box, there is no wound, bad leg or ulcerous sore, however obstinate, but will yield to their curative properties. Numbers of persons who had been patients in the large hospitals, and under the care of eminent surgeons, without deriving the least benefit have been cured by Holloway's Ointment and Pills, when other remedies had signally failed. For glandular swellings, tumors, scurvy and diseases of the skin their is no medicine that can be used with so good an effect. Though potent for good, it is powerless for harm; and though the cure it effects is rapid, it is also complete and permanent.

Damaged By Fire.

BERGEN MILLS, Aug. 27.—Bush fires are raging around here and the air is so full of smoke that the sun is scarcely visible. James Valler's house caught fire last Friday and it, with its contents, would have been consumed but for the prompt response of the fire brigade, headed by our efficient chief, John Valler, who placed his men in their proper places. The roof and upper flat of the house were destroyed. The most of the furniture was removed. Some of it was badly damaged by water and smoke. A young man who attended the Free Methodist meeting at Zion last night stepped up to a married lady and asked the privilege of accompanying her home, thinking it was his best girl. The answer came quick and sharp, "No." He was nearly paralyzed with astonishment and is still wondering what fellow won the affections of his sweetheart.
